Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

We celebrate this weekend the Feast of Epiphany.

What does Epiphany mean? As many of you know, Epiphany means appearance or revelation. It means a showing, a direction for our search. And interestingly enough, the scriptures imply it's a search that everyone must make. Luke, in the Gospel, has the poor searching in the form of shepherds. Matthew, in his Gospel, has the learned and rich searching in the form of the Magi. So the message is that there is room for everybody in this search for life's meaning and purpose, from no degrees to PhD's, from shepherds to executives.

And so to the Magi. They are three searchers who did not find the answer to life in their horoscopes, but took a long and difficult journey to another country in search of the Christ.

The Feast of the Epiphany means finding Christ. It is not a one-time thing. Rather, finding the Lord is a life long quest, like a marriage or a profound friendship. And we, like the Magi, gather to focus on the One who loves us and abides with us. The more we connect the way of Jesus with our story—if searching is our road, then finding will be our home.

Epiphany is about dreams, hopes, searching and direction. The destination is not as critical as the journey. In our life, what are we searching for and what are we finding? We sometimes seek happiness in all the wrong places. Dream big dreams! However, in our search, always keep our eyes fixed on the Lord Jesus Christ and doors will open we never dreamed possible.

Reflect upon the following powerful story And pass it on

Two Horses

(Author Unknown)

Just up the road from my home is a field, with two horses in it. From a distance, each horse looks like any other horse. But if you stop your car, or are walking by you will notice something quite amazing Looking into the eyes of one horse will disclose that he is blind. His owner has chosen not to have him put down, but has made a good home for him. This alone is amazing. If you stand nearby and listen, you will hear the sound of a bell. Looking around for the source of the sound, you will see that it comes from the smaller horse in the field. Attached to the horse's halter is a small bell. It lets the blind friend know where the other horse is, so he can follow. As you stand and watch these two friends, you'll see that the horse with the bell is always checking on the blind horse, and that the blind horse will listen for the bell and then slowly walk to where the other horse is, trusting that he will not be led astray. When the horse with the bell returns to the shelter of the barn each evening, it stops occasionally and looks back, making sure that the blind friends isn't too far behind to hear the bell. Like the owners of these two horses, God does not throw us away just because we are not perfect or because we have problems or challenges. He watches over us and even brings others into our lives to help us when we are in need. Sometime we are the blind horse, being guided by the little ringing bell of those in our lives. Other times we are the guide horse, helping others to find their way Good friends are like that . . . You may not always see them, but you may trust that they are always there. Please listen for my bell and I will listen for yours.

And remember . . .

Be kinder than necessary . . . Most everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle.
Live simply, Love generously, Care deeply, Speak kindly . . . And leave the rest to God!
May God's face always ring a bell!

Walking with you,

Fr. Greg

P.S. Words cannot express my deepest thanks for all who were involved in making our Christmas liturgies so prayerful and beautiful. The music was fantastic and the environment was exceptional. Thank you to all!

Stewardship

See the Lord in a new light.

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Epiphany. The word "epiphany" comes from the Greek epiphainen, a verb that means "to shine upon," "to manifest," or "to make known." What the Church celebrates today is the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ to the whole world; after being made known to the shepherds of Bethlehem, He is revealed to the Magi who have come from the East to adore Him.

The Epiphany should be and is a great Feast for us. The joy we felt at the birth of Christ on Christmas must be renewed today. In a sense this is a second Christmas Day as it puts the Lord in a new light. This day manifests the divinity of Jesus. At Christmas it was a few shepherds who were invited by the Angels to go and witness and recognize the Lord.

However, today, at the Epiphany, the voice of God calls the whole world, each and every one of us, to adore Jesus, and to hear Him. The Epiphany or the realization of the divinity and saving grace of the Lord should lead us as individuals to a personal epiphany. In a sense an epiphany is representative of conversion, conversion to the truth.

If we accept Christ as our Savior and if we truly strive to live our lives as His disciple, we begin to pursue lives of stewardship, lives of love and service. Today of all days should help us in that realization and in that goal.

Let Us Continue to Pray for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Dear Friends,

Having just celebrated my last Christmas Mass at the Altar with our family of faith called Holy Name Cathedral, I am very aware of the gift that ministry at the Cathedral has been in my life. Filled with joy from our many liturgies and celebrations of this blessed season I want to extend a personal thank you to the many people who assist me in making our liturgies faith-filled, joyful, glorious celebrations of encounter with Christ.

First to Cardinal Blase and my brother priests of the Cathedral, who have heard hours of confessions, offered numerous Masses and made sure that beautiful homilies were preached throughout Advent and in the Christmas Season. I thank you for you the brotherhood we share and the way in which you offer care and love to all those who walk through our Cathedral doors. You inspire me to be a better priest.

To my liturgy department staff, Julie Berggren, David Jonies, John Lee, Michelle Peltier and Ricardo Ramirez thank you for the tireless hours you have put into the various ministries which you shepherd in making sure all of the boxes were checked so we could celebrate Christmas in an organized fashion. You labor in this section of the vineyard with the Lord at the very center of what you do and that is a tremendous gift to personally see, and a tremendous gift for our people to receive.

The Liturgy Council I am blessed to collaborate with vision Liturgy with me every month and constantly challenge one another to do things that are new and exciting so our prayer might be accessible to each person who enters our Cathedral. This volunteer group of people offers a remarkable gift to our Cathedral and I am blessed to minister with Janice Klich, Barbara Ramberg, Donna Ciszewski, Ron Birch, Darren Milanowicz, Robin L. Brown, Stephanie McIntyre, and Rich Costa who collaborate with our liturgy staff of Ricardo Ramirez, Julie Berggren, and Michelle Peltier.

To all of my fabulous liturgical ministers: Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Ushers, Ministers of Hospitality, Ministers of Care, Docents, Sacristans, Cathedral Servers and our many Cantors, Musicians and Instrumentalists. You make sure that the Word of God is proclaimed profoundly and from a place of personal encounter. You make sure that as the host is raised before the eyes of those in our communion lines it is done with reverence and with joy—for you yourself have encountered Christ in the bread and wine now called Eucharist. You offer generous hospitality and warmth as you greet our congregation and make sure they find a seat in our House of Prayer for they are an honored guest. You welcome those who seek to learn more about the beauty that is found in this sacred landmark in our city through your love of this Cathedral. You make sure that the music is sung and played exquisitely for it is not just another piece of music but a sung prayer that makes the spirit soar. You make sure that flowers and plants and fabric are included in the Cathedral so that we might experience a foretaste of what is to come in the Kingdom of God through art and environment. You make sure the needed liturgical supplies are readily available and set so that our prayer might be done with the beauty it deserves. You make sure that our cross and candles are carried in procession with dignity making us all aware that we as one journey toward the Altar to encounter Christ through Word, Sacrament, Song and Community.

As our Christmas Season comes to an end may each of us continue to be swaddled, just as the infant lying in the manger, in the love, mercy and peace that comes from the Word Made Flesh. May the presence of the Savior-- "Wonderful, Counselor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace"-- fill your hearts with joy throughout this New Year.

Your Grateful Director of Liturgy,

Father Brad
