Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

We are still six weeks away from the “official” start of spring. It has been a somewhat mild winter, but all of our spirits are raised as we begin to see daylight extending into the start of the dinner hour.

Seasons do change and so do the seasons of our lives which also take on new colors and meaning as we grow older. It is important to see and experience the “seasonal changes” of our lives and never to focus only on the past. Too many of us live in the past or only focus on the future. We all carry a past (the saint and sinner in us all) and the hopes of a future where our dreams come true. Yet, God is found in the present moment connecting the past with the future. If we are not happy now then when? Do I judge too quickly not seeing the whole picture?

I share with you a story recently given to me. It is worth reading And passing on . . .

There was a man who had four sons. He wanted his sons to learn not to judge things too quickly, so he sent them each, in turn, on a quest to go and look at a pear tree that was a great distance away. The first son went in the winter, the second in the spring, and third in summer, and the youngest son in the fall. When they had all gone and come back, he called them together to describe what they had seen.

The first son said that the tree was ugly, bent and twisted. The second son said no, it was covered with green buds and full of promise. The third son disagreed; he said it was laden with blossoms that smelled so sweet and looked so beautiful, it was the most graceful thing he had ever seen. The last son disagreed with all of them; he said it was ripe and drooping with the fruit, full of life and fulfillment. The man explained to his sons that they were all correct because each had seen only one season in the tree’s life.

He told them that you cannot judge a tree—or a person—by only one season, and that the essence of who they are and the pleasure, joy and love that come from life can only be measured at the end, when all the seasons are up. If you give up when it’s winter, you will miss the promise of your spring, the beauty of your summer, the fulfillment of your fall.

Conclusions:

Don’t let the pain of one season destroy the joy of all the rest.

Don’t judge life by one difficult season.

Persevere through the difficult patches and better times are sure to come some time or later.

The lesson of the pear tree contains a Gospel message for all of us. We have all experienced the different seasons in our lives. Even Jesus experienced the joys and pains of life all the way to the Cross. However, Jesus trusted God his Father, and all of us are invited to do the same. And, by the way, a life filled with love, forgiveness, sharing, compassion, mercy, faith and joy is always in season!

No Jesus, No Peace—Know Jesus, Know Peace,

Fr. Greg

P.S. Special congratulations to the following parishioners who give of themselves as members of the Board of Advisors to Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago. I am pleased to say our Cathedral parish supports one of the finest institutions in the Archdiocese in their work to strengthen and support individuals, families, and communities based on the value and dignity of human life. I am happy to acknowledge and congratulate the following parishioners for their service: Mary Cahillane, William Conaghan, Rita & Ralph Dado, Charles Naso, Sandra Olson, Michael Toolis, Timothy Whiting, Ivy Wong, and Clifford Yuknis. Thank you for all you do and know our prayers are with you.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF

Annual Catholic Appeal 2017

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal. Ushers will be handing out Appeal brochures after Masses this weekend. Remember the Annual Appeal's request is much different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

The ACA theme, "Love your Neighbor as Yourself," was selected to remind us that our contributions to the Annual Catholic Appeal enable the funded ministries and services to share God's love with many others in our parish, our Archdiocese, and throughout the world.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services. After the Cathedral meets our goal of $176,175 in cash, 100% of any additional funds come back to our parish to help fund our needs. While the Cathedral looks and sounds terrific, we need your help more than ever to sustain our ministries and programs. With a budget that is in deficit this fiscal year, every dollar counts as we plan for the future together.

To make your pledge online, go to www.archchicago.org

Please note Holy Name Cathedral as your parish.

Thank you in advance for your generous support of the Annual Catholic Appeal.

Cathedral Lenten Retreat

Save the dates of March 6, 7, 8, 2017 for our Lenten Retreat with Father Tom McCarthy, O.S.A. as he speaks about "Treasures of our Faith: The Seven Sacraments." Each night of the retreat will be preceded by a simple meal of soup and bread at 6:00 p.m. followed by the Retreat in the Cathedral at 7:00 p.m.

Night #1- The Sacraments of Initiation

Where do you feel comfortable and welcome? Why did Jesus like to party so much? Do you know who the lost member of the Trinity is? What do bowling shoes have to do with Confirmation? These questions and many more will be pondered and hopefully answered on Monday night. Will you be there to find the answers or will you miss out and wonder forever?

Night #2—The Sacraments of Healing

Why is Hollywood boycotting Vatican II? What is the difference between the 5th and 6th Commandments? Find out why the Chicago Police Department will be flooded with calls on Tuesday night. You do not want to miss this night—come and find out why!

Night #3—The Sacraments of Vocation

Find out why you should never get married. Come and get your dishtowel. If you are alive. If you are male or female. If you are young or old or somewhere in between. If you are a bishop, priest, deacon, sister, brother, or lay minister. If you are married, divorced, widowed, or single. If you have said yes to your vocation or if you are still wondering what it is. You need to be in Church on Wednesday night!

You can contact Thomas Aspell, Director of Children's Faith Formation, via e-mail at taspell@holynamecathedral.org for more information. Baptisms for adults are a part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. You can contact Jennifer Delvaux, Director of Faith Formation, via e-mail at jdelvaux@holynamecathedral.org

Marriage: You must be a currently registered member of Holy Name Cathedral in order to be married at the Cathedral. Please allow at least six months prior to the wedding date you desire before making any other plans. Consult our website for more information on celebrating the sacrament of matrimony at the Cathedral

Ministry of Care: If you or your loved one is sick or homebound and unable to attend Mass with us, a trained Minister of Care can bring you Communion. Contact Julie Berggren, Director of Pastoral Care, at jberggren@holynamecathedral.org
