Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Our Lenten journey to the Cross continues with the Lord. However, the Cross of Christ does not end in death and defeat, but is a victorious Cross of life—life so abundant we call it eternal.

Why Lent? Why these 40 days? Lent is an opportunity to see life through a different lens. We all get into ruts. At times our life goes into a slump. Lent is a splendid time to squarely face ourselves in the mirror and see our life through the eyes of Christ—the Lord’s perspective. The following story beautifully illustrates how our perspective can help us see life in a fresh way.

One day a father of a very wealthy family took his son on a trip to the country with the firm purpose of showing his son how poor people can be. They spent a couple of days and nights on the farm of what would be considered a very poor family.

On their return from their trip, the father asked his son, “How was the trip?” “It was great, Dad.”

“Did you see how poor people live?” the father asked. “Oh Yeah,” said the son.

“So what did you learn from the trip?” asked the father.

The son answered, “I saw that we have one dog and they had four.”

“We have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden and they have a creek that has no end.”

“We have imported lanterns in our garden and they have the stars at night.”

“We have a small piece of land to live on and they have fields that go beyond our sight.”

“Our patio reaches to the front yard and they have the whole horizon.”

“We have people who serve us, but they serve others.”

“We buy our food, but they grow theirs.”

“We have walls around our property to protect us; they have friends to protect them.”

With this the boy’s father was speechless.

Then his son added, “Thanks Dad, for showing me how poor we are.”

Too many times we forget what we have and concentrate on what we don’t have in life. What is one person’s worthless object is another’s prize possession. It is all based on one’s perspective. Makes you wonder what would happen if we all gave thanks to God for all we have been provided by Him, instead of worrying about wanting more.

Lent is the time to put our life into perspective—and let the Lord Jesus take us by the hand and guide our journey.

Continuing the journey with you,

Fr. Greg

Stewardship

Open your heart and mind.

Our Gospel Reading recounts the Transfiguration as reported by Matthew. All three of the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) give an account of this. St. Thomas Aquinas called the Transfiguration Jesus' "greatest miracle" in part because it is a miracle performed on Jesus Himself.

Jesus was transfigured in the presence of three of His Apostles: Peter, James, and John. To be "transfigured" implies that the Lord was completely transformed, not just in how He appeared but absolutely, inwardly as well. Jesus became so dazzlingly bright that it was difficult to look on Him. It was like looking directly at the sun.

During our time in Lent, we are called to a type of transformation. In our cases it is more inward than outer. God asks us to try to seek conversion of mind and heart. Yet, only God can truly cause this type of conversion; so we must be open to it for it to occur.

Stewardship is closely associated with conversion. People who give of themselves to build the Kingdom of God are disciples of the Lord. To be a disciple, we must follow Jesus' example and teachings. His way of life literally becomes our way of life. That transformation can present challenges, but it also offers extreme joy. Stewardship challenges us to make conscientious decisions about our lives. Stewardship calls each of us to account for what God has given us, not only for the sake of knowing how much we have and how God has blessed us, but also to know how much God is calling us to share what He has given us with others.

And faithful hearts are raised on high, By this great vision's mystery For which in joyful strains we raise The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise. The Choirs of Ransomed Israel

Charles Wood

The choirs of ransom'd Israel, The Red Sea's passage o'er, Uprais'd the hymn of triumph Upon the further shore; And shouted, as the foeman Was whelm'd beneath the sea "Sing we to Judah's Saviour, For glorified is he." Upon the Mount of Tabor The promise was made good; When, baring all the Godhead, In light itself he stood: And they, in awe beholding, The Apostolic three, Sang out to God their Saviour, For magnified was he. All hours and days inclined there, And did thee worship meet; The sun himself adored thee, And bow'd him at the feet: Whole Moses and Elijah Upon the Holy Mount, The coeternal glory Of Christ our God recount. O holy, wondrous vision! But what, when, this life is past, The beauty of Mount Tabor Shall end in heav'n at last? But what, when all the glory Of uncreated light Shall be the promised guerdon Of them that win the fight?
