Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

There are times in our lives when we experience or feel God's presence and closeness. However, life is a roller coaster and times occur when we feel alone and God seems disconnected and distant from our lives. Faith is a gift and needs to be accepted and cultivated. Relationships take time and are fragile. Great friends work hard at nurturing and deepening their relationship. Families also have to work at cultivating their love for one another and the need for forgiveness.

Faith and love are gifts from God. For that matter, all is gift, but whenever we have a gift we must have a giver. Our faith says God is the giver of all gifts. Do we recognize the many gifts around us? Am I so turned inward on my own pain, loneliness and bitterness that I miss the joy and beauty around me? Ponder the following

God, Speak to Me

The man whispered, "God, speak to me"
And a blue bird sang.
But the man did not listen.

So the man yelled, "God, speak to me"
And thunder rolled across the sky.
But the man did not hear.

So the man cried out in despair,
"Touch me God and let me know that you are here."
Whereupon God reached down and touched him.
But the man brushed the butterfly away and walked on.

Don't miss out on God's blessings just because they aren't packaged the way you expect them to be. Lent is a wonderful opportunity to let God touch and work through us. How? All is gift! Give it away! Give it away! True joy is experienced when one realizes all is gift from God and makes their life a gift to others.

Lenten Blessings,

Fr. Greg

P.S. A Blessed and Happy Birthday to Cardinal Blase Cupich! Know our prayers are with you.

P.P.S. Enjoy and Share

Wrong Email Address: A lesson to be learned from typing the wrong email address!

A Minneapolis couple decided to go to Florida to thaw out during a particularly icy winter. They planned to stay at the same hotel where they spent their honeymoon 20 years earlier. Because of hectic schedules, it was difficult to coordinate their travel schedule, so the husband left Minnesota and flew to Florida on Thursday, with his wife flying down the following day. The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an email to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter in her email address and, without realizing his error, sent the email. Meanwhile, somewhere in Houston, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a minister who was called home to glory following a heart attack. The widow decided to check her email, expecting messages from relatives and friends. After reading the first message, she screamed and fainted. The widow's son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor, and saw the computer screen, which read:

To: My Loving Wife
Subject: I've Arrived
Date: March 3, 2015

I know you're surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send emails to your loved ones. I've just arrived and have been checked in. Everything is set for your arrival tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then! Hope your journey is as uneventful as mine was. P.S. . . . Sure is hot down here!

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

All strike their breast as they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

There is a Fountain

Wendell Whalum

There is a fountain filled with blood, drawn from Emmanuel's veins; and sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains. The dying thief rejoiced to see that fountain in his day; and there may I, though vile as he, wash all my sins away. Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood shall never, never lose its pow'r till all the ransomed church of God be saved, to sin no more. E'er since by faith, I saw the stream thy flowing wounds supply, redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be till I die. There is a fountain filled with blood, drawn from his veins; and sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains. Amen.

Let Us Continue to Pray for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.
