Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

I have the best Mother in the whole world! My Mother is loving, caring, humorous, compassionate, faith-filled, always giving and my best friend. Several years ago, I asked Mom her definition of Motherhood. She paused and simply said: "A willingness to be inconvenienced."

As a child, I took my Mother for granted. Mom is Mom—you know, the one who picks up after you, cooks, cleans, drives you to baseball, football and basketball practice, rushes you to emergency rooms for stitches, stays on your case for three hours to clean your room when she could have completed the task in fifteen minutes, and serves as a referee between my brother and sisters. The list is endless. But in the last ten years, I have come to more deeply appreciate the gift of my Mother. We sometimes have to gain the wisdom of the years to help us better understand the gifts God has given us.

I can only "see" mothering through the eyes as a son. What goes through the minds and hearts of all our Mothers? What are we celebrating today on this Mother's Day? I recently received this powerful poem entitled: "A Message for Young Mothers" by Mary Costello which I would like to share with all of you.

A Message for Young Mothers (Things I wish I'd known)

I've learned a lot in my old age. I've even learned a thing or two about myself.

I used to think I was a terrible housekeeper because I could never keep up with the laundry, the dirty ice cream bowls on the counter-tops, the newspapers on the floor. One year, when we finally got to the bottom of the piles in the laundry room, we found clothes that hadn't fit anybody in years. In fact, we found shorts and shirts we have never seen before.

There was a time when I couldn't find a safety pin or a sewing needle or a piece of blank paper to leave someone a message, much less a pen to write with. I thought I was a rotten manager. Why didn't I have more drive or ambition? I tried not to make commitments. When I did, I let people down. I'd promise to go to a meeting, for example, and chair a committee. Then I'd have to cancel at the last minute because the baby got sick.

For years, I thought I was a terrible person because I could never say a prayer without an interruption, and even if I didn't have an interruption, I could only pray about things like "Please, Lord, let the stain in this shirt come out. It cost too much to be ruined." Then the kids grew up and left home.

I found I was not a terrible housekeeper; rather, I'd been surrounded by a bunch of normal, wonderful messy kids. I hadn't had any energy because I had been working very hard. I wasn't even a rotten manager; it's just not possible to keep up with so many people.

I wish I'd know that then! I wish I had been able to acknowledge that it is OK to have dishes on the counter and newspapers on the floor because the most important thing is rocking a baby.

I wish I had been able to say: "I'm terribly sorry I cannot come to your meeting. Maybe someday I'll be able to get involved and make a contribution toward a more loving world. But right now I have to stay at home and make sure we have a loving world here on Bradfield Drive."

I wish I would have understood that Jesus was saying: "When you rock that baby and sing that baby to sleep, that is your very best prayer. By loving that child, you are loving Me. All I ask of you right now is to model my love for your partner and your children. All I expect you to do today is love."

We are called to love. That's all. I wish I had realized it earlier.

God has truly blessed my family through the love, care and patience of our Mother. Mom, I love you very much, and yes, I have inconvenienced you a thousand times.

A Blessed, Joyous and Peaceful Mother's Day to all our Moms and to all women who love in a motherly way.

Forever grateful,

Fr. Greg

Please join us for a fond farewell to Fr. Bradley Zamora,

Boost Your Beliefs

Tuesday, May 30, 2017; 6:30 p.m.

Discipleship in a Multicultural Church

Fr. Mark Francis, C.S.V., President of Catholic Theological Union will speak on how the past several decades the Catholic Church in the U.S.

has been enriched by people from Latin America, Asia, and Africa. How can we welcome the gifts they bring and integrate their spirituality and contributions into our own practice of the faith?

Join us in the cafeteria for the last of this spring's Boost Your Beliefs.

Weekly Bible Study

This Easter Season, consider joining the Bible Study. All are welcome to drop in to any session. This is a great way to continue your spiritual journey and form friendships with your fellow parishioners.

Join us for an opportunity to explore the readings of Sunday Mass. Bible study is every Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Club Room.

Women's Ministry

All women are invited to join the Women's Spirituality Group each Saturday morning for Lectio Divina. Join us in the Rectory at 8:30 a.m. to reflect on Sunday's Gospel. Feel free to drop in any week. This is a warm and inviting group.

If interested in any of these programs contact Jennifer Delvaux, or Fr. Don Cambe

Teaching Mass

June 8, 6:30 pm

Those who would be interested in learning more about the Mass are invited to register for the next Teaching Mass. Spaces are limited, so reserve your spot online:

<https://teachingmassjune17.eventbrite.com>

If you attended our last one, we ask that you allow others to register first, and wait until after June 5 to inquire regarding space.

Interested in Becoming Catholic? Seeking to become fully Catholic through the reception of first Eucharist and Confirmation?

We would love to talk with you regarding your interest, questions, and how you can move forward in your journey. If you would like to learn more about this, have questions about RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults), or other related questions, please contact the Faith Formation department.

Online Resources

Did you know the Faith Formation has a blog? You can find it online through the parish website or directly here:

The Faith Formation Commission has put together some recent content including a series on the Doctors of the Church.

Cathedral Events

Holy Name Apartment & Condo Mass

Holy Name Cathedral's new Rector, Fr. Greg, and the Parish Pastoral Council are bringing Mass to apartment and condo buildings in the parish's neighborhood. It is our way of bringing the faith to your homes with the hope of deepening your connection to Holy Name.

Our next Mass will be Thursday, May 25 for residents of 405 N. Wabash Avenue and includes Mass with a short social after and a chance to meet Fr. Greg and other members of the parish.

Since space is limited, please RSVP by May 18 to parishpastoralcouncilhnc@gmail.com.

A Matter of Life and Death Tuesday, June 6

This may be something you don't want to think about, but doing something about it will give you peace of mind and is an extraordinary gift for your family. The hard part is getting started.

Join us for this special evening to help you take the first step in putting together your personal End-of-Life plan. Our panel of experts will address questions you will want to answer to specify your wishes and preferences.

The unexpected happens - it isn't a matter of age or illness. We don't know when this plan will be needed. Parishioners of all ages are encouraged to join us, for yourself or for a family member. Doors open at 6:00 PM and will begin promptly at 6:20 PM.

For more details about the program and to register, go online to <https://tinyurl.com/ACTIIevent0606>.

All registrants will receive a package with helpful checklists, additional reading, and End-of-Life Plan templates.

Space is limited so sign up today!

Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton

Our next meeting is Sunday, May 21, at 12:00 PM in the rectory. Mark your calendars for our August 20 meeting when Bishop Joseph Perry will bless our icon of Fr. Gus (as commissioned by the Archdiocese) and update us on the canonization proceedings. Bishop Perry is the Postulator advancing the cause for Fr. Gus to become St. Gus.

Cathedral Filipino Network

Join us next Sunday, May 21, for our monthly meeting at 2:00 PM in the rectory. Though our usual meeting day is the second Sunday of each month, it was transferred to honor Mother's Day.

On behalf of the committee who planned last week's Festival of Filipino Faith, Thank You to those who participated and those who attended the event.

Look to the bulletin for the dates of future events such as our July picnic, our one day local pilgrimage, our December Simbang Gabi and January Santo Nino Mass.

Annual Clothing Drive

The Human Concerns Commission is hosting a clothing and small household items drive on Saturday, June 3 and Sunday, June 4 before and after every mass. Donations will benefit the St. Society of St. Vincent De Paul.

*Gently used and clean items will be accepted.

Please contact Lizveth for questions:
773-419-4408 or Lizveth@lizveth.com

We are also in need of volunteers for the clothing drive. Volunteers will work 30-minute shifts at the donation table set up at the entrance of the Cathedral. Shifts are before each weekend Mass.

If you would like to volunteer, please sign-up at <http://tinyurl.com/HNCclothingDrive>.

Holy Name Career Network

Are you in a position to hire people?

If so, our Human Concerns Commission wants to talk with you. For the past few years, our HCC committee, the Holy Name Career Network, has met with educated, accomplished and hardworking parishioners who are looking for a job or for the next job in their career.

Would you be willing to help them?

Our clients come from professions like finance,
accounting, software development, nursing, HR, library science, education and others. They have been resourced in interviewing skills, resume writing and networking. The last piece is a job itself. Everyone deserves a chance.

If you would be willing to continue this conversation, please contact Esther Leal at eleal@holynamecareernetwork.org or

Joe Wade at jwade@holynamecareernetwork.org

Thank you from Human Concerns

Thank you to everyone - our donors & volunteers - that participated in our Annual Food Drive! This year, we collected 17 cases and 15 shopping bags of food and raised over $5,200 for Catholic Charities' emergency food pantry. Thank you for making our efforts a success!

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 33

Lord, let your mer-cy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The word of the LORD is faithful,
and all his works to be trusted.

The LORD loves justice and right,
and his merciful love fills the earth. R.

Yes, the LORD's eyes are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,

to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.

May your merciful love be upon us,
as we hope in you, O LORD. R.

Holy Hour for Priestly Vocations

The Oblate Sisters of Jesus the Priest is the religious community who staff Holy Name Cathedral. They are a remarkable group of women whose primary mission is to pray for priests and vocations to the priesthood.

Beginning on Thursday, May 18 and every Thursday they invite you to join them for a simple Holy Hour for Vocations from 3:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. in the Cathedral.

Please consider joining our sisters in prayer every Thursday as, together, we pray for priests and for vocations to the priesthood.

Farewell to Father Bradley Zamora

In gratitude for the opportunity to share life and ministry with you at the Cathedral, before he moves to full-time ministry at Mundelein Seminary, join Father Brad for a Mass of Thanksgiving on Sunday, June 18 at 5:15 p.m. Light reception to follow in the Courtyard.
