Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Some years ago, I received these wonderful words from a parishioner who obtained a copy from a friend.

With summer still “officially” one month away, it is so easy to recognize seasons change and the seasons of our lives also change. No matter our age we are an Easter people. New life. New hope. New beginnings. Alleluia!

The following was written by Regina Brett, a columnist for the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Regina says, “to celebrate growing older, I once wrote the 35 lessons life taught me. It is the most requested column I’ve ever written.”

1. Life isn't fair, but it's still good.
2. Life is too short to waste time hating anyone.
3. Your job won't take care of you when you are sick. Your friends and parents will. Stay in touch.
4. You don't have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.
5. Cry with someone. It's more healing than crying alone.
6. It's OK to get angry with God. He can take it.
7. When it comes to chocolate, resistance is futile.
8. Make peace with your past so it won't screw up the present.
9. It's OK to let your children see you cry.
10. Don't compare your life with others. You have no idea what their journey is all about.
11. Everything can change in the blink of an eye. But don't worry. God never blinks.
12. Take a deep breath. It calms the mind.
13. Get rid of anything that isn't useful, beautiful or joyful.
14. Whatever doesn't kill you really does make you stronger.
15. It's never too late to have a happy childhood. But the second one is up to you and no one else.
16. When it comes to going after what you love in life, don't take no for an answer.
17. No one is in charge of your happiness but you.
18. Frame every so-called disaster with these words, “In five years, will this matter?”
19. Forgive everyone everything - Including self.
20. What other people think of you is none of your business.
21. Time heals almost everything. Give time, time.
22. However good or bad a situation is, it will change.
23. Don't take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
24. Believe in miracles.
25. God loves you because of who God is, not because of anything you did or didn't do.
26. Don't audit life. Show up and make the most of it now.
27. Growing old beats the alternative—dying young.
28. Your children get only one childhood.
29. All that truly matters in the end is that you loved.
30. Get outside every day. Miracles are waiting everywhere.
31. If we all threw our problems in a pile and saw everyone else's we'd grab ours back.
32. Envy is a waste of time. You already have all you need.
33. The best is yet to come . . .
34. No matter how you feel, get up, dress up and show up.
35. Life isn't tied with a bow, but it's still a gift.

And may I conclude with a resounding, “Amen!”

Blessings always,

Fr. Greg

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 66

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God, "How awesome your deeds! R.

He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.
Let our joy, then, be in him;
he rules forever by his might. R.

"Before you all the earth shall bow down,
shall sing to you, sing to your name!"
Come and see the works of God:
awesome his deeds among the children of men. R.

Come and hear, all who fear God;
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blest be God, who did not reject my prayer,
nor withhold from me his merciful love. R.

Holy Hour for Priestly Vocations

The Oblate Sisters of Jesus the Priest is the religious community who staff Holy Name Cathedral. They are a remarkable group of women whose primary mission is to pray for priests and vocations to the priesthood.

Every Thursday they invite you to join them for a simple Holy Hour for Vocations from 3:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. in the Cathedral.

Please consider joining our sisters in prayer every Thursday as, together, we pray for priests and for vocations to the priesthood.

Lectors

The Lector proclaims the Word of God to those gathered for worship. Our goal for lectors at Holy Name Cathedral is that hearing the Word of God proclaimed by our Lectors will open wide the doors to Christ for the faithful because of the love of scripture that stems from their ministry.
