Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

It is hard to believe May is coming to a close! How quickly the year is moving. How fast time seems to fly—especially the older one becomes.

As we continue our Easter Season, the joy of the Resurrection promises new life so abundant we call it Eternal Life. However, it is very important to take each day as a gift from God and live life to the fullest by serving our sisters and brothers.

I have always been known as a list maker. Since childhood, I have kept a list of all the variety of birds I have identified over the years. I keep a list of baseball cards from various years. I list all the Christmas gifts I need to purchase. The other day I discovered a list truly worth keeping so I am sharing it with you today.

- The greatest problem to overcome: fear.
- The most powerful force: love
- The greatest asset: faith.
- The most worthless emotion: self-pity.
- The most prized possession: integrity.
- The biggest barrier to success: excuses.
- The most satisfying work: helping others.
- The ugliest personality trait: selfishness.
- The deadliest weapon: an uncontrolled tongue.
- The greatest gift: encouragement.
- The greatest joy: giving.
- The most contagious spirit: enthusiasm.
- The one thing we can't live without: hope.

And I would like to add the gift of life from God is to be rooted in prayer, serving, forgiving, sharing (especially the poor) and humor! And Max Lucado in his book, Just Like Jesus, points to the gift of touch.

Oh, the power of a godly touch. Haven't you known it? The doctor who treated you, or the teacher who dried your tears? Was there a hand holding yours at a funeral? Another on your shoulder during a trial? A handshake of welcome at a new job? . . .

Can't we offer the same?

Many of you already do. Some of you have the master touch of the Physician himself. You use your hands to pray over the sick and minister to the weak. If you aren't touching them personally, your hands are writing letters, dialing phones, baking pies. You have learned the power of touch.

But others of us tend to forget. Our hearts are good; it's just that our memories are bad. We forgot how significant one touch can be . . .

Aren't we glad Jesus didn't make the same mistake?

We take so much for granted or our memories may forget the wonderful past events and focus only on the dark moments or regrets of our lives. Each of us could create our own lists worth keeping relating to living life to the fullest.

At the end of the day, we need to ask the question - "How much did I love and forgive this day?" then shut off the night lamp and know when you go to bed turn all your worries over to God, because God will be up all night anyway!

Enjoying Spring,
Fr. Greg

P.S. A Blessed Memorial day to all of you. We remember in prayer all who gave their lives for our country.

Stewardship

The Ascension of the Lord

Our first reading is from the Book of Acts. In fact, it is the beginning of that Book. Acts was written by St. Luke. It is a continuation of his Gospel in many ways. We do not learn that much about Luke from the New Testament. Most historians agree that he was a doctor; he was a Gentile; and he was a companion of St. Paul.

Acts is basically the continuation of Jesus' work as described in the Gospels. In effect it describes how the Good News traveled from Jerusalem to Rome. Our readings today are filled with reminders that Jesus' work is not completed. He commissioned His followers to continue it after His Ascension into Heaven. Among those commissioned so to speak is each of us.

The Lord's work continues from that day to today. However, for it to continue and for the love He shared and displayed to be the factor it needs to be in our parish and in the Church and in the world it is reliant upon us.

It was St. Teresa of Avila who wrote, "Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which He looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which He blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are His Body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours."

Paying on your To Teach Who Christ Is pledge?

Thank you for your support of Holy Name and the campaign. The best way to fulfill your pledge is to use the self-addressed envelope included with your periodic pledge reminders. Or you can mail your installments made payable to To Teach Who Christ Is to:

HNC Reunion

On Sunday, April 30 the Priests in residence invited every priest who once served at Holy Name Cathedral for an evening of food, drink and marvelous stories. Thirty-five priests were invited for this "historic" gathering and fourteen priests of all ages returned to the Cathedral where they once served the wonderful parishioners of Holy Name Cathedral in various ways. It was an evening I will always cherish in my heart. It is a joy and privilege serving with such great men both who staff our residence today and those who served in previous years. I would like to list all those who attended. You will recognize many of their names. Please keep all in your prayers and know our prayers are with this fantastic Holy Name Cathedral Faith Community.
