Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Last Sunday October 1, Jeff Greene was called to the Rite of Admission to Candidacy for Holy Orders (Order of Deacon) at the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception, University of Saint Mary of the Lake in Mundelein. Jeff is one of 27 men to be formally enrolled as deacon candidates for the archdiocese's Institute for Diaconal Studies.

In the rite, Jeff rises and publicly and freely answers two questions from the bishop: "In response to the Lord's call are you resolved to complete your preparation so that in due time you will be ready to be ordained for the ministry of the Church?" and "Are you resolved to prepare yourself in mind and spirit to give faithful service to Christ the Lord and His body, the Church?"

Candidacy is the first official recognition by the Church of the positive signs of his vocation to the diaconate, which must be confirmed in the next three years of formation—a period that includes spiritual formation and direction, theological reflection, pastoral ministry experiences, academic courses, human/personal development, field education, internships, and much more.

To get to this point in his formation, Jeff has journeyed through a one-year period of discernment called the Aspirancy Path that included prayer and spiritual formation sessions, a comprehensive course on the Catechism of the Catholic Church, days of reflection on the deacon's share in the bishop's ministries of Word, Liturgy and Charity, field experiences in ministering to a culturally diverse Church, a field education experience in Service to Charity, monthly spiritual direction, and two couples' retreats during which he prayed and reflected, with his family, over his possible call to the ordained ministry of deacon.

His wife, Amy, also was required to participate in this year of Aspirancy. Her goals were to learn more about the diaconate, and to discern whether she can continue to support her husband through the coming years of formation, and possibly as an ordained deacon. Wives are required to write a letter to Cardinal Cupich that notes their free, informed consent to their husbands' moving to the Candidate Path.

Overall, the diaconate is thriving in the Archdiocese of Chicago. There are about 500 active deacons, with 74 men currently in the four-year English-speaking formation program. Deacons are found in many parishes of the archdiocese, including our own Cathedral. We are blessed with Deacon Stan Strom, Michael McCloskey and Dan Welter. Yet a frequently asked question is, "What is a deacon?"

With bishops and priests, deacons receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders. They are full-time ordained ministers living in the midst of the world, most often with full-time careers outside the Church. Deacons may baptize, proclaim the Gospel and preach, assist at the Eucharist, witness marriages, officiate at wakes and funeral services, preside at Benediction, minister at other liturgical/prayer gatherings, offer blessings, and more. These are functions most visible in the parish.

But a more important question is, "Who is the deacon?" The deacon is an emissary of the bishop, "the bishop's ear, mouth, heart, and soul," as a Christian writer in the Patristic era described them. Once ordained, the deacon is assigned by the bishop to serve the people of God in whatever capacity is most needed by the Church, typically in the parish that helped him to discern vocation.

Therefore, diaconal ministry is a call to be configured to Christ the Servant—to stand in the midst of God's people and be a sacramental sign for all to emulate. A deacon's service includes a three-fold ministry: Service to the Word, Liturgy and Charity, and requires his active ministry in all three areas. This includes the aforementioned assisting at Mass and celebrating sacraments; evangelizing the Word by mouth and witness to the world; and caring for the poor, alienated, underrepresented, and neglected. Even in the workplace deacons are visible signs of Christ in the community.

Please keep Jeff, his wife Amy, all those in formation, and their families in your prayers that they might continue to answer God's call in their lives.

Congratulations and God's blessings on the journey, Jeff and Amy! Our prayers are with you.

With joy and gratitude,

Fr. Greg

Stewardship

“Thanks are the highest form of thought”

One of St. Paul’s favorite topics was prayer, and today’s reading from his letter to the Philippians is no exception to that. He says, “Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.” For Paul all topics are appropriate for prayer because we need to share and consult with the Lord about everything.

God knows what is on our minds already, of course, but He also desires that we make a conscious effort to communicate with Him on these subjects. In addition, Paul points out that our prayers need to be infused with thanksgiving. We should not just petition the Lord and make requests. It is equally important that we think about, identify, and acknowledge our blessings.

We have often pointed out that stewardship is a life of gratitude, a way of living which encourages us to focus on gifts, not on problems and challenges all the time. If we strive to have grateful hearts, our prayers come much more easily, and we tend to be much happier and more upbeat in our lives.

The noted author, philosopher, journalist, and theologian G. K. Chesterton is well known in Catholic circles because he converted to Catholicism during his life, and was an excellent conveyor of the faith. In terms of living grateful lives he said, “I would maintain that thanks are the highest form of thought; and that gratitude is happiness doubled by wonder.” That includes thanks to God.

Why should Catholics commemorate the Reformation?

Very Rev. Thomas A. Baima,
M.B.A., S.T.D.

Vicar for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs of the Archdiocese of Chicago

There are several reformations. Some of them occurred within the Catholic Church. All were animated by the desire to renew the Church in light of the Gospel. Join us to find out more about this complex story.

Movie Night

2017 marks the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. On October 31, 1517, an obscure German monk named Martin Luther published 95 theses for debate in Wittenberg, Germany. Please plan to join us for a screening of This Changed Everything, a three-hour documentary series produced by the Christian History Institute. Narrated by British actor David Suchet, the program tells the dynamic story of the people, places, and events that shaped the Reformation. It features expert commentary from Dr. Michael Horton, Dr. Frank James, Shane Claiborne, Bishop Robert Barron, and over twenty other scholars and clergy who bring new insight into how the church came to be where it is today and where it may go in the future.

Part I Wednesday, October 4th; Part II Tuesday, October 10th; Part III Wednesday, October 18th in the Parish Center Cafeteria starting at 6:30 PM.

October is the month of the holy rosary.

During this month, which the Church has chosen to devote to the rosary, we who know and love the rosary need to reflect on the rosary more each day. The rosary is the prayer in which Mary takes us by the hand and shows us the joys and sorrows of the life she shared with Her son, Jesus. The 13th of October in 2017 is the 100th anniversary of the miracle of the sun “dancing” at Fatima. This miracle was a sign for all that Mary cares for her children. At Fatima she asked us to pray the rosary and reminded us that with prayer and fasting we can change the course of worldly affairs. “I am the Lady of the Rosary. Continue to pray the rosary every day. The war is going to end, and the soldiers will soon return to their homes.” (Mary to Lucia. October 13 1917).

In our cathedral, Rosary devotion is every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday following the 5:15 p.m. Mass

Celebration of St Francis of Assisi and Blessing of the Animals

Last Sunday afternoon Father Marek and Deacon Dan celebrated our Annual Celebration of St. Francis of Assisi with an Outdoor Mass and the Blessing of Animals.

LECTORS

Proclaimers of the Word of God

The Lector is a proclaimer of the Word of God, and also a minister of hospitality by extending a welcome as a commentator to those gathered for worship. Our goal at Holy Name Cathedral is that hearing the Word of God proclaimed by our Lectors will open wide the doors to Christ for the faithful because of the love of scripture that stems from their ministry.

To become a Lector you need to be a Catholic in good standing having received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation), be at least age 16 or older, and have a desire to share your faith and an encounter with Christ through the words of scripture.

Contact Barbara Ramberg, Lector Coordinator, at barbararamberg@gmail.com or Father Marek Smolka, Director of Liturgy, mamolka@holynanamecathedral.org

The next Lector training will take place on Sunday, October 22nd, 29th, November 12th, 2017 at 3:00PM
