Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Life is difficult. Life is complicated. How many times have we told ourselves about the need to slow down and simplify life? The truth is we are the ones who are key to the pace and level of complexity of our own life. I realize our lives hold many demands and responsibilities. Our endless list includes making time for God and family, paying bills, cleaning house, raising children, working, shopping . . . and the list goes on and on.

An important part of my life is the need to pray—everyday. Prayer is communicating and staying in touch with A Dear Friend—The Lord God. I need to pray in order to keep life in balance. Prayer connects past, present and future and helps me keep life in perspective. Speaking of the past and keeping life in perspective, I would like to share with you the following:

I want to go back to the time when . . .

Decisions were made by going “eeny-meeny-miney-mo.”

Mistakes were corrected by simply exclaiming, “do over!”

Money issues were handled by whoever was the banker in “Monopoly.”

Catching the fireflies could happily occupy an entire evening.

Being old referred to anyone over 20.

The net on a tennis court was the perfect height to play volleyball and rules didn’t matter.

The worst thing you could catch from the opposite sex was cooties.

It was magic when dad would “remove” his thumb.

It was unbelievable that dodgeball wasn’t an Olympic event.

Nobody was prettier than mom.

Scrapes and bruises were kissed and made better.

It was big deal to finally be tall enough to ride a “big people” ride at the amusement park.

Getting a foot of snow was a dream come true.

Abilities were discovered because of a “double-dog-dare.”

Saturday morning cartoons weren’t 30-minute ads for action figures.

No shopping trip was complete unless a new toy was brought home.

“Oly-oly-oxen-free” made perfect sense.

Spinning around, getting dizzy and falling down was cause for giggles.

“War” was a card game.

Water balloons were the ultimate weapon.

Baseball cards in the spokes transformed any bike into a motorcycle.

Taking drugs meant orange-flavored chewable aspirin.

Ice cream was considered a basic food group.

Older siblings were the worst tormentors, but also the fiercest protectors.

If you can remember most or all of these, then you have Lived!!!

Tag! You’re it!

Pass this on to anyone who may need a break from their “grown up” life!

Smiling with you,

Fr. Greg

“We cannot wait!”

“Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” Christ cautions us often concerning our sense of conversion and timing. It has a lot to do with procrastination — that is, putting something off or delaying something which needs to be accomplished.

Most of us understand the importance of living up to Christ’s expectations and living life in a way to which He has called us. In other words, we comprehend that we need to be His disciples, but we seem to find excuses and reasons not to totally commit to that. That is exactly the issue Jesus is addressing in today’s Gospel from St. Matthew, which is essentially the Parable of the Ten Virgins. Are we truly prepared for the return of Christ, the Second Coming? In a sense it has everything to do with death. We may not wish to think about it but we do know that death is inevitable, and have we done everything we need to do to be prepared?

It was St. Augustine of Hippo who said, “God has promised forgiveness to your repentance, but He has not promised tomorrow to your procrastination.” Like the Virgins in the parable, we cannot wait. Now, this very moment, is the time for us to do what God has called us to do, and that is live lives of stewardship in service and love to others. There are indeed no promises about tomorrow, but Christ has offered us hope for eternal life. Have we done everything we need to do to be ready?

Finding Meaning in Suffering

Fr. Robin Ryan, CP

Wednesday, November 15, 2017

6 PM in the Parish Center

The reality of suffering impacts upon all of us, and as people of faith we grapple with its meaning. We will explore ways in which the experience of suffering has been reflected upon in Scripture and tradition. We will also discuss the insights of some contemporary theologians and spiritual writers on this topic. We will relate these insights to Christian life in a world where suffering abounds.

Fr. Ryan is a Passionist priest and theologian who serves as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology and Director of the Master of Arts in Theology program at Catholic Theological Union.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

When Pope Francis announced that the First World Day of the Poor would take place on November 19, 2017, he stated that, "Whenever we set out to love as Jesus loved, we have to take the Lord as our example; especially when it comes to loving the poor," reminding us once again that we should always care for our brothers and sisters affected by poverty.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development answers Christ's call to action by addressing the root causes of poverty and injustice in low-income communities through financial support of grassroots initiatives and transformative educational efforts. One such organization is the South Side Community Federal Credit Union. With the support of a CCHD grant, the SSCFCU has saved over 875 families from foreclosure through housing and credit counseling and has reinvested over $1 million in assets in the local economy through interest rate loans in neighborhoods that are otherwise vulnerable to high rates of poverty, unemployment, and financial instability.

By emphasizing self-help, participation, and cooperation, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development's holistic approach leads to increased human dignity and stronger, more economically viable communities. To learn more about CCHD's impact in our communities or to donate online, please visit www.CCHDChicago.org.

Your generous support of the CCHD Annual Collection, which will take place on Saturday, November 18 and Sunday, November 19, is the primary source of funding for over twenty organizations working to combat poverty and injustice in Cook and Lake Counties. It is my prayer that, as we prepare for the annual celebration of Thanksgiving Day, you consider contributing to CCHD through this secondary collection and keep its efforts in your thoughts and prayers. With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago
