Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

The Christmas trees have been taken down and the lights are stored for another year. Our Christmas Season came to a close last weekend, but the journey continues. The Christmas Season gives way to Ordinary Time (until we start our Lenten Season), but there is nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time! Winter is upon us and spring is still a long distance off.

The different seasons of the year reflect the seasons of our lives. We all seek answers no matter our age, but it is important to raise great questions from the depths of our heart. Reflect upon the following . . .

Prayer for a Questioning Heart

It seems to me Lord
that we search
much too desperately for answers
when a good question holds as much grace
as an answer.

Jesus
You are the Great Questioner.
Keep your questions alive
that we may always be seekers
rather than settlers.

Guard as well
from the sin of settling in
with our answers
hugged to our breasts.

Make us a wondering
far-sighted
questioning
restless people
and give us the feet of pilgrims
on this journey unfinished.

Seasons of your Heart: Prayers and Reflections - Marcrina Wiederkehr, O.S.B.

At the same time, we can take so much for granted and the cold dark days of winter can add to the season slump. What gets us out of bed in the morning? How do we handle the daily routine of living? I share with you a wonderful vignette geared toward newly married couples, but truly applicable to everyone in any meaningful relationship—no matter the age!

Common Table Salt

A guest was asked to give a toast at a friend's wedding. At the reception, as the glasses were raised, the guest presented the couple with a beautifully decorated gift box. Inside the box was salt—common table salt. The guest then offered this toast to the couple:

“It's hard to keep a house without salt. It adds flavor and taste to just about every dish. But if you run out of toothpaste, you can brush with a mixture of soda and salt because of salt's cleansing qualities.

If you develop a sore throat, you can gargle with salt because of its healing properties.

If you're hungry, you can cure a ham or other meat with salt because of its preserving qualities.

You can use the salt to melt the ice that builds up in the winter cold; salt can also be used to put out fires that flare up.

So if you'll bring to the marriage the qualities found in salt—the cleansing quality, the healing quality, the preserving quality—

If you use it to enhance the flavor of your life together; to melt the ice that will build up and put out the fires that will occasionally flare up between you; and, of course, if you take everything with a grain of salt, you will have a long and happy life together.”

And, while I think about it, never add salt to the wound!

Reflecting on a winter day,

Fr. Greg

Farewell, Maureen!

We are saddened to say farewell to Maureen McInerney, our Director of Development and Communications. She has accepted a position with ASUG in the area of marketing and communications. Our loss is their gain.

Maureen has done a marvelous job these last five years. Maureen did a fantastic job organizing and coordinating our 2017 Gala last October at the Four Seasons. It was a smashing success with a record 301 people in attendance and raising $250,000 (another record) for Holy Name Cathedral! People are still raving about the event! Maureen has done so much behind the scenes and is always willing to be inconvenienced.

I want to thank Maureen for her outstanding and dedicated service to our Faith Community. Our prayers are with you and you will be missed. God's Blessings always, Maureen.

With much gratitude,

Fr. Greg

Loving Hands

Cary Ratcliff

Loving hands, we all need loving hands,
For the sea and the sands cannot hold all the rain, all
the tears and the pain.
Where is God's loving hand?
Loving hands left a sign in the sand; strong his call:
Jesus' hands reach to all, reaching out, teaching all,
Looking up to see God's loving hand, to be God's loving hand.
Giving hands, will there be giving hands?
Healing hands, when we're hungry or cold,
People sick, people old can all hold onto God's loving hand.
Come be God's loving hand

Rainbows for All Children can help children deal with death, divorce, military deployment, medical illnesses and other traumatic experiences. We provide a safe place for children facing loss to interact with one another, share their thoughts and feelings, and establish relationships with others their own age who also are grieving. Through group activities and reflection, children feel a sense of belonging and often begin the healing process, allowing them to cope with the loss they have experienced.

Rainbows for All Children is not counseling, nor does it provide clinical therapy for grieving children. Instead, Rainbows for All Children is built on the foundation that, with the help of a supportive adult, children can help each other adapt to the loss and the changes in their lives. Rainbows' programs are for all children from any and all economic, racial, ethnic, and religious backgrounds. The program is FREE for all participants.

Attention, Men of the Parish: Could this be your New Year Resolution?

For the past two years, there have been bulletin articles about women's spirituality. Now we are writing to you about men's spirituality.

You know Wayne Messmer as the sports voice of the National Anthem. But he is also the voice of St. Damian, 'The Leper Priest of Molokai.' As our initial gathering event for the men of our parish, Mr. Messmer will star in this one-man play by Aldyth Morris.

As one viewer of this production stated "The world needs more men of real conviction." After viewing this play, there will be an opportunity for you, the men of our parish, to meet one another and to discuss whatever ways a parish men's group may be able to support you in living your faith.

Mark your calendar for Friday evening, February 16 at 7:00 PM in our newly remodeled auditorium. There is no charge for this event. More details will be in future bulletins. Can this be your 2018 New Year's resolution?

Chicago Shares

Chicago Shares are $1 vouchers sold in books of five, making it a convenient, safe and constructive means to provide meals and other necessities for hungry people.

Stewardship

Here I am Lord I come to do your will!

So many times when we hear the word 'stewardship' we think of our financial obligations to the church. This truly is only a small part of the true meaning of that word.

We are not called simply to give money to support the church, today's readings tell us that and every day, called to discipleship to give our very selves to God reflecting His love and mercy to a troubled world.

"Here I am Lord – your servant is listening." In the quiet night God calls each of us to follow His Son and bring others to Christ by one gospel centered living.

Every day I see this call to discipleship lived out here at Holy Name Cathedral Parish through our many pastoral ministries and the quiet dignified manner in which the healing power of Christ is brought to so many by our loving and caring parishioners.

Truth be told, I also see Christ made present by the generous hearts and voices celebrating the Christmas Season here at Holy Name Cathedral as a family of faith.

"But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one Spirit with Him."

In the name of all here at Holy Name I extend our prayers to you and to all your loves ones for a Blessed New Year filled with hope and promise.

May we hear more clearly every day our call to discipleship. Hearing those words let us respond together in faith.

"Speak Lord your servant is listening."

A special thank you to all for your Christmas generosity. So many have given so much to support our parish ministries. The stewardship message is clear: Here we are Lord we come to do your will!

God Bless!
Fr. Greg

Humor from the Rector

“Hey, Fido! Did you hear about the invisible man who married an invisible woman. The kids were nothing to look at either!”

New Catholic School Scholarship Opportunity for 2018/19 School Year

Through the “Invest in Kids Act,” the state of Illinois has created a new way to fund scholarships for children from low-income households who want to attend private schools. This program provides an opportunity for more students to receive a quality Catholic education. The tax credit scholarships offered through this program could cover up to 100 percent of tuition and fees for eligible, low-income students. Not all families will be eligible for the new scholarships, but we want to make sure all families are aware of the program.

Program details are still being finalized, but you can find information on the scholarships, the application process and the “Frequently Asked Questions” (FAQ) on the Archdiocese of Chicago’s website, archchicago.org/tcs. If you have any questions about tax credit scholarships, please contact the Archdiocese at InvestInKids@archchicago.org or 312-534-5321.
