Message from the Rector

Dear Lenten People,

Our Lenten journey to the cross with the Lord has begun. The ashes marked on our foreheads last Wednesday literally mark us—remind us—commit us to a season of repentance, change and prayer. Will this Lenten Season come and go like any other 40 day period in our life? Or possibly, can the Lenten Season allow me to probe my heart and look for an area of my life that needs change, healing or growth?

Erma Bombeck, the well known author, wrote the following reflection after she found out she was dying from cancer. Bombeck's honest self-evaluation offers all of us an opportunity to look within our heart and change—while there is still time!

If I Had My Life to Live Over

I would have gone to bed when I was sick instead of pretending the earth would go into a holding pattern if I weren't there for the day.

I would have burned the pink candle sculpted like a rose before it melted in storage.

I would have talked less and listened more.

I would have invited friends over for dinner even if the carpet was stained, or the sofa faded.

I would have eaten the popcorn in the "good" living room and worried much less about the dirt when someone wanted to light a fire in the fireplace.

I would have taken the time to listen to my grandfather ramble on about his youth.

I would have shared more of the responsibility carried by my husband.

I would never have insisted that the car windows be rolled up on a summer day because my hair had just been teased and sprayed.

I would have cried and laughed less while watching television and more while watching life.

I would never have bought anything just because it was practical, wouldn't show soil, or was guaranteed to last a lifetime.

Instead of wishing away nine months of pregnancy, I'd have cherished every moment and realized that the wonderment growing inside me was the only chance in life to assist God in a miracle.

When my kids kissed me impetuously, I would never have said, "Later. Now go get washed up for dinner." There would have been more "I love you's. More "I'm sorry's."

But mostly, given another start in life, I would seize every minute . . . look at it and really see it . . . live it . . . and never give it back.

Never sweat the small stuff.

Don't worry about who doesn't like you, who has more, or who's doing what.

Instead, let's cherish the relationships we have with those who do love us. (including the Lord!)

And I would add the following questions—

Is there someone I need to forgive? Is life making me bitter or better? Do I participate in the Liturgy every weekend? Can I spend ten minutes a day in prayer this Lent as a way to grow, heal and forgive?"

And at the same time, keep life in perspective and balance. Change begins today—one day at a time! Keep reading . . .

A group of 40 year old buddies discuss where they should meet for dinner. Finally, it is agreed upon that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because the waitresses are cute.

10 years later, at 50 years of age, the group once again discuss and discuss where they should meet for dinner. Finally, it is agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because the food there is very good and the wine selection is good also.

10 years later at 60 years of age, the group once again discuss and discuss where they should meet for dinner. Finally, it is agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because they can eat there in peace and quiet and the restaurant had a beautiful view of the ocean.

10 years later, at 70 years of age, the group once again discuss and discuss where they should meet for dinner. Finally, it is agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because the restaurant is wheel chair accessible and they even have an elevator.

10 years later, at 80 years of age, the group once again discuss and discuss where they should meet for dinner. Finally, it is agreed that they should meet at the Ocean View restaurant because they have never been there before.

Our Lenten journey has begun—may we not be left behind.

Walking with you,

Fr. Greg

Let Us Continue to Pray for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

"O God, bless during this season of spiritual renewal. Fill our minds and hearts with love, that we may be a sign of Jesus to all those living in our midst."

Sign of Peace & Communion from the Cup During Cold & Flu Season:

As we enter this cold and flu season, it is important to recognize that some people are especially susceptible to the viruses that can be spread by contact and that some immune systems are very sensitive. Please understand that some people may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace, but might simply greet you with a smile.

If you do decide to come to church for Mass, please remember that frequent and thorough hand - washing, refraining from physical contact during the Sign of Peace, and refraining from receiving communion from the Chalice can help prevent the spread of germs.

Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley

arr. Dale Wood

Jesus walked this lonesome valley, He had to walk it by himself. O nobody else could walk it for him, He had to walk it by himself.

We must walk this lonesome valley, we have to walk it by ourselves; O nobody else can walk it for us, We walk it by ourselves.

Jesus walked the road to Calvary; He bore our sins upon the cross! O nobody else is like our Savior, He died that we may live.

Stewardship

“I will come to you in the silence. I will lift you from all your fears. I have called you each by name. Come and follow me, I will bring you home. I love you and you are mine.”

The beautiful words of the song “You are Mine” describe, in great detail, our call to stewardship to discipleship this Lenten Season and throughout our lives.

Jesus doesn’t ask us to quell our fears, our anxieties, our moments of despair. We are merely human. He does reassure us not to be afraid during these very real moments. He knows each of our struggles to love. He has called each of us, by name, to embrace His love and mercy during these most trying moments. How do we do that?

By simply making Jesus the center of our lives; by remembering that all we do and all we are in this life, will be leading us “home” to rest forever in the loving arms of our Savior Jesus Christ.

In Psalm 11 we hear “The Lord is with me; I will not be afraid. What can others do to me? The Lord is with me and my helper.”

The presence of the Lord as the center of our lives calls us to discipleship and to bring His love and mercy to those who are in need of our loving embrace and kind words. That is a very “real” way to know the Lord and could be our Lenten sacrifice.

This week let’s make a commitment to one another, in the name of our loving Savior.

Let’s find Jesus, his love and mercy in the silence of our hearts. That’s where and when He promises to come to us.

Join me in taking a few moments this week during the mad rush of our lives, to rest in the Lord. I will try and I ask you to do the same remembering:

“The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid!”

Psalm 27
