Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us! The Feast of Pentecost celebrates images of the Holy Spirit: sometimes a tongue of fire as in the Pentecost story, more often a hovering dove. But there is another way to imagine this gift of the risen Jesus: the word “spirit” itself. In Greek, the language of the New Testament, the word for spirit is identical to the word for wind or breath. Wind, breath, spirit—all the same! Even deeper, it is God’s own breath of life. And do we let the Spirit of God take our breath away?

The Feast of Pentecost—a feast celebrating the Spirit upon and with each of us—means we do not walk through life alone. The Lord Jesus is with us and the Spirit of the Lord is upon us and we are the church!

What does the Spirit of life—wind and breath—look like? What difference should this Spirit make in our life—and in the lives of those we touch? Keep reading

Many years ago a mother bought tickets to a concert by Ignace Paderewski, the great Polish patriot and pianist. She took her five-year old son with her hoping the experience would encourage him to continue taking piano lessons. She was delighted to see how close to the stage their seats were. Then she met an old friend and got so involved talking with her that she didn’t notice that her son had slipped away to do some exploring.

At 8 o’clock sharp, the lights dimmed, the audience quieted down and the spotlight came on. Then, to her horror, the woman saw her five-year old on the stage, sitting on the piano bench, picking out with one finger the only tune he knew, “Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star.”

Before she could move, Paderewski walked onto the stage. Walking over to the piano, he whispered to the little boy, “Don’t stop, keep playing.” Then, leaning over the boy, the great pianist reached out his left hand and began to fill in the bass. A few seconds later, he reached around the other side of the boy and played a running obligato with his right hand. Together the maestro and the tiny boy mesmerized the audience with their playing. When they finished, the audience broke into thunderous applause. Years later almost all those present forgot the pieces that Paderewski played that night, but no one forgot “Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star.”

Today we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, the coming of the Spirit to the Apostles in Jerusalem. It seems to me that Paderewski and the child playing together is a splendid image of the Spirit of the Church. The Lord Jesus promised that he would send the Spirit to help his followers. They were largely an unlettered, unsophisticated group of men and women from a tiny corner of the world. They felt lost without Jesus. Yet, moved by the Spirit, they went out to the entire world, converting thousands and changing the course of history.

As followers of Jesus, so many times we feel overwhelmed and helpless. How do we overcome our temptations of greed and lust and power? As parents, how will we ever raise our children in this kind of world? As Church, what do we do with the ocean of war and violence out there? As followers of Jesus, how can we possibly feed the vast army of hungry in our world?

The answer is clear—of ourselves, we can do little if anything. But, with God, all things are possible. The real solution is to love the Lord, keep the commandments, trust in the Spirit and keep on doing our part, however small it may be.

To return to the image of Paderewski and the child; which of the two surprises us more? Paderewski was a genius and a veteran as well. The child, it seems to me, is the greater surprise. Most children would have stopped playing when a stranger approached. But this determined boy kept right on playing his little tune as best he knew how, and surrounded by the pianist’s arms, watching his fingers fly, hearing the glorious sounds come from his playing as well as Paderewski’s, he continued to play. When it was over, I imagine the boy was smiling and immensely pleased by his performance.

On the Feast of Pentecost, let us resolve to do our best, to continue to play our role in loving this world back into life. But we may say: “Isn’t our part insignificant?” Not when we are embraced and empowered by the Spirit of God.

Catch the Spirit!

Fr. Greg

Send Down the Fire

WE ARE SENT

Fifty days after Easter Sunday we celebrate the fulfillment of all God's promises in the feast of Pentecost, a feast that has sometimes been called the birthday of the church. One last time we are reminded that we Christians have received the Holy Spirit, not for our own benefit, but to enable us to follow our Christian vocation. The centerpiece of the scriptures for Pentecost is the account in Acts of the Apostles of the sending of the Holy Spirit to the disciples. The other readings for this Sunday help us to understand what it means to live out our Christian vocation. Paul's letter shows us the gifts and fruits that the Holy Spirit gives to us. John's Gospel reminds us that Jesus has sent all his disciples to share his forgiveness and peace, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

63rd Annual Fr. Mac's Memorial Day Mass Holy Name Cathedral - Monday, May 28, 2018 - 10:00 am

Monsignor Ignatius McDermott, known as Fr. Mac, was recognized both locally and internationally for ground-breaking programs and solutions in the prevention and treatment of issues concerning alcohol and substance abuse. In 1975 he co-founded Chicago's Haymarket Center whose mission is to help those affected by addiction issues in their recovery. Haymarket continues to grow and develop, following the principles of this humble man.

Fr. Mac began the Memorial Day Mass to recognize with gratitude our brave military who valiantly served their country and also to offer prayers for those past and present who struggle with alcohol and substance abuse. Fr. Mac died December 31, 2004 after 68 years of service. His Mass continues.

Please join us to continue his ministry through his philosophy: "When you no longer burn with love, others will die of the cold." St Vincent de Paul.

I asked the corporate wellness officer, "Can you teach me yoga?"
He said, "How flexible are you?"
I said, "I can't make Tuesdays!"

Thank you!

I want to thank all of you for our fantastic final Easter collection which totaled $154,500. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! Our final Easter collection was $141,500 in 2017.
