Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

A Blessed and Happy Father's Day to all our Dads—and to all men who love in a Fatherly way. What does it mean to love in a Fatherly way? To love another person is to see the face of God—and our lives need to mirror to others God's love for us. Clearly, the love of Jesus reflects God's love for each of us. Again, with Jesus as our point of reference—what does it mean to love in a Fatherly way on this Father's Day?

I share with you a beautiful story that was given to me. Enjoy and pass on

I grew up in the fifties with practical parents—

A Mother, God love her, who washed aluminum foil after she cooked in it, then reused it. She was the original recycle queen, before they had a name for it . . .

A Father who was happier getting old shoes fixed than buying new ones.

Their marriage was good, their dreams focused. Their best friends lived barely a wave away. I can see them now, Dad in trousers, tee shirt and a hat and Ma in a house dress, lawn mower in one hand, dishtowel in the other.

It was a time for fixing things—a curtain rod, the kitchen radio, screen door, the oven door, the hem in a dress. Things we keep.

It was a way of life, and sometimes it made me crazy.

All that re-fixing, re-heating, renewing. I wanted just once to be wasteful.

Waste meant affluence. Throwing things away meant you knew there'd always be more.

But then my Father died, and on that clear summer's night, in the warmth of the hospital room, I was struck with the pain of learning that sometimes there isn't any "more."

Sometimes, what we care about most gets all used up and goes away . . . never to return.

So . . . while we have it . . . it's best we love it . . . and care for it . . . and fix it when it's broken . . . and heal it when it's sick.

This is true . . . for marriage . . . and old cars . . . and children with bad report cards . . . and dogs with bad hips . . . and aging parents . . . and grandparents.

We keep them because they are worth it and because we are worth it.

Some things we keep.

Like a best friend that moved away—or a classmate who we grew up with.

There are just some things that make life important, like parents we know who are special . . . and so, keep them close!

I realize the official start of summer occurs this week! Months and seasons change and so do our lives. At the beginning of this great season, reflect upon these words by Max Lucado from his book In the Eye of the Storm.

With one decision, history began. Existence becomes measurable.

Out of nothing came light.

Out of light became day.

Then came sky . . . and earth.

And on this earth? A mighty hand went to work.

Canyons were carved. Oceans were dug. Mountains erupted out of flatlands. Stars were flung. A universe sparkled.

Look to the canyons to see the Creator's splendor. Touch the flowers and see his delicacy. Listen to the thunder and hear his power.

Today you will encounter God's creation. When you see the beauty around you, let each detail remind you to lift your head in praise. Express your appreciation for God's creation. Encourage others to see the beauty of his creation.

And a blessed and restful Father's Day!

Enjoy the summer,
Fr. Greg

SPECIAL PRAYER FOR FATHERS

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.
Amen

Day of Service Saturday, June 23

“But it is lovely to help others, to serve others.... Perhaps we will get tired! But that is the way life is, and the heart is filled with joy and hope. This is love and hope together: to serve and to give.”
(Pope Francis, 4/12/17)

Please join us for a Day of Service on June 23rd and get tired! We are putting together teams of adult and teenage parishioners (13-17 years of age, only if accompanied by parent) to participate in a variety of Catholic service projects at local organizations. There will be projects for all levels of volunteers, such as painting, cleaning, organizing, food bagging/preparing, planting or even visiting with seniors.

The day will begin at 9:00 am with registration and reflection, followed by a four-hour service project, returning to HNC for a volunteer mass led by Fr. Moriarity, and then food and fellowship to wrap up the day, ending by 5:00 pm. We will have fun, but we will also make a real difference!

This is a great chance to give back to our community while also strengthening your relationships with fellow parishioners. Please follow this link to register to join us for this very special and active day:

The anticipated cost will be $25.00. Details will be coming soon.

This past February, Wayne Messmer presented his one man play Fr. Damien, Leper Priest of Molokai. In the meet and greet that followed, Wayne mentioned his own experience of putting faith into practice when he was shot in the throat during an attempted robbery. While marking the July 14th date, add Friday evening, September 14th, at 6:30 p.m. in the Club Room to hear and meet Mr. Messmer.

No matter where you may call home, we welcome you to Holy Name Cathedral and look forward to celebrating the liturgy with you. Holy Name Cathedral is a vibrant parish in the heart of Chicago with many ministries and services. Our extensive weekend Mass schedule provides a worship opportunity for you and we also count on the financial support of our visitors to operate Holy Name Cathedral. Please be as generous as you can during the collection at Mass today. We are grateful for your support and delighted we can worship together. My prayers are with you for a safe journey home.

Thank you and God’s Blessings always.

Fr. Greg

Father’s Day Prayer

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God’s Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.
