Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Summer has started! Take the time this summer to create wonderful memories and always know God is present! Keep reading

Cherokee Indian Legend

Do you know the legend of the Cherokee Indian youth's rite of passage?

His father takes him and leaves him alone.

He is required to sit on a stump the whole night and not remove the blindfold until the rays of the morning sun shine through it.

He cannot cry out for help to anyone.

Once he survives the night, he is a MAN.

He cannot tell the other boys of this experience, because each lad must come into adulthood on his own.

The boy is naturally terrified. He can hear all kinds of noises. Wild beasts must surely be all around him. Maybe even some human might do him harm. The wind blew the grass and earth, and shook his stump, but he sat stoically, never removing the blindfold. It would be the only way he could become a man!

Finally, after a horrific night the sun appeared and he removed his blindfold.

It was then that he discovered his father sitting on the stump next to him.

He has been at watch the entire night, protecting his son from harm.

We, too, are never alone.

Even when we don't know it, God is watching over us, sitting on the stump beside us.

When trouble comes, all we have to do is reach out to Him.

Moral of the story:

Just because we can't see God, doesn't mean He is not present.

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

And as we live each day, keep the following thoughts in mind

Prayer is not a "spare wheel" that you pull out when in trouble, but it is a "steering wheel" that directs the right path through-out.

Why is a cars front WINDSHIELD so large and the rearview mirror so small? Remember the past, but don't live in the past—look ahead.

Friendship is like a BOOK. It takes a few seconds to burn, but it takes years to write.

All things in life are temporary. If going well, enjoy it, they will not last forever. If going wrong, don't worry, they can't last long either.

Often when we lost hope and think this is the end, GOD smiles from above and says, "Relax, sweetheart, it's just a bend, not the end!"

When GOD solves your problems, you have faith in HIS abilities; when God doesn't solve your problems HE has faith in your abilities.

A blind person asked St. Anthony: "Can there be anything worse than losing eye sight?" He replied, "Yes, losing your vision!"

WORRYING does not take away tomorrow's TROUBLES, it takes away today's PEACE.

Summer blessings,

Fr. Greg

Nativity of John the Baptist THE GIFT OF A CHILD A sign goes up on the neighbor's lawn: "Welcome Home Our New Baby Boy." Bright balloons speak to the celebration. The neighborhood comes alive. One organizes a week of dinners for the mother and her family. Another collects for a month's supply of diapers. The new parents respond by announcing the baby's name and extending an invitation to the baby's baptism with a party to follow. Isn't it a positive sign that in a society that has legalized the killing of the unborn, a community will still joyfully unite to celebrate the birth of a child?

THE COMMUNITY REJOICES The situation surrounding the birth of John the Baptist was not all that different from the one described above. Elizabeth and Zechariah's neighbors knew about the unusual circumstances of Elizabeth's pregnancy (she was older and had been unable to conceive) and joyfully greeted the baby's birth. The new baby was firmly rooted in his religious community. His parents observed the law of the covenant given to Abraham when they had him circumcised on the eighth day. They shared with everyone their son's special name, John, and Zechariah, who had been mute, immediately began to speak. The people were amazed and recognized that the Lord's hand was on this special baby. The neighbors were also fearful, knowing that the life of God's chosen is often difficult. We could ask about any infant, "What will this child be?" and imagine a world of possibilities. At the same time, we know that the gift of faith received in baptism and nurtured in families, neighborhoods, and parishes guarantees the greatest success of all-an eternal place in the reign of God.

RCIA TEAM RECRUITMENT

Holy Name Cathedral plans to allow those discerning to become Catholic to begin the journey at the point of inquiry. This year-round option will be effective January 2019. The new model requires three teams: Precatechumenate, Catechumenate, and Mystagogy. Teams are currently being formed.

If you have experience with the RCIA process, and are interested in joining this new adventure, contact Dr. Ken Ortega or Fr. Don Cambe.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY TEAM

We are requesting input from women on events that enhance women's spirituality. There is initial consideration for a women's retreat, speakers series, and an Advent Tea.

Please contact Dr. Ken Ortega to share your recommendations.

Our Cathedral, Our Home

Holy Name Cathedral has a long and glorious history of being home for many generations, providing sacraments and ministering to the spiritual, service, and social needs of parishioners, visitors, the sick, and so many of our neighbors struggling to survive on the margins of society.

Built in 1874, the Cathedral underwent major reconstruction and restoration in the late 1960s. New challenges faced the Cathedral Parish in 2008 and 2009 when the Church endured both a total structural repair of the ceiling followed by a devastating fire on the church roof, barely being saved by the heroic efforts of the Chicago Fire Department. The blaze left the church with severe water damage, necessitating another round of major repairs.

Throughout all of these years and adversity, the Cathedral Parish thrived, continuing its mission to provide a safe and welcoming environment for anyone to come in to pray, to serve, to gather, to listen, and to share. More than just a history of moving liturgy, uplifting music, and a beautiful place to worship, the Cathedral is home to a vibrant parish.

We share a common heritage as generations of parishioners before us have supported Holy Name Cathedral Parish. As missionary Disciples of Christ, it is our turn. We welcome you to join us. Once a year, we ask everyone to support us as we continue to care for our home and build our parish. Mark your calendar for this year's Cathedral Gala on October 26.

Humor from the Rector
