The Ups and Downs of Faith

March 12, 2018

The poet, Rumi, suggests that we live with a deep secret that sometimes we know, then not, and then know again. That's a good description of faith. Faith isn't something you nail down and possess once and for all. It goes this way: Sometimes you walk on water and sometimes you sink like a stone.

The Gospels testify to this, most graphically, in the story of Peter walking on the water: Jesus asks Peter to step out of a boat and walk across the water to him. At first it works, Peter, unthinking, walks on the water, then becoming more conscious of what he is doing he sinks like a stone. We see this too in the massive fluctuations in belief that Jesus' disciples experience during the "forty days" after the resurrection. Jesus would appear to them, they would trust he was alive, then he would disappear again, and they would lose their trust and go back to the lives they'd led before they met him, fishing and the sea. The post-resurrection narratives illustrate the dynamics of faith pretty clearly: You believe it. Then you distrust. Then you believe it again. At least, so it seems on the surface.

We see another example of this in the story of Peter betraying Jesus. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus tells us that there is a secret which separates those who have faith from those who don't: To you is given the secret of the kingdom, but to those outside everything exists in parables. That sounds like Gnosticism, that is, the idea that there's a secret code somewhere (e.g., The Di Vinci Code) that some know and some don't and you are in or out depending upon whether you know it or not. But that's not what Jesus is saying here. His secret is an open one, accessible to all: the meaning of the cross. Anyone who understands this will understand the rest of what Jesus means, and vice versa. We are in or out, depending upon whether or not we can grasp and accept the meaning of Jesus' death. But, being in or out isn't a once and for all thing. Rather, we move in and out! After Peter denied Jesus, we're told: "he went outside". This is intended both literally and metaphorically. After his denial, Peter stepped outside a gate into the night to be away from the crowd, but he also stepped outside the meaning of his faith.

Our faith also bounces up and down for another reason, we misunderstand how it works: Take for example the Rich Young Man who approaches Jesus with this question: "Good master, what must I do to possess eternal life?" That's an interesting choice of a verb: to possess. Eternal life as a possession? Jesus' gentle correction of the young man's verb teaches us something vital about faith. Jesus says to him: "Now if you wish to receive eternal life", meaning that faith and eternal life are not something you possess so that they can be stored and guarded like grain in a barn, money in a bank, or jewelry in a box. They can only be received, like the air we breathe. Air is free, is everywhere, and our health doesn't depend upon its presence, for it's always there, but rather upon the state of our lungs (and mood) at any given moment. Sometimes we breathe deeply and appreciatively; but, sometimes, for various reasons, we breathe badly, gasp for breath, are out of breath, or are choking for air. Like breathing, faith too has its modalities. And so, we need to understand our faith not as a possession or as something we achieve once and for all, which can be lost only by some huge, dramatic, life-changing shift inside of us, where we move from belief to atheism. "Faith isn't some constant state of belief," suggests Abraham Heschel, "but rather a sort of faithfulness, a loyalty to the moments when we've had faith."

And that teases out something else: To be real, faith need not be explicitly religious, but can express itself simply in faithfulness, loyalty, and trust. For example, in a powerful memoir written as she is dying of cancer, The Bright Hour, Nina Riggs shares her strong, but implicit, faith as she calmly faces her death. Not given to explicit religious faith, she is challenged at one point by a nurse who says to her: "Faith, you gotta have it, and you're gonna need it!" The comment triggers a reflection on her part about what she does or doesn't believe in. She comes to peace with the question and her own stake in it with these words: "For me, faith involves staring into the abyss, seeing that it is dark and full of the unknown – and being okay with that."

We need to trust the unknown, knowing that we will be okay, no matter that on a given day we might feel like we are walking on water or sinking like a stone. Faith is deeper than our feelings.

LECTORS

Proclaimers of the Word of God

The Lector is a proclaimer of the Word of God, and also a minister of hospitality by extending a welcome as a commentator to those gathered for worship. Our goal at Holy Name Cathedral is that hearing the Word of God proclaimed by our Lectors will open wide the doors to Christ for the faithful because of the love of scripture that stems from their ministry.

To become a Lector you need to be a Catholic in good standing having received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation), be at least age 16 or older, be a parishioner and have a desire to share your faith and an encounter with Christ through the words of scripture.

Contact Barbara Ramberg, Lector Coordinator, at barbararamberg@gmail.com or Father Marek Smolka, Director of Liturgy, mamolka@holynanamecathedral.org

The next Lector training will take place on Sunday, August 12, 19, 26 at 3:30 PM

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharist Adoration will be offered in the Cathedral at Holy Name Cathedral on the first and third Friday of every month. If there is a funeral or special occasion, Adoration will take place in the chapel.

Adoration begins after 8:00 a.m. Mass and ends with the Benediction before 5:00 p.m. Mass. Before 12:10 pm Mass (around 12:05 pm), the Blessed Sacrament will be placed in the Tabernacle. After 12:10 pm Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be placed back on the Altar.

Our Cathedral, Our Home

Did You Know?

Holy Name Cathedral is a very busy place, both as the home of the Archdiocese of Chicago as well as a parish of over 11,000 people. On average, we offer over 2,000 Masses every year including 27 daily Masses and 8 weekend Masses. During Advent, Lent, and Holy Days of Obligation, we add seasonal Masses to celebrate special days of the liturgical year.

In addition, we are the home to many Archdiocesan-wide services as the home church of Cardinal Blase Cupich. These services include the annual Golden Anniversary Mass, the celebration of the Christifidelis honorees, the annual ordination of new priests and deacons, the Migration Mass, and the Chrism Mass during Lent.

Recently we have supported the installation of a new archbishop (Archbishop Cupich) and his subsequent elevation to Cardinal, the installation of a new Rector (Fr. Greg), and the upcoming ordination of three new bishops on September 17.

We couldn't offer all of these Masses without the many liturgical ministers who assist our priests, deacons, bishops, and the Cardinal in these Masses. The various ministries include Lectors, Cathedral Altar Servers, and the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, all supported by HNC staff members, Fr. Marek Smolka and Michelle Peltier. Interested in joining?

Email Fr. Marek at mamolka@holynamecathedral.org.

Sharing the Eucharist in our Home

Every weekend, thousands of parishioners and visitors attend Masses at Holy Name Cathedral, gathering together in our common home to take part in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. This sacrament is key to who we are as Catholics. As Fr. Cameli shares in his book Bread of Life, "the Eucharist shapes and transforms us as disciples of Jesus Christ...the essential spiritual sustenance which is the Lord himself."

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops requires in every celebration of the Eucharist, there should be sufficient number of ministers of Holy Communion. If such ordinary ministers of Holy Communion (other bishops, priests, or deacons) are not present, "the priest may call upon extraordinary ministers to assist him, i.e., duly instituted acolytes or even other faithful who have been deputed for this purpose..."(GIRM 162).

Approximately 70 parishioners are part of Holy Name Cathedral's Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC) Ministry. They are an essential part of opening wide the doors to Christ, as we come forth to receive the Lord in the Eucharist.

One of our parish's longest-serving EMHCs is Peter Purszke. If you regularly attend the 5:15p Sunday Mass or the Wednesday 5:15p Daily Mass, you will recognize Peter, who usually serves as Captain of the Extraordinary Minister team at those Masses.

Holy Name Cathedral has been Peter's home church for over 30 years. In 1982, Peter and his wife, both born in Poland, moved to Chicago after completing a four-year work assignment in India, the birthplace of their son, Michael. "When we arrived in Chicago, I looked for two things to see: Our Lady of Czestochowa Church in Cicero and the local Cathedral, which is Holy Name Cathedral." After joining our Faith Community, Peter was mandated as an EMHC in the mid-1990s so that he "could be closer to that (the Eucharist) which continually renews us."

Serving as an EMHC reminds Peter "that Christ is new every time we come in contact with Him, even though He is constant and eternal, extratemporal and Lord of time." He adds "that Love is an action, proven by sacrifice. The Cross of the Lord is the true tree of life, and we are its branches, meant to produce Christian fruit, which is action, completed only if not devoid of mercy."

As you approach the altar this weekend to receive Holy Communion from the Priest or one of our EMHCs and reply "Amen" to "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ," you will know that their hearts are filled with joy as they can share this special gift with you.

CATHEDRAL Gala 2018

We share a common heritage with generations of parishioners who came before us and supported Holy Name Cathedral. It is now our turn. Once a year, we ask parishioners and visitors to help us care for our home. The Cathedral Gala is our sole fundraiser. Please join us!

Prayers with Mary is now held in the Holy Name Cathedral Chapel. Enter in the rear of the Cathedral across from the sacristy. Ask the security guard if you are lost.

Our prayers include the Rosary, intercessory requests, and thankful praise. Everyone is welcome and no experience is necessary, only a desire to embrace God's and our Blessed Mother's love! Prayers with Mary meets every Thursday at 6:00 PM in the HNC Chapel in the back of the Church near the sacristy.

If you are unable to attend please keep us in your prayers, and please send your prayer requests to prayerswithmary@gmail.com so we can include you more personally in ours!
