Christmas 2022

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

“The Word was made flesh, and he made his dwelling among us.” These momentous words from the beginning of John’s Gospel describe exactly what we celebrate at Christmas. Jesus, the eternal Son of God, has indeed come among us and become a part of our human family. He shared our joys and our sorrows. He came to know the full expanse of our human experiences, those that lift us up and those that cast us down. Through his death and resurrection, he has transformed our lives and our very world. The One born among us as Son of God and Son of Mary has given us a new birth in hope.

We know the challenges that marked his life from the very beginning. We recall how the Holy Family shared the plight of refugees, when they had to flee to Egypt to protect their newborn child from violence. These challenges find an echo in our world today. We see people flee the violence of war and oppression and crushing poverty. Their plight moves our heart to do whatever we can to alleviate their pain. Their story, framed within the story of the Holy Family, also reminds of the unfailing hand of God’s providence that leads us and saves us. And that gives us joyful confidence.

Whatever the challenges we face as individuals and communities—from war, violence, disease, injustice, natural climate disasters—we do not lose hope. We know that the Word was made flesh and made his dwelling among us. He walks with us. He sustains us. He gives us a hope that will not disappoint.

Join me in prayer this Christmas season. Let us ask God to deepen our faith in the Incarnate Word. Let us ask God to renew our hope and lift us up when we are weary. Let us ask God to keep our hearts joyful in all circumstances, because we have come to know God’s love for us.

God bless you and all your loved ones. As I celebrate the Eucharist in this Christmas season, know that I bring all of you to the altar with me.

Sincerely yours in Christ

The fresco of Immaculate Conception among the angels, Chiesa dell Immacolata; Bari, Italy

Joseph's dilemma regarding Mary's pregnancy is resolved when in a dream an angel reveals that the child is conceived "through the Holy Spirit." (Mt: 1:18) The child to be born is the Son of God and the son of Mary. This is Jesus' identity: fully divine and fully human.

Jesus' identity has significant implications for us. We are called to "belong to Jesus Christ." (Rom 1:6) by being transformed in holiness through the grace and peace that comes through Jesus' resurrection. This is our faith. This is our inheritance. "We belong to Jesus Christ" as God's beloved children called to be saints. As such, like St. Paul, we are called to witness to this message by our lives.

Inspiring O Antiphons Show the Coming of the Messiah

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

As we move into this final week of our Advent journey, we have begun the O Antiphons leading up to the Solemnity of Christmas. From Dec. 17 to Dec. 23, the Church draws nearer and nearer to the coming of the Lord in the flesh; something humanity has longed for generations.

The famous Advent hymn: “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,” derives its verses from the O Antiphons of the liturgical year, found in the daily Mass Alleluia verse acclamation and the Vespers Antiphon for the Magnificat. Vespers is the official Evening Prayer of the Church, known more broadly as the Liturgy of the Hours or, to some, as the breviary. Every ordained member of the clergy promises to pray the Liturgy of the Hours daily, and religious communities also pray the hours. What is unknown to most is that all the faithful are invited and able to pray the Liturgy of the Hours by virtue of their baptism, making each of us a priest, prophet and king.

The O Antiphons are inspiring in their theology because they draw from Old Testament imagery heavy with messianic prophecies. For Catholics, each of these O Antiphons references the coming of the Messiah fulfilled in the Lord’s birth in Bethlehem. The world longs for the coming of the Messiah, and as we know what happens on Christmas morning, our desire intensifies during these final days of Advent.

The seven O Antiphons are also, in the Latin translations, titles of Jesus:

- Dec. 17: O Sapientia (O Wisdom)
- Dec. 18: O Adonai (O Lord)
- Dec. 19: O Radix Jesse (O Root of Jesse)
- Dec. 20: O Clavis David (O Key of David)
- Dec. 21: O Oriens (O Dayspring)
- Dec. 22: O Rex Gentium (O King of the Nations)
- Dec. 23: O Emmanuel (O With Us is God)

Rarely do we have four full weeks of Advent since Christmas Day moves each day of the week every calendar year. Next year, in 2023, Christmas Day is on Monday. Therefore, we will celebrate the fourth Sunday of Advent on Sunday, December 24, and Christmas Eve liturgically begins after 3pm on the same day.

As we move closer to the coming of the Lord in the flesh, and as the Church invites us to shout with joy our Advent anthem, Come, Lord Jesus! each day this week. We must never forget the Lord has come and comes among us every time we gather for Mass. May these days point the way to the Lord who humbles himself so that we may be set free from darkness, sin, and death and celebrate the fact that God is with us.

Theology 101

The Foundations of the Moral Life (part 2)

By Fr. Louis J. Cameli

Part 1 of this column ran in the Dec. 11 bulletin

Consider this basic text for morality from the Book of Exodus (20:2), a verse that stands at the head of the Ten Commandments: “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.” Then the other nine commandments follow.

Notice the foundation for morality contained in this one seminal verse.

The verse begins with God affirming his relationship with his people: “I am the Lord your God.” From the beginning, there is a clear affirmation of a relationship between God and his people. This is not about abstract and external precepts or principles. Everything is rooted in a relationship. Secondly, God affirms that he “brought [his people] out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.” Not only is there a relationship, but there is also a history. God has taken the initiative and graciously freed his people from slavery. They have benefited from his grace and graciousness. Finally, after affirming the relationship and the grace, comes the moral consequence or response: “you shall have no other gods before me.”

The foundations of a moral life rest, then, on a living response to a loving and graced relationship for which God has taken the initiative. To be moral is to want to be true to that relationship and that grace. There is nothing external here. It is intrinsic to the relationship to want to respond to it. And that response becomes love answering love.

Similarly, in a specifically Christian context, Pope Saint Leo the Great in a Christmas homily explains the foundations of the moral life for those who are joined to Jesus Christ. They respond in love to the internalized relationship which has made them who they are: “Christians, recognize your dignity and, now that you share in God’s own nature, do not return to your former base condition by sinning. Remember who is your head and of whose body you are a member. Never forget that you have been rescued from the power of darkness and brought into the light of the Kingdom of God.”

So we come to understand the true foundations of the moral life. They belong to the response and responsibility we have to the loving relationship that God has initiated with us. And immersed in that relationship — with the deepest gratitude — we want to be true to it. That launches and sustains our moral direction, how we decide and how we act.

Volunteer! Get involved at Holy Name Cathedral

Are you interested in becoming involved in a ministry or volunteer opportunity at Holy Name Cathedral? We cannot do everything that we do without a dedicated group of lay volunteers. We are grateful for all of our volunteers who put in their time and talent toward the mission of Holy Name Cathedral.

Some of the areas where you can get involved include: Bible Study Groups, Blessings in a Backpack, Career

Network Ministry, Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton, Garden Ministry, Knitting & Crocheting Group, Ministry of Care, Social Programs for Young Adults, Thu./Fri. Night Suppers at Catholic Charities. If you’re interested in Cathedral volunteer opportunities, please scan this QR code and someone will be in touch with you.

Thank You for Supporting Our Thu./Fri. Suppers Ministry!

Thanks to your generosity, our Christmas in October and Winter Glove appeals were a resounding success!

On behalf of our guests and the many Suppers ministers, we raised $4,000 for the Christmas gift cards and collected more than 250 pairs of gloves (which were distributed on Thursday, Dec. 1). The extra gloves were given to Catholic Charities staff to distribute to other people in need.

We will give the $20 Jewel gift cards to our guests on Thursday, Dec. 22. Any leftover money will be used to purchase McDonalds gift cards for our guests to use over the Christmas season.

As you feel the chill and cold of these winter days, be comforted in knowing your kindness warmed many hands and brought Christmas joy to many hearts.

We will continue our suppers throughout 2023 as we provide 80 dine-in hot meals and 50 additional hot meals to go. Our volunteer ministry gathers at 3:45pm every Thursday and Friday to prepare and serve these meals.

As Holy Name Cathedral funds all of the meals served, we are very grateful to the following restaurants that provided free food for us to serve to our neighbors in need:

- DMK Burger Bar — 2954 N. Sheffield Ave.
- DMK Fish Bar — 2956 N. Sheffield Ave.

And thank you to the following stores and restaurants that provided food to us at a discount. We appreciate all the support these retail locations provide to us:

- Jewel-Osco — 550 N. State St.
- Dao Thai Restaurant — 230 E. Ohio St.
- Fatso Hard Kitchen LLC — 135 N. Kedzie Ave.

As you dine out, please consider supporting them in gratitude for their generous support of our ministry. Be sure to mention that you are from Holy Name Cathedral and appreciate their donations. Thank you to all!

Fr. Ton Nguyen shows some of the 250 pairs of gloves collected for our Suppers guests at Catholic Charities. They were distributed at the Thursday, Dec. 1 supper.

Interesting in volunteering with our Suppers Ministry?

No matter how much time you can give of your talents, the Thursday/Friday Supper program can use your help. Every week, Holy Name Cathedral partners with Catholic Charities and parishioners to serve 130 people who need a helping hand.

- Serve at Catholic Charities: Volunteers pack 50 hot meals to-go and serve a meal to 80 additional guests, working from 3:00pm – 5:00pm on a Thursday or Friday.
- Bake: Volunteers are needed to bake 120 cookies or small desserts we serve at our Thursday/Friday suppers.

For more information or to volunteer, please scan the QR code.

Stewardship

The Silent Stewardship of St. Joseph

As our Advent preparations draw to a close and Christmas fast approaches, it is fitting that today's readings demonstrate the intensity of the Father's perfect and passionate love for each of us, culminating in the gift of His own Son, Jesus Christ, on Christmas Day.

In response to such an overwhelming gift, what can we do except offer our lives as a gift in return, embracing a stewardship way of life with all the love and strength we have to give?

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, we find an unparalleled example of one who embraced this way of life in St. Joseph, as he obeys God's call to him through the message of an angel.

We never hear St. Joseph speak, but the Scriptures tell us he was always listening, attentive to the leading of the Holy Spirit for his family. It was Joseph who found the stable where the baby Jesus would be born. No doubt it was Joseph who cleaned it up and prepared it for Mary and Jesus since we know that Mary was about to give birth. Joseph protected the family, guarded them, and tended to their safety, their comfort, and their well-being at the expense of his own plans and preferences. Though we do not hear any words from St. Joseph his actions clearly show that he offered himself, his whole life, as a gift to his family through his strong guidance, protection, and service.

Let us imitate St. Joseph, then, as good stewards, giving our very lives to those around us in love and gratitude to God, who has given us everything we have, especially His own Son, Jesus Christ.

Building a Foundation for the Future

Please consider one of the greatest acts of stewardship an individual can make by establishing an estate plan. These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for the Catholic formation of future generations. A well-coordinated estate plan typically includes: (1) financial power of attorney, (2) will, (3) beneficiary designations, (4) charitable beneficiary designations and (5) health care documents, such as a living will and a health care power of attorney. Create or update your estate plans today by contacting your estate attorney and financial advisor. For more information, please contact Mary Lederer, Director of Stewardship, at 312-573-4432 or mlederer@holynamcathedral.org or visit myimpact.archchicago.org/resources.

Thank You for the Gift of Stewardship

A heartfelt thank you to our parishioners and visitors for the gift of your stewardship to Holy Name Cathedral. Your generosity supports our many ministries and programs including our liturgies, evangelization programs, service ministries and more. The gifts you share are making a difference in our community and around the world to all we serve.

Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

The fourth Sunday of Advent is upon us, and we celebrate the Feast of Christmas one week from today. So much to do and so little time left! We struggle keeping the Advent season in balance with the many things left on our “to do” list. Jesus is not the only “Reason for the Season.” We are also the “Season with a Reason!” Advent is also about our birth — to a new life, hope, forgiveness and putting life in perspective. Advent is a reminder that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

The following wonderful story puts Advent/Christmas in perspective. And so as Advent gives way to Christmas, take time to read the ...

Handwriting on the Wall

A weary mother returned from the store,
Lugging groceries through the kitchen door.
Awaiting her arrival was her eight-year-old son,
Anxious to relate what his younger brother had done.

“While I was out playing and Dad was on a call,
T.J. took his crayons and wrote on the wall!
It’s on the new paper you just hung in the den.
I told him you’d be mad at having to do it again.

She let out a moan and furrowed her brow,
“Where is your little brother right now?”

She emptied her arms and with a purposeful stride,
She marched to his closet where he had gone to hide.

She called his full name as she entered his room.
He trembled with fear — he knew that meant doom!
For the next ten minutes she ranted and raved
About the expensive wallpaper and how she had saved.

Lamenting all the work it would take to repair,
She condemned his actions and total lack of care.
The more she scolded, the madder she got,
Then stormed from his room, totally distraught!

She headed to the den to confirm her fears.
When she saw the wall, her eyes flooded with tears.
The message she read pierced her soul with a dart.
It said, “I love Mommy,” surrounded by a heart.

Well, the wallpaper remained, just as she found it,
With an empty picture frame hung to surround it.
A reminder to her, and indeed to all,
Take time to read the handwriting on the wall.

Praying with you,
Fr. Greg

P.S. The following is worth keeping close to your heart this Advent/ Christmas seasons and carried with you into the New Year.

When I woke up this morning, I asked myself, “What is life about?” I found the answers in my room...The fan said, “Be Cool.” The roof said, “Aim High.” The window said, “See the World!” The clock said, “Every minute is precious.” The mirror said, “Reflect before you act.” The calendar said, “Be up to date.” The door said, “Push hard for your goals.” The floor said, “Kneel down and pray and be thankful for what we have.”

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, the artist Ivo Demetz created our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale in the Rectory for $20. We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. Ask our ushers for more details.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.

Just scan the QR code to complete the request form.
