Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

We celebrate this weekend the Feast of the Epiphany as our Christmas season continues.

What does Epiphany mean? As many of you know, Epiphany means appearance or revelation. It means a showing, a direction for our search.

The scriptures imply it's a search that everyone must make. Luke, in the Gospel, has the poor searching in the form of shepherds. Matthew, in his Gospel, has the learned and rich searching in the form of the Magi. So, the message is there is room for everybody in this search for life's meaning and purpose, from no degrees to PhDs, from shepherds to executives.

And so to the Magi. They are three searchers who did not find the answer to life in their horoscopes, but took a long and difficult journey to another country in search of the Christ.

The Feast of the Epiphany means finding Christ and letting the Lord Jesus find us. It is not a one-time thing. Rather, finding the Lord is a lifelong quest, like a marriage or a profound friendship. And we, like the Magi, gather to focus on the One who loves us and abides with us. The more we connect the way of Jesus with our story — if searching is our road — then finding will be our home.

Epiphany is about dreams, hopes, searching and direction. The destination is not as critical as the journey. In our life, what are we searching for and what are we finding? We sometimes seek happiness in all the wrong places. Dream big dreams! However, in our search, always keep our eyes fixed on the Lord Jesus Christ and doors will open we never dreamed possible.

Reflect upon the following story ... And pass it on ...

TWO HORSES (Author Unknown)

Just up the road from my home is a field with two horses in it.

From a distance, each horse looks like any other horse. But if you stop your car, or are walking by, you will notice something quite amazing....

Looking into the eyes of one horse will disclose that he is blind. His owner has chosen not to have him put down but has made a good home for him.

This alone is amazing.

If you stand nearby and listen, you will hear the sound of a bell. Looking around for the source of the sound, you will see that it comes from the smaller horse in the field.

Attached to the horse's halter is a small bell. It lets the blind friend know where the other horse is, so he can follow.

As you stand and watch these two friends, you'll see that the horse with the bell is always checking on the blind horse, and that the blind horse will listen for the bell and then slowly walk to where the other horse is, trusting that he will not be led astray.

When the horse with the bell returns to the shelter of the barn each evening, it stops occasionally and looks back, making sure that the blind friend isn't too far behind to hear the bell.

Like the owners of these two horses, God does not throw us away just because we are not perfect or because we have problems or challenges.

He watches over us and even brings others into our lives to help us when we are in need.

Sometimes we are the blind horse, helping others to find their way. ...

Good friends are like that. You may not always see them, but you may trust that they are always there.

Please listen for my bell and I'll listen for yours.

And remember...

Be kinder than necessary....

Most everyone you meet is fighting some kind of battle.

Live simply,

Love generously,

Care deeply,

Speak kindly. ... And leave the rest to God!

May God's face always ring a bell!

Walking with you,
Fr. Greg

Remembering Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, who died Dec. 31 in Rome, was a man deeply faithful to his service of the Church and held strongly to the traditions and beliefs of our faith.

“Throughout his life as a scholar and as a churchman, he showed us what it means to fulfill the ancient command to love God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind,” Cardinal Blase Cupich said.

We thank God for his ministry among us, as our Holy Father from 2005 to 2013, and specifically as a priest for more than 70 years. We join the Universal Church in mourning and praying for the repose of his soul. May he rest in peace.

“Adoration of the Magi,” a Tapestry by Edward Burne-Jones (1833-1898)

Our celebration continues of the great mystery of God's manifestation to the very ends of the earth. The feast of the light continues our celebration of the Incarnation. These are weeks when the days are shorter and the darkness is intense. The light of Christ shines in the darkness of sin, loneliness, alienation, bitter disappointment, despair, loss, and death. The light shining in the dark is not our own. It is God's light; come to lengthen our days and show us how to live. Our works of faith are the means for God's light to shine forth.

Reflecting on the Power, Meaning and Symbols of Baptism

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Every Catholic church throughout the world contains the same essential elements and signs of our faith: the altar, the crucifix, the ambo, and the tabernacle. And almost immediately, before we enter any of these sacred spaces, we are greeted by holy water, the reminder of our baptism.

An often-overlooked element of any Catholic church is that, along with the other major 'pieces' in the physical structure, every church also has a baptismal font. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "the gathering of the People of God begins with Baptism; a church must have a place for the celebration of Baptism and for fostering remembrance of the baptismal promises (holy water font)" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1185). What is unique to each parish church, though, is the style of the baptismal font.

In early Christianity, the font was in the shape of a sarcophagus, representing the reality of what baptism celebrates. St. Paul says in his letter to the Romans, "Or are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life" (Romans 6:3-4). In baptism, we die to our former way of life, a life of darkness and sin, and are reborn into the new life in Christ. That is why many elements of baptism (holy water, white garment, Pascal Candle) are the same symbols used at Catholic funeral liturgies.

Today, modern fonts have symbolism as well. The design of our sanctuary font at Holy Name Cathedral is for total immersion and simply pouring water over the head. Both basins are in the shape of an octagon, symbolizing the eight days of creation, the 8th day being a reality of new life in Christ, that in him, life never ends. Other fonts are circular, symbolizing the unbreakable bond of love and inclusion in the family of God. Every font's design should also allow the water to continue to circulate. Still water creates murkiness and algae, but constantly moving water is always clear. This design element reminds us, as disciples, to always move forward on the journey and not remain still, no matter how difficult times may be.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on Monday, Jan. 9, let us take this opportunity to reflect on what baptism means for us as individuals and as a church. To be baptized means to die in this life and be reborn into life in and with Christ. It means joining the community of disciples who seek to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our world today and always moving forward with each other. If you don't know your baptism date, find it, and celebrate it as another birthday. It is always a joyful moment to celebrate the day we conquered death and became alive in Christ for eternity.

Poinsettia Giveaway

After 5:30pm Mass, Sun., Jan. 8

The Christmas season ends with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, celebrated on Monday, Jan. 9. Christmas decorations at Holy Name Cathedral will come down following the 5:15pm Mass on Sunday, Jan. 8. Most of the Christmas poinsettias adorning the sanctuary will be available for you to take home following the Mass.

The limit is one plant per family until every family who wishes for a plant has taken one. Poinsettias are very sensitive to cold temperatures — remember to bring a large plastic bag to protect the plant against the elements.

Cathedral Music Series presents Kola Owolabi

Kola Owolabi

The Cathedral Music Series concert on January 20 will feature works of Baroque composers Georg Muffat, Matthias Weckmann, and Arcangelo Corelli, contrasted with the modern compositions of Louis Vierne, David Hurd, and Joe Utterback. Our recital will illustrate the vast capabilities of the Flentrop Organ and celebrate how sacred music is relevant in our current times. Join us for an engaging, soaring, and spectacular music program in your Cathedral!

Welcome! Make Holy Name Your Cathedral.

We are delighted to welcome you to Mass today, whether you are visiting or looking for a parish to join. Through your presence and active participation, we can offer rich, spiritual renewal every day. Our Faith Community is very diverse, composed of people like you. Our hope is that your experience today encourages you to join our community. There are many ways to get involved. Join one of our ministries or attend an event featured in today's bulletin. Or become a member of our Faith Community — all are welcome! Just scan the QR code to register as a new parishioner.

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

At Holy Name Cathedral, our Resurrection Cross is unique. Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, artist Ivo Demetz created our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale in the Rectorry for $20. We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. This replica can serve as a reminder of God's unconditional love for you and of the connection to Holy Name Cathedral. Ask our ushers for more details.

Need to be Confirmed? Register for Spring Class

If you are over the age of 18, baptized Catholic, regularly attending Mass and receiving Communion, and think God is calling you to deepen your faith and make an adult commitment to it, you may be feeling the call to the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Holy Name Cathedral offers an eight-week preparation course for the Sacrament of Confirmation beginning in March, culminating with the Mass of Confirmation occurring in April 2023. Please scan the QR code to register. If you have questions, email Dr. Ken Ortega, kortega@holynamecathedral.org.

Want to Become Catholic? RCIA Starts this Spring

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process through which adults discern if the Catholic tradition of the Christian life is appropriate for them. When a person considers becoming a Catholic, we, the Faith Community of Holy Name Cathedral, welcome him or her to begin the process from the moment of Inquiry. We will begin our next cohort for people interested in becoming Catholic or Catholics seeking both Confirmation and Eucharist in April. Please contact Dr. Ortega to set up a time to discuss the process, kortega@holynamecathedral.org.

Cathedral Tours Expanding Each Week — After 8:30am and 10:30am Masses

We are expanding our weekly tour offerings of Holy Name Cathedral.

Each week, our Cathedral Docents lead a short, 15-minute express tours following the 10:30am Mass. Starting this Sunday, Jan. 8, we are also adding an express tour after the 8:30am Mass.

The free tours begin immediately after Mass. Those who are interested in participating are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle.

Our Docents are excited to share with you the art, architecture and history of the Cathedral — one of the oldest and largest churches in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Also, on the first and third Sundays of the month after the 12:30 p.m. Mass, Docents will give a full tour that last approximately 45 minutes.

The Stump of Jesse

Like the Wise Men, Explore New Routes in Your Daily Life

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

‘You are holding beautiful things! What do you have there?” I asked enthusiastically, hoping someone would respond since it was late in the evening.

One child joyfully raised her proud voice, “These are Christmas stars. And we made them.” I continued our conversation, “Wow, that’s amazing! How did you put the star together?” The girl replied, “I lined up the sticks, glued the paper to the sticks, and finished within an hour or two.” I expressed my astonishment, “You are so talented. You guys can open a store.” She quickly answered, “That’s what my mother said, too.” Seeing parents teaching their children our faith with such creativity is beautiful. Making stars is a way to prepare them for our big feast of Christmas.

In the Gospel reading this weekend, the star appeared as a sign to lead the Magi to the Lord. St. Gregory said in a homily preached in the year 591:

“We must look for why it was an angel who appeared to the shepherds in Judea at the birth of the Redeemer. While it was not an angel, but a star who led the wise men from the East to worship him.” This insight comes from the fact that the Jews knew how to use their reason; it is a reasonable living being, here an angel, who was to inform them. The pagans, on the contrary, did not know how to use reason. They are brought to the knowledge of the Lord, not by words, but by signs. Hence Paul’s words: ‘Prophecies are given to believers, not to unbelievers, signs to unbelievers, not to believers’ (1 Cor 14:22). The prophecies are given to the first as believers, not unbelievers. And it is as unbelievers that the second, unbelievers, receive signs.

As we reflect on the entire salvation history and celebrate Christmas, we can embrace the historical event and, most importantly, the person of Jesus. And just as the Magi used different routes to return to their homes after the meeting with the Lord, we are invited to explore new avenues in our daily lives. Changing our routines can open a new route leading us to live a more holy life.

Watching for God's Presence

As our celebration of Christmas continues, today we observe the great feast of The Epiphany of the Lord. The word “epiphany” comes from Greek and means manifestation or appearance. The stewardship way of life is one in which we live in grateful response to God's countless manifestations in our lives.

Our Gospel passage, from Matthew, has much to teach us about stewardship, through the actions of the magi.

As good stewards, the magi were watching for manifestations of God's presence in their lives. “We have seen the star at its rising,” they say. Good stewards are keenly aware of the “star” of God's presence and His gifts in their lives. It is this awareness that fills them with gratitude and the desire to both worship God and share His gifts with others.

The magi, upon seeing the manifestation of God's presence in their lives, “were overjoyed.” Good stewards, who live with the awareness of God's presence and gifts to them, simply can't help but be filled with joy. Not necessarily the fleeting and superficial kind of joy the world promises through wealth or power, but rather the deep, unalterable joy only God can give.

Finally, the magi were so filled with awe upon encountering the newborn Jesus, they prostrated themselves before him and “opened their treasures and offered him gifts.” This is precisely why good stewards generously share their material gifts — as a loving act of worship to an extravagantly loving God.

Let us rejoice in God's manifestations in our lives and be watchful for the new ways He is calling us to share ourselves and our gifts in gratitude to our King in the year ahead.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
