Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God:

Our Season of Lent is rapidly coming to a close. Next Sunday, we begin Holy Week. We always speak of Lent in terms of fasting. Lent should be more than a time of fasting. It should also be a joyous season of feasting. Lent is a time to fast from certain things and to feast on others. The Notre Dame Center for Pastoral Liturgy wrote the following beautiful reflection in their January 1993 journal - Assembly. Read and reflect. Pray and ponder. Share with family and friends.

Fasting and Feasting

FAST from judging others.
FAST from emphasis on differences.
FAST from apparent darkness.
FAST from thoughts of illness.
FAST from words that pollute.
FAST from discontent.
FAST from anger.
FAST from pessimism.
FAST from worry.
FAST from complaining.
FAST from negatives.
FAST from unrelenting pressures.
FAST from hostility.
FAST from bitterness.
FAST from self-concern.
FAST from personal anxiety.
FAST from discouragement.
FAST from facts that depress.
FAST from lethargy.
FAST from suspicion.
FAST from thoughts that weaken.

FAST from shadows of sorrow.
FAST from idle gossip.

FEAST on the Christ within them.
FEAST on the unity of life.
FEAST on the reality of lights.
FEAST on the healing power of God.
FEAST on phrases that purify.
FEAST on gratitude.
FEAST on patience.
FEAST on optimism.
FEAST on divine order. Trust in God.
FEAST on appreciation.
FEAST on affirmatives.
FEAST on unceasing prayer.
FEAST on nonresistance.
FEAST on forgiveness.
FEAST on compassion for others.
FEAST on eternal Truth.
FEAST on hope.
FEAST on verities that uplift.
FEAST on enthusiasm.
FEAST on Truth.
FEAST on promises that inspire.
FEAST on the sunlight of serenity.
FEAST on purposeful silence.

At the same time, Lent is a time of feasting in terms of sharing. Keep reading...

The old man placed an order for one hamburger, french fries and a drink. He unwrapped the plain hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing one half in front of his wife. He then carefully counted out the french fries, dividing them into two piles and neatly placing one pile in front of his wife. He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip and then set the cup down between them.

As the man began to eat his fries, the people around them were looking over and whispering. Obviously, they were thinking, "That poor old couple – all they can afford is one meal for the two of them."

As the man began to eat his fries, a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the two of them. The old man said they were just fine – they were used to sharing everything.

People closer to the table noticed the little old lady hadn't eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink.

Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time the old woman said, "No, thank you, we are used to sharing everything."

Finally, as the old man finished and was wiping his face neatly with the napkin, the young man again came over to the little old lady who had yet to eat a single bite of food and asked, "What is it you are waiting for?" She answered, "His teeth."

Sharing is great, but I do suggest keeping your own teeth!

Fasting and Feasting with you,
Fr. Greg

"The Raising of Lazarus," attributed to Aertgen Claesz van Leyden, (1498-1564) in The Rijksmuseum Amsterdam

John's story of the raising for Lazarus offers us hope and consolation in the face of death. The grief of Jesus, Martha, and Mary shows us that the Lord understands and shares in our human grief at the death of our loved one. At the same time, Jesus teaches that through the power his Father has given him, he has power over death. Ultimately, he will teach us through his own death and resurrection that we can trust in the promise of eternal life.

When Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead, he offers Lazarus a second chance at life. As a result, many come to believe in Jesus. He is always offering second chances. As our faith deepens, we are continually transformed and given new life.

"The conversion demanded of us is in no way a backward step, as sin is. It is rather a setting out, an advancement in true freedom and in joy."

— Pope St. Paul VI

It's Time for Passiontide, the Final Movement of Lent

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

With the fifth Sunday of Lent, we enter into Passiontide, the final movement of our Lenten journey. The readings in our daily Masses focus on the immediate coming of the passion of the Lord and the darkness that surrounds those events of God dying in the flesh. These two weeks prepare us for the sorrow we will experience and feel at the passion and death of Jesus. It has been a common practice in the Catholic Church from about the year 900 to veil crosses, statues, and images with a purple cloth as a psychological reminder to help the faithful concentrate more on the salvific events which will soon take place.

The Preface before the Eucharistic Prayer changes, along with the daily Gospels and the option of veiling crosses, images, and statues. Preface I of the Passion of the Lord is said Monday through Saturday of the fifth week of Lent. Preface II of the Passion of the Lord is said Monday through Wednesday of Holy Week. Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and Holy Saturday (Easter Vigil) each has a proper Preface for the day. Preface I of the Passion focuses on the power of the cross, while Preface II focuses on the victory of Christ's passion. Aside, there are over 30 different Prefaces in the Roman Missal for particular seasons and days.

After the Second Vatican Council, the practice of veiling statues, images, and crosses was generally discontinued. However, each national Episcopal Conference has the right to allow the veiling of statues, images, and crosses in churches. Here in the United States, each pastor has the right to restore the practice of veiling crosses, images, and statues beginning with the fifth Sunday of Lent, with crosses remaining covered until the end of the celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. Statues and images remain hidden until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.

Regardless of your preference for veiling statues, images, and crosses, Passiontide invites us to deepen our awareness of the events that will soon unfold in our liturgies and spiritual lives through the Gospel readings and Prefaces. Jesus of Nazareth, God in the flesh, will soon enter Jerusalem amid shouts of exultation saying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord," only to have those same people shout, "Crucify him!" a few days later. Passiontide is a gift from the Church to prepare us for the Holy Triduum, the Paschal Mystery of Jesus: his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension. Are we ready to walk with our Lord?

All are welcome to join us next Sunday, April 2, at 3pm for Stations of the Cross and an hour of Eucharistic Adoration to prepare our hearts and minds for Holy Week and the saving acts that will take place. Now is a very acceptable time; now is the day of salvation.

Inaugural awards presented

We will present the Inaugural Heart of Holy Name Award and Mother Cabrini Legacy Award during the evening.

The Heart of Holy Name Award honors an individual who exemplifies the spirit of our faith community as he or she lives out the parish vision: “A World in Communion with Jesus Christ.” This year’s awardee is Deacon Stan Strom, a man of faith, a leader and a friend to many. He is a prayerful example of a life well lived in His Holy Name.

The Mother Cabrini Legacy Award honors an organization that embodies the legacy of Mother Cabrini and her extraordinary service to those in need including the immigrant and underserved. This year’s awardee is Bethany House of Hospitality, a safe haven for young immigrant women seeking asylum offering them housing and support services as they journey to independence.

Asylum Seekers Spring Meals Program

As we have shared in past articles, we currently have nearly 700 new neighbors residing in two local hotels. In addition to the clothing/food drive and care packages, we know there is a strong need to provide a meals program to supplement their current offerings. This program would also alleviate the pressure on other existing programs that currently serve other local people in need like our Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry.

Our plan is to add a hot meal program for residents of the Selina Hotel (formerly the Tremont Hotel) on Chestnut and the Inn of Chicago on Ohio Street. Fourth Presbyterian has generously offered their commercial kitchen for us to prepare and serve the meals. We are organizing a team to oversee the meals –culturally appropriate menu development, food & beverage ordering, cooking, serving, and volunteer coordinator. If you have interest in participating in any aspect of the program, scan the QR code and select Asylum Seekers Ministry. We welcome everyone!

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
