Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

In Holy Week, we celebrate the most sacred mysteries of our Christian faith when we gather to celebrate Christ's dying, through which he destroyed our death, and His rising, through which he restored our life. The mysteries we celebrate during these days are not only long ago, something far away, but are as close as our own and our world's struggle with living and dying.

To deepen our experience of life together and celebrate Christ's dying and rising to new life, we need to gather to tell the stories of God and to break bread together. We need to celebrate together, be at peace with one another, and give thanks as people who continually grow in faith.

The liturgies of Holy Week invite us to ponder the meaning of Christ's life, death and resurrection. I encourage you — yes, I urge you — to be present at the celebrative moments in the life of the Christian Faith Community, for it is when we gather that we are most truly Church — the People of God.

Our complete Holy Week schedule is on Page 6 of this bulletin and our website.

As we begin Holy Week, ponder this reflection by the late Bishop Kenneth Untener:

Mark's Gospel has no heroes but Jesus. Everyone fails one way or another. The good news is that failures don't have to be fatal.

By describing the failures of the "great ones," Mark teaches us: Don't underestimate the struggle of staying with Jesus or overestimate your own strength. The disciples' faith in Jesus did not come easily or by their own doing. Ours doesn't either.

Most of all, Mark wanted to encourage us. By God's grace, no failure need ever be fatal.

At the beginning of our Lenten journey, I mentioned a small book by Max Lucado entitled Grace for the Moment, which has become a part of my daily prayer. I share two of his reflections which may assist our Holy Week walk with the Lord Jesus.

I like the story of the little boy who fell out of his bed.

When his Mom asked him what happened, he answered, "I don't know. I guess I stayed too close to where I got in."

Easy to do the same with our faith. It's tempting to stay where we got in and never move.

Pick a time in the not-too-distant past. A year or two ago. Now ask yourself a few questions. How does your prayer

“ We need to celebrate together,
be at peace with one another,
and give thanks as people who continually grow in faith. ”

life today compare with then? How about your giving? Have both the amount and the joy increased? What about your church loyalty? Can you tell you've grown? And Bible study? Are you learning to learn?

Don't make the mistake of the little boy. Don't stay too close to where you got in. It's risky resting on the edge.

In Jesus' day, the washing of feet was a task reserved not just for servants but for the lowest of servants. Every circle has its pecking order, and the community of household workers was no exception. The servant at the bottom of the totem pole was expected to be on his knees with the towel and basin.

In this case, the one with the towel and basin is the king of the universe. Hands that shaped the stars now wash away the filth. Fingers that formed mountains now massage toes. And the one before whom all nations will one day kneel now kneels before his disciples. Hours before his death, Jesus' concern is singular. He wants his disciples to know how much he loves them. More than removing dirt, Jesus is eliminating doubt.

Our Holy Week has begun — may we take the time to put life into perspective. Make the time to journey to the Cross with Christ, and together may we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus — from death to eternal life. Jesus promises each one of us love, forgiveness and eternal life. If you get a better offer — take it!

On the Holy Week Journey with you,
Fr. Greg

"Jesus entering Jerusalem," mosaic.
Saint Michel & Saint George Coptic Church, Villejuif, France.

When the great crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, they took palm branches and
went out to meet him,

and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; the king of Israel."

Jesus found a donkey and sat upon it, as is written:

"Fear no more, O daughter Zion; See, your king comes,
seated upon an ass's colt." (John 12: 15)

His disciples did not understand this at first, but when Jesus had been glorified they remembered that these things were written about him and that they had done this for him. So the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from death continued to testify. This was also why the crowd went to meet him, because they heard that he had done this sign. So, the Pharisees said to one another, "You see that you are gaining nothing. Look, the whole world has gone after him."

Deepen Your Encounter with Christ During This Holy Week

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

We enter a sacred time this week, Holy Week, a very symbolic time for our life of faith. We come into Jerusalem with the crowd waving palms as Jesus enters the Holy City. On Tuesday, the archdiocesan priests, deacons and parish representatives gather for the Chrism Mass. At this Mass, the priests renew their priestly promises. Cardinal Cupich blesses the three oils — Sacred Chrism, Oil of the Sick, and Oil of the Catechumens — to be distributed throughout the Archdiocese for Sacramental use all year until the following Holy Week. And Thursday begins the Sacred Triduum, the three holiest days of the year, commemorating the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.

The Triduum is three days, each having a distinct character on this continuous journey. We begin in the Upper Room on Holy Thursday evening with the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Only one Mass is allowed to be celebrated in each church today. The Mass does not end with the final blessing but moves to the altar of repose, a representation of Christ both in the garden and in prison awaiting trial. We watch and pray with our Lord as he awaits his condemnation by Pilate. Our Cathedral will be open until Midnight on Holy Thursday to allow many people to come and spend time in prayer.

Good Friday is the only day in the liturgical year that Holy Mass is not celebrated. The Service of the Lord's Passion is simply that, a service. The Eucharist offered during the Service is consecrated at Mass the day before, on Holy Thursday. The Good Friday service does not begin with the sign of the cross because it is a continuation of the liturgy on Holy Thursday, nor does it end with a final blessing, but in silence, because God has died in the flesh.

On Holy Saturday, just like Holy Thursday, only one Mass is celebrated in each church: the Great Vigil of Easter.

This Mass also does not begin with the sign of the cross but instead starts outside the church with the blessing of the fire that lights the newly blessed Easter candle. Only at the end of the Easter Vigil does the priest celebrant give a final blessing, concluding the three holy days, with the joy of “Go, and announce the Gospel of the Lord.”

One service, often overlooked, is Tenebrae. Our Tenebrae service will be at the Cathedral on Wednesday, April 5, at 7pm. Tenebrae is a religious service that uses psalms and light as a tangible preparation for the Triduum. We extinguish a candle with each psalm or reading and dim the lights until we remove the final candle in the darkened church, only to return after the great “strepitus” or earthquake. The Christ candle shows us that even death cannot extinguish the light.

As we enter Holy Week, the Worship Pillar invites you to join us during these sacred days to deepen your encounter with the Lord as we walk together with him through his passion, death, and resurrection.

Welcome! Make Holy Name Your Cathedral.

We are delighted to welcome you to Mass today, whether you are visiting or looking for a parish to join. Through your presence and active participation, we can offer rich, spiritual renewal every day. Our Faith Community is very diverse, composed of people like you. Our hope is that your experience today encourages you to join our community. There are many ways to get involved. Join one of our ministries or attend an event featured in today's bulletin. Christ's Emptying Himself Strikes a Chord with Believers

By Fr. Louis J. Cameli

Fr. Cameli gave this reflection on Edouard Manet's painting "Jesus Mocked by the Soldiers" on March 23 at the Art Institute of Chicago

Manet's painting invites a two-fold appreciation — as art and as a moment of faith.

The alignment of shapes and colors with the "illuminated" Christ at the center offers us a powerful image.

When we approach this painting as believers, we realize that Jesus, the one at the center, is a person with whom we are connected, with whom we have a relationship. And that makes a difference.

There is — again for believers — a troubling side to this painting. Jesus is in distress, and we can share that feeling in the measure that we identify with him. Let me suggest how this plays out.

I see this picture representing what I call a psychological kenosis. The word "kenosis" comes from Paul's letter to the Philippians chapter 2: "Christ emptied himself ekenosen." He emptied himself unto death on the cross. What is represented here is prior to the cross and death, but it is already a kind of emptying.

A false, mocking and ironic identity is imposed on Jesus, as from the back a soldier places a royal cloak on his shoulders and from the front a soldier is handing him a royal scepter. In the meanwhile, a muscular and powerful soldier dominates him in a threatening way.

Absent here is the Jesus who is noble, perhaps even stoic in his suffering — as might be depicted in many Ecce homo motifs. He is very much down and out. He looks like the suffering servant described by Isaiah "There was no beauty in him." He resembles a weak, beaten up, vulnerable street person.

Obviously, for believers this image will stir feelings, will move their relationship and connection with Jesus forward, and will be a source for their contemplative consideration. The realism of his "emptying out" strikes us with force. We comprehend how he has gone to the furthest edges of our human experience and taken on our suffering. In him, we know ourselves. As Pope St. Leo says, "True reverence for the Lord's passion means fixing the eyes of our heart on Jesus crucified and recognizing in him our own humanity."

Easter Basket Blessing

Saturday, April 8, noon

We invite you and your family to bring your unique family basket(s) to the church on Holy Saturday, April 8, at noon for a brief service. Come and share in this beloved custom with your parish family, or make this the start of a new Easter tradition with your own family, relatives, and friends!

The blessing of the Easter Basket containing food for the Easter meal has been a beloved Catholic ritual for centuries among Eastern European families. This tradition has since been adopted by people of all ethnic backgrounds, who enjoy its rich symbolism.

To Our Faith Community:

After 46 years of ministry to the Catholic Church and six years on his first “retirement” assignment, Mark Teresi as Executive Director at the Cathedral is moving to his next “retirement” assignment.

The good news is that he will be staying at Holy Name Cathedral as Assistant to the Rector–Special Projects, focusing on the Cathedral’s 175th Anniversary and the new Cathedral Preservation program, ensuring the care and maintenance of this beautiful historic structure while updating for more efficiency, security and functionality.

Mark Teresi

Deacon Dennis Robak

Effective June 1, Deacon Dennis Robak will become the new Executive Director for Holy Name Cathedral. Currently the Director of Vicariate Operations for the Archdiocese of Chicago, Deacon Dennis held this position in various Vicariates for the past 24 years. Prior to this, he spent 17 years with Metropolitan Structures in real estate management.

Ordained a Permanent Deacon in 2006, he served with Fr. Greg at St. Mary Parish in Evanston while Fr. Greg was their Pastor. Still calling Evanston home, Deacon Dennis is a native Chicagoan and proud alum of DePaul University. “DJ” (Dennis Junior) is his three-year-old Miniature Pinscher who enjoys the lakefront strolls. Often reminded by Fr. Greg, had he chosen the priesthood early in life, they would have been classmates!

We thank Mark for his marvelous ongoing contributions, transforming Vision 2025 from an idea to a plan in its third year of implementation. And a very warm welcome to Deacon Dennis who brings so many gifts in guiding the next phase of the Vision 2025 strategy.

With profound gratitude,
Fr. Greg

Help our Asylum Seekers Spring Meals Program

As we have shared in past articles, we currently have nearly 700 new neighbors residing in two local hotels. In addition to the clothing/food drive and care packages, we know there is a strong need to provide a meals program to supplement their current offerings. This program would also alleviate the pressure on other existing programs that currently serve other local people in need like our Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry.

Our plan is to add a hot meal program for residents of the Selina Hotel (formerly the Tremont Hotel) on Chestnut and the Inn of Chicago on Ohio Street. Fourth Presbyterian has generously offered their commercial kitchen for us to prepare and serve the meals. We are organizing a team to oversee the meals –culturally appropriate menu development, food & beverage ordering, cooking, serving, and volunteer coordinator. If you have interest in participating in any aspect of the program, scan the QR code and select Asylum Seekers Ministry. We welcome everyone!

Volunteers Needed to Help Blessings in a Backpack Fight Childhood Hunger

Many children will benefit from the National School Lunch Program on weekdays. But when the weekend comes around, these same children are faced with food insecurity, not knowing where their next meal will come from until the following Monday. Our Blessings in a Backpack program is one way to mitigate this problem by providing food for the weekend. We are serving the students of St Thomas of Canterbury School in Edgewater. We are especially looking for volunteers to help drive and pack bags. Scan the QR code for more information or to volunteer.

Chicago Shares Returns!

A Great Way To Help The Needy

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

At Holy Name Cathedral, our Resurrection Cross is unique. Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, artist Ivo Demetz created our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale in the Rectory for $20. We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. Ask our ushers for more details.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.
