Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Sunshine... Rain... Flowers blooming...
Birds are singing and constructing nests — all signs of spring — new life — hope. Winter's cold and darkness give way to spring's warmth and light.

What about our inner light, warmth and life? Does spring become just another season to move through? Can spring become something more? Life is what happened while I was making other plans! Life is much too short and moves by much too quickly. Tomorrow's dreams and hopes can too easily become yesterday's faded memories.

What am I looking for in life? What am I finding? We all seek to connect the mystery of God with the mystery of our lives. We all seek meaning and purpose and hope our lives make a difference.

The following reflection may provide a spark — a catalyst for living life to the fullest in God — one day at a time this Easter Season and always.

Slow Dance

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round?
Or listened to the rain slapping on the ground?
Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight?
Or gazed at the sun into the fading night?
You'd better slow down. Don't dance so fast.
Time is short. The music won't last.

Do you run through each day on the fly?
When you ask, "How are you?" do you hear the reply?
When the day is done, do you lie in your bed
With the next hundred chores running through your head?
You'd better slow down. Don't dance so fast.
Time is short. The music won't last.

Ever told your child, "We'll do it tomorrow?"
And in your haste, not see his sorrow?
Ever lost touch, let a good friendship die.

'Cause you never had time to call and say, "Hi?"
You'd better slow down. Don't dance so fast.

Time is short. The music won't last.

When you run so fast to get somewhere
You miss half the fun of getting there.
When you worry and hurry through your day,
It is like an unopened gift thrown away,

Life is not a race; do take it slower.
Hear the music before the song is over.

Spring and the Easter Season are perfect opportunities to slow down long enough to smell the roses — listen to the birds — and spend more time with loved ones. Only God knows how many more springs our lives will be gifted with
— make this one count — and let the Lord lead the Dance!

Easter Season Blessings,
Fr. Greg

“Divine Mercy” by Eugeniusz Kazimirowski (1873-1939), at Sanctuary of the Divine Mercy, Vilnius, Lithuania

The resurrection's transforming power is apparent in today's readings. In the Gospel, the frightened disciples are changed as Jesus enters the room in which they are hiding. With the greeting “Shalom Jesus,” He offers them blessings on every dimension of their being. This blessing, translated at “Peace be with you” (Jn 20: 21), communicates God's mercy. Jesus goes further by extending the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples.

The risen Lord still bears the marks of his crucifixion. The apostle Thomas is not present on this occasion and refuses to believe the witness of the other disciples. Later, Thomas makes a confession of faith as he says, “My Lord and my God!” We are encouraged to live and grow in faith, even in moments when it seems that God is absent. This is not blind faith. Our faith is rooted in the encounters we have with the Lord Jesus and the witness of generations of faithful people.

Learn to Trust in Jesus on Divine Mercy Sunday

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

On April 30, 2000, St. Pope John Paul II canonized Sister Faustina Kowalska, a religious mystic from Poland who died in 1938. In the early 1930s, Sister Faustina reported apparitions of Jesus which eventually were approved as authentic apparitions by the Vatican. Finally, St. Faustina spoke with an artist who painted the image, which is on the bulletin cover this week. The image of Jesus walking towards us, pulling back a part of his white gown, and white and red rays coming from his Sacred Heart is known as Divine Mercy. Below Jesus is the saying, “Jesus, I trust in You.”

Since the canonization in 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter has been known as Divine Mercy Sunday. It is the final day in the Octave of Easter. Our liturgical year has two octaves: the Christmas Octave and the Easter Octave. The Octave allows us to celebrate eight times what is celebrated on the first of the eight days. So for eight days, the joy of Christmas and Easter is celebrated, the two pivotal moments in our faith: God becoming man and God rising from the dead. Both octaves culminate on the 8th day. For Christmas, the Octave reaches its climax on Jan. 1, formerly the naming of Jesus, but now celebrates Mary, the Mother of God. For Easter, the Octave reaches its climax with Divine Mercy Sunday.

Associated with a devotion to the Divine Mercy of God is the Divine Mercy Chaplet, inspired by the apparitions of Jesus to St. Faustina. The chaplet uses a regular rosary and is similar in the practice of repetition, repeating the same prayer on all the Hail Mary beads and the same prayer on the Our Father beads. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is an easy way to remind ourselves of God’s endless mercy as we say, “Eternal Father, I offer you the body, blood, soul, and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world,” as well as “For the sake of his sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.”

Every Sunday is a mini-Easter and a reminder of God’s never-failing mercy for us. This celebration of Mercy is a daily reminder that just as Jesus is risen from the dead and offers us a share in his divine life through baptism, his mercy is also available for us every day. And by our baptism, by becoming a new creation in Christ, we are invited to share that love and mercy with others every day.

Let us always be reminded that God’s mercy has also conquered the grave with the Resurrection. In his Divine Mercy, we learn to trust in Jesus and that no matter the darkness of our lives, Jesus always walks towards us, inviting us to eternal life.

Evangelization

The Stump of Jesse

Back to the Original!

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Father, how was your trip visiting family?" Well, I would say, "It was sweet!" Interestingly, when asked, we tend to have a more profound appreciation of our encounters or experiences. Besides spending time with family, one of the highlights from the trip was food hunting for original Vietnamese dishes (think about your favorite dishes that you have been craving for a long time, and all were being presented in front of you — yes, yummy!).

Sometimes, a favorite dish is not fancy but contains fond memories, bringing back a sense of joy. I remembered eating a bony fish dish (which cost around $10 for five people), which made my day. It brought me back to the joy of having something on the table during the depression in the economy in my village.

As we celebrate the Second Sunday of Easter, we invite you to reflect on the Divine Mercy. The mercy gave miraculous healing to the soldier, Longinus, who pierced our Lord's heart at Golgotha by the water and blood that fell from Jesus's side. The Lord gives mercy, as Peter in today's second reading exclaims, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

St. John Paul II echoes Peter's words saying, "There is nothing more man needs than Divine Mercy — that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights to the holiness of God." Yes, at the moment of desperation because of our sins, the Lord has given us a new birth through Christ's death and resurrection, bringing us back to the original relationship with God the Father. So, when shopping for original clothing and hunting for authentic food, rest in the original love that the Lord has for us, especially in the Eucharist. I love being a priest! JMJ.

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

At Holy Name Cathedral, our Resurrection Cross is unique. Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, artist Ivo Demetz created our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale from our ushers for $20. We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. See our ushers for more details.

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Become Inspired by Famous Catholic Lives

Sunday, April 16, after 5:15pm Mass in Club Room

Holy Name Cathedral believes in the concept of lifelong faith formation. St. Teresa of Avila refers to this concept in her book “The Interior Castle.” She proposes seven mansions on this journey.

Each offers spiritual nourishment, and yet, the thirst for more leads the pilgrim to the next mansion, which provide even more profound nourishment for the soul.

In this spirit, we are hosting a monthly gathering starting tonight (and on the third Sunday of each month) after the 5:15pm Mass, focusing on a Catholic saint or other Catholic legendary hero. After some small refreshments, a layperson will present the saint/legend of the month and facilitate a discussion on aspects of the person that you might consider for your own spiritual nourishment of the journey. After the discussion, there will be a brief period of informal conversation. We meet in the Club Room.

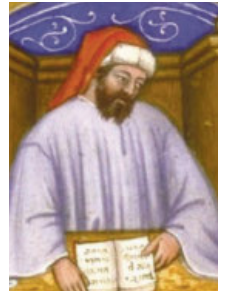

In the spirit of accompaniment, it is important to remember that not every saint or legendary person speaks to each person at his/her point of the journey. Each person determines the Catholic mentors that help this point of life. This initiative is an opportunity to gather socially, learn from one another, and create a sense of belonging.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
