Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

April is quickly giving way to May. Trees are in full bloom, flowers are budding, and the peak of spring bird migration is almost upon us. Seasons change, and so do we. How do I see myself? Do I judge others too quickly?

The Easter Season speaks of life so abundant we call it eternal--Resurrection. Easter is also an opportunity to open our eyes and see. How do we see, and what do we see? Keep reading. ...

Have a Cookie

A young lady was waiting for her flight in the boarding room of a big airport. As she would need to wait many hours, she decided to buy a book to spend her time. She also bought a packet of cookies. She sat down on an armchair in the VIP room of the airport to rest and read in peace. Beside the armchair where the package of cookies lay, a man sat down in the next seat, opened his magazine, and started reading.

When she took out the first cookie, the man also took one. She felt irritated but said nothing. She thought: "What a nerve! If I were in the mood, I would punch him for daring!" For each cookie she took, the man took one too. It infuriated her, but she didn't want to cause a scene. When only one cookie remained, she thought, "Ah...what will this selfish man do now?" Then the man taking the last cookie, divided it into half, giving her one half. Ah! That was too much! She was furious now! She took her book and her things and, in a huff, stormed to the boarding place.

When she sat in her seat inside the plane, she looked into her purse to take her eyeglasses, and, to her surprise, her cookie packet was untouched, unopened! She felt so ashamed!! She realized that she was wrong. She had forgotten that she had put her cookies in her purse. The man had divided his cookies with her without feeling angered or bitter, while she had been outraged, thinking that she was dividing her cookies with him. And now, there was no chance to explain herself nor to apologize.

There are four things that we cannot recover:

The stone ... after the throw.

The word ... after it's said.

The occasion ... after the loss.

The time ... after it's gone!

Great "food for thought." And I close with this "morsel!"...

"It is easy to love the people far away.

It is not always easy to love those close to us. It is easier to give a cup of rice to relieve hunger than to relieve the loneliness and pain of someone unloved in our home. Bring love into your home, for this is where our love for each other must start."

— St. Teresa of Calcutta

Easter Season Blessings and Peace,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Heartfelt congratulations to all our children who received their First Holy Communion yesterday. Know our prayers are with each of you and your families. This time is truly a blessed day in your life!

Welcome! Make Holy Name Your Cathedral.

"Jesus the Good Shepherd," Stained glass in Milan, Italy

We are most familiar with images referring to Jesus as the Resurrection and the Life or the Good Shepherd, but in

today's Gospel. Jesus

uses the image of 'gatekeeping.' Jesus begins with a parable about a gatekeeper who knows Jesus and opens the gate for the sheep to enter the sheepfold. Since the sheep are familiar with Jesus' voice, they trust him and follow wherever he leads.

Jesus tells this parable explicitly for the Pharisees to identify his role as leader of God's people. When the Pharisees fail to understand Jesus' message, he becomes more direct: "I am the gate for the sheep" (Jn 10: 7). As the gate, Jesus offers safety as well as freedom on the path to salvation. This image opens a richness for reflection. As the gate, Jesus offers access to what nourishes and protects from harm. The risen Lord sustains us in our journey, accompanying us as we move toward the Father.

Catholic Illuminations

Listen to the Voice of Jesus, Look to the Blessed Virgin Mary

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

This weekend throughout the world, we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday, given its name by the Gospel passage that is read, and because of this, a time to sit and reflect on vocations. A vocation is a call, coming from the Latin word vocare. Each of us has a call in life, a call to holiness, a general vocation given to each baptized person to be holy and a saint. And through this call of holiness, there is a particular vocation, whether single life, consecrated life, or married life.

And the call-within-a-call fulfills us in our particular vocation. For me, the priesthood has brought a sense of joy, peace, and happiness, where nothing is more appealing than serving God and his Church. For my parents, who celebrate 38 years of marriage this June, my mother finds purpose as a registered nurse in pediatrics and my dad as an employee of the Catholic Cemeteries of Chicago. Vocations come in all forms and calls. But what is essential is that we listen to the voice of the One who calls us. And that is what Good Shepherd Sunday is all about, listening to the voice of Jesus.

To listen and hear the voice of Jesus, we must look to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Traditionally, the month of May is understood as the Month of Mary. During this month, various devotional practices occur, such as reciting the Rosary, creating a Mary altar in your home with a Marian image or statue, and May crowning.

Dedicating the month of May to the Blessed Mother has no precise beginning date but can be traced back to the early Church. Ancient Greeks and Romans had a month dedicated to a goddess associated with fertility, springtime, and new beginnings. When Mary said ‘Yes’ at the Annunciation, she put God’s plan of salvation into motion, a springtime in human history. May is an expulsion of the winter months and a breaking forth of springtime with the flowers that bud and blossom in reaction to the rain showers of April.

At the end of the 13th century, a more formal way of honoring Mary was observed. And it grew as the Jesuits strongly promoted the practice of May dedicated to Mary in the 18th century. In 1587, the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary was composed with additional titles added over the years. In this litany, there are various titles to Mary, in Scripture, tradition and through popular devotion. As with Mary, who is full of grace, all of the titles associated with her, in one way or another, point to her Son, Jesus Christ.

And so, on this World Day of Vocations and Good Shepherd Sunday, what better model to look to than the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose whole life was dedicated to hearing the voice of her Son, the voice of her Savior. As we embark on this new month tomorrow, let us ask Mary to be our guide, to lead us to her Son, whose voice gives meaning and purpose to our lives, whose voice leads us to happiness and guides us to heaven, and desire more earnestly that she continues to pray for us, even at the hour of our death.

“One Decade a Day” Format starts May 11 in the Rectory

If you are interested in how to be happier and be open for new blessings in your life, please join our new group in which we will explain how to use the

Rosary in a format of “One Decade a Day.” We will meet in the Rectory on Thursday, May 11 and Thursday, May 18 at 6:30pm. If you would like to participate, please register via the QR code or simply join us on Thursday, May 11. Being close to the Rosary brings blessings in many ways. “One Decade a Day” is an easy and one of the most fascinating among them all.

Heart of Holy Name

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

A heartfelt thank you to all those who supported the Cathedral's major fundraising event, Heart of Holy Name, on April 21 at the Chicago Cultural Center. The event was a great success with about 250 parishioners and friends gathered to celebrate the heart of our mission and ministries including our beautiful liturgies, evangelization programs, and service ministries caring for those in need.

A special thanks to our Heart of Holy Name sponsors, live auction item winners, and those who donated live auction items including Chuck Swirsky, Joseph Binder, Fred Latsko, Joe Carlucci, Blue Plate Catering, Fr. Andy Matijevic and Fr. Louis Cameli. Thank you also to Danny Romano with Romano Beverage Company for donating the wine and spirits for the Wine and Spirits Pull.

Congratulations to Deacon Stan Strom who received the first annual Heart of Holy Name Award for his deep faith and dedicated service to our Cathedral community for more than 20 years. Congratulations also to Bethany House of Hospitality as recipient of the first annual Mother Cabrini Legacy Award for their wonderful work helping young immigrant women transition to a life of independence.

Our Faith Community is truly the Heart of Holy Name. We'll have further details about the event in an upcoming bulletin.

Deacon Stan Strom accepts the first annual Heart of Holy Name award from Fr. Greg Sakowicz and Fr. Ryan Brady.

Sr. Kathlyn Mulcahy, Executive Director of Bethany House accepts the first annual Mother Cabrini Legacy Award from Fr. Greg Sakowicz and Dr. Carol Christiansen.

The Stump of Jesse

I Love Being a Priest

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Can you spot who's missing in this photo? It might be you if the Lord calls you to be a priest! Contact Fr. Tim Monahan at (312) 534-8298 if these words, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; He has sent me to continue his prophecy, to bring good news, liberty, healing, and grace."

Before the Chrism Mass on Tuesday during the Holy Week, my Chicago classmates (missing Fr. Ryan who is taking his doctoral studies in Rome and Fr. Rob who was catching up with priest friends) had a short reunion. By the way, if you can locate where we had coffee and be the first person to send me an email, I will take you out for a cup of Cappuccino.

We shared some of our priestly experiences both in time of joy and struggles. Pope Francis, in his Holy Thursday homily, beautifully preached, "We [priests] too experienced an initial anointing, which began with a loving call that captivated our hearts and set us out on the journey; the power of the Holy Spirit descended upon our genuine enthusiasm and consecrated us. Later, in God's good time, each of us experienced a Passover, representing the moment of truth. A time of crisis which took various forms. Sooner or later, we all experience disappointment, frustration and our own weaknesses; our ideals seem to recede in the face of reality, a certain force of habit takes over, and difficulties that once seemed unimaginable appear to challenge our fidelity."

I remember going to the hospital for an emergency anointing of a person facing imminent death. It was a busy day, and my mind went blank in finding consoling words for family members. When I anxiously approached the hospital room, the wife and her children greeted me and gracefully shared their love and appreciation for priests. The conversation continued with their lifelong encounters with their parish priests at baptisms, First Holy Communion, weddings, galas, etc. They were true "Veronica" and "Simon" for me on that heavy day.

On the World Day Prayer for Vocations, may the Lord send discerners the gift of understanding to discern their service in the Church, the priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life; and to have courage responding to the Lord's invitation! JMJ.

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Become Inspired by St. Damien of Molokai

Sunday, May 21, after 5:15pm Mass

Considered an unlikely candidate for the priesthood, Fr. Damien lived the Gospel, preaching, caring, and advocating for the residents of the Hawaiian leper colony on the Kalaupapa Peninsula. His ministry is one of accompaniment with the marginalized. Together, we will recognize how Damien's spirituality may parallel Pope Francis' Art of Accompaniment.

Career Network May Webinar

Tips for the Job Search for Older Candidates

Thursday, May 18, at 7:00 pm via Zoom

Join us for our May webinar! The topic will be “The Job Search for Older Candidates”. What is the biggest challenge in finding a job over age 50, and what can you do about it? This presentation looks at this subject with an eye to dealing with the special issues of older workers. The main points that will be discussed include:

- Facing the “age” issues
- Careful on that resume!
- Control what you can control.

Jim Peterson

Jim Peterson is a co-founder of the Career Boot Camp which ran for 10 years in the suburbs as part of the Interfaith Career Network. As a professional who found three great jobs since turning 50 in 2002, Jim has lots of insights into this topic. Scan the QR code to sign up.

Chicago Shares Returns!

A Great Way To Help The Needy

Congratulations to Chicago Shares on the celebration of their 30th anniversary on April 14, 2023. Since the founding of Chicago Shares in 1993, more than one million food vouchers have been distributed. Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral lobby on Sunday, May 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to “throwing coins in a cup.” The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop – never for alcohol or tobacco.

Here’s how one regular buyer explains it: “Giving Chicago Shares is like lighting a candle. It’s a very small thing, but every ray of light is a good thing.” May the work of this organization continue for another 30 years and beyond!

Questions? Ask the Chicago Shares team in the vestibule or go to chicagoshares.org.

Please consider online giving for your Sunday offering. It is a “green” way of giving and puts your donation to work more quickly. You define the schedule — just scan the QR code to sign up for our easy-to-use and secure online giving platform on Pushpay.

Thank You for the Gift of Stewardship

A heartfelt thank you to our parishioners and visitors for your gift of stewardship to Holy Name Cathedral. Your generosity supports our many ministries and programs helping to advance our mission of evangelization and bringing people to Christ. Thank you for the gifts you share with our Faith Community and those we serve around our city and around the world.

Young Adult Ministry

Annual Theology on Tap Series Begins May 7

Sunday, May 7 at 6:15pm in Courtyard

Since its creation in the Archdiocese of Chicago in 1981, Theology on Tap is a program created for young adults interested in learning more about their faith, coming together to share community, and feeling welcomed and valued in the Catholic Church.

Holy Name Cathedral will kick off our 2023 season with the first topic: “Catholics and the Social Media Algorithm.” Our speaker will be Fr. Tim Anastos, Associate Chaplain of the St. John Paul II Newman Center at the University of Illinois Chicago. Assuming weather permits, we will meet in the Cathedral Courtyard (or in the Club Room if it rains). No advance registration needed.

Limited Tickets for Seniors Available for CSO Rehearsal

Thursday, May 11, 10:00am at Symphony Hall

We are grateful that the Chicago Symphony Orchestra is once again sharing complementary tickets for their next rehearsal on Thursday, May 11, 10:00am – 12:30pm. This event will take place at Symphony Hall, 220 S Michigan Ave, Chicago, IL 60604. These are intended for senior members of our Faith Community.

Riccardo Muti

The conductor will be Maestro Riccardo Muti. Here is the planned program: Wagner - Overture to Tannhauser, Montgomery - New Work (CSO commission, world premiere), Rachmaninov - Symphony No. 2 in E Minor, OP. 27

Tickets are free but there is a limited number. Scan the QR code to reserve your tickets soon!

Travel with Fr. Boivin on a Pilgrimage to Italian Shrines

October 1-15, 2023

Join Fr. John Boivin, retired Associate Pastor of Holy Name Cathedral, on a two-week pilgrimage/tour of Italy. You will encounter the art, architecture, and history of various Italian cathedrals and holy shrines. You will visit Rome, Assisi (above), Siena, Florence, Padua, and Venice and more. For more information, scan the QR code.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
