Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

I had the best Mother in the whole world! Mom died in January 2020. My Mother was loving, caring, humorous, compassionate, faith-filled, always giving, and my best friend. About 15 years ago, I asked Mom her definition of Motherhood. She paused and said:

“A willingness to be inconvenienced.”

As a child, I took my Mother for granted. Mom is Mom — you know, the one who picks up after you, cooks, cleans, drives you to baseball, football, and basketball practice, rushes you to emergency rooms for stitches, stays on your case for three hours to clean your room when she could have completed the task in 15 minutes and serves as a referee between my brother, sisters and me. The list is endless.

In the last 10 years before Mom died, I came to appreciate the gift of my Mother more deeply. Sometimes, we gain the wisdom of the years to help us better understand the gifts God has given us.

I can only “see” Mothering through the eyes of a son. What goes through the minds and hearts of all our Mothers? What are we celebrating today on this Mother’s Day? I recently received this powerful poem entitled: “A Message for Young Mothers” by Mary Costello which I would like to share with all of you.

A Message for Young Mothers (Things I Wish I’d Known)

I’ve learned a lot in my old age. I’ve even learned a thing or two about myself.

I used to think I was a terrible housekeeper because I could never keep up with the laundry, the dirty ice cream bowls on the countertops, and the newspapers on the floor.

One year, when we finally got to the bottom of the piles in the laundry room, we found clothes that hadn’t fit anybody in years. In fact, we found shorts and shirts we had never seen before.

There was a time when I couldn’t find a safety pin, a sewing needle, or a piece of blank paper to leave someone a message, much less a pen to write with. I thought I was a rotten manager. Why didn’t I have more drive or ambition?

I tried not to make commitments. When I did, I let people down. I’d promise to attend a meeting, for example, and chair a committee. Then I’d have to cancel at the last minute because the baby got sick.

For years, I thought I was a terrible person because I could never say a prayer without an interruption, and even if I didn’t have an interruption, I could only pray about things like “Please, Lord, let the stain in this shirt come out. It cost too much to be ruined.” Then the kids grew up and left home.

I found I was not a terrible housekeeper; instead, I’d been surrounded by a bunch of normal, wonderful, messy kids. I hadn’t had any energy because I had been working very hard. I wasn’t even a rotten manager; it’s just not possible to keep up with so many people.

I wish I’d known that then! I wish I had acknowledged that having dishes on the counter and newspapers on the floor is OK because the most important thing is rocking a baby. I wish I could say: “I’m terribly sorry I cannot come to your meeting.

Maybe someday I’ll be able to get involved and contribute toward a more loving world. But right now, I have to stay at home and make sure we have a loving world here on Bradfield Drive.”

I wish I had understood that Jesus was saying: “When you rock that baby and sing that baby to sleep, that is your very best prayer. By loving that child, you are loving Me. All I ask of you right now is to model my love for your partner and your children. All I expect you to do today is love.”

We are called to love. That’s all. I wish I had realized it earlier. God had truly blessed my family through the love, care and patience of our Mother. Mom, I love you very much, and yes, I have inconvenienced you a thousand times!!

A Blessed, Joyous & Peaceful Mother’s Day to all our Moms and all women who love in a motherly way.

Forever grateful,
Fr. Greg

“Christ in Majesty” by Coppo di Marcovaldo Mosaic, at Battistero di San Giovanni, Firenze, Italy

Love and law are usually thought to be opposites. The Pharisees were loveless legalists. Obeying the laws—all the laws—was their thing, and their only thing. Jesus was often seen as the opposite: pro-love and anti-law. That's a mistake. He was anti-legalism but not anti-law. He said, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.” Love is not a feeling. It is a willing, a choice. That's why love is commanded by Christ. You can't command a feeling. How silly would it be to say, “I command you to feel sweet feelings of compassion or desire or concern for me.” To love God is simply to say, “Thy will be done,” and mean it, and live it. And that will of God for us is expressed by laws, by commandments. We cannot will feelings into existence, but we can will love into existence because love is not a feeling but a free choice.

Diaconate Ministry is a Vital Part of Our Catholic Church

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

This past weekend, we celebrated Diaconate Ordination at the Cathedral for 23 new deacons who will serve in parishes across the Archdiocese of Chicago. Four of them are transitional deacons, meaning they will move to priesthood ordination in May 2024, and the remaining 19 are permanent deacons, most of whom are married and have a family. At diaconate ordination, the promise of celibacy is taken for the rest of the individual's life if they are not married at the time of ordination. No canonical or sacramental difference exists between permanent and transitional deacons; they are all ordained into one diaconate.

We trace the ministry of deacon back to the early Church. In Acts of the Apostles, chapter 6, we read about seven reputable men who were chosen and filled with the Holy Spirit, had the Apostles lay hands on them. One of these seven men was Stephen, the first Martyr, who died professing that Jesus of Nazareth is risen from the dead. Around the fifth century, the diaconate ministry began to fade from the Church and would remain so until the Second Vatican Council. In 1967, St. Pope Paul VI restored the practice of men being ordained deacons of those who did not want to become priests, now understood as the permanent diaconate.

The diaconal ministry then, as it still is today, is focused on three areas of ministry. The deacon functions as a minister of the liturgy, a minister of the Word and a minister of charity.

During the Rite of Ordination for a Deacon, the bishop hands the Book of the Gospels to the newly ordained and vested deacon (who wears the stole and the dalmatic, symbols of the diaconal office) and says, "Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe and practice what you teach." This simple phrase goes to the depths of the diaconal ministry. Because deacons preach the Word of God, they celebrate the Sacraments of Baptisms and Weddings, assist at the altar, and support the poor and outcast.

Deacons assist the priest at Mass, preach the Gospel, prepare the altar, welcome all to share the sign of peace and dismiss the congregation at the end of Mass. Deacons preach the Word by offering retreats and days of renewal, going to prisons and nursing homes, and celebrating Communion Services. Deacons perform acts of charity by serving in food pantries and soup kitchens and assisting those in need.

Deacons, fundamentally in their being, are agents of service. This purpose is why every ordained priest has been a deacon, and their call of service does not go away when a transitional deacon is ordained a priest or even when the priest is ordained a bishop. Please pray for those newly ordained men who have had Cardinal Cupich lay his hands upon them, filled with the Holy Spirit and ready to continue the work of the early Church in an unbroken line of ordaining to serve. Also, pray for an increase in vocations to the diaconate and to serve God's people in the Church so that more people may hear God's voice through actions of love and service.

The Stump of Jesse

Cut to the Heart

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Nguyen Van Chung, a Vietnamese composer, wrote a beautiful song talking about the amazing love of a mother titled “Mum’s Diary.” I want to share some of the song lyrics:

“Many days I have been looking, many days I have been waiting. Many days I have been longing for your birth from inside me. Was that the laughter of a growing infant? Suddenly I wake up, and I see my tiny angel; I heard your cry, my eyes blurred with tears. Thank you for coming into my life.

Chorus: My beloved, do you know? I love you, love you the most. Look at you, in your crib. Look at your wide eyes, oh my dear Here’s your father; he’s so happy with tears on his face. Look at him; he’s crying.

One day I wake up, and I hear you babble a sound: ‘Mama!’ Such an unexpected word from such tiny lips. My heart explodes with happiness. This is earth, this is sky. This is the place where you were born. Walking behind your dad, with such tiny feet. It’s your first step in your life. My beloved, do you know? I love you, love you so much. Keep walking. I am here. Watching your every step. One day, when you’re grown up, life may not be how you expected. Just rise up and keep walking.”

The song continues talking about the child’s first day of class. Then, the child has his first love, goes far away to establish his career, has his family, and the mother always waits for his return. This song does cut through to the heart. Thank you to all the mothers who have brought us to this earth and our spiritual mothers who care for us in many ways. It is also May – the Month of Mary. We thank the Lord who gives us his Mother Mary to be ours and an earthly mother who loves and cares for us. An excellent way to celebrate Mother’s Day this year is to thank our mothers with an act of gratefulness. I love being a Priest! JMJ.

Putting Christ Above All Else

On this sixth Sunday of Easter, our readings remind us that God must come first in our lives, and that love of God shows itself in concrete actions — this is precisely why the stewardship way of life is so necessary.

Our second reading, from St. Peter, challenges us to, “Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts.” In other words, we are to put Christ first above all else in our lives. His role is not merely as Savior of our lives, as significant as that role is — He is to be “Lord” of our lives as well. As His disciples, we are called to make Him ruler of all aspects of our lives — our time, talent, and treasure.

The beauty of the stewardship way of life is that it offers us a concrete means to show that Christ truly is Lord of our lives, to “prove” our love, in a manner of speaking, because true love is not a mere sentiment. “Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me,” Jesus tells us in our Gospel passage from John.

True love is an act of the will. It requires obedience to all of God's commandments. This requires courage, humility, and deep trust in Him.

SCHOLARSHIP SUNDAY MAY 21

HELP US MAKE A DIFFERENCE

In the late 1980's, the late Mrs. Maggie Daley and Fr. Jack Wall, Pastor at Old St. Patrick's Church, discussed the idea of founding a new Catholic School. In 1989, their dream became a reality as they opened St. Patrick's School, now called The Frances Xavier Warde School.

Around the same time, they founded an organization to support the socio-economic diversity FXW was committed to enrolling, and in 1990 The Children at the Crossroads Foundation (CATC) was created on the belief that economic circumstances should not preclude an eager and capable child from receiving a quality education. The Foundation seeks to enrich our community by significantly improving the academic achievement, self-esteem and life opportunities of schoolchildren by offering need-based scholarship support to students attending The Frances Xavier Warde School (FXW). Each spring, Old St. Patrick's Church and Holy Name Cathedral partner with CATC for Scholarship Sunday.

CATC and FXW are grateful for our longstanding partnership with Holy Name Cathedral. The generosity of the HNC members plays an integral role in supporting the hundreds of current students receiving assistance. Over 200 students attending FXW receive some form of tuition assistance, and 100% of the students and faculty benefit from the socio-economic diversity the School has to offer. Your support is an affirmation that you believe, like we do, that we can form the faith of the next generation and send them onward to create an impact in our city, country, and the world.

Attracting students from over 60 zip codes, CATC provides multi-year scholarships for students to attend FXW. In this environment, children experience an exceptional education, rooted in faith, service, diversity and inclusion. Thanks to CATC and FXW, students matriculate to the finest high schools and colleges in the country. Since its inception, CATC has awarded over $17 million to more than a thousand scholarship recipients.

Can we count on you to continue our good work?

Tips for the Job Search for Older Candidates

Thursday, May 18, at 7:00 pm via Zoom

Join us for our May webinar! The topic will be “The Job Search for Older Candidates”. What is the biggest challenge in finding a job over age 50, and what can you do about it? This presentation looks at this subject with an eye to dealing with the special issues of older workers. The main points that will be discussed include:

Jim Peterson

- Facing the “age” issues
- Careful on that resume!
- Control what you can control.

Jim Peterson is a co-founder of the Career Boot Camp which ran for 10 years in the suburbs as part of the Interfaith Career Network. As a professional who found three great jobs since turning 50 in 2002, Jim has lots of insights into this topic. Scan the QR code to sign up.

Thursday-Friday Suppers Ministry

Every Thursday and Friday, Holy Name Cathedral provides a warm meal to 200+ of our neighbors in need. There are several ways to get involved: assist in assembling meals and serving our guests, bake cookies or small desserts for the meal, help us find local restaurants to donate meals or volunteer to provide music. Scan the QR code to sign up. Many thanks to our restaurant and retail partners who assist us in providing these meals. Some of our partners include DMK Burger

Bar, DMK Fish Bar, Italian Village Restaurants, Jewel-Osco and Dao Thai Restaurant. Please consider supporting them for their generous gifts to our ministry.

Chicago Shares Returns!

A Great Way To Help The Needy

Since the founding of Chicago Shares in 1993, more than one million food vouchers have been distributed. Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral lobby on Sunday, May 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to “throwing coins in a cup.” The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop – never for alcohol or tobacco.

Here’s how one regular buyer explains it: “Giving Chicago Shares is like lighting a candle. It’s a very small thing, but every ray of light is a good thing.” May the work of this organization continue for another 30 years and beyond!

Questions? Ask the Chicago Shares team in the vestibule or go to chicagoshares.org.

Thank you to our Blessings in a Backpack Volunteers!

Thank you to the dozens of volunteers that packed and delivered our weekly care packages of weekend food to children served during the week by the Federal Hot Lunch program. Our 80+ volunteers create 300 packs of food for children who face food insecurity every weekend. We are always looking for volunteers to help drive and pack bags. Scan the QR code for more information or to volunteer.

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Become Inspired by Famous Catholic Lives

Next Event on Sunday, May 21 in the Club Room

Holy Name Cathedral believes in the concept of lifelong faith formation. St. Teresa of Avila refers to this concept in her book “The Interior Castle.” She proposes seven mansions on this journey.

Each offers spiritual nourishment, and yet, the thirst for more leads the pilgrim to the next mansion, which provide even more profound nourishment for the soul.

St. Damien of Molokai

In this spirit, we are hosting a monthly gathering on the third Sunday of each month after the 5:15pm Mass, focusing on a Catholic saint or other Catholic legendary hero. Our next event will be on Sunday, May 21 in the Club Room and our discussion will be about St. Damien of Molokai.

Considered an unlikely candidate for the priesthood, Fr. Damien lived the Gospel, preaching, caring, and advocating for the residents of the Hawaiian leper colony on the Kalaupapa Peninsula. His ministry is one of accompaniment with the marginalized. Together, we will recognize how Damien’s spirituality may parallel Pope Francis’ Art of Accompaniment.

In the spirit of accompaniment, it is important to remember that not every saint or legendary person speaks to each person at his/her point of the journey. Each person determines the Catholic mentors that help this point of life. This initiative is an opportunity to gather socially, learn from one another, and create a sense of belonging.

Upcoming Discussions

- ✠ May 21: St. Damien of Molokai with Ken Ortega
- ✠ June 18: Camino de Santiago with Bob Larson

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
