Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us! The Feast of the Pentecost celebrates images of the Holy Spirit: sometimes a tongue of fire as in the Pentecost story, more often a hovering dove. But there is another way to imagine this gift of the risen Jesus: The word “spirit” itself. In Greek, the language of the New Testament, the word for spirit is identical to the word for wind or breath. Wind, breath, Spirit — all the same! Even deeper, it is God’s breath of life. And do we let the Spirit of God take our breath away?

The Feast of the Pentecost — a feast celebrating the Spirit upon and with each one of us — means we do not walk through life alone. The Lord Jesus is with us, and the Spirit of the Lord is upon us!

What does the Spirit of life — wind and breath — look like? What difference should this Spirit make in our life — and in the lives of those we touch? The following two powerful stories are filled with a profound spirit — wind & breath. Like the old baseball slogan proclaims — “Baseball fever — Catch it!” Catch the Spirit of the Lord and become breath and wind to all we meet.

Many of us also begin this time of year by making summer plans regarding what we hope to accomplish. It usually involves a task or project for the “slower” summer days. Yet, as I listen to many people, the summer months are pretty busy, and we don’t seem to “get around” to all those planned projects. So what! Take the time this summer to spend more time with family and friends. Make the time to spend quiet moments in prayer.

Amid this Memorial Day weekend, may we remember all those men and women who have died so we may have freedom and life. Never miss the opportunity to say “thank you” and always listen to God present through life and nature around us. ...

Whispers

The man whispered, “God, speak to me,” and a meadowlark sang. But the man did not hear.

So the man yelled, “God, speak to me,” and the thunder rolled across the sky. But the man did not listen.

The man looked around and said, “God, let me see you,” and a star shined brightly. But the man did not see.

The man looked around and said, “God, show me a miracle,” and a life was born. But the man did not notice.

So the man cried out in despair, “Touch me, God, and let me know you are here.”

But the man brushed the butterfly away ... and walked on.

I found this a great reminder that God is always around us in the little and simple things we take for granted... even in our electronic age. So I would like to add one more:

The man cried, “God, I need your help!”

And an e-mail arrived reaching out with good news and encouragement.

But the man deleted it and continued crying.

Don’t miss out on a blessing because it isn’t packaged as expected.

— Author unknown

And I conclude with the following ...

One Sunday morning at a small southern church, the new pastor called on one of the older deacons to lead the opening prayer. The deacon stood up, bowed his head, and said, “Lord, I hate buttermilk.”

The pastor opened one eye and wondered where this was going. The deacon continued, “Lord, I hate lard.” Now the pastor was perplexed.

The deacon continued, “Lord, I’m not crazy about plain flour either. But after you mix them and bake them in a hot oven...I just love biscuits!”

The deacon didn’t stop there. “Lord,” he said, “Help us to realize when things come up that we don’t like or don’t understand what you are doing that we need to wait and see what you are making. After you get through mixing and baking, it will probably be something even better than biscuits.” Amen!

Memorial Weekend Blessings,
Fr. Greg

The Descent of the Holy Spirit, Fresco in Greek Catholic Melkite Cathedral of the Annunciation of the Virgin, East Jerusalem

Pentecost, the Greek word for 'Shavuot' is an ancient feast in Israel that celebrates the harvest and giving of the Torah on Sinai. In the Christian liturgical calendar, we observe Pentecost 50 days after Easter Sunday, which marks the end of the Easter season and celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and other disciples of Jesus. This is narrated in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2: 1-4).

Today is the Solemnity of Pentecost, when we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the disciples and their sharing of the Good News of Jesus Christ with the world. This day is acknowledged as the birth of the Church, since it is the day when the frightened and confused disciples emerged from the upper room, boldly proclaiming the mighty acts of God through our crucified and risen Lord.

Time to Celebrate the Holy Spirit and the Blessed Mother

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

With the celebration of Pentecost, the Church formally concludes the Easter Season. The liturgical Easter Season begins at the Great Vigil of Easter, the “truly blessed night, worthy alone to know the time and hour when Christ rose from the underworld” (Easter Exultet), and concludes 50 days later with the celebration of Pentecost. Easter is longer than Lent and Christmas, signifying its significance in our Christian life, and climaxes with Pentecost Sunday.

In Judaism, seven weeks after Passover was the Feast of Shavuot (Feast of Weeks/Pentecost), one of the three pilgrimage festivals, with the other two being Passover and Sukkot (Feast of Booths). Therefore, many Jews from different areas with a foreign language were in Jerusalem, and Peter’s profession of faith after being filled with the Holy Spirit was indeed a work of God. Jews from all over the known world came to Jerusalem for this celebration, marking 50 days from Passover, and through the gift of the Spirit, Peter could proclaim the truths of our faith, that Jesus of Nazareth died and has risen from the dead.

The Feast of Shavuot also commemorates God’s giving of the Torah, the Law, to Moses on Mount Sinai. It is a remembrance of the Jews fleeing Egypt, where the Angel of Death passed over the houses with the lambs’ blood and struck down the firstborn of the Egyptians, including the son of Pharaoh. This occurrence led to the quick exodus of the Israelites, crossing the Red Sea, and then being given the Law on Mount Sinai as the Chosen People. Pentecost, for both Catholics and Jews, is not an end but a beginning.

In 2018, Pope Francis added a memorial to the General Roman Calendar. The Monday after Pentecost is the Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church. Mary was with the Apostles as they kept vigil in the upper room after Jesus ascended into heaven. Mary was at the foot of the Cross. Mary was there when Jesus was placed in the manger in Bethlehem. Mary is a constant presence in the early Church. We recognize her role in salvation history by celebrating Mary, Mother of the Church, the day after Pentecost. That through her obedience to God’s Will, the Law, the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us (John 1:14). We celebrate Mary because, without her presence along the journey of the early Church, we would not be here today. We honor Mary because, through her life, she teaches us how to follow Jesus faithfully.

As we enter the season of Ordinary Time, which will remain uninterrupted until Advent, which begins on Sunday, Dec. 3 this year, let us use these many weeks of the liturgical year to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ, who suffered, died, rose again from the dead, ascended into heaven and with the Father, sent the Holy Spirit. Let us also look to Mary, the Mother of the Church, to guide us closer to her son and to say with confidence as she did to whatever God asks of us, “May it be done to me according to your Word” (Luke 1:38).

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, in Response to the Illinois Attorney General Report

May 23, 2023

Today, Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul published a report (the Report) on his office's investigation of allegations of child sexual abuse against clergy in the six Illinois Catholic dioceses over a period of nearly 90 years. The Report addresses both how dioceses responded to such allegations in decades past and current policies that help ensure the safety of children and support the healing of survivors. We have not studied the report in detail but have concerns about data that might be misunderstood or are presented in ways that could be misleading. It is therefore important that we state what we know to be true. For example:

The 451 names "disclosed:

- 451 is all 6 dioceses and includes religious order priests
- 451 includes the priests already on the 6 web sites
- ALL were reported to civil authorities, none were undisclosed, none were "hiding in plain sight since at least 2002.

• We DO list religious found by their orders to be substantiated

• 149 still "undisclosed" men are mostly religious order members who are not on our site; they are not undisclosed, and they are under the supervision and report to their respective order. AG himself distinguished between dioceses and religious orders, saying "this was an investigation of the dioceses, not the orders," recognizing they are different. However their totals include both.

• AG said: church is more worthy of investigation because it is a trusted religious organization. We think all children deserve to be protected regardless of whether they are cared for by a religious or secular institution; it isn't fair or wise to focus only on the Catholic Church, which has made the greatest strides in this area.

• Statute of limitations: we offer care, compassion (pastoral outreach) and even compensation to all who come forward, regardless of the statute of limitations.

• AG recommends outsiders being involved in overseeing our internal church investigations. We have had an independent review board with lay people overseeing these investigations since 1992, which is why the number of abuse incidents has dropped so dramatically.

We must think first of the survivors of sexual abuse who carry the burden of these crimes through their lives. On behalf of the archdiocese, I apologize to all who have been harmed by the failure to prevent and properly respond to child sexual abuse by clerics. Survivors will forever be in our prayers, and we have devoted ourselves to rooting out this problem and providing healing to victims.

For more than 30 years, the Archdiocese of Chicago has been at the forefront of developing and improving policies and programs to address the scourge of child sexual abuse and to support survivors. Our policies and procedures, first adopted in 1992, have served as a model for organizations and professionals dealing with this difficult issue. I hope the attention drawn to the issue by the Report will encourage those who work with minors to learn from our experience and take steps to protect all children from sexual abuse.

Here are some key facts about our efforts in the Archdiocese of Chicago:

• Since 1992, we have maintained one of the first and largest victim-survivor assistance programs in the nation. We provide assistance to anyone making an allegation, regardless of whether the accused is living or whether the allegation is substantiated.

• No cleric with even one substantiated allegation against him is in ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago. When we learn of an allegation of abuse, we act promptly, report it to civil authorities, remove the accused from ministry and investigate the allegation. Allegations are submitted to our lay-majority Independent Review Board for investigation. In accordance with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, clerics found to have committed even one act of child sexual abuse are permanently removed from ministry.

- The archdiocese has, to our knowledge, reported all allegations of child sexual abuse by clergy to civil authorities, including the oldest allegations. We report these allegations regardless of whether the accused is alive or dead, a diocesan priest, an extern priest from another diocese or a religious order priest. We consider an allegation to have been made even if the report is made anonymously, has incomplete facts (such as the name of the priest or parish) or is made by a third party, and we report all such allegations to civil authorities. It is important to emphasize that, to our knowledge, there are no “hidden,” “undisclosed” or “unreported” allegations of child sexual abuse by the clergy of this archdiocese.

- Under our recently amended policies, allegations against deceased priests who have not yet been placed on our website list are processed by our Independent Review Board. If an allegation against a deceased priest is substantiated, the priest’s name is added to the list.

- When an allegation of child sexual abuse involves a religious order priest working in a ministry of the archdiocese, such as a parish assignment, we remove the accused’s faculties to minister in the archdiocese, contact the religious order and help facilitate the survivor’s report. Every religious order with members living in the archdiocese is mandated to have a process for investigating such allegations.

- Since 2006, we have published the names of diocesan priests with substantiated allegations of abuse on our website. In 2014, we published more than 20,000 documents from these priests’ files. These documents remain on our website.

- We update our website list as needed and have expanded it to include the names of religious order priests whose order has substantiated an accusation against them and who have been assigned to a ministry of the Archdiocese of Chicago such as a parish.

- We conduct background screenings for archdiocesan clergy, employees and volunteers and implement a comprehensive safe-environment training program for adults and children. Over the last two years, we trained more than 112,000 children in an age-appropriate manner on how to recognize, resist and report abusive behavior. To date, we have trained more than 263,000 adults in 3,700 training sessions.

As is required by the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, (the Charter) we audit our parish and school safe environment programs every year and, in turn, the archdiocese’s compliance with the Charter is audited by the USCCB.

- Additionally, we have worked in collaboration with survivors to respond to their need for healing. This partnership has led to the development of the Healing Garden, an annual Mass for Hope and Healing and Pinwheel Service for Child Abuse Prevention, survivor-led peace circles, and the Healing Voices magazine.

- We always seek to improve our child protection and victim support efforts. We have repeatedly had our processes, policies and files reviewed by independent experts to help ensure we remain current with best practices.

In addition to these steps, the Archdiocese of Chicago fully cooperates with law enforcement, including with the Attorney General’s investigation. We have made our employees available for interviews and provided access to hundreds of thousands of documents. We are committed to continuously reviewing our policies and will carefully consider any changes recommended by the Attorney General. Indeed, the archdiocese has already implemented a number of recommendations the Attorney General made during the course of the investigation such as expansion of the parameters of our website list.

From my earliest days as a bishop, I have dealt with allegations of child sexual abuse by putting the child at the center of my actions. In my experience, whether the abuse happened in the recent or distant past, the survivor speaks from the pain they suffered as that wounded and betrayed child. The Archdiocese of Chicago has long sought to heal them and prevent this crime from occurring again. I am personally committed to applying the highest level of vigilance to these efforts and to further strengthening our safeguards against abuse. I invite other institutions that care for children and civil authorities to join us in this work and consider adopting the procedures we have developed over the past three decades, so that all children are kept safe.

The Stump of Jesse

The Valley of Dry Bones

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

As we are celebrating Pentecost, Ezekiel talking about dry bones comes to mind. The prophet has received a vision, “The hand of the Lord was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the Lord and set me down in the middle of the valley; it was full of bones. And he led me around among them, and behold, there were many on the surface of the valley, and behold, they were very dry. And he said to me, ‘Son of man, can these bones live?’ And I answered, ‘O Lord God, you know.’

Then he said to me, ‘Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the Lord. Thus said the Lord God to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and you will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live, and you shall know that I am the Lord.’ So, I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a sound, and behold, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. And I looked, and behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them. But there was no breath in them.

Then he said to me, ‘Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, Thus said the Lord God: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.’ So, I prophesied as he commanded me, and there the breath came into them, and they lived and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army.” (Ez 37: 1-10).

What a vision! These bones are the whole house of Israel when they cut off their relationship with the Lord. Relating to our Christian life, are we living like dry bones or like “the word of God living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart?” I love being a priest. JMJ.

Scriptural Reflections

Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Throughout our readings today, we see the amazing truth that the Holy Spirit gives us gifts and guidance in a very personal way. We are meant to use these gifts to build up the Body of Christ in a way that is unique to each one of us.

Our first reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, recalls the dramatic moment when the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the apostles. “Suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.”

Notice how personal and individual is this outpouring of the Spirit. This personalized way of “gifting” the apostles allowed them each to reach different people, sharing with them the “mighty acts of God.” Embracing the stewardship way of life means that we allow the Holy Spirit to guide us in the best use of the unique gifts He has given to each of us, to accomplish the mission entrusted to us.

Jesus gives us this mission in the Gospel from John. “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” But we must not let this responsibility overwhelm us. Jesus Himself, tells us so — “Peace be with you.”

As this Easter season ends, let us be at peace. And let us resolve to lean on the Holy Spirit more and more as our guide through the stewardship way of life.

Holy Land Family Artwork On Sale Next Weekend

Next Sunday, June 4, a representative of the Holy Land Family will be selling beautiful hand carved religious artwork made from olive wood and mosaics to help the Christian families in the Holy Land who rely on the selling of their religious work to make a living.

These families' livelihood has been largely affected due to the political conflict in the region. The Christian population in Bethlehem is decreasing and with the support to help these families continue their work, will help maintain their employment so that they stay in their homeland.

We invite you to come and browse after each mass, and we greatly thank you for your support! God Bless You.

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.
