Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

A Blessed and Happy Father's Day to all our Dads — and to all men who love in a fatherly way. What does it mean to love in a fatherly way? To love another person is to see God's face and to ensure our lives mirror God's love for us to others. The love of Jesus reflects

God's love for each of us. Again, with Jesus as our point of reference — what does it mean to love in a fatherly way on this Father's Day?

I share with you a beautiful story that a parishioner gave to me. Enjoy and pass on ...

I grew up in the fifties with practical parents —

A Mother, God love her, who washed aluminum foil after she cooked in it, then reused it. She was the original recycle queen before they had a name for it ...

A Father who was happier getting old shoes fixed than buying new ones.

Their marriage was good, and their dreams focused. Their best friends lived barely a wave away. I can see them now: Dad in trousers, a tee shirt, and a hat; Ma in a house dress, lawn mower in one hand, dishtowel in the other.

It was the time for fixing things — a curtain rod, the kitchen radio, the screen door, the hem in a dress. Things we keep. It was a way of life, and sometimes it made me crazy — all that re-fixing, re-heating, renewing. I wanted just once to be wasteful.

Waste meant affluence. Throwing things away meant you knew there'd always be more. But then my Father died, and on that clear summer's night, in the warmth of the hospital room, I was struck with the pain of learning that sometimes there isn't any "more."

Sometimes, what we care about most gets used up and goes away ... never to return. So ... while we have it ... it's best we love it ... and care for it ... and fix it when it's broken. ...and heal it when it's sick.

This is true ... for marriage ... and old cars ... and children with bad report cards ... and dogs with bad hips ... and aging parents ... and grandparents. We keep them because they are worth it and because we are worth it.

Some things we keep. Like a best friend that moved away — or a classmate we grew up with. Some things make life meaningful, like parents we know who are special ... so keep them close!

I realize the official start of summer occurs this week! Months and seasons change, too, and so do our lives. At the beginning of this great season, reflect upon these words by Max Lucado from his book In the "Eye of The Storm."

With one decision, history began, Existence became measurable.

Out of nothing came light.

Out of light became day.

Then came sky. . .and earth.

And on this earth? A mighty hand went to work.

Canyons were carved. Oceans were dug.

Mountains erupted out of flatlands. Stars were flung.

A universe sparkled.

Look to the canyons to see the Creator's splendor.

Touch the flowers and see his delicacy.

Listen to the thunder and hear his power.

Today you will encounter God's creation. When you see the beauty around you, let each detail remind you to lift your head in praise. Express your appreciation for God's creation. Encourage others to see the beauty of his creation.

And have a Blessed and restful Father's Day!

Summer blessings,
Fr. Greg

Jesus Christ and his Apostles, Wooden Panel Sculpture, Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris.

Within his many disciples, Jesus picks out twelve for a special role. They are ordinary people, and not yet saints, but they are entrusted with the most serious of all human tasks, matters of life or death — eternal life or death. We do something similar in the temporal order when we chose twelve ordinary people to deal with matters of life or death when they sit at a murder trial.

The twelve Apostles are Jesus' first clergy, his first priests and bishops, and Peter is his first pope. Even Judas Iscariot was a bishop. But these special people do not remove from the rest of us the task of being missionaries and evangelists; they remind us of our task. They show us in a special way what we all are called to be, just as the special sacred place inside a church building sacrifices all places, and as the special sacred time of the Mass sacrifices all times. Priests do not offer the Mass in place of us but with us.

John the Baptist's Birthday is Saturday — Here's How We Know

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Beginnings and endings constantly mark our world. We celebrate birthdays and anniversaries and commemorate death dates and tragic events. And in our liturgical tradition, we celebrate everything. Most of our feast days associated with saints are celebrated on the day the saint has died, marking their entrance to the promise of eternal life made in the waters of baptism. We have a lot of feast days. We have a lot of saints. But birthdays are one thing we rarely celebrate as part of our Catholic tradition. Only three birth dates are part of and formally celebrated in the whole liturgical calendar.

This Saturday, June 24, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Nativity (the birth) of John the Baptist. We celebrate the other two nativities (births) of the Nativity of the Lord on Dec. 25 and the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Sept. 8. And each of these three nativities has meaning behind them. Dec. 25 is nine months after March 25, the Solemnity of the Annunciation, when Gabriel announced to Mary that she would be the Mother of God. Sept. 8 is nine months after Dec. 8, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, where we profess Mary was Immaculately Conceived without the stain of original sin in the womb of her mother, Anne.

So what about June 24? There is no precise date of John's conception, but we find our answer in Scripture. After the Angel Gabriel visited Mary, she went in haste to her cousin Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, who was in the sixth month of her pregnancy (Luke 1:36). So we know John the Baptist, the cousin of Jesus, is six months older than Jesus. June 24 and Dec. 25 are six months apart.

But there is also another reason for these dates of the nativity of Jesus and John the Baptist. The Gospel of John notes that John the Baptist said, "He must increase, I must decrease" (John 3:30). For those who are into astrology, the summer equinox is June 21, the calendar day with the most extended amount of sunlight. After June 21, the days get a little shorter every day. Dec. 21 is the winter equinox, with the shortest amount of sunlight. After Dec. 21, the days begin to get longer. John the Baptist must decrease, the natural true light of the world starts to get shorter, and Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, must increase his light in a world covered in darkness.

John the Baptist is a central figure in our faith because he teaches us how to prepare the way of the Lord. He called people to conversion and knew when he was in the presence of the Lord. As we prepare to celebrate his birth this week, let us take this opportunity to prepare the way of the Lord in our own lives, seeing the areas where we need to decrease so the Lord's love, mercy, faithfulness, and joy may increase. Everything we do as Catholics has meaning, even the births we celebrate yearly. The greatest gift we can offer John on his birthday is to change our ways because we know the Lord is near.

Join Us For Our New Salon — “Catholicism after the Scientific Revolution”

Saturday, June 24 at 2pm in Rectory

In the 18th and 19th centuries, philosophy, science, and art revolutions took Europe by storm. The Enlightenment was marching forward and large groups of regular people were interested in the new developments. Gatherings called salons opened in bars and homes where experts and artisans were connected with everyday folks to discuss the issues of their time.

Kevin Kadowaki

Holy Name Cathedral will present its twist on this old tradition. Join us at our own Salon, as we explore the new and fascinating ways Catholicism is continuing to contribute to the human endeavor, and bring about the greater glory of God. This series is hosted by James Keene from Holy Name Cathedral's Evangelization group.

Our first Salon will be Saturday, June 24 from 2:00pm to 4:00pm in the Rectory and our topic will be “As Below, So Above? Catholicism after the Scientific Revolution.”

Since the 17th century, the relationship between physics and the Catholic Church has often been contentious and confused. However, as both of these institutions developed, their rivalry became less clear, and seemingly contradictory positions between them have been examined more recently with increasing scrutiny. Kevin Kadowaki, with his newly minted Ph.D. in the philosophy of physics, will explain the ways these two outlooks on the cosmos interact, and how they most often do not.

Future sessions include Joe Malham, visual artist, iconographer, and aesthete; speaking on Unorthodox Iconographers on July 29 and David Keene, anthropologist and Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago, speaking on “In Service of the Living: the Recovery of Human Remains for the Canonization of Saints” on August 26.

A Poignant Look at the Relationship of a Father & Daughter

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

What should we do when encountering something good, beautiful, and unique? Well, sharing is caring. A Vietnamese composer, Nguyen Van Chung, wrote a beautiful song titled “Father and Daughter”, about a girl who genuinely desires something. Here is what she wants:

“I want to come close and hold you, to lean on your shoulder

I want to hold your hands so tightly, the coarsened skin on your hands

I remember sitting behind you every evening, the sunshine on my head

I remember laughing with you, afraid that it wouldn't last anymore.

Afraid that when I wake up, you're not here

There's nobody telling me the fairy tales

There's nobody asking me whether I am at home or not every night

There's nobody shading me from the sun and rain

There's nobody loving me as when I was young
There's nobody carrying me, giving me a ride, and picking me up
During my childhood, the thing I remember the most when I was with you was your smile.
Remembering the most peaceful days in my life.

The wind blows my hair
Wanting you to brush my hair
Though time is flashing by, I want to be with you forever..”

To listen to the song, “Cha va Con Gai (Father and Daughter),” sung by Thuy Chi, with heartwarming animation, visit YouTube at tinyurl.com/HNCfatheranddaughter

You might ask, “What happened to this family?” The song tells the story of when the girl was young, her father went on a trip and never came home. For years, this girl returned to where her father hugged her “goodbye” and hoped to see him return. I will not spoil the story for you any further. It is a very moving story, and I can't wait for you to see the whole picture.

As we celebrate Father's Day, I extend my prayers and thanks to all the fathers who support and care for us. I Love Being a Priest. JMJ.

Expand Your Knowledge in our Bible Study Groups

We are fortunate to have four opportunities to explore Scripture at Holy Name Cathedral. Peruse the options and join the one that speaks to your spiritual needs.

Wednesday Evenings — Reflections on Sunday Scripture

Have you ever been sitting in the pew at Mass, wanting to learn more about the Scriptures you just heard? Every Wednesday, from 6:30–8:00pm, people of all ages and backgrounds gather — in person and online — to do just that. They are not theologians but learn from their education and varied life experiences. Get a deeper understanding of the readings from the previous Sunday. It will make a difference in how you live the Bible message daily.

Thursday Mornings — Exploring the Books of the Bible

This group meets every Thursday from 10:15–11:45am in the Rectorry. Since the COVID-19 pandemic, people have participated by phone too. This group studies a single book of the Bible to explore the Christian relevance and the importance of these biblical stories. They usually do a chapter or two each week and spend a couple of months on each book. The program coordinator, Gene Finnegan, sends emails the day before to let people know what will be discussed.

Tuesday Evenings — Young Adult Women's and Young Adult Men's Bible Study

Join the bible study for young adult women and men in their 20s and 30s on Tuesdays at 7:00pm in the Rectorry. The women's group meets in Room 209, and the men's group meet in Room 204. We will read the Bible together, pray, and grow in fellowship as young adults in Chicago.

Scan the QR code to sign up for any of the bible study groups and the program coordinator will be in touch.

Please Help Support Our Thu/Fri Suppers Ministry

No matter how much time you can give or your talents, the Thursday/Friday Supper program can use your help.

What is it? Every Thursday and Friday, Holy Name Cathedral partners with Catholic Charities and parishioners to serve 200 people who need a helping hand. There are a number of ways to get involved:

- Serve at Catholic Charities: Volunteers pack 55 hot meals to go and serve a hot meal to 145 sit-down guests, working from 3:30pm – 6:00pm on a Thursday or Friday.

- Bake: Volunteers are needed to bake 200 cookies or small desserts we serve at our Thursday/Friday suppers.

- Donations: All food for the program is provided by HNC. We need help finding reaching out and finding local restaurants to donate 200 meals for one of the Thursday or Fridays during the month.

- Entertainment: Can you play the piano? We would love to entertain the guests with music on Thursdays and Fridays from 5-6pm

To donate, for more information or to volunteer, scan the QR codes to the left.

A Great Way to Help the Hungry! Chicago Shares on Sale This Weekend

Since the founding of Chicago Shares in 1993, more than one million food vouchers have been distributed. Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral vestibule on Sunday, June 18 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to “throwing coins in a cup.” The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop – never for alcohol or tobacco.

Here’s how one regular buyer explains it: “Giving Chicago Shares is like lighting a candle. It’s a very small thing, but every ray of light is a good thing.” May the work of this organization continue for another 30 years and beyond!

We are looking for volunteers to help us on the third Sunday of the month. Scan the QR code to sign up.

Very Reverend Gregory S. Sakowicz, STL
Holy Name Cathedral
730 North Wabash Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60611-2514

Dear Father Sakowicz,

With your valued leadership and the assistance of your staff, the people of Holy Name Cathedral have very generously supported this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. Together, you have raised gifts and pledges exceeding your 2023 Appeal goal of $234,900.00. Thank you so much and please communicate my gratitude to your staff and parishioners.

The theme of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal is Walking on the road with Jesus, and it draws us into Pope Francis' vision of a synodal Church. I know that you face many demands and challenges, yet your pastoral initiatives in promoting the Appeal process and our Archdiocesan renewal helps all of us to more and more become the Church God wants us to be. I very much value your collaboration. Thank you.

Again, as you deem appropriate, let me suggest that you let your people of Holy Name Cathedral know my personal gratitude and the gratitude of this entire local Church. Additionally, they may be interested in knowing that the parish will receive their first rebate distribution in October. The support of your parish community enables all to assist parishes in need so that we can walk together on the road with Jesus and advance his mission in the world. That is a great blessing.

Finally, Father Sakowicz, please invite your people to pray for me and for all their sisters and brothers in the Archdiocese of Chicago and for the universal Church in communion with Pope Francis. May we all be attuned to the ways that we can walk together on the road with Jesus.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

A Little Humor from the Rector

“Do woodpeckers get headaches?”

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

At Holy Name Cathedral, our Resurrection Cross is unique. Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, artist Ivo Demetz created our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale in the Rectory for $20.

We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. This replica can serve as a reminder of God's unconditional love for you and of the connection to Holy Name Cathedral. Ask our ushers for more details.

Young Adult Theology on Tap

“Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever”

Sunday, July 9 at 6:15pm in Courtyard

Our next TOT event will be in three weeks! We will gather in the Courtyard after the 5:15pm Mass on Sunday, July 9. (If it rains, we will move to the Club Room). Our speaker will be Fr. Theodore Haggerty, OSB on the topic: “Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever.”

Fr. Theodore Haggerty

Who is Fr. Theodore? Let him explain: “My vocation story is fairly ordinary.

I lived a comfortable suburban life in Buffalo, NY, and lived to party. I still maintained a faint faith but realized, with the help of a nonreligious friend, that my faith meant nothing unless I lived it. I decided to enter the Catholic Church.

“Being a member of the Church has engaged me in worthwhile risks. I dated, tried a new career, and finally realized that the religious life would fulfill me the most. I entered the novitiate of Marmion Abbey in July 2012 and took the name Theodore (the Studite) when I made a temporary profession of vows in 2013. I made solemn (permanent) vows in the summer of 2016. I have cast my lot with this house, these men, and trust that what the Gospels promise, the monastic experiment can be accomplished.

Fr. Theodore was ordained a priest on September 5, 2020. He continued:

“Monastic life, my friends and community have fostered a stronger internal drive to pursue God, who continues to do the good work he has begun in me. I wake up every day eager to live this life and develop a good zeal for our work.”

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you... (Mention your Request) Amen.
Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.
