Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

We have started the season of summer. I share a great summer “food for thought” story sent to me. Enjoy and pass it on ...

As Time Goes By

You know how time can move quickly and catch you unaware of the passing years. It seems just yesterday that I was young and embarking on my new life. Yet in a way, it seems like eons ago, and I wonder where all the years went. I know that I lived them all. I have glimpses of how it was back then and of all my hopes and dreams.

However, here it is, the last quarter of my life, catching me by surprise. How did I get here so fast? Where did the years go, and where did my youth go? I remember seeing older people through the years and thinking that those older people were years away from me and that I was only in the first quarter, and that the fourth quarter was so far off that I could not fully visualize it or imagine what it would be like.

Yet here it is ... my friends are retired and getting grey. They move slower, and I see an older person now. Some are in better, and some are in worse shape than I am, but I see a significant change in all of us. They're not like the ones that I remember who were young and vibrant. But, like me, their age is beginning to show, and we are not those older folks that we used to see and never thought we'd become.

Each day now, I find that just getting a shower is a real goal for the day, and taking a nap is not a treat anymore. It's mandatory because if I don't have a rest of my own free will, I fall asleep where I sit.

And so, now I enter this new season of my life unprepared for all the aches and pains and the loss of strength and ability to go and do things that I wish I had done but never did. But at least I know that, though I'm in the last quarter, and I'm not sure how long it will last, when it's over on this earth, it's over. A new adventure will begin!

Yes, I have regrets. There are things I wish I hadn't done, some things I should have done, but indeed there are many things I'm happy to have done. It's all in a lifetime.

So, if you're not in the last quarter yet, let me remind you that it will be here faster than you think. So, whatever you want to accomplish, do it quickly. So, do what you can today because you can never be sure whether you're in the last quarter.

You have no promise that you will see all the seasons of life. So live for today and say everything you want your loved ones to remember – and hope they appreciate and love you for all the things you have done for them in the past years.

‘Life’ is a gift to you. Be happy! Have a great day! Remember, health is real wealth, not pieces of gold and silver.

And remember...

Going out is good — but coming home is better!

You realize you'll never be really good at golf — but you like the outdoors!

You sleep better on a lounge chair with the TV on than in bed — you call it ‘pre-sleep’!

You miss the days when everything worked with just an ‘On’ and ‘Off’ switch!

You tend to use more four-letter words — ‘what’ and ‘when’.

You have many clothes in your wardrobe, more than half of which you will never wear — just in case!

Enjoy the gift of summer,
Fr. Greg

P.S. A Blessed and Happy Fourth of July to you and your loved ones!

“Pantocrator,” mosaic at Church of the Savior on Spilled Blood, in Saint Petersburg, Russia

Today’s Gospel consists of two sets of short sayings attributed to Jesus.

The first set centers on the cost of discipleship while the second focuses on hospitality. The themes are appropriate because this reading is part of what was traditionally called the “mission discourse.” The saying that embraces the whole of the mission discourse is “Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (Mt 10: 39). Are you willing to live the paradox?

When we offer even the smallest act of hospitality to someone, we affirm God’s presence within them. These acts do not earn us our salvation; rather, through them we demonstrate our belief in the presence of Christ in our brothers and sisters all around us. Jesus never promises that following him would be easy. After today’s Gospel reading, we understand anew that the road to Jerusalem is the road to the cross for Jesus and for us.

Why the Season of Ordinary Time Isn't So Ordinary

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

There are many ways to celebrate a liturgy. As I have previously written about in past articles, there is a level of degree regarding liturgical celebration. The most common and simplest celebration is considered a 'ferial' day, meaning there is no special saint's memorial, feast day, or solemnity celebrated.

During these summer months of Ordinary Time, many of our week days are considered ferial days. On the other extreme, the more rare and higher celebrations are the great solemnities of Easter and Christmas, each of which contain an octave, 8 days of continued celebration.

The continuous weeks of Ordinary Time may at times become routine, going through the same motions and prayers. And this is where our liturgical life comes alive. Yes, throughout the year we have saint's memorials and feast days and solemnities, but during Ordinary Time these celebrations allow us to see God at work in the every day moments of life, calling us to holiness.

This week we celebrate two saints who were made saints within the last 100 years. In the United States, July 4 is Independence Day and there is a special liturgy with prayers 'for the nation.' But also on the same day, and celebrated as a Feast in Italy, is the feast of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati. Frassati died in 1925 from polio at the age of 24. Frassati is known for his love for the outdoors, and also for the poor. He would talk about Jesus to whoever he met, because Jesus was the center of his life. At his funeral, his family was shocked to see the streets of his hometown lined with the poor who he ministered to, people who saw Christ in his words and in his acts of kindness.

Additionally, on July 6, the Church celebrates the Memorial of St. Maria Goretti, one of the youngest saints in our tradition. Goretti died in 1902 at the age of 11, after defending herself against the sexual advances of her neighbor, Alessandro Serrenelli. He stabbed her 14 times and she died from her injuries but before she died, she said she forgave him and wanted him in heaven with her. And as Alessandro was in jail, Maria came to him in a dream, giving him 14 lilies for the 14 stabs wounds he inflicted on her, forgiving him of his actions. After Alessandro was released from prison, he became a lay brother of the Capuchin Franciscans in Italy, showing us that being forgiven changes us as well. Maria's mother, Assunta was present at the canonization mass in Rome in 1950 along with her children, and Alessandro.

These two young saints, inspire us on our journey of discipleship that God can be seen in the every day moments of life. That as Christians, we have an invitation in our belief in Jesus to be joyful witnesses of his love and mercy, and also to be forgiving for those who do us wrong, knowing hatred should not follow us to the grave. As we move further into Ordinary Time which will last until Dec. 3 with the start of Advent, let us use the memorials and feast days sprinkled throughout the calendar to awaken our call to holiness.

Lift Up Your Voice! Join Our Young Adults Music Ministry!

Sunday, July 9, 5:15pm Mass

The Young Adult Music Ministry wants you to come and lift your voice or instrument in song to the Lord! All musicians and vocalists are invited. There is no advance sign-up nor rehearsal required.

Join us on the second Sunday of the month (July 9) before the 5:15pm Young Adult Mass. We meet at 4:30pm for instrumentalists and 4:45pm for vocalists in the Music Office (located just to the north of the Cathedral next to the Courtyard). Come join us in harmony, both musically and spiritually!

Get Involved at Holy Name: Young Adults Ministry

Becoming involved with the various ministries at Holy Name Cathedral can provide many blessings in your life. This Sunday, we begin a series of the Witness Statements from parishioners involved in a ministry. We begin with our Young Adults Ministry. YA Ministry is Vital to Welcome Young Adults to Holy Name

By Gina Piscitello

When I first moved to downtown Chicago in 2018, I quickly found a place at Holy Name Cathedral to pursue my interests, including teaching religious education to 1st, 2nd, and 4th-grade students. Working with these children and seeing their genuine faith and growth was a fantastic honor.

While helping teach religion classes, I became more aware of other opportunities at Holy Name Cathedral, including the Young Adult Ministry, which allowed me to plan events and create new ministries. One that had the most significant impact on me was helping to build the new Young Adult Music Ministry along with Director of Music David Jonies and Associate Director of Music Liz Vasiljevic.

This new ministry welcomes any young adult to share in music at the cathedral through singing in the choir or playing instruments at the Sunday evening Mass. Following these Masses, we organized social gatherings for interested young adults to spend time with one another. Other events I enjoyed with the Young Adult Ministry include Theology on Tap and welcoming events like Speed Friending for new community members.

The Young Adult Ministry at Holy Name Cathedral is vital to welcome young adults into the Church, helping them feel valued, and guiding them in their faith. I am so grateful for the opportunities to volunteer with this ministry and other young adults, our staff liaison Ken Ortega, and priests, including Fr. Ton, Fr. Andy, and Fr. Greg. Holy Name Cathedral, being the seat of the Archdiocese of Chicago, has a critical role in strengthening young adults within the Catholic Church. I have been grateful to see that mission continuing under the guidance of new Young Adult leaders and Fr. Ton.

I was thinking about all of you as I recently attended a young adult event at a church in Pittsburgh, remembering how great you were at welcoming new people to the community. I genuinely miss being at Holy Name, but I am trying to get more involved with a young adult ministry in Pittsburgh. I haven't found a young adult music ministry yet to join, so we'll have to see how we can get that started around here.

My YA Ministry Experience Helped Me Grow Spiritually

By Colin Rahill

I had an incredible experience in the Young Adult Ministry at Holy Name Cathedral. From the moment I joined, I was welcomed with open arms and felt like I belonged. Others felt the same, and we were always excited to welcome new members.

The Bible study sessions were enlightening and helped deepen my understanding of Scripture as we journeyed through the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. Our group nurtured my relationship with God each Tuesday night by conversing about the Scriptures and how the readings applied to our lives. Our discussions were both theological and practical, and we often text about the insights we shared in Bible study and reflected upon in the following days.

Being part of the Exodus 90 Group changed my life with its challenges to grow spiritually, physically, and mentally. I would only have done Exodus 90 with the Young Adult men at Holy Name Cathedral, led by Fr. Ton. I have seen a dramatic and lasting change in my habits, especially in devoting a Holy Hour to the Lord each day and praying with Lectio Divina each night. I also have made lifelong friends.

The Young Adult Choir was a highlight of my time at Holy Name Cathedral, even though it was only once a month. The music and worship were uplifting, and the sense of community among choir members was exceptional. The opportunity to use my talents to praise God alongside fellow young adults was a blessing.

In May, I moved to Cincinnati to work at Dynamic Catholic. There is a definite need for a Young Adult Ministry here, and thanks to my time at Holy Name with Fr. Ton, I know how to get young Catholics excited about the faith. I plan to join the local choir and ask to start a young adult choir, as young people will be eager to join regardless of skill level. I'll help lead the Bible study at my local parish and bring the same intellectual curiosity I gained at Holy Name. Once the time comes, I will start an Exodus 90 group of young men here and adapt it into an ongoing Men's Group.

Overall, the Young Adult Ministry at Holy Name Cathedral provided a supportive and nurturing environment for me to grow in my faith. I am grateful for the friendships I formed and the spiritual growth I experienced in this ministry. I highly recommend it to any young adult seeking a vibrant and engaging community to deepen their relationship with God.

HNC Summer Salon

Join us for our Summer Salon: “Unorthodox Iconographers: Artistic Individualism in the Wider Faith Community.”

Saturday, July 29, 2023, 2:00pm to 4:00pm

In the 18th and 19th centuries, philosophy, science, and art revolutions took Europe by storm. The Enlightenment was marching forward and large groups of regular people were interested in the new developments. Gatherings called Salons opened in bars and homes where experts and artisans were connected with everyday folks to discuss the issues of their time.

Holy Name Cathedral will present its twist on this tradition. Join us at our own Salon, as we explore the new and fascinating ways Catholicism is continuing to contribute to the human endeavor, and bring about the greater glory of God. This series is hosted by James Keene from Holy Name Cathedral's Evangelization group.

In July, Joe Malham, visual artist and iconographer will speak about “Unorthodox Iconographers: Artistic Individualism in the Wider Faith Community.” The life of the artist is well known to be peculiar, encompassing demands that most people find unusual in the pursuit of craft and creativity. Catholic artists especially find themselves confronted with not only the burdens of producing meaningful works, but also living in community with others in the Faith. To explore this unique vocation, Joe Malham will lead a discussion on his journey in the quest for aesthetic excellence.

Coming in August: David Keene, anthropologist and Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago, speaking on “In Service of the Living: the Recovery of Human Remains for the Canonization of Saints” on August 26.

Joe Malham, visual artist and iconographer, will come speak on July 29 at Holy Name Cathedral.

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Camino de Santiago

RESCHEDULED: Sunday, July 16; after 5:15pm Mass

This medieval pilgrimage encompasses 750 km on the Spanish terrain, ending at the Cathedral Basilica of Santiago Compostela in Galicia. Before parting on the trek, pilgrims are asked two questions: Why are you doing this? Are you doing this alone? Newly initiated Catholic Robert Larson shares his experience of the Way of St. James: the people he encountered, the quiet time, and how the journey led him to become a Catholic. Finding Magic and Inspiration at Walt Disney World

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

The cars are singing on the streets with their delightful honks; the fireworks are break-dancing in the sky with their charming moves; the steaks/ burgers/ hotdogs are sizzling on backyard grills. These are a few signs of people celebrating the Fourth of July. While writing this article, my trip to Walt Disney World in Florida came to mind. I am fascinated with that place on many levels.

The things I was most impressed with at EPCOT were the quotes I saw at the American Adventure Attraction. If you have been there, you would know where those inspirational quotes are located — on the walls and the ceiling beams as you exit the theater. For example, “Our way of living together in America is a strong but delicate fabric. It is made up of many threads. It has been woven over many centuries by the patience and sacrifice of countless liberty-loving men and women,” states Wendell Willkie.

This quote amazed me. I stood there for a long time, reflecting on its meaning and beauty. Then, I saw another excellent quote by Walt Disney, “Our greatest natural resource is the minds of our children.” While we enjoy the fruits of our labor, we must not forget to care for the children. And as I was leaving the building, I saw four substantial sequential phrases saying, “America — Spread your golden wings — sail on freedom’s wind — across the sky.” I hope those words inspire us all, not only through words but actions.

I will finish sharing about Walt Disney World with a quote from Ayn Rand, “Throughout the centuries, there were men who took first steps down new roads with nothing but their own vision.” We are very creative in how we think and what we do to achieve our goals by taking the first steps on new roads for our own visions. If the end goal of our faith journey is to go to heaven with many other people, what is something new that we can do together to build up the kingdom of heaven on earth? If you need motivation, consider the children and the coming generation. How can we pass on the faith and the great commission God entrusted to us? I Love Being a Priest! MJJ.

Feel the Need to Knit? HNC’s Knitting Ministry Wants You

Holy Name Cathedral Knitting and Crocheting Ministry volunteers have enjoyed knitting hats for children and adult neighbors in need for over five years. Throughout the year, the ministry meets twice monthly in the Rectory to knit hats for distribution at the year’s end. We provide 300 children’s hats for students at St Thomas of Canterbury and St Mary of the Lake. We also offer 200 caps at Christmas for our guests at the Thursday/Friday Night Suppers. The ministry needs your help! We request any donations of yarn, preferably washable material. You can drop off the yarn at the Rectory. Thank you for your generosity.

New knitters are welcome! The volunteers come from all walks of life and welcome more helpers. If you want to join this fun group for a great cause, we meet Mondays twice a month from 1:30 to 3:30pm. Scan the QR code. Upcoming dates for group meetings are Monday, July 10 and July 24.

Reflection

The Simple Brilliance of Stewardship Living

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple and practical manner to make him feel welcome and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: "You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew:

"Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." But how do we lose our life? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

The simple brilliance of stewardship living — only our infinitely creative and compassionate God could conceive it!

Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Thank you for the gift of Stewardship

A steward is defined as a disciple of Jesus who "receives God's gifts gratefully, cultivates them responsibly, shares them lovingly in justice with others and returns them with increase to the Lord." Stewardship is a way of life that comes from seeing everything as a gift from God, changing the way we see things. The disciple is motivated by faith and a deep sense of gratitude, flowing from their faith, to a greater sharing of his/her time, talent and treasure with the Church and other worthy causes. Time, talent, and treasure are all shared as a gift, in a planned, proportionate, thankful, and sacrificial manner. Thank you to all those who share their gifts with Holy Name Cathedral. Your selfless giving supports our mission of bringing others to Christ through beautiful liturgies, evangelization programs and service ministries. We are grateful for the gift of your stewardship.

Coffee in the Courtyard

Sunday, July 16 after 8:30am, 10:30am Masses

Join us for our annual summer Coffee in the Courtyard on Sunday, July 16 after both the 8:30am and 10:30 am Masses. Stop by for a refreshing cool drink or a cup of coffee along with a pastry. This annual tradition is our way to say a summer hello to all of our parishioners and welcome our many summer visitors. Please stop by!

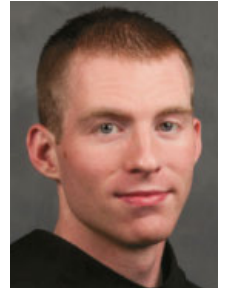

Young Adult Theology on Tap

“Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever”

Sunday, July 9 at 6:15pm in Courtyard

Our next TOT event will be in two weeks! We will gather in the Courtyard after the 5:15pm Mass on Sunday, July 9. (If it rains, we will move to the Club Room).

Our speaker will be Fr. Theodore Haggerty, OSB on the topic: “Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever.”

Fr. Theodore Haggerty

Who is Fr. Theodore? He was ordained on Sept. 5, 2020 as a priest in the Benedictine order.

He explains: “My vocation story is fairly ordinary. I lived a comfortable suburban life in Buffalo, N.Y., and lived to party. I still maintained a faint faith but realized, with the help of a nonreligious friend, that my faith meant nothing unless I lived it. I decided to enter the Catholic Church.”

“Being a member of the Church has engaged me in worthwhile risks. I dated, tried a new career, and finally realized that the religious life would fulfill me the most.”

Cathedral Tours After 8:30, 10:30, 12:30 Masses Today

This Sunday, we have three options for tours of Holy Name Cathedral. Our Docents are excited to share with you the art, architecture and history of the Cathedral. Every Sunday after the 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. Docents will give quick 15-minute express tours. Normally, we have a full Cathedral tour (45 minutes) after the 12:30 p.m. Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. Because of an event, this week, Sunday, July 2, we have an Express Tour after the 12:30 p.m. Mass as well. These free tours will begin immediately after Mass and will start at the front of the main, center aisle. No reservations needed!

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you... (Mention your Request) Amen.
Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.
