Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Our summer season is truly upon us. I pray you will find the time to relax and be with family and friends. We all know summer moves much too quickly!

I share a beautiful prayer written by Father James Martin, SJ. Wonderful words to reflect upon as we continue summer.

A New Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the serenity
to accept the people I cannot change, which is pretty much everyone,
since I'm clearly not you, God.
At least not the last time I checked.

And while you're at it, God,
please give me the courage to change what I need to change about myself,
which is frankly a lot since, once again,
I'm not you, which means I'm not perfect.
It's better for me to focus on changing myself
than to worry about changing other people, who, as you'll no doubt remember me saying,
I can't change anyway.

Finally, give me the wisdom just to shut up whenever I think that I'm clearly smarter than everyone else in the room, that no one knows what they're talking about except me, or that I alone have all the answers.

Basically, God,
grant me the wisdom
to remember that I'm not you.
Amen.

And I close with this beautiful story... please pass it on ...

A woman went shopping with her six-year-old daughter. It was pouring outside. They stood with other shoppers under the awning inside the door. The little girl said, "Mom, let's run through the rain." "What?" Mom asked. "Let's run through the rain," she repeated. "No, honey. We'll wait until it slows down a bit," Mom replied.

The child waited a minute and repeated: "Mom, let's run through the rain." "We'll get soaked," Mom said. "No, we won't, Mom. That's not what you said this morning," the young girl said as she tugged at her mother's arm.

"This morning? When did I say we could run through the rain and not get wet?" "Don't you remember?" said the persistent child. "When you were talking to Daddy about his cancer, you said, 'If God can get us through this, God can get us through anything!'"

The entire crowd stopped dead silent. You couldn't hear anything but the rain. Everyone stood silently. Mom paused and thought for a moment. She knew this was an important moment in this little girl's life. "Honey, you are absolutely right," she said. "Let's run through the rain. If God lets us get wet, maybe we just needed washing."

Then off they ran. The other shoppers stood watching, smiling, and laughing as they darted past the cars and through the puddles. They got soaked. But they were followed by a few of the others who had been waiting for the rain to stop, who screamed and laughed like children all the way to their cars. They needed washing, too.

Praying for rain,
Fr. Greg

Jesus and Apostles in the Mount of Olives, fresco, St. Matthew church in Stitar, Croatia

Today's readings remind us that human expectations will be overturned by the wonderfully paradoxical reality of God and his kingdom.

The Gospel turns upside down all our conceptions of God and his son, Jesus. This gracious God, Jesus says, hides his wisdom from those who claim to be wise and reveals it to the little ones (Hebrew, nepioi, meaning 'infants' or 'unlearned'). They are the ones who are invited to bring their burdens and rest in Jesus. How? By joining themselves to his yoke (a wooden bar placed over the shoulders so two can pull together) and learning what it means to be meek and humble.

God the Father reveals the mysteries of the kingdom to us who are meek and humble of heart. This week find ways to open yourself to the grandeur of faith's mysteries that surround you.

Need a Better Work/Life Balance? Look to St. Benedict

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Life is all about balance. We balance work, relationships, personal time, faith, fun and everything else. And certain times in the year, we are confronted with a reality check on how that balance is going. Sometimes we get into arguments with friends or family, and are told we do not make time for them.

Other times we are running on empty due to the demands of life, and we feel almost burnt out. This balance is very delicate and very real.

On Tuesday, July 11, we celebrate the memorial of St. Benedict of Nursia, the father of Western Monasticism. Born into a wealthy Italian family in 480, he left his education in Rome, due to a lack of moral character among his classmates, to find solace in a cave in Subiaco. During this time, he attracted those who were fleeing cities to encounter God in silence, prayer and community. Coincidentally, his twin sister, St. Scholastica (Feb. 10), founded a woman's religious community around the same time.

In his life, Benedict founded 12 monasteries, culminating in one central location, Montecassino, which is still in use today. For centuries, these monastic communities have protected treasures of Western civilization in art, literature and goods. They show us that ordered and productive lives can withstand the crumbling societies around them.

The communities who follow Benedict's Rule, known today as the Benedictines, have the motto Ora et Labora — Work and Pray. The motto serves as a balance to life. Work and Pray. Work in the world, in the fields, in the community, in relationships, and pray to the source of all that is good. Work and Pray is not only for those in religious communities who adopt the Rule of St. Benedict, but can be applied to daily life. How is the balance of my work and my prayer? Is one favored over the other? Is one lacking in attention?

Also attributed to St. Benedict is the St. Benedict medal, a popular sacramental found on rosaries, bracelets and necklaces. Tradition tells us that Benedict was almost poisoned twice, once through a cup of wine and second through a loaf of bread. The raven came and took the bread before he ate it, and as he blessed the wine, the cup shattered. On the front side of the medal, St. Benedict is often depicted with the raven and the cup of wine. On the backside of the medal are the first letters of a series of Latin sentences, translated as: "The Cross of our Holy Father Benedict. May the holy cross be my light! May the devil not be my leader. Be gone, Satan! Do not persuade me of wicked things. What you offer me is evil. Drink your poisons yourself."

The widespread use of the medal has a connection to protecting against evil and many people wear the medal to be guided closer to Jesus and away from sin. St. Benedict is also attributed, along with St. Joseph, as patrons of a happy death. St. Benedict teaches us to work and pray, and through this rule of life, we continue to walk on the journey of discipleship, finding balance in our lives to be with the Lord in the future.

Dear Holy Name Cathedral Faith Community,

Thank you for taking the time to complete our Parish Survey (also called the Disciple Maker Index or DMI)

this past Lenten season. More than 600 parishioners shared their input on many aspects of faith and community life here at Holy Name Cathedral.

As you will recall, the survey asked questions about each parishioner's journey of discipleship and how the parish and the pastor are doing to support you along the way.

Our results are now in! There is a wealth of important data for us to go through and analyze. We are forming a committee with parish ministry leaders and staff to take the next few months to review and interpret the results and develop a comprehensive report on what was collectively shared. Following that initial assessment, we will identify actions to address specific growth areas – whether across the parish, for our staff, or me as your Rector.

I am grateful to everyone in our parish for your contribution to this survey. It is incredibly clear to me that we, as a community of faith, are hungry to grow closer to our Lord and to assist one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. I look forward to sharing more in the coming months and working with all of you to continue renewing our local Church and our beloved Holy Name Cathedral Faith Community. It is a joy sharing in the Lord's ministry with all of you.

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Greg

HNC Summer Salon

Join us for our Summer Salon: “Unorthodox Iconographers: Artistic Individualism in the Wider Faith Community.”

Saturday, July 29, 2023, 2:00pm to 4:00pm

In the 18th and 19th centuries, philosophy, science, and art revolutions took Europe by storm. The Enlightenment was marching forward and large groups of regular people were interested in the new developments. Gatherings called Salons opened in bars and homes where experts and artisans were connected with everyday folks to discuss the issues of their time.

Holy Name Cathedral will present its twist on this tradition. Join us at our own Salon, as we explore the new and fascinating ways Catholicism is continuing to contribute to the human endeavor, and bring about the greater glory of God. This series is hosted by James Keene from Holy Name Cathedral's Evangelization group.

In July, Joe Malham, visual artist and iconographer will speak about “Unorthodox Iconographers: Artistic Individualism in the Wider Faith Community.” The life of the artist is well known to be peculiar, encompassing demands that most people find unusual in the pursuit of craft and creativity. Catholic artists especially find themselves confronted with not only the burdens of producing meaningful works, but also living in community with others in the Faith. To explore this unique vocation, Joe Malham will lead a discussion on his journey in the quest for aesthetic excellence.

Coming in August: David Keene, anthropologist and Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago, speaking on “In Service of the Living: the Recovery of Human Remains for the Canonization of Saints” on August 26.

Joe Malham, visual artist and iconographer, will come speak on July 29 at Holy Name Cathedral.

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Camino de Santiago

RESCHEDULED: Sunday, July 16; after 5:15pm Mass, in the Parish Center Club Room

This medieval pilgrimage encompasses 750 km on the Spanish terrain, ending at the Cathedral Basilica of Santiago Compostela in Galicia. Before departing on the trek, pilgrims are asked two questions: Why are you doing this? Are you doing this alone? Newly initiated Catholic Robert Larson shares his experience of the Way of St. James: the people he encountered, the quiet time, and how the journey led him becoming a Catholic. No advance registration required.

Why Should You Join the Young Adult Ministry at Holy Name?

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Fr. Ton, when you studied in Saigon as a young adult, were you super active in the parish?" Though I never missed a Sunday Mass, the answer is "no." I was so passive at the parish that the Lord, with His sense of humor, led me to be a priest. If you are not too involved, you might become a priest or a nun! Just joking!

But with all seriousness, Young Adult Ministry might offer you opportunities to deepen your faith and love for Christ and one another. Jesus prayed in Matthew 11:25, "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to little ones." Read these reflections from Elizabeth, Sam and Kevin who are active young adults in our parish. If you're interested in joining our YA Core Group to help plan events or get more involved with our Young Adults ministry, please scan the QR code.

Also, God might reveal or unburden you with insights from Fr. Theodore's talk at Theology on Tap, this Sunday, July 9, after the 5:15pm Mass! (See more on page 11). I would love to see you there!

Participating in YA Ministry Helped Us Adjust to Chicago, Deepened Our Faith Life

By Elizabeth and Sam Conlan

Elizabeth and I started going to Holy Name Cathedral near the end of the summer of 2022, after we graduated college, had our wedding and finished moving to Chicago. Transitioning to a big city was a significant adjustment for us, but it was still something that we wanted to do. We were both involved at our church on our college campus, taking on leadership roles and making many authentic friends.

So, when looking for a new church to become engaged in, we were delighted to hear that Holy Name Cathedral was starting its Young Adult programs again after the pandemic. We were blessed with this community to help us adjust to living in downtown Chicago. I quickly became involved in the new Young Adult Men's Bible Study.

On the other hand, Elizabeth started and currently leads the women's bible study because the church needed someone to step up. From then on, we became involved by helping to put on the monthly Young Adult social events. We've heard great speakers give inspiring talks and have made plenty of friends with the same faith values as us. We are unsure where we would be in our faith lives without Holy Name Cathedral, let alone the Young Adult ministry.

We look forward to continuing to volunteer at the church and to draw in more young adults, just like how we were welcomed.

YA at HNC: Most Enriching, Rewarding Endeavor I Could've Envisioned

By Kevin Zondlak

As a young professional single man moving to a new city, I was excited to explore all Chicago offers. In the past three years, I immersed myself in the city's exciting scenes. I tried all the popular bars and restaurants, joined intramural leagues, participated in various workout classes, visited all the tourist attractions and connected with many fantastic individuals. However, one aspect is missing from my life — a community of like-minded Catholics with whom I could forge meaningful relationships beyond the confines of the church.

During my first two years in Chicago (2021 & 2022), this sense of a Catholic community eluded me. Then, HNC introduced more YA ministries, granting me access to a diverse group of young Catholics who shared similar experiences and aspirations.

The friendships and sense of belonging that have emerged from these ministries have sincerely impacted my life. I have found immense fulfillment through engaging in activities such as Exodus 90, participating in Bible study groups, and attending Mass with like-minded individuals.

Of all the activities and events I have experienced in Chicago, the HNC Young Adult ministries stand out as the most enriching and rewarding endeavor I could have envisioned. I am genuinely grateful for the community that has been fostered and the true friends I have made through the church.

Thank you, Father Ton, for enabling us all this experience... I love my life in Chicago and my friendships because of what you started.

Thank You for the Gift of Stewardship

A heartfelt thank you to our parishioners and visitors for your gift of stewardship to Holy Name Cathedral. Your generosity supports our many ministries and programs helping to advance our mission of evangelization and bringing people to Christ. Thank you for the gifts you share with our Faith Community and those we serve around our city and around the world.

Reflection Humility Leads to Peace

The theme of humility is central to our readings today. God Himself is a humble God, so if we wish to follow Him as Christian stewards, we too, must be humble. In fact, humility is key to the stewardship way of life, and to a peaceful and fulfilling life.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus Himself speaks to the Father about the privileged role that humble souls play in God’s plan of salvation. “I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.”

What does it mean to be a “little one”? It means that we acknowledge we don’t have it all figured out, but that we are very much in need of a savior. It means we recognize that all we are and all we have been given is a gift from God. It means we embrace the stewardship way of life.

It is not easy, but deep peace and consolation come with this way of life. Jesus offers these warm and encouraging words to entice us to embrace them. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

Let us resolve to follow in the footsteps of our Savior, embracing the humble path of stewardship. It is the path that leads to peace here and now, and ultimately leads us to heaven.

“Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever”

Sunday, July 9 at 6:15pm in Courtyard

Our next TOT event will be in two weeks! We will gather in the Courtyard after the 5:15pm Mass on Sunday, July 9. (If it rains, we will move to the Club Room).

Our speaker will be Fr. Theodore Haggerty, OSB on the topic: “Church of Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today & Forever.”

Fr. Theodore Haggerty

Who is Fr. Theodore? He was ordained on Sept. 5, 2020 as a priest in the Benedictine order.

He explains: “My vocation story is fairly ordinary. I lived a comfortable suburban life in Buffalo, N.Y., and lived to party. I still maintained a faint faith but realized, with the help of a nonreligious friend, that my faith meant nothing unless I lived it. I decided to enter the Catholic Church.”

“Being a member of the Church has engaged me in worthwhile risks. I dated, tried a new career, and finally realized that the religious life would fulfill me the most.”

Cathedral Tours After 8:30, 10:30, Masses Today

We have three options for weekly tours of Holy Name Cathedral. Our Docents are excited to share with you the art, architecture and history of the Cathedral. Each week, our Cathedral Docents lead short, 15-minute express tours following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those who are interested in participating in these free tours are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass.

Also, Docents will give full Cathedral tours after the 12:30 p.m. Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month, (next up Sunday, July 16). These full tours last approximately 45 minutes.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose. To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory. Any questions, call (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you... (Mention your Request) Amen.
Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.
