Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Theologian Marcus Borg writes in his book “The Heart of Christianity”:

“The word ‘heart’ appears well over a thousand times in the Bible. Most often, it is a metaphor for the self. It covers much more than does the metaphorical meaning of “heart” in contemporary English. In our usage, the heart is most commonly associated with love, as in Valentine hearts; courage, as in brave hearts; and grief, as in broken hearts. But in the Bible, the “heart” includes these and more: it is a metaphor for the inner self as a whole.”

And he continues: “In Scripture, the heart is an image for the self at a deep level, deeper than our perception, intellect, emotion, and volition. As the spiritual center of the total self, it affects all of these: our sight, thought, feelings, and will.”

And he concludes: “The condition of the heart matters. The heart, the self at its deepest level, can be turned toward God or away from God, open to God or closed to God. But its typical condition is that it is turned away from God and ‘closed’...When our hearts are closed, we live within a shell...the shell needs to be broken open if the life within it is to enter into full life.”

The heart of Jesus reveals all the good that our hearts are capable of at any moment. Christ’s “sacred” heart mirrors a life open to experiencing God’s love to the full.

The following nuggets convert to the “heart” of everyday living ...

You might be one person to the world, but to one person, you might be the world.

Real friends are those who, when you feel you’ve made a fool of yourself, don’t make you think you’ve done a permanent job.

Sometimes the majority only means that all the fools are on the same side.

I don’t have to attend every argument I’m invited to.

Lead your life so you won’t be ashamed to sell the family parrot to the town gossip.

Life is 10 percent of what happens to you and 90 percent of how you respond.

Life is like an onion; you peel off one layer at a time, and sometimes you weep.

Learn from the mistakes of others. You can’t live long enough to make them all yourself.

And may I connect my thoughts with the following wonderful story?

A rabbi and soap maker went for a walk together. The soap maker said something negative about religion: “What good is religion? Just look around you. What do you see? Trouble, misery, wars — even after all these years and years of preaching and teaching about goodness, truth, and peace. What good is religion with all its prayers and sermons if all this evil still exists?”

The rabbi kept quiet as they continued their walk. Then they noticed a child playing in the gutter. The child was just filthy with dirt and mud.

The rabbi said to the soap maker: “Look at this child! Now you say soap makes people clean, but what good is it? With all the soap in the world, this child is still dirty. What good is the soap after all?” The soap maker immediately answered him: “But rabbi, soap can’t do its job if it isn’t used!”

The rabbi said, “The same is true with religion.”

We need God. We need each other as we gather weekly around the Lord’s Table to be nourished by God’s Word and receive Holy Communion. Truly our strength for the journey.

I conclude with the following story ...

There was an old woman who ran through the streets every day shouting: “Power, greed, corruption!” People listened for a while, but they eventually returned to their routine as before. The woman kept coming back every day shouting, “Power, greed, corruption!” One day a child stopped the old woman and said to her. “Old woman, no one is listening to you.”

“I know that,” she replied.

“If you know that you are not changing anyone, why keep shouting “Power, greed, corruption?”

“Oh, my child, I do not shout to change them. I SHOUT SO THAT THEY CAN’T CHANGE ME!”

If you look at the world ... You will be distressed.

If you look at God ... You will be at rest.

Summer thoughts,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

“Christ and the Canaanite Woman” by Pieter Lastman (1617) at Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam

Today's Scripture readings are about God's attitude toward different races and nations worldwide, especially strangers and foreigners. It is particularly relevant to two of today's social issues — immigration and racism. In both cases, Scripture clearly teaches in favor of both universality and particularity.

It clearly teaches the dignity of all nations, races and peoples, for all are God's children, made in his image and called to eternal happiness with him. It is because Catholicism is not just for one race or one culture. It is a church meant for all — exactly what Christ meant when he said to “go and make disciples of all nations” (Matthew 28:19). The word “catholic”, after all, simply comes from the Greek word katholikos, or “universal”.

The Eucharist is a Gift That We Shouldn't Take for Granted

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

One of the easiest things in life is to take things for granted. As a given, we assume that we will wake up each morning, the sun will shine, and we will have a place to return when we come home. And often, in our life of faith, we take things for granted. And one example is the ability to receive the Eucharist.

Every time we come to Mass, the Eucharist is distributed to those who, through the personal examination of their conscience and have already received their First Communion, process up and receive the Bread of Life. But this has only sometimes been the case.

Leading up to the papacy of Pope Pius X, who was elected Pope in 1903, the practice of reception of the Eucharist at Mass by the faithful was infrequent. There was a movement called Jansenism, which taught that the Eucharist was only for the perfect. Pius X sought to crush that heresy in two ways. The first was encouraging the faithful's frequent reception of the Eucharist and lowering the age for First Communion.

Through his ministry, Pius X taught the faithful that the sick need medicine and the Eucharist is that medicine for our souls. So frequent reception of the Eucharist heals us and conforms us closer to Christ, which is a good thing. Additionally, the age of First Communion was around 14 years old before Pius X's papacy. He lowered it to the 'age of reason,' which Church law says is about seven years old.

Today, most parishes have First Communion in second grade and others in third grade. By lowering the age, the Pope shows us that once we can determine right from wrong and can begin to understand the mystery of the Eucharist, we should be able to receive that gift from God. I received my call to consider the priesthood at my First Communion in 2003 when I was eight. The young minds are very impressionable. Receiving proper catechesis that this is no ordinary meal is crucial to developing a robust Eucharistic understanding.

The Eucharist is a gift. It is God dwelling among us in the appearance of bread. The Eucharist strengthens, nourishes, forgives us of our venial sins, and sustains us on life's journey. Everyone needs healing and an encounter with God. All of this is made possible through the reception of the Eucharist. No, we as humans are not worthy of this gift, but the Eucharist is a gift, as Jesus freely broke and offered bread and his life for the world's salvation.

As we celebrate the memorial of St. Pope Pius X this Monday, Aug. 21, let us pause and thank God for this simple servant. With his vision and desire to return to the roots of our faith, we are grounded in our frequent reception of the Eucharist and our desire to grow in our faith daily. As we continue our journey in this National Eucharistic Revival, may he guide our efforts as we seek to deepen our appreciation and awareness of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist and our frequent need for this "food for the journey."

Thanks, Red ... and Keep Smiling!

After 19 years and more than $1.3M in grant awards, the Rev. Robert E. McLaughlin Faith Foundation celebrated the fulfillment of their mission to annually grant monetary awards to projects or programs within the Archdiocese of Chicago that foster and inspire the Catholic faith journey of teens and young adults. The Cathedral Mass, held on Aug. 6, was celebrated by Fr. Greg Sakowicz with homilist Fr. Bill Moriarity. Afterwards, the board and donors gathered to remember Fr. Bob and his motto of “Keep Smiling.” Special thanks Dr. Jack Lynch, a Quigley High School classmate of Fr Bob, who spearheaded this effort and faithfully led the Foundation for 19 years. Fr. Bob, who died in 2005, was pastor of Holy Name Cathedral from 1990-2002.

The Stump of Jesse

The Spirit Fills the Church

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Father, how do we know that the Holy Spirit is alive and active in the Church?" Look at the fruits of the Holy Spirit — love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Here are two examples.

Many dioceses struggle to open churches in Western countries, but it is a different story in Africa and Asia. When I visited a small village in Vietnam, I witnessed them forming a small community. A parishioner donated land because the next parish was far away. They petitioned the bishop to allow them to 'build' a small chapel (see photo) where they hope to start fundraising to build a church. The village is poor, and it might take a long time to have enough funding for their church, but their joy, faithfulness, and patience give us much hope.

World Youth Day 2023 occurred in Lisbon, Portugal this past week. Around 1.6 million youths from all over the world attended. A young adult shared his witness talk:

"There are times when I think back to my younger days, and I feel a deep pain and yet, at the same time, a great joy. The reality of my life is that I am one of the lost sheep Jesus came running after. I grew up in a very broken household ... one of my escapes from home life was always being at church. It felt as if it was my home away from home. Approaching my high school graduation, my parents got divorced. I had depression, wanted to self harm, and became a drug addict. ... Everything I knew was gone; I had no sense of direction; my head was in such a dark place from the pain, and I searched for a reason to live. Then, the Lord gives me the most beautiful gift — my wife. I received the identity that the Heavenly Father has given me. I finally started to heal and became united fully to Jesus. The Eucharist is what has brought healing to my soul. After tasting all that this world has to offer, Jesus is the only one who has satisfied me."

I pray and hope that these visible testimonials propel us to go higher in our journey of faith. We know clearly that the church fills us with the Holy Spirit. I love being a priest! MJM.

Join Our Ministry of Care, Serve in Local Hospitals and to the Homebound

Ministry of Care to the sick is a pastoral ministry of caring for those who are hospitalized, in nursing homes, hospice, or confined to private homes. This ministry is provided by lay men and women, deacons, religious sisters and brothers and priests. Ministers of Care are trained and formed to conduct pastoral visits with time to listen and pray about the concerns of the sick or shut-in person and to share Eucharist with them.

Ministry of Care to the Sick is a service offered to people at vulnerable and painful times in their lives. The person who cares for the sick and shut-in needs to have specific qualities and gifts, including a listening presence, compassion and empathy, a non-judgmental mindset, confidentiality, commitment and follow-through, prayerfulness, a gentle demeanor and commitment to continuous training and spiritual development.

Each minister must complete 10 hours of training. Holy Name is blessed to have a cadre of priests and deacons who collaborate with Lori Doyle, Director of Service Ministries, to design and deliver the training. Our training is primarily an in-person training with opportunities to practice patient interactions over two Saturdays in the Fall of 2023 (dates TBA).

THIS WEEKEND! Our Annual School Supplies Drive

Weekend of Aug. 19-20, Before & After Masses

This year, our drive will focus on preschool through 8th-grade children. We are supporting the children of The Academy of St. Benedict the African, located at 6020 S. Laflin Ave. in West Englewood, and the 400 migrant children residing right in our neighborhood at the Inn of Chicago in Streeterville. Teachers work hard to create a warm and inviting environment for their students. The difficulty is that many teachers do not have the resources to decorate, let alone provide the basic tools and supplies their students need to be successful in the classroom. Let's help give our disadvantaged children better opportunities to be a vibrant force of love and hope in the community!

How has our school supplies drive positively impacted the school? "Holy Name Cathedral has provided so many necessary supplies that I can be sure that my children have everything they need for a great school year!" — Ms. Thompson, a teacher at St. Benedict the African.

1. Item donations: A wish list of school supplies items the children need includes 13" Chromebook cases, Crayola Color of the World crayons, and magic markers for the students at St Benedict. The migrant children at the Inn of Chicago have virtually nothing and need all basic supplies including notebooks, pencils, pens, crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue, and backpacks.

All financial donations are welcome in the upcoming weeks leading up to the drive. Please scan the QR or go to tinyurl.com/HNCgiving to contribute.

2. Volunteer! You can donate your time and passion by volunteering to help collect donations during the weekend of Aug. 19 & 20. We just need 15 minutes of your time before and after Mass. It is a great way to make a difference in our community. Please scan the QR code to let us know you are interested!

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you... (Mention your Request) Amen.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.
