Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Fall officially begins this week, and most would agree that the summer flew! Ironically, we always speak of “summer flying” and winter drags!”

I have never heard anyone say in Chicago that “winter flew” and “summer dragged!” Yet, both are about the same number of days. It all comes down to attitude and perspective. ... Keep reading ...

Note to Self

“What is my purpose in life!” I asked the voice.

“What if I told you that you fulfilled it when you took an extra hour to talk to that kid about his life?” said the voice.

“Or when you paid for that young couple in the restaurant? Or when you saved that dog in traffic. Or when you tied your father’s shoes for him!”

“Your problem is that you equate your purpose with goal-based achievement. The Universe isn’t interested in your achievements ... Just your heart.

When you choose to act out of kindness, compassion, and love, you are already aligned with your true purpose.

No need to look further!”

And speaking of perspective ...

High school reunion

Have you ever been guilty of looking at someone your age and thinking, “Surely I can’t look that old?” You’ll love this one.

My name is Alice Smith, and I was sitting in the waiting room for my first appointment with a new dentist. I noticed his DDS diploma, which showed his full name.

Suddenly, I remember a tall, handsome, dark-haired boy with the same name who had been in my high school class some 40-odd years ago. Could this be the guy I had a secret crush on back then?

Upon seeing him, however, I quickly discarded any such thought. This balding, gray-haired man with a deeply lined face was too old to have been my classmate.

After he examined my teeth, I asked him if he had attended Morgan Park High School.

“Yes. Yes, I did. I’m a Mustang,” he beamed with pride.

“When did you graduate?” I asked.

He answered, “In 1959. Why do you ask?”

“You were in my class!” I exclaimed.

He looked at me closely. Then, that ugly old, bald, wrinkled, fat, gray, decrepit son-of-a-gun asked, “What did you teach?”

And may we end summer on this note ...

A little silver-haired lady calls her neighbor, saying, “Please come over and help me. I have a killer jigsaw puzzle and can’t figure out how to get started.”

Her neighbor asks, “What should it be when it is finished?” The little silver-haired lady says, “According to the picture on the box, it’s a rooster.”

Her neighbor decides to go over and help with the puzzle. She lets him in and shows him where she has the puzzle spread all over the table.

He studies the pieces for a moment, then looks at the box, then turns to her and says, “First of all, no matter what we do, we’re not going to be able to assemble these pieces into anything resembling a rooster.”

He takes her hand and says, “Secondly, I want you to relax. Let’s have a nice cup of tea.” Then he said with a deep sigh...“Let’s put all the corn flakes back into the box!”

Keeping life in perspective with a touch of humor,
Fr. Greg

“Parable of the Unforgiving Servant”
(1629) by Claude Vignon (1593 - 1670).
Musée des Beaux-Arts, Tours, France

*“Forgiveness doesn’t change
the past. It changes the future.”*

– Fr. Greg Sakowicz, Rector,
Holy Name Cathedral

Offense can create division between persons. The parable of the unforgiving servant reminds us that we should do for one another what God has done for us. Today’s readings from Sirach and from the Psalms also remind us that God is forgiving and does not judge or repay us with anger. We need to remember, be grateful, and be gracious to one another.

God’s mercy and forgiveness is the opposite of wrath and anger. It is the epitome of justice, not injustice.
We do not earn it; rather, we receive God’s mercy freely given. When we hang on to wrath and anger because of wounds — however deep they are — we withhold forgiveness. Refusing mercy to those who harm us can leave us unable to accept forgiveness for our own. Sometimes, letting go of wrath and anger entails forgiving ourselves as compassionately as God forgives us. This will leave us free to forgive others.

Catholic Illuminations

Celebrate Marriage, a Visible Expression of Christ's Love

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Holy Name Cathedral hosts many special liturgies throughout the year for the entire Archdiocese, gathering the faithful to celebrate and honor various aspects of our faith journey. This weekend, the Cathedral will host the annual Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass for couples married in 1973, where they will renew their wedding vows.

Holy Matrimony is one of the Church's seven Sacraments, often paired with Holy Orders under the term "Sacrament of Service/Vocation." Of the seven Sacraments, Marriage is the only one where an ordained clergyman is not the ordinary minister of the Sacrament. In the other six Sacraments: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation, Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick, and Holy Orders for a deacon, priest, or bishop is the ordinary minister. But in marriage, the bride and groom are the ordinary ministers (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1623). The deacon, priest, or bishop celebrating the wedding is merely a witness for legal purposes (here in the United States, the clergyman is the witness for both secular and religious).

According to the Catechism, the ends of marriage, meaning the purpose of marriage, are unity, openness to children and indissolubility (CCC 1664). One could add another goal to marriage, the end of any vocation: holiness. As husband and wife, as the ministers of the Sacrament who give of themselves totally and ultimately to the other and their children, if children result from their married life, they are meant to help each other get to heaven while striving for heaven themselves.

It makes sense then that in marriage, the husband and wife are the ministers because they are the ones who promise to be faithful to each other, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health, to love and honor each other all the days of their life. It is not the priest making these promises; it is not the community gathered who raised these two individuals. The bride and groom are making the promise to give of themselves to their spouse and potential future children and the world through their married life together. And through this self-gift, pave the way for holiness for each other and the world by this witness.

Marriage then becomes a visible expression of the love Christ has for the Church, giving his life for her salvation as he hung upon the cross and shed his blood. Married love is meant to be life-giving in whatever form possible. No marriage is without bumps in the road, but looking to Jesus and emulating Jesus in married life can all be conquered with love.

We join in congratulating the couples of the Archdiocese who celebrate 50 years of marriage this weekend as they gather for this Eucharistic celebration, the perfect form of thanksgiving, here at the Cathedral. We also pray for those who have lost a spouse before this milestone, aware that those who have gone before us participate in the same heavenly liturgy. We thank God for the Sacrament of Marriage, a tangible expression of Christ's love on the cross, shown through the married love of so many people.

Pet Mass and Blessing

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today, more than ever, we need compassionate and knowledgeable priests who will accompany us on our life journey, sharing in our joys and sorrows and guiding us through its challenges. The young men who are currently enrolled at both the University of Saint Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary and at Saint John Vianney College Seminary in Saint Paul, Minnesota, are the priests of tomorrow who will walk with us through life.

We are truly blessed to have these selfless, young seminarians step forward to minister us, our children and our grandchildren. We are grateful for their willingness to dedicate their lives to Jesus, the Church and each of us.

As a show of our gratitude, we take a moment this weekend to pay our respects by making a gift to their education. At Masses throughout the archdiocese this weekend, we ask for your encouragement and prayers for our seminarians. We also seek your financial support to help cover the cost of their preparation, which includes tuition and fees, room and board and health insurance.

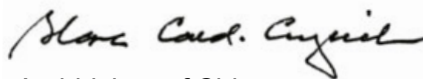

These young men are giving their lives to us, and I ask that you to match their generosity by making a sacrificial gift as we take up this collection. Not only will you be investing in them, but also in the future of the Church.

A remittance envelope has been placed in your pew or at the back of the church for your gift. You may also send your donation directly to your parish, noting that it is for "Seminarian Education," or you may make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund.

In addition, you can also support vocations in the archdiocese by encouraging young men in your acquaintance to consider discerning the priesthood. Many current priests credit their vocation to personal conversations with loved ones and friends who recognized this potential in them.

On behalf of current and future archdiocesan seminarians, thank you. May God continue to bless you abundantly. Please know that I keep you in my daily prayers and intentions, and I ask for yours in return.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Reflection

Stewardship is Giving God Our Whole Selves – Inside & Out

Today's readings call us to look inward to the state of our hearts, our thoughts and emotions.

Our first reading, from Sirach, addresses the emotion of anger. "Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord?" We have all been wounded by others at some point, some perhaps quite deeply. Our emotions are gifts from God. But we must steward them well, rather than allowing them to overcome us.

We embrace the stewardship mindset — not brooding over hurts, but recalling all the gifts our good God has given us, all the love He continually pours out upon us, and we put our focus and trust in Him.

In our Gospel from Matthew, Jesus reminds us of our true position before Him, comparing the kingdom of heaven to a "king who decided to settle accounts with his servants." In the parable, a debtor is brought before the king, owing a debt that could not possibly be repaid. Yet, the king is filled with compassion, forgives the debt, and lets him free.

Doesn't that sound like our relation to the King of Kings? The Father has given us life and sent His only Son to die for us to free us from our sins "debts" and make eternal life possible for us. It is impossible to repay this debt. We can only thank God by giving our whole selves.

The Stump of Jesse

An Uplifting Street Encounter — “You Are The Priest!”

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

As I hurriedly approached Northwestern Hospital, a sudden greeting interrupted my steps. “You are the priest!” I stopped and scanned my surroundings to locate the source of the voice. “Yes, I am a priest. How can I help you?” I replied, my curiosity piqued. “You’re the priest who celebrated Mass today at 10:30am. We’re from Detroit, just in town for a visit, and since the Cathedral is just a few blocks away, we decided to attend Mass.” Then, with excitement, they began to share their faith journey. They spoke about how reading Scriptures and listening to Catholic talks, like those by Bishop Robert Barron from “Word on Fire,” had played an essential role in deepening their faith. These experiences ignited a newfound enthusiasm for living out their marriage vocation joyfully. Our conversation flowed seamlessly, weaving through Michigan Avenue as we made our way to Huron Street. I knew I had to keep moving for the anointing, but the couple’s infectious zeal kept me engaged.

Friends, that evening was late and tiring, but that conversation filled me with boundless energy. In my mind,

I couldn’t help think, “Yes, yes, yes, you get it!” Can you tell that this couple was evangelizing in their unique way? The couple does indeed encounter the Lord and have an active relationship with Him. They are like Jeremiah 20:9: “But then it [God’s Word] becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.”

I was so pumped! I wish my words speak out loud of the joy, love, energy, hope, and excitement I felt during that encounter. Well, I pray that you feel it. So, what is evangelization? Bishop Barron nicely says, “Evangelization is not just sharing ideas about Christianity, as important as that is ... But evangelization is introducing someone into a friendship with Jesus Christ, into a relationship with him.” He continues, “One of the reasons that we do not evangelize effectively is that a lot of even professed Christians do not walk personally with Jesus ... that is Christianity in a nutshell: to walk personally with Christ. Once you do that, once you address him with the word ‘thou,’ once you know that you have a friendship with the Lord, you can share it. And that is what real evangelization is all about.” How is our progress in cultivating a personal relationship with Jesus? How are we doing with evangelization? I love being a priest! JMJ.

“Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.” — Jeremiah 1:5

A Discussion on Life Lost: Miscarriage & Stillborn

Saturday, Oct. 14 after 5:15pm Mass

The joy of a new life is shattered when a full-term birth is cut short. Such loss defies words and reactions by society. The tendency to move on tends to dominate our culture. We do not address the emptiness felt by the mother, who has already formed a relationship with this living person within her. There is the father whose dreams evaporate while trying to console his wife. Children may be coping with the reality that there is no sibling now.

This discussion allows us, as Catholics, to face the social stigma of denial and listen to those who have learned to celebrate these children of God. With the guidance of the Elizabeth Ministry, we will learn how to accompany those directly affected by this loss. Scan the QR code to register online. We will meet in the Rectory after the 5:15pm Mass on Saturday, Oct. 14. Sponsored by the Celebrate Life Initiative.

School Supplies Drive

Thank You for Your Donations!

Our annual School Supplies Drive was a big success, thanks to all of you! We collected 200 backpacks and bins full of school supplies for K-8 students at the Academy of St. Benedict the African Elementary School and those of asylum seeker families residing at the Inn of Chicago. We also received over $6,000 in cash donations, which will support the students attending St. Benedict and living at the Inn of Chicago. Your generosity in supporting these schools is deeply appreciated. And a shout out to our dozen volunteers who assisted in collecting at all the Masses and organizing the donations for delivery to the school and Inn. We couldn't have done it without all the time they devoted to it. Thank you, everyone!

Filling Your Spiritual Backpack: Sr. Thea Bowman

Sunday, Sept. 17, after the 5:15pm Mass, in the Parish Center Club Room

Born Dec. 29, 1937, in Mississippi, Sr. Thea Bowman became Catholic at age nine and entered the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration at age 15. Sr. Thea began a unique ministry of breaking down racial and cultural barriers through lively gatherings that combined singing, gospel preaching, prayer, and storytelling, rooted in African-American Catholicism. She died in 1990 after a six-year fight with breast cancer. The U.S. Bishops endorsed the sainthood cause for Sr. Thea, and she was granted the first step of the process by the Vatican. This "Filling Your Spiritual Backpack" session will be facilitated by David Thompson, catechist, who is from the same area as Sr. Thea in Mississippi.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you... (Mention your Request) Amen.
Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.
