Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Jesus walked upon this earth and pointed the way to God. Our Lord Jesus Christ came to form a people--rather than solely to inform His followers and all of us. Are we good listeners to the words and ways of Christ? Do we learn from and listen to our experiences?

Are we aware that life is also a great teacher if rooted in the Lord Jesus?

Today, we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Kingship of Jesus is a way of service, love and reaching out to each other. Next week, we begin our new liturgical year with the Season of Advent. It is important to remember that Advent is a time of preparation, waiting and listening.

Advent asks us to listen --to make the time and connect the mystery of God with our lives through the birth of Jesus into our world. What have we learned from life? Advent is a splendid opportunity to listen and give thanks.

I want to share the following "lessons of life" as reflected upon by Andy Rooney.

I've learned ... That having a child fall asleep in your arms is one of the most peaceful feelings in the world.

I've learned ... That being kind is more important than being right.

I've learned ... That you should never say no to a gift from a child.

I've learned ... That I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in some other way.

I've learned ... That no matter how serious your life requires you to be, everyone needs a friend to act goofy with.

I've learned ... That sometimes, all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.

I've learned ... That simple walks with my father around the block on summer nights when I was a child did wonders for me as an adult.

I've learned ... That life is like a roll of toilet paper.

The closer it gets to the end, the faster it goes.

I've learned ... That we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.

I've learned ... That money doesn't buy class.

I've learned ... That it's those small daily happenings that make life so spectacular.

I've learned ... That under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.

I've learned ... That the Lord didn't do it all in one day. What makes me think I can?

I've learned ... That when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.

I've learned ... That love, not time, heals all wounds.

I've learned ... That everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.

I've learned ... That there's nothing sweeter than sleeping with your babies and feeling their breath on your cheeks.

I've learned ... That no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.

I've learned ... That when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.

I've learned ... That I can't choose how I feel, but I can choose what I do about it.

I've learned ... That everyone wants to live on top of the mountain, but all the happiness and growth occur while you're climbing it.

As your Rector, I have learned that life is a mystery to be lived and not a problem to be solved.

A fellow learner with you,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

"The Last Judgment" by Giotto (1267/7-1337). Scrovegni Chapel in Padua, Italy.

Today's readings present God's people as sheep. Matthew contrasts them with goats. Although the sheep are accepted and the goats rejected before Christ, in the Gospel they both call Jesus "Lord." Matthew's Jesus has made it clear that "not everyone who says... 'Lord, Lord' will enter the kingdom of heaven but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven." Our actions are more important than our words, and God desires that our actions are expressions of mercy for the weak and vulnerable.

Also, both sheep and goats express that they have never seen Jesus as needy. Neither knows or understands the reason or implications of their actions, but one chose to act with mercy while the other chose to ignore the needs of the people they encountered. The point here is not that ignorance is bliss. Rather, the significance is that while our understandings can be limited, the most important thing is how we treat 'these least ones.'

Prepare for Advent, a Sacred Time Of Joyful Anticipation

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

As we look ahead to the beginning of Advent next week, it is an excellent time to refocus on our life as disciples. Though the season of Advent is not as heavily penitential as Lent, it is a period of waiting in darkness for the light that comes from the birth of our Savior on Christmas morning. Advent is marked by various liturgical changes such as purple vestments, the Advent wreath in the sanctuary, the omission of the Gloria during Sunday liturgies, and the prayers of the Mass focus on waiting for the Lord. One addition is communal Vespers.

Preparing to enter this sacred time of joyful anticipation, as in years past, the Cathedral will offer sung Advent Vespers on the Sundays of Advent, Dec. 3, 10, and 17 (not on Dec. 24 due to Christmas Eve), at 4:00pm in the Cathedral. Each Vesper's service will include a free organ recital at 3:30pm. Vespers is one of the "hinge hours" of the overall Liturgy of the Hours, or divine office, which are set hours throughout the day given to us by the Church to fulfill St. Paul's command "to pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

The Liturgy of the Hours has been prayed in the Church for centuries. Deriving the structure from the psalms and canticles of the Old Testament and readings from both the Old and New Testaments, the Liturgy of the Hours covers a majority of Scripture. Beginning after the Second Vatican Council, the laity was invited to pray the Liturgy of the Hours, along with the clergy and religious, who promised to pray the breviary daily. Praying the Liturgy of the Hours is a means to sanctify the day (Apostolic Constitution on the Promulgation of the New Divine Office, 2).

Like other liturgical actions, the Liturgy of the Hours is not a private act but belongs to the whole body of the Church ... "where possible, the principal Hours should be celebrated communally in church by other groups of the faithful." As a community of disciples, we pray together to strengthen our faith in the same risen Lord and show others we are not alone on the journey of faith. The Cathedral choir will lead us in Solemn Advent Vespers, and everyone is welcome to join us on the following three Sundays to get a glimpse of our faith's rich prayer tradition and join others as we wait for the coming of the Lord.

We will continue to advertise our Christmas schedule in the upcoming weeks, but you can note that since Christmas Eve is on Sunday, Dec. 24, the morning Masses will celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Advent, and Christmas Eve celebrations will begin at 3:00pm. Due to this quick turnaround, we will not celebrate a 12:30pm Mass on Sunday, Dec. 24, to allow final preparations before the 3:00pm Christmas Eve Mass.

As we prepare again to welcome the newborn king into our hearts and lives through the preparations the season of Advent brings us, let us renew our hope that God visits his people and that we were made to worship him in prayer, word, and deed.

Too Many Notes: Reflections on Modern Contemporary Music

Saturday, Dec. 2 at 2:00pm in the Club Room

Something bizarre happened to classical music in the twentieth century. From the outside, the lush, delightful, and melodic works of composers like Beethoven, Brahms and Wagner seemed to evaporate overnight, leaving strange and unsettling collections of sound in their place.

Jonathan Hannau

However, while audiences raised their eyebrows in confusion, a new air of experimentation gripped the musical community. More than just haphazard investigation, prominent composers like Arnold Schoenberg, Karlheinz Stockhausen, and John Cage sought to find beautiful music beyond historical convention, and in doing so, had a profound effect on artists as diverse as the Beatles, Miles Davis and Aphex Twin.

Join Holy Name Cathedral on Saturday, Dec. 2 at 2:00pm in the Club Room, where contemporary composer Jonathan Hannau will explain why classical music in the 20th century became so different and why you should listen.

Camino a La Navidad

Thursday, Dec. 7 at the Art Institute of Chicago

Our next walk, camino, of the Camino del Santo Nombre initiative occurs Thursday, Dec. 7, focusing on the spiritual pilgrimage to the Nativity. We gather at the Art Institute of Chicago (free admission day) at 5:30pm.

As a group of 10-12 adults, we encounter various works of art depicting the journey to Bethlehem, ending at the Neapolitan Crèche. Contact Dr. Ken Ortega to register, kortega@holynamcathedral.org.

Journey With Us! An Invitation to HNC's Young Adult Ministry

Growing up and growing closer to God doesn't always occur at the same pace. Young adulthood is when we grow older and journey towards independence. We find ourselves living on our own and wrestling with God's purpose for us. The unfortunate truth is often, we have looked outside the Church and outside our relationship with God to answer those questions. After a time, His call back to Him eventually becomes loud enough, and we find ourselves back in church inviting Him back into our hearts. If that sounds familiar, you're not alone, and a Young Adult community at HNC surrounds you on the same journey toward building a relationship with Jesus.

We believe the purpose we search for is found entirely in that relationship with God. Jesus' ministry is that work we are following. "Anchored in the Catholic Faith, the Young Adults Ministry identifies Spiritual, Service, and Fellowship opportunities for young adults to strengthen their faith, to provide apostolic ministry for those of the community, and be a welcoming community for HNC to encounter Jesus Christ."

We hope you feel personally invited to ALL our Young Adult Ministry events. The last thing Jesus prayed for before his crucifixion was for unity among His believers. Jesus desired his disciples to be unified in their faith and love for one another. Participating in HNC's Young Adult Ministry is a step in that direction.

“Mary’s Journey,” an Audio Book by Fr. Louis J. Cameli

In the early 1980’s, the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception invited me to write a book about the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The book was meant to help people, especially Catholics, to understand Mary’s place in our journey of faith and how she helps us to know her son, Jesus.

The result was Mary’s Journey, a book that describes three important spiritual experiences: Mary’s journey of faith in the New Testament, the Church’s journey of faith with Mary in the teachings about her, and our journey of worship and devotion lived out in the feasts of Mary.

Fr. Louis J. Cameli

The book went through two editions, and I was happy to hear from many people that they found it very helpful. Now, there is no longer a print edition, but I recently produced an audio version of the book. It is available on Amazon, Audible, and iTunes. You might find it a helpful spiritual resource for the upcoming season of Advent and Christmastime. You might also think of it as a gift idea for friends or family who listen to audiobooks. If you go to the Amazon/Audible website, and type in Father Louis John Cameli Mary’s Journey, an audio sample is available for your listening.

This is the first announcement of my new audio book. I wanted the people of the Holy Name Cathedral Faith Community to be the first to know about it!

Holy Name Cathedral Rector's Annual Appeal

Dear People of God,

Thank you to all those who donated to the 2023 Rector's Annual Appeal. I am grateful for your generosity. If you have not had an opportunity, I encourage you to read the following letter sent to our Faith Community.

For the past seven years I have had the honor and privilege to serve as your Rector at Holy Name Cathedral. I have witnessed the profound faith of parishioners and visitors. I am humbled by the number of people who step forward to serve in ministry performing acts of love and mercy for those in need. I am energized by those who answer the call to discipleship leading others to a deeper understanding of Jesus Christ. I am profoundly grateful to all those who support our Cathedral and in turn experience the "joy of giving."

I humbly ask you to consider supporting the mission and ministries of Holy Name Cathedral with a gift to the Rector's Annual Appeal. In the coming year, we will continue to grow our ministries as well as develop an immigration ministry to address the diverse and spiritual needs of our neighbors, create a bereavement ministry for those who are dealing with loss and grief, and invest in campus improvements of our historic Cathedral.

I need your help. Holy Name Cathedral is totally self-funded. We do not receive funding from the Archdiocese and rely on the generosity of our parishioners, visitors and friends to support our mission and ministries to fulfill our vision: A World in Communion with Jesus Christ. Thank you for your generous heart!

With heartfelt gratitude,
Fr. Greg

P.S. You can donate by using the QR code or sending a check made payable to Holy Name Cathedral with Rector's Annual Appeal in the memo line.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth: I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.
 I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.
 Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
