Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

A Blessed, Happy and Healthy New Year to all. 2023 is history, and the doors have almost swung open to 2024! Where did 2023 go? As we start a new year together, remembering and looking forward with hope and joy in the Lord Jesus can be an excellent opportunity. Life is difficult, and many bumps and curves fill the road. However, God is constant and straight in His love for us. God pursues us — always seeking to love and forgive each one. Our God is a God of second chances and new beginnings. Jesus came into our world to reveal his Father of love, mercy, forgiveness and new beginnings.

We celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family this weekend. The Holy Family reminds and challenges us about the importance of our own family — no matter our age! Family life is never easy and time moves much too quickly!

Our Holy Family celebration continues the Christmas Season. May the following story touch your hearts as we begin a new year together.

Their marriage was good, their dreams focused. Their best friends lived barely a wave away. I can see them now. Dad is in trousers, a t-shirt, and a hat, with Mom in a house dress, a lawn mower in his hand, and a dishtowel in hers. It was the time for fixing things. A curtain rod, the kitchen radio, the screen door, the oven door, and the hem on a dress. Things we keep.

It was a way of life, and sometimes it made me crazy. All that re-fixing, re-heating, and renewing. I wanted just once to be wasteful. Waste meant affluence. Throwing things away meant you knew there'd always be more.

But then my mother died, and on that clear summer's night, in the warmth of the hospital room, I was struck with the pain of learning that sometimes there isn't anymore. Sometimes, what we care about most gets used up and goes away ... never to return. So ... while we have it ... it's best we love it ... And care for it ... And fix it when it's broken ... And heal it when it's sick.

This is true ... For marriage ... And old cars ... And children with bad report cards ... Dogs and cats with bad hips ...

And aging parents.... And grandparents. We keep them because they are worth it — because we are worth it.

Some things we keep. Like a best friend who moved away or a classmate, we grew up with. There are just some things that make life meaningful, like people we know who are special ... And so, we keep them close!

This story beautifully expresses the importance of family and relationships. Life is fragile, yet we sometimes take family, health, friendship, and faith for granted. All is a gift and God is the giver of all life and every gift. The Feast of the Holy Family is a poignant reminder of the profound need to protect family life — and all life.

Children are at the heart of the family, and we all know children say the darndest things! As we close this year's chapter, I share with you small children responding to their understanding of angels. Read ... laugh...and pass it on. ...

Sarah, 7: "I only know the names of two angels. Hark and Harold."

Gregory, 5: "Everybody's got it all wrong. Angels don't wear halos anymore. I forgot why, but scientists are working on it."

Olive, 9: "It's not easy to become an angel. First, you die. Then you go to heaven; then there's still the flight training to go through. And then you got to agree to wear those angel clothes."

Matthew, 9: "Angels work for God and watch over kids when God has to do something else."

Mitchell, 7: "My Guardian angel helps me with math, but he's not much good for science."

Henry, 8: "Angels don't eat, but they drink milk from Holy Cows!!!"

Daniel, 9: "When an angel gets mad, he take a deep breath and counts to ten. And when he lets out his breath, there's a tornado somewhere."

Reagan, 10: "Angels have a lot to do and keep very busy. If you lose a tooth, an angel enters your window and leaves money under your pillow...Then when it gets cold, angels go south for the winter."

Blessings and joy in the New Year,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

“The Holy Family” by Giorgione, painting, National Gallery of Art, Washington, D.C.

During the holiday season, much attention is placed on romanticizing the family. Christmas movies and advertisements portray

happy reunions and joyous family gatherings. However, in reality, many families experience pain and loss that is even more acute during the holidays. Perhaps a loved one has died during the past year. A family member may be fighting in a distant war. Old hurts may keep some from wanting to be with family. A failed marriage may have split apart parents who struggle with how to share their love and time equitably with their children. Most families do not match the Norman Rockwell picture of everyone living happily as one. Today's readings may sound at first like an idealized portrait of the family life, but a closer look reveals a very realistic understanding of what it takes to create a harmonious home. Even amid the daily trials of life, God was present with Sarah and Abraham, Mary and Joseph, and is just as much present in our lives today.

Keep Celebrating Christmas Until the New Year with Mary

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Our secular world tells us that once Dec. 25 passes, the Christmas music stops playing, we throw the trees to the curb for pick up, go to the store to return gifts, or get other items on sale, and look forward to the next holiday. How quickly the stores put away Christmas and take out hearts and arrows for St. Valentine's Day! As a side note, this year's Valentine's Day falls on Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. Think now about your Lenten practices because it will be here soon! But in our Catholic tradition, we don't only celebrate "days," such as feast days and solemnities; we also celebrate seasons. As the Gloria rang from the heavens to announce to the shepherds in the field the birth of the Christ child, we continue to join in the angelic hymn since Christmas is more than a day. Christmas is a perpetual season of joy and love as we celebrate the inbreaking of God in our world.

We began our Christmas season with the Christmas Octave. An "octave" is an 8-day celebration where the solemnness and joy of the first day are prolonged. The Octave of Christmas lasts from Dec. 25 to Jan. 1. By celebrating eight days of the same reality, the Incarnation of God in the flesh, we are reminded for eight days of the joy, the mystery, the reality of what has occurred. God has visited his people and walks with us. However, we don't just celebrate the same day over and over again. Each passing day in the Octave builds up to the eighth day when it reaches the climax. In the Christmas Octave, the eighth day is the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, celebrated on Jan. 1.

By recognizing the role of Mary in our history of salvation, we celebrate a simple woman from Nazareth who said yes despite the fears and the unknown. We build up each day from Christmas to Jan. 1, aware that without Mary, salvation would not have come, our Savior would not have been born of flesh, and he would not have been able to redeem what he has assumed (St. Athanasius). The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, is typically a Holy Day of Obligation. But because it falls on a Monday, the U.S. Conference of Bishops has said it will not be a Holy Day this year. The Cathedral will offer Masses on Jan. 1, celebrating the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, at 10:00am and 12:00pm. As we near the end of the Octave of Christmas, let us truly immerse ourselves in the reality of what we celebrate: that God has become man and walks the journey of life with us, and He is Emmanuel – God with us. As we enter a new year full of hope, dreams, and the unknown, let us pause and rejoice, for each day of this new year, we still celebrate the reality that God is with us.

Reflection

When Art Meets the Spiritual

By Jay Defoe

Our second “Camino” occurred at the Art Institute of Chicago and was named “Camino a la Navidad.” It was a truly transformative event. Dr. Ken Ortega, our director and tour guide, cheerfully greeted us at the Modern Wing of the Institute with an itinerary of nine (the novena number) pre-selected art pieces by various artists; some religious pieces, others not; some famous, some less known, and others unknown. Dr. Ken prepared a booklet for us: a photo of each art piece, a summary, and a history.

Associated with each art piece were nine prayers, connecting and weaving in context as an interpretation of the respective artwork. As we assembled, he handed us a small velvet black pouch containing a pen, a shell, and a rock. We will soon learn the meaning of these items. After each viewing, some of our members provided valuable insights into the art piece, with Dr. Ken prodding us to dig deeper, pointing out a particular detail or two with interesting and spiritual interpretations.

After this commentary, and as we huddled together, we quietly and respectfully (so as not to bother anyone else in the museum) prayed together. The more we prayed together after each viewing, the closer we all seemed to become and the more spiritual the event. It felt as if the Holy Spirit was guiding us.

And then it happened! As we were looking for our second to the last art piece, going from salon to salon, we were confronted, front and center, by HIM. There before us, on a wall of prominence, hung an approximate 17-foot crucifix of Jesus in his most powerful, divine but sad passion; Jesus Crucified, with his Crown of Thorns, and nail-ridden limbs, and pierced side and the dripping of his Precious Blood.

Woman as the Image of God

Saturday, Jan. 27 at 2:00pm

The portrayals of God in the Catholic tradition typically envision God as a man: Father, bridegroom, priest. However, as The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states: “God transcends the human distinction between the sexes. He is neither man nor woman: he is God.”

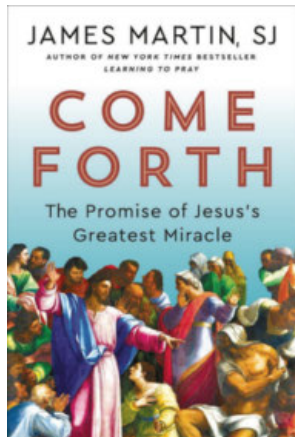

Please join theologian K.T. Brizek as she helps us explore how womanhood presents the image of God. No advance registration needed.

On Cellphones & Connecting

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Why does your generation often gaze at the phone?" a priest asked me. I responded by listing various reasons: reading, listening to music, maintaining communication with family and friends, working, and relaxing. Dissatisfied, he pressed on, observing our phone use in various settings like walking, taking elevators, or socializing with friends. He questioned, "What captures your attention on the phone during these moments? Are you uncomfortable engaging with others in person?"

As the year ends, let's consider why we mindlessly pick up our phones, staring at screens for hours. Perhaps, as we approach the new year, a resolution could be to consciously limit phone usage, look at God's creation, and engage in holy conversations with others more often. On the Feast of the Holy Family, I offer a prayer, "O God, who was pleased to give us the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of Charity."

Good news! Two of my classmates are now pastors: Fr. Marco Franco at St. Agnes of Bohemia and Fr. David Yallaly at St. John Cantius. I am proud of them and invite you to join me in praying they will be wonderful pastors shepherding God's flock. I Love Being a Priest. JMJ

Our Conversations on Faith & Fitness Continues

Sunday, Jan. 7 at 4:00pm in the Club Room

Fitness professional Michele Sotak and Spiritual Theologian Fr. Louis Cameli come together to facilitate conversations on the importance and similarities between fitness and faith. They will showcase how these elements intersect to make us become a better and more holy version of ourselves, serve others more effectively, and overcome adversity by developing mental fortitude. These sessions will introduce and encourage good stewardship by looking at ourselves holistically and expressing the importance of caring for our bodies and nourishing our spirits.

You can expect to discover solutions to how we can overcome challenges and temptations in our spiritual life and physical life and learn scripture passages and prayers that will support physical well-being and our spirituality.

Please note this is not a workout class, but Michele will demonstrate various exercises and stretches. Sharing and listening to the hopes and challenges people experience in their lives and spiritual journeys is encouraged.

Faith & Fitness sessions will occur at 4:00pm in the Club Room. There is no cost for these sessions. Our next two sessions will be Jan. 7: We Have A Gift to Give: The gift of our bodies and lives and the call to stewardship, and Feb. 4: We are Sent with A Purpose: Our bodies and souls are on a mission; we have a purpose to accomplish.

Please scan the QR code to register. Questions? Email Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth. I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.
 I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.
 Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
