Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Christmas morn has passed, but we continue our Christmas season as we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany this weekend.

What does Epiphany mean? As many of you know, Epiphany means appearance or revelation. It implies a showing, a direction for our search. And interestingly enough, the scriptures imply it's a search that everyone must make. In the Gospel, Luke has the poor searching in the form of shepherds. In his Gospel, Matthew has the learned and rich searching in the form of the Magi. So the message is that there is room for everybody in this search for life's meaning and purpose, from no degrees to PhDs, from shepherds to executives.

And so, to the Magi. They are three searchers who did not find the answer to life in their horoscopes but took a long and challenging journey to another country in search of Christ.

The Feast of the Epiphany means finding Christ and letting the Lord Jesus find us. It is not a one-time thing. Instead, finding the Lord is a life-long quest, like a marriage or a profound friendship. Like the Magi, we gather to focus on the One who loves us and abides with us. The more we connect the way of Jesus with our story — if searching is our road — then finding will be our home.

Epiphany is about dreams, hopes, searching and direction. The journey is more critical than the destination. What are we searching for and what are we finding in our lives? We sometimes seek happiness in all the wrong places. Dream big dreams! However, in our search, always keep our eyes fixed on the Lord Jesus Christ, and doors will open we never dreamed possible.

As we begin a new year, we make many resolutions: lose weight, control temper, learn to relax, or spend more time with the family. Many people talk about reducing stress in their lives. I share the following connection with the Feast of the Epiphany. Enjoy ... and pass it on ...

Stress Management

When explaining stress management to an audience, a lecturer raised a glass of water and asked, "How heavy is this glass of water?" Answers called out ranged from 20g to 500g. The lecturer replied, "The absolute weight doesn't matter. It depends on how long you try to hold it. If I hold it for a minute, that's not a problem. If I hold it for an hour, I'll have an ache in my right arm. If I hold it for a day, you'll have to call an ambulance. It's the same weight in each case, but the longer I hold it, the heavier it becomes."

He continued, "And that's the way it is with stress management. If we carry our burdens all the time, sooner or later, as the burden becomes increasingly heavy, we won't be able to carry on. As with the glass of water, you must put it down and rest for a while before holding it again. When refreshed, we can carry on with the burden. So, before you return home tonight, put the burden of work down. Don't carry it home. You can pick it up tomorrow. Whatever burdens you're carrying now, let them down for a moment if you can."

So, my friend, why not take a while to simply RELAX? Put down anything that may be a burden to you right now. Don't pick it up again until after you've rested for a while. Life is short. Enjoy it!

Epiphany also means letting life surprise us. Keep reading ...

"When I was a small boy in Kansas, a friend of mine and I went fishing. As we sat there on a riverbank in the warmth of the summer afternoon, we talked about what we wanted to do when we grew up. I told him I wanted to be a real major league baseball player, a genuine professional like Honus Wagner. My friend said he'd like to be President of the United States.

Neither of us got our wish."

— Dwight D. Eisenhower,
34th President of the United States

My prayers are with you and your entire family for a Blessed, Joyous and Healthy New Year!

Peace always,
Fr. Greg

P.S. May the Chicago Bears finally beat the Green Bay Packers!

On the Cover

"The Adoration of the Magi,"
by Gentile da Fabriano, 1423 tempera on panel, Uffizi Gallery, Florence, Italy.

Today's solemnity continues the celebration of the mystery of God's manifestation to the very ends of the earth. The visitors from the East symbolizes the extent of God's salvation as it unfolds. As they offer gifts, as would be fitting for a king, they announce to the world that an astonishing event has taken place; all peoples will know the glory of God.

Today's verses are frequently identified as "the adoration of the Magi." The word Bethlehem, the place of Jesus' birth, appears four times in the twelve verses of Matthew's Gospel. Might we consider this town, this earthly place, a specific location at a given time in human history, where Jesus, son of David and Son of God, is made manifest in human flesh? It is because of this mystery of the incarnation that the author of the Letter to the Ephesians could write of the Spirit "that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise of Christ Jesus through the Gospel."

Baptism: The Gateway into the Life of the Church

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Unlike our current culture, the Christmas season does not end on Dec. 26. As a Church, we continue to sing Christmas carols, decorate our worship spaces, and celebrate the wonder and joy of Christmas Day until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This year, due to the way the calendar falls, the Baptism of the Lord is not celebrated the Sunday after the Epiphany. Instead, it will fall on the Monday following the Epiphany on Jan. 8.

Without going deep into the reasons and significance of why Jesus, who knew no sin, I would like to focus on the general meaning of baptism and the impact it has on our life as believers.

We profess each weekend in our Creed, “I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.” We may wonder what this one baptism is and what it means to confess one baptism. There are many Christian denominations and many forms of baptism in our world. The “one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins” is recognized as the one instituted by Jesus himself before his ascension to the right hand of the Father, when he tells the Apostles: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19). This is known as the trinitarian formula and is necessary for a valid and licit baptism.

Some denominations do not use this formula, and in the eyes of the Catholic Church, the person is not validly baptized. Even a tiny change in the formula, such as “We baptize in the name of the Father. ...” Or “I baptize you through the Creator, the Redeemer, and the Sanctifier,” makes the baptism invalid. These formulas are inaccurate because they are not the words of the Church or the Lord himself.

Baptism is the gateway Sacrament into the life of the Church. It becomes the way to encounter the Lord’s mercy, tenderness, love, and friendship. By being baptized, we are immersed into the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ and sent on a mission into the world as disciples to be his hands and his feet, proclaiming the Good News that God has come. To confess the one Baptism means to believe that sin, both original and personal, is forgiven in baptism, and we become children of the Almighty Father. The Sacrament of Baptism allows us to place our faith in Jesus Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we move into the season of Ordinary Time. This year, we have six weeks before beginning our Lenten journey on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 14. Ordinary Time allows us to focus on the mission of Jesus, to proclaim the Good News to the world, in word and deed. As we confess the one Baptism once again in our Creed this weekend, may we be aware that in baptism, we are forgiven of our sins, made children of God, and sent on a mission to bring that Good News to others.

More Than 1,200 People Attended Midnight Mass at Holy Name Cathedral

“It really leads up to the coming of God among us, that Jesus loves us so he came into our humanity, our misery, our pain. He knows what we go through.

He walks with us, and he brings us light as we walk in darkness,” said Father Andy Matijevic. “As a cathedral, we welcome so many visitors from all over the world, and it’s the same celebration no matter where you are whether here in Chicago, in Ireland, in the Middle East and Ukraine. It’s the same Jesus who comes to visit us, who comes to love us.”

Cathedral Concert Series

Organist Gail Archer to Highlight Women Composers

Saturday, Feb. 3 at 7pm

Our next program for the Cathedral Concert Series features concert organist Gail Archer on Feb. 3 at 7:00pm. She founded Musforum (musforum.org), an international network for women organists to promote

Ms. Archer is a college organist at Vassar College, director of the music program at Barnard College and Columbia University, where she conducts the Barnard-Columbia Chorus and Chamber Singers, and a Harriman

Institute, Columbia University faculty member. She is the artistic director of the artist and young artist recital series at the historic Central Synagogue, New York City.

Ms. Archer will play on the Flentrop, a program highlighting female composers, with works from Tower, Howe, Price, Larsen, Boulanger, and Demessieux. Join us for an exciting evening of brilliant music in our Cathedral!

Three Cathedral Tours After Masses This Sunday

Each week, our Cathedral Docents lead short, 15-minute express tours following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those who are interested in participating in these free tours are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass.

Also, Docents will give a full Cathedral tour this Sunday after the 12:30 p.m. Mass. The next full tour, which last approximately 45 minutes. No reservations needed!

January Salon Series

Woman as the Image of God

Saturday, Jan. 27 at 2:00pm in the Rectory

The portrayals of God in the Catholic tradition typically envision God as a man: Father, bridegroom, priest. We know from Scripture that men and women are both made in the image of God, but when pressed on differences between the sexes, many will say that men are the image of Christ, and women are the image of the Church, not God Himself. However, as The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states [239]: "God transcends the human distinction between the sexes. He is neither man nor woman: he is God." Please join theologian K.T. Brizek as she helps us explore how womanhood presents the image of God. No advance registration needed.

Seasons of Hope Support Groups for Bereavement

Starting in January 2024

Jesus assured us that those who mourn are blessed and will be consoled. Seasons of Hope offers those grieving the loss of a loved one in our Holy Name Faith Community an opportunity to join others in giving voice to their unique journeys of grief and find healing, hope, and spiritual accompaniment. These sessions will help participants journey through loss with the help of scripture, prayer, reflection activities and faith sharing. Seasons of Hope is a Christ-centered support group that is grounded in the wisdom and sacred traditions of the Catholic Church. For those searching for healing, a Seasons of Hope support group is a life-giving connection to the Church. There will be two Seasons of Hope Bereavement support groups beginning in January 2024. Six Wednesday Evenings 6:30-8:00pm: Jan. 17, 24 and 31; Feb 7, 21, and 28. Six Thursday mornings 10:00-11:30am: Jan. 18 and 25; Feb. 1, 8, 15, and 22

Please scan the QR code to register. Cost: $25, which includes a participant journal. Questions? Email Sr. Katie Mitchell, FSPA (kmitchell@holynamecathedral.org)

Adult Confirmation Classes Sign-ups Now Open

Holy Name Cathedral offers Adult Confirmation preparation, with reception of the sacrament on April 24 for Vicariate III. The eight-session hybrid series begins Thursday, Feb. 22. Candidates must be baptized as Catholic and have received First Communion. If either sacrament has not been completed, please contact Dr. Ken Ortega at kortega@holynamecathedral.org for assistance. You can register by scanning the QR code.

Fr. James Martin Presents: 'Come Forth' Virtual Talk

Thursday, Jan. 18 at 7:00pm

Join us for a virtual discussion with Fr. James Martin, on his new book, "Come Forth." Martin will provide insight on the interaction between Jesus and Lazarus, Mary, and Martha. There are profound insights to some of the conflicting factors surrounding the raising of Lazarus from the dead. We meet online Thursday, Jan. 18, 7:00pm. Please register online

Also, Dr. Eileen Knight will host an online book discussion on "Come Forth." The discussion will occur four consecutive Thursday evenings, beginning with the Fr. Martin presentation, Jan. 18.

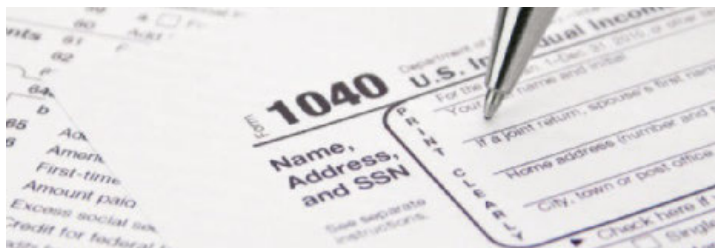

Young Adults Small Group Lenten Journey

The Small Group Lenten Journey is a spiritual pilgrimage during the Lenten season, emphasizing prayer, sacrifice, and charity. It encourages participants to break away from their daily routines, focus on their spiritual growth, and draw closer to Christ. Joining a small group of six to 10 people provides opportunities for meaningful discussions, spiritual practices, and building friendships.

- Cross-Group Monthly Meetings on second Thursdays with Adoration and Evening Prayer (optional) at 5:30pm followed by Mass at 6:30pm and Fellowship at 7:00pm.
- Weekly meetings with small groups in Rectory. Every Saturday, 9:30am-11:00am. The disciplines depends on the group that you are enrolling with. A $20 fee covers dinner expenses for the cross-group meetings.

There are three weekly small group options: Fiat 40 (Women only), which starts on Feb. 15; the 40-Days Journey (Co-Ed) which begins on Feb. 15; and Exodus 90 (Men only) which began on Jan. 6. For more information about the three options or to sign up for one of the groups, please scan the QR code.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program

Holy Name Cathedral will again sponsor the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program in 2024. Tax preparation is available only on the following Saturdays: Feb. 3, March 2, March 23, and April 13 for clients with incomes below $70,000. We will be preparing taxes in the Parish Center which will be open from 9:30am to 4:00pm. Clients are assisted on a first-come, first-served basis provided they arrive by 12:30pm. There is no charge for this service. Any questions can be sent to hncvita@yahoo.com.

Help the Needy! Buy Chicago Shares

Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral lobby before and after masses on Sunday, Jan. 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to “throwing coins in a cup.” The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop — never for alcohol or tobacco.

Questions? Ask us in the Cathedral lobby or go to chicagoshares.org.

Here's how one regular buyer explains it: “Giving Chicago Shares is like lighting a candle. It's a very small thing, but every ray of light is a good thing.”

Our Conversations on Faith & Fitness Continues

Two Sessions today: Sunday, Jan. 7 at 4:00pm; For Young Adults at 6:15pm in Club Room

Fitness professional Michele Sotak and Spiritual Theologian Fr. Louis Cameli come together to facilitate conversations on the importance and similarities between fitness and faith. They will showcase how these elements intersect to make us become a better and more holy version of ourselves, serve others more effectively, and overcome adversity by developing mental fortitude. These sessions will introduce and encourage good stewardship by looking at ourselves holistically and expressing the importance of caring for our bodies and nourishing our spirits.

You can expect to discover solutions to how we can overcome challenges and temptations in our spiritual life and physical life and learn scripture passages and prayers that will support physical well-being and our spirituality.

Please note this is not a workout class, but Michele will demonstrate various exercises and stretches. Sharing and listening to the hopes and challenges people experience in their lives and spiritual journeys is encouraged.

Faith & Fitness sessions will occur at 4:00pm in the Club Room. There is no cost for these sessions. Our next two sessions will be Jan. 7: We Have A Gift to Give: The gift of our bodies and lives and the call to stewardship, and Feb. 4: We are Sent with A Purpose: Our bodies and souls are on a mission; we have a purpose to accomplish.

Please scan the QR code to register. Questions? Email Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org.

Stewardship

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace."

— 1 Peter 4:10

Coming Soon: Stewardship Sunday at HNC

Weekend of Jan. 20-21

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

Stewardship has the power to shape and mold our understanding of our lives and the way in which we live. We are grateful for the gifts we have received and are eager to use them to show our love for God and for one another. We look to the life and teaching of Jesus for guidance in living as Christian stewards.

Intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. The Spirit shows us the way. Stewardship is a part of that journey.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ’s sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth. I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.
 I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.
 Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
