Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

The Christmas trees are down and stored for another year. Our Christmas season ended last weekend, but the journey continues. The Christmas Season gives way to Ordinary Time (until we start our Lenten season), but there is nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time!

Winter is upon us, and spring is still a long distance off.

The different seasons of the year reflect the seasons of our lives. We all seek answers regardless of age but raising great questions from the depths of our being is essential. Reflect upon the following...

Prayer for a Questioning Heart

It seems to me, Lord, that we search much too desperately for answers when a good question holds as much grace as an answer.

Jesus, you are the Great Questioner. Keep your questions alive that we may always be seekers rather than settlers.

Guard us well from the sin of settling in with our answers hugged to our breasts.

Make us wondering far-sighted, questioning restless people and give us the feet of pilgrims on this journey unfinished.

— From “Seasons of your Heart: Prayers and Reflections”
by Marcrina Wiederkehr, O.S.B.

At the same time, we can take so much for granted, and winter’s cold, dark days can add to the season’s slump. What gets us out of bed in the morning? How do we handle the daily routine of living? I share a wonderful little vignette geared toward newly married couples but truly applicable to everyone in any meaningful relationship — no matter the age!

Common Table Salt

Asked to give the toast at a friend’s wedding reception, the guest presented the couple with a beautifully decorated gift box. Inside the box was salt — common table salt. The guest then offered this toast to the couple: “It’s hard to keep a house without salt. It adds flavor and taste to just about every dish. But if you run out of toothpaste, you can brush with a mixture of soda and salt because of the salt’s cleaning qualities.

Because of its healing properties, you can gargle with salt if you develop a sore throat.

If you’re hungry, you can cure ham or other meat with salt because of its preserving qualities.

You can use salt to melt the ice that builds up in the winter cold or to put out fires that flare up.

So, if you bring to the marriage the qualities found in salt — the cleansing quality, the healing quality, the preserving quality —

If you use it to enhance the flavor of your life together, to melt the ice that will build up and put out the fires that will occasionally flare up between you, and, of course, if you take everything with a grain of salt, you will have a long and happy life together.”

And while I think about it, never add salt to the wound!
And I close with ...

The Little Hut

The only shipwreck survivor washed up on a small, uninhabited island. He prayed feverishly for God to rescue him, and every day, he scanned the horizon for help, but none seemed forthcoming. Exhausted, he eventually managed to build a little hut out of driftwood to protect himself from the elements and to store his few possessions. But then, one day, after scavenging for food, he arrived home to find his little hut in flames, the smoke rolling up to the sky. The worst had happened -- everything was lost. He was stunned with grief and anger. “God, how could you do this to me?” he cried.

Early the next day, however, he was awakened by the sound of a ship approaching the island. It had come to rescue him. “How did you know I was here?” asked the weary man of his rescuers. “We saw your smoke signal,” they replied.

It’s easy to get discouraged sometimes when things appear to be going badly. But we shouldn’t lose heart because God is at work in our lives, even amid pain and suffering. Remember, next time your little hut is burning to the ground, it just may be a smoke signal that summons the grace of God.

Reflecting on a winter day,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

A painting of St. John the Evangelist by Miguel Vaguer (1959), located at El Buen Pastor parish, Valencia, Spain

Unlike the other gospels, the Gospel of John does not depict Jesus calling the first disciples while walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee. John the Baptist points two of his disciples toward the “Lamb of God.” As in the other gospels, they take heed and follow Jesus. But there is a different dynamic here, Jesus has not called these two, and seeing them following, he turns and questions them, “What are you looking for?” Their reply might seem at first to be oddly out of place: “Where are you staying?” Here the evangelist introduces one of the key theological emphases of this gospel: abiding, or staying, with Jesus. The Greek verb, menein, “to abide,” is repeated twice more, as the two went “and saw where Jesus was staying (menei), and they stayed (emeinan) with him.” It is a good time to consider the person or people who have been most instrumental in bringing us to Jesus and to pray in thanksgiving for them. And the more challenging question: Who have we brought, or are we bringing, to Jesus?

It's Time for the Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins each year on Jan. 18, culminating on the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on Jan. 25. The first Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, initially called the Church Unity Octave, was held in a chapel 50 miles north of New York City in 1908. It was hosted by the Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement, who desired unity between the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches. The founders of this community were a priest and a sister who converted to Catholicism. Pope Benedict XV declared that the Church Unity Octave be celebrated throughout the Universal Church. But why were the dates Jan. 18 to Jan. 25 chosen?

The Feast of the Chair of St. Peter in the Roman Catholic Church and the Feast of the Confession of St. Peter in the Anglican Church were celebrated on the same day, Jan. 18. It was only in the reforms of the Liturgical Calendar under St. Pope John XXIII in 1960 that this feast was merged, along with seven other feasts that were similar or mysterious in origin, that the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter was moved to Feb. 22. So, without moving the Week of Unity altogether, it remained the same despite the Catholic liturgical changes. In the southern hemisphere, however, the Week of Prayer is celebrated between the Feast of the Ascension and Pentecost, another symbolic octave period.

The Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul is monumental, given his story. Before his 'conversion,' St. Paul was a leader in Judaism who sought to persecute the early Church. In Acts of the Apostles, it is recorded that he was responsible for the stoning of St. Stephen, the first martyr, who we remember annually on Dec. 26 (Acts 8:1). Before Paul's conversion, found in Acts 9, he was known as Saul. From his experience on the Road to Damascus, Saul went from persecuting the Church to being one of the most essential Apostles, writing letters to various early communities constituting more than half the New Testament.

We then see that the beginning and ending dates of this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity are symbolic: St. Peter, the First Pope, and St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles. These two saints had differences among themselves but worked together for the unity and mission of the Church. As the Catholic Church, we also have divisions and must work for unity, just as the early Apostles did.

It was not until the Second Vatican Council that the Roman Catholic Church took up the call for ecumenical dialogue with fervor. Following the Council document Unitatis redintegratio (Restoration of Unity), the Church no longer saw non-Catholic Christians as heretics but as separated brothers and sisters. This movement opened the way to more fruitful dialogue, not seeing the differences between other Christian denominations but similarities.

This year's theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is: "You shall love the Lord your God... and your neighbor as yourself" (Luke 10:27). As we embark on another Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, let us earnestly pray with Christians around the world for unity among us. Let us pray with Christians around the world for peace and understanding. Let us pray, with our Lord as he endured his agony in the garden, "that they may be one, as we are one" (John 17:22). Let us realize we all worship the same God, the God who came among us to show us how to love.

Cathedral Concert Series

Organist Gail Archer to Highlight Women Composers

Sunday, Feb. 4 at 7pm

Our next program for the Cathedral Concert Series features concert organist Gail Archer on Sunday, Feb. 4 at 7:00pm. She founded Musforum (musforum.org), an international network for women organists to promote and affirm their work.

Gail Archer

Ms. Archer is a college organist at Vassar College, director of the music program at Barnard College and Columbia University, where she conducts the Barnard-Columbia Chorus and Chamber Singers, and a Harriman Institute, Columbia University faculty member. She is the artistic director of the artist and young artist recital series at the historic Central Synagogue, New York City. Ms. Archer will play on the Flentrop, a program highlighting female composers, with works from Tower, Howe, Price, Larsen, Boulanger, and Demessieux. Join us for an exciting evening of brilliant music in our Cathedral!

YA Retreat: “Don’t Hear What I’m Not Saying!”

Saturday, Feb. 3; 11am-6pm in the Parish Center

From Fr. Ton Nguyen: When I entered Mundelein Seminary for the priesthood journey, I encountered numerous challenges, including adapting to a different culture and language, living far away from family and friends, and taking philosophy and theology courses instead of math. The Lord sent me an excellent spiritual director, Fr. John Kartje. One of his well-known sayings is, “Don’t hear what I’m not saying.” It is beneficial during periods of life transition, such as the start of a new year, when you may make assumptions about what others think, potentially leading to misunderstandings and confusion.

I must tell you, Fr. Kartje is genuinely a spiritual ‘master.’ He is a spiritual father who cares deeply about the spiritual well-being of others entrusted to him by God. I am so happy to share that Fr. Kartje will lead the first Young Adult Retreat at Holy Name Cathedral, centered around the theme, “As I Have Loved You: A Guide for Choosing and Living Wisely in the Midst of Uncertainty and Change.” He will have a two-part talk. Part #1 will focus on “Self-Sacrificial Love: How God Encounters Us,” and Part #2 will be “Living as Self-Gift: Discerning God’s Will and Confidently Following It.” Hey, young adult, this is what you have been looking for! Sign up for this incredible retreat opportunity! It is on Saturday, Feb 3, 2024.

Fr. James Martin Presents: 'Come Forth' Virtual Talk

Thursday, Jan. 18 at 7:00pm

Join us for a virtual discussion with Fr. James Martin, on his new book, "Come Forth." Fr. Martin will provide insight on the interactions of Jesus with Lazarus, Mary, and Martha. There are profound insights to some of the conflicting factors surrounding the raising of Lazarus from the dead. We meet online Thursday, Jan. 18, 7:00pm. Please register online. Also, Dr. Eileen Knight will host an online book discussion on "Come Forth." The discussion will occur four consecutive Thursday evenings, beginning with Fr. Martin's presentation, January 18. Other book clubs will begin during Lent.

Three Cathedral Tours After Masses This Sunday

Each week, our Cathedral Docents lead short, 15-minute express tours following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those who are interested in participating in these free tours are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass. Also, Docents will give a full Cathedral tour, which last 45 minutes, this Sunday after the 12:30 p.m. Mass. No reservations needed!

Woman as the Image of God

Saturday, Jan. 27 at 2:00pm in the Rectory

The portrayals of God in the Catholic tradition typically envision God as a man: Father, bridegroom, priest. We know from Scripture that men and women are both made in the image of God, but when pressed on differences between the sexes, many will say that men are the image of Christ, and women are the image of the Church, not God Himself. However, as The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states [239]: "God transcends the human distinction between the sexes. He is neither man nor woman: he is God." Please join theologian K.T. Brizek as she helps us explore how womanhood presents the image of God. No advance registration needed.

Fill Your Spiritual Backpack: St. Benedict, Father of Western Monasticism

Sunday, Jan. 21 at 1:30pm

We encounter monasteries in a nostalgic manner. Join us for a discussion on St. Benedict, the innovator of bringing hermits together, under one roof. More important, his rule serves as the foundation of the monastic lifestyle for more than 1500 years.

James Holzhauser-Chukas, an Oblate of St. Benedict, will share how St. Benedict inspires his ministry with youth, Latinos, and the Archdiocese. We meet Sunday, Jan. 21, at 1:30pm in the Club Room. No advance registration is needed.

Stewardship

"We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously." — Romans 12: 6-8

Coming Next Week: Stewardship Sunday at HNC

Weekend of Jan. 20-21

Each of us is blessed with gifts according to the grace of God. Stewardship is recognizing those gifts, accepting them graciously and sharing them lovingly with others. Thank you for the gifts you share with Holy Name Cathedral including your gifts of treasure. We are grateful for your financial support.

Your generous giving supports our beautiful liturgies and music, religious education programs offering sacramental preparation and ongoing spiritual formation, service ministries that provide pastoral care for those in need, and capital projects that help to maintain and restore our historic Cathedral.

Holy Name Cathedral is totally self-funded. We do not receive funding from the Archdiocese and rely on the generosity of our parishioners, visitors and friends to fulfill our mission. We receive financial support through appeals and fundraising events, but the most significant source of funding is the Sunday offertory collection.

Next weekend, we will highlight Stewardship and the Sunday offertory collection at all our Masses. Thank you for your stewardship and the gifts that you share with Holy Name Cathedral.

A Reflection on Stewardship

"As a young kid growing up in the 1950's I don't think I ever heard the term "stewardship" or whether it was even widely used at that time, but I was aware of the concept. Although we didn't have much, I saw my parents put what little they could afford in their weekly envelope before going to Sunday Mass. When I started at the parish school, I received my own tiny envelopes. And each Sunday my parents gave me a few coins to put in my envelope. I knew that putting something in the basket was important because although it was hard to stretch a paycheck to pay our rent, buy food, pay tuition, etc. our church had expenses, too.

It was important that we all helped so that we could attend Mass, receive Holy Communion, and keep things going to support our parish family. Fast forward to 2024 and I still try and help my parish, which is now Holy Name Cathedral, in whatever way I can. I realize that most people don't have the means to be a "big donor" or maybe even a "medium donor" but we all can give whatever we can to help support Holy Name and its great ministries. We're all in this together."

Help the Needy! Buy Chicago Shares

Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral lobby before and after masses on Sunday, Jan. 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to “throwing coins in a cup.” The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop — never for alcohol or tobacco.

Questions? Ask us in the Cathedral lobby or go to chicagoshares.org.

Here's how one regular buyer explains it: “Giving Chicago Shares is like lighting a candle. It's a very small thing, but every ray of light is a good thing.”

Our Conversations on Faith & Fitness Continues

Sunday, Feb. 4 at 4:00pm in Club Room

Topic: We Are Sent with A Purpose: Our bodies and souls are on a mission; we have a purpose to accomplish

Fitness professional Michele Sotak and Spiritual Theologian Fr. Louis Cameli come together to facilitate a conversation on the importance and similarities between fitness and faith. They will showcase how these elements intersect to make us become a better and more holy version of ourselves, serve others more effectively, and overcome adversity by developing mental fortitude.

What to expect? Solutions to how we can overcome challenges and temptations in our spiritual life and physical life. Scripture passages and prayers that will support physical well-being and our spirituality. Please note this is not a workout class, but demonstrations of various exercises will be provided. Sharing and listening to the hopes and challenges people experience in their lives and spiritual journeys is encouraged.

There is no cost for this session.

Questions? Email Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamcathedral.org — please scan the QR code to register.

Thanks to Everyone who Supported Our Migrant Mass!

A recent initiative for the newly arrived migrants was to provide an in-language Spanish Mass in preparation for Christmas on Sunday, Dec. 17. Augustinian Bishop Turley, who spent decades in Peru, presided at Mass, and our wonderful parishioners helped collect winter clothes, toys, and religious items. We thank all who donated their time, talents, and treasures to help our brothers and sisters as they find their way to their new homes in Chicago.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ’s sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth. I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.
 I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.
 Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
