Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

It's hard to believe we only have ten days left in January! As a child, I truly enjoyed heavy snowfalls and cold temperatures. I loved playing tackle football in the snow and coming home to Mom's hot chocolate and plenty of cookies! Life and attitudes change!

The beauty of snow gently falling still captures my heart — until I turn the car key in the ignition! Chicago winter driving is tough, exhausting, and somewhat challenging.

With January almost over, we all need to laugh and put life in perspective. God is good, loving and present! — despite the cold temperatures! Let us give thanks to God as we begin a small window of Ordinary Time before the start of our Lenten journey on Feb. 14.

Enjoy the following... pass it on... and remember baseball starts in approximately 70 days!

Christian One Liners:

- Don't let your worries get the best of you; remember, Moses started as a basket case.
- Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited until you try to sit in their pew.
- Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisers.
- It is easier to preach ten homilies than it is to live one.
- When you get to your wit's end, you'll find God lives there.
- People are funny; they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church.
- Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on your front door forever.
- Quit griping about your church; if it was perfect, you couldn't belong.
- If the church wants a better pastor, it only needs to pray for the one it has.
- God Himself does not propose to judge a person until he is dead. So why should you?
- Some minds are like concrete---thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.
- The Will of God never takes you where the Grace of God will not protect you.

- The best mathematical equation I have ever seen:
 $1 \text{ cross} + 3 \text{ nails} = 4 \text{ given.}$
- We were called to be witnesses, not lawyers or judges.
- Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.
- Don't put a question mark where God puts a period.
- Forbidden fruits create many jams.
- God doesn't call the qualified; he qualifies the called.
- God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage.

Keep reading ... Daniel Berrigan once wrote an excellent little book entitled, "Ten Commandments for the Long Haul." Berrigan intended it as spiritual food for those searching for direction and meaning. The summary form of the book ...

Commandment #1: Acknowledge our helplessness. We are the creatures, not the Creator. Proper living begins with the words, "I am not God."

Commandment #2: Pray prayers of helplessness, gratitude, and praise. Pray from our weaknesses. "Lord, do for me what I cannot do for myself."

Commandment #3: Welcome and accept the present moment. Life is what happens to us while we're planning our life. Don't let the pressures of life steal the present moment from us. If happiness is not now --when?

Commandment #4: Give yourself permission to be inadequate. Don't be too hard on yourself, and especially on others. God doesn't keep us from falling and failing, but God always forgives us when we do.

Commandment #5: If we're critical without being loving, we're destructive. If we're loving without being firm, we're weak.

Commandment #6: FORGIVE YOUR PAST!!!

Commandment #7: Imitate Christ.

Commandment #8: Bathe in the goodness of life. We have divine permission to be happy!

Commandment #9: Accept aging. Aging is an art form.

Commandment #10: Serve the right God. Don't bow to any false God, created in the image and likeness of our tensions and bitterness.

Two more months until Spring,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Please pray for an end to abortion!

"Come and See" (1995-1997)

by Franco Vignazia, Chiesa di San Giovanni Battista di Coriano, Forlì, Italy

"Give me chastity, but not yet." This famous prayer of St. Augustine well captures the reluctance that most of us have to changing our ways. Yet, we hear the exact opposite when the Ninevites instantly repent at Jonah's preaching and the fishermen immediately leave their nets to follow Jesus. There is an urgency regarding the time, and a totality of response is needed. In Ordinary Time in the liturgical year, it may seem more natural to settle into the ordinary ways in which we have been living out our discipleship. Instead, these Scriptures urge us to recognize that a new time presses upon us, requiring different responses than before. There is nothing ordinary about the invitation to follow Jesus more radically in this urgent time.

When we think the end is near, we lost some of our inertia toward change. But to turn around all of our global ills requires profound turning around of our patterns of living. Still, we find ourselves reluctant, praying with Augustine, "yes, but not yet."

On Word of God Sunday, Renew Our Call as Stewards

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

On Sept. 30, 2019, Pope Francis published a motu proprio entitled Aperuit Illis, “He opened their minds.” In this document, the Holy Father designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as the Word of God Sunday. It was published on Sept. 30, the Feast Day of St. Jerome, the person responsible for translating the Hebrew Scripture into Latin. This enormous undertaking, which took Jerome over 15 years, drastically helped spread the Christian Scripture and message worldwide. And we know, following our Lord, who is the Word made flesh, and reading through the majority of the Scripture in our liturgy over the lectionary cycles, that many themes are found in our Scriptures: mercy, love, encounter, forgiveness, hope.

One theme found in the Word of God often overlooked is the theme of stewardship. Stewardship is one of the first themes found in the Scriptures, tracing its beginning to the story of creation. Stewardship is the sharing of time, talent, and treasure. After creating the world and all that is in it, God gave humanity the charge and care over all creation (Gen 1:28). From the early moments of humanity, we have been tasked to care for the world and others.

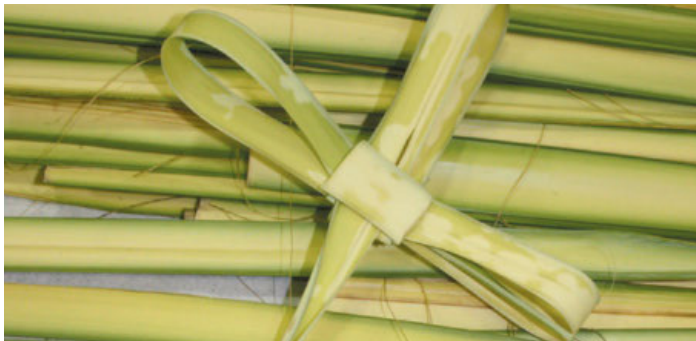

Continuing to learn about our faith in the Scriptures, we hear proclaimed in the first Letter of St. Peter: “As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the multifaceted grace of God.” (1 Peter 4:10). Each of us have unique gifts. St. Paul says in his first letter to the Corinthians that these gifts belong to the one body, and though we are many parts, we are one body in Christ (1 Cor. 12:12). The Word of God then inspires us, calls, and even challenges us to be good stewards of the gifts we have received from God.

As we celebrate Word of God Sunday this weekend, let us renew our call as stewards of the gifts God has given us and share them. Here at Holy Name Cathedral, we take up various tasks through Worship, Service and Evangelization to empower our sense of stewardship, of making the Word of God come alive for us in word and deed. Being a good steward may mean sharing your time as a volunteer for a Cathedral ministry. It may mean increasing or beginning to contribute to the Sunday collection at Mass. It may mean offering your talents for a project the Cathedral is undertaking. Whatever the Lord is moving in your heart, the Word of God inspires us to continue His mission and the mission of the Cathedral of “forming a community of disciples who inspire, nurture, and join people on their faith journey to encounter and grow in Jesus Christ.”

As Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew, whatever you do in secret, your father in heaven will repay you in secret (Matthew 6:3-4). We, as Christians, have a duty to share our time, talents, and treasures on this journey of life. May today be the day we begin to take that call to heart and put the Word of God into action.

Drop Off Your Dried Palms

Deadline: Sunday, Feb. 11

As we prepare for our Lenten season this year, if you have any palms at your home, you are invited to return them to the Cathedral Rectory during business hours or in the baskets in the back of church, so we can burn them for ashes that will be distributed on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 14). Thank you!

Stewardship

"All the things in this world are gifts of God, created for us to be the means by which we can come to know him better, love him more surely, and serve him more faithfully."

— St. Ignatius of Loyola

This Week: It's Stewardship Sunday at HNC

Today is Stewardship Sunday at Holy Name Cathedral. It is an opportunity for each of us to reflect on our own stewardship journey and learn about the financial health of our parish.

As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts graciously, share them with others lovingly, and return them to the Lord with gratitude. Thank you for the gifts you share with Holy Name Cathedral, including your gifts of treasure. We are very grateful for your financial support.

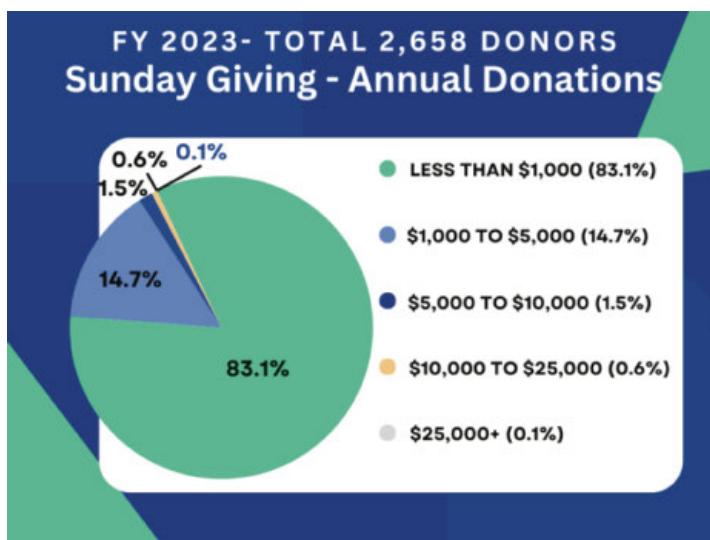

Holy Name Cathedral is totally self-funded. We rely on the generosity of our parishioners, visitors and friends and the donations we receive from Cathedral appeals, fundraisers and our Sunday offertory collection.

Included in this bulletin is the Statement of Operating Activities for Fiscal Year 2023. This report details our operating income and expenses and shows a deficit of $426,859. Operating expenses include staff and clergy salaries, building maintenance and operating costs, ministries to serve our communities, and the beautiful music that supports our worship.

Currently, the average weekly donation to the Sunday offertory collection is $20 and for that we are very grateful. We are asking you to prayerfully reflect on your current giving to the Sunday offertory collection and consider increasing it to the best of your ability, by 5% if possible. If you are a parishioner who currently does not donate to the Sunday offertory collection, we ask that you consider becoming an active contributor.

If every parishioner participates in the Sunday offertory collection and donates an amount to the best of their ability, we are confident this deficit can be eliminated. By eliminating the deficit, we can focus all our energy and attention on growing our existing ministries and offering new ones that fulfill the spiritual needs of our faith community and beyond.

Thank you for your generosity and all you do to support the mission and ministries of Holy Name Cathedral. Quarterly financial reports and ministry updates will be provided in future bulletins.

YA Retreat: “Don’t Hear What I’m Not Saying!”

Saturday, Feb. 3; 11am-6pm in the Parish Center

From Fr. Ton Nguyen: When I entered Mundelein Seminary, I encountered numerous challenges and the Lord sent me an excellent spiritual director, Fr. John Kartje. One of his well-known sayings is, “Don’t hear what I’m not saying.” It is beneficial during periods of life transition. I must tell you, Fr. Kartje is genuinely a spiritual ‘master.’ I am so happy to share that Fr. Kartje will lead the first Young Adult Retreat at Holy Name Cathedral, centered around the theme, “As I Have Loved You: A Guide for Choosing and Living Wisely in the Midst of Uncertainty and Change.” He will have a two-part talk. Part 1 will focus on “Self-Sacrificial Love: How God Encounters Us,” and

Fr. John Kartje

Part 2 will be “Living as Self-Gift: Discerning God’s Will and Confidently Following It.” Sign up for this incredible retreat opportunity! It is on Saturday, Feb 3.

Woman as the Image of God

Saturday, Jan. 27 at 2:00pm in the Rectory

The portrayals of God in the Catholic tradition typically envision God as a man: Father, bridegroom, priest. We know from Scripture that men and women are both made in the image of God, but when pressed on differences between the sexes, many will say that men are the image of Christ, and women are the image of the Church, not God Himself. However, as The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states [239]: “God transcends the human distinction between the sexes. He is neither man nor woman: he is God.” Please join theologian K.T. Brizek as she helps us explore how womanhood presents the image of God. No advance registration needed.

Fill Your Spiritual Backpack: St. Benedict, Father of Western Monasticism

Sunday, Jan. 21 at 1:30pm

We encounter monasteries in a nostalgic manner. Join us for a discussion on St. Benedict, the innovator of bringing hermits together, under one roof. More important, his rule serves as the foundation of the monastic lifestyle for more than 1500 years.

James Holzhauer-Chukas, an Oblate of St. Benedict, will share how St. Benedict inspires his ministry with youth, Latinos, and the Archdiocese. We meet Sunday, Jan. 21, at 1:30pm in the Club Room. No advance registration is needed.

Join Our Ministry of Care & Take Communion to the Sick

Training Begins Jan. 27 at 9am in Club Room

Holy Name Cathedral's Ministry of Care is dedicated to engaging fellow Catholics in prayer, reflection, and support so these individuals feel the comfort of faith when faced with a serious illness or chronic disease. Ministers of Care (MOCs) visit Catholics while they are undergoing treatment in a healthcare facility or facing an illness that has them homebound. MOCs visit with those undergoing treatment at a time when they face challenges in their lives. Ministers comfort these individuals by offering conversation, a listening presence, the comfort of prayer, and sharing the Eucharist. Through the compassion extended by Ministers of Care, individuals in need of care experience the nearness of God and a connection to their faith community as they journey on the road to recovery. Ministers of Care visit people in their homes or at one of our local healthcare facilities.

Ministers of Care serve weekly or twice monthly for approximately two hours each time. Comprehensive training and continuing education are provided to those who serve in the Ministry. Just click on the QR code to register and Lori Doyle or Michele Sotak will be in touch! Part 1 of the training will be on Saturday, Jan. 27 with two additional training sessions on Feb. 10 and Feb. 24. Our next training sessions will not take place until Fall 2024.

Help the Needy! Buy Chicago Shares

Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the lobby before and after masses on Sunday, Jan. 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give help to needy people you may encounter on the street. The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area stores. Questions? Ask us in the Cathedral lobby or go to chicagoshares.org.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program

Holy Name Cathedral will again sponsor the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program in 2024. Tax preparation is available only on the following

Saturdays: Feb. 3, March 2,

March 23, and April 13 for clients with incomes below

$70,000. We will be preparing taxes in the Parish Center which will be open from 9:30am to 4:00pm. Clients are assisted on a first-come, first-served basis provided they arrive by 12:30pm. There is no charge for this service. Any questions can be sent to hncvita@yahoo.com.

Our Conversations on Faith & Fitness Continue

Sunday, Feb. 4 at 4:00pm in Club Room

Topic: We Are Sent with A Purpose: Our bodies and souls are on a mission; we have a purpose to accomplish

Fitness professional Michele Sotak and Spiritual Theologian Fr. Louis Cameli come together to facilitate a conversation on the importance and similarities between fitness and faith. They will showcase how these elements intersect to make us become a better and more holy version of ourselves, serve others more effectively, and overcome adversity by developing mental fortitude.

What to expect? Solutions to how we can overcome challenges and temptations in our spiritual life and physical life. Scripture passages and prayers that will support physical well-being and our spirituality. Please note this is not a workout class, but demonstrations of various exercises will be provided. Sharing and listening to the hopes and challenges people experience in their lives and spiritual journeys is encouraged.

There is no cost for this session.

Questions? Email Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org — please scan the QR code to register.

Cathedral Concert Series

Organist Gail Archer to Highlight Women Composers

Sunday, Feb. 4 at 7pm

Our next program for the Cathedral Concert Series features concert organist Gail Archer on Sunday, Feb. 4 at 7:00pm. She founded Musforum (musforum.org), an international network for women organists to promote and affirm their work.

Gail Archer

Ms. Archer is a college organist at Vassar College, director of the music program at Barnard College and Columbia University. Ms. Archer will play on the Flentrop, a program highlighting female composers, with works from Tower, Howe, Price, Larsen, Boulanger, and Demessieux. Join us for an exciting evening of brilliant music in our Cathedral!

Our Annual French Toast Breakfast is Back!

Sunday, Feb. 11, 9am-12pm, in Parish Center

We invite you to join us for our Annual French Toast Breakfast on Sunday, Feb. 11 from 9:00am to 12:00pm. The event will be held in our Parish Center Cafeteria (in the FXW School across the Courtyard from the Cathedral).

Our generous neighbor, Sunny Side Up, will be preparing French toast and sausages, juice and coffee for the bargain price of $10 for adults and $5 for children 12 and under. Sit-down or to-go options are available. Tickets are now on sale — just scan the QR code or go to tinyurl.com/Pancake2024

This event is sponsored by our Worship Advisory Council.

Cathedral Tours After 8:30am & 10:30am Masses

You're invited to take a tour of Holy Name Cathedral from our Cathedral Docents. Our Docents are excited to share with you the art, architecture and history of the Cathedral. No reservations needed! Each week, Docents lead short, 15-minute express tours following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those who are interested in these free tours are invited to sit in the front pews along the center aisle after Mass. For information on how to schedule tours during the week, please visit our website.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth. I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.

I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.

Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
