Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God:

Our Season of Lent is rapidly coming to a close. Next Sunday, we begin Holy Week. We always speak of Lent in terms of fasting. Lent should be more than a time of fasting. It should also be a joyous season of feasting. Lent is a time to fast from certain things and to feast on others.

The Notre Dame Center for Pastoral Liturgy wrote the following beautiful reflection in their January 1993 journal — Assembly. Read and reflect. Pray and ponder. Share with family and friends.

Fasting and Feasting

FAST from judging others.	FEAST on the Christ within them.
FAST from emphasis on differences.	FEAST on the unity of life.
FAST from apparent darkness.	FEAST on the reality of lights.
FAST from thoughts of illness.	FEAST on the healing power of God.
FAST from words that pollute.	FEAST on phrases that purify.
FAST from discontent.	FEAST on gratitude.
FAST from anger.	FEAST on patience.
FAST from pessimism.	FEAST on optimism.
FAST from worry.	FEAST on divine order. Trust in God.
FAST from complaining.	FEAST on appreciation.
FAST from negatives.	FEAST on affirmatives.
FAST from unrelenting pressures.	FEAST on unceasing prayer.
FAST from hostility.	FEAST on nonresistance.
FAST from bitterness.	FEAST on forgiveness.
FAST from self-concern.	FEAST on compassion for others.
FAST from personal anxiety.	FEAST on eternal Truth.
FAST from discouragement.	FEAST on hope.
FAST from facts that depress.	FEAST on verities that uplift.
FAST from lethargy.	FEAST on enthusiasm.
FAST from suspicion.	FEAST on Truth.
FAST from thoughts that weaken.	FEAST on promises that inspire.
FAST from shadows of sorrow.	FEAST on the sunlight of serenity.
FAST from idle gossip.	FEAST on purposeful silence.

At the same time, Lent is a time of feasting and sharing. Keep reading ...

The old man placed an order for one hamburger, French fries, and a drink. He unwrapped the plain hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing one half in front of his wife. He then carefully counted out the French fries, dividing them into two piles and neatly placing one pile in front of his wife. He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip, and then set the cup down between them.

As he began to eat his few bites of hamburger, the people around them were looking over and whispering. Obviously, they were thinking, “That poor old couple --all they can afford is one meal for the two of them.”

As the man began to eat his fries, a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the old couple. The older man said they were just fine -- they were accustomed to sharing everything.

People closer to the table noticed the little old lady hadn’t eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink.

Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time, the old woman said, “No, thank you. We are used to sharing everything.”

Finally, as the old man finished and was wiping his face neatly with the napkin, the young man again came over to the -little old lady who had yet to eat a single bite of food and asked, “What are you waiting for?”

She answered, “His teeth.”

Sharing is great, but I do suggest keeping your teeth!

On the Cover

“The Parable of the Weeds” (c. 1622) by Domenico Fetti, Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum, Madrid

Jesus was in the flesh — incarnate.
This messiah
who came to live
with us, as one
of the vulnerable
among us, now
cries and suffers

with us. Christ, in his most fully human expressions, teaches us both the sacred source of our emotions
and the capacity we retain for reverence, prayer, faithfulness. It is in the midst of this tension that we find relationship with God and God’s people: not in a straightforward, comfortable, or easy way of living.
What tempts us toward a life of less suffering?

No matter how we choose to live our lives, the fact remains that life on earth is brief. We will die someday, and when we do, what comes next? Have we lived our lives via the path of least resistance? What are the ways that we have shown (or hope to show) how our dying to self may give life for others, like Christ?

St. Patrick? St. Joseph? What To Celebrate Liturgically in '24

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Depending on how the calendar falls and the centrality of a particular feast or solemnity in the life of the Church, the feast is either transferred to Monday if it falls on Sunday or not celebrated at all. March 17 is St. Patrick's Day. However, since it falls on a Sunday this year, we do not celebrate the Mass with the proper prayers for St. Patrick; instead, we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent. Since St. Patrick's feast day is not a solemnity, liturgically speaking, it will not be celebrated this year.

However, the Solemnity of the Annunciation, which is March 25, will be moved to after the Easter Octave, celebrated on Monday, April 8, because March 25 falls within Holy Week this year, and the Annunciation is a foundational solemnity to our life of faith. Every Sunday throughout the year, even in Lent, is a solemnity because every Sunday is a mini-Easter. Since solemnities are the highest-ranking celebrations, no matter what day, they mark the occasion with the Gloria and the Creed. These two pillars of the liturgy remind us of God's goodness as a song of praise (Gloria) and connect us through time and space with those who have gone before us (Creed). Even during Lent, when we celebrate a Solemnity, we recite the Gloria and the Creed, calling us to greater rejoicing.

March 19 is the Solemnity of St. Joseph, a day of profound significance in our faith. This day formally included in the General Calendar under Pope Pius V in 1570, has been celebrated since the 10th century. With various other changes and calendar date moves over the following centuries, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and patron of the Universal Church, was solidified in 1955 on the calendar for March 19. On this day, we remember St. Joseph, who raised Jesus at their home in Nazareth with the Blessed Virgin Mary, who truly taught Jesus how to be the man he is. You can imagine in this home, Jesus was taught how to worship, listen, and lead by the example of Joseph and Mary. While Joseph has no recorded words in Scripture, he is one of the greatest saints of our tradition.

As a reminder, next weekend, as we enter Holy Week, we will collect the CRS Rice Bowls distributed on Ash Wednesday for Lenten almsgiving. The funds will be given to Catholic Relief Services, which will use the funds to help those in need throughout the world. Like St. Joseph, whose silence shows us we don't always have to speak, and actions can speak for us, our Lenten almsgiving is a way for us to prepare for Easter by giving to those in need.

As we journey through Lent, we are given these sacred days to call us out of reflecting on our sinfulness and reflect on God's power and love. Though Joseph and Mary did not fully understand what was asked of them in their lives, by remaining close to God, all things become revealed, and God's power is magnified through his servants. As we celebrate St. Joseph this week, may we follow Joseph's example of leading through example to bring about the kingdom of God.

Heartbeats of Holy Name

Blessings in a Backpack

Blessings in a Backpack accomplishes two critical goals: 1. Providing opportunities for parishioners to donate their time and resources to those in need, a hallmark of living our faith in the world. 2. Providing nutritional support to food-insecure children who would otherwise go hungry without this ministry. While we cannot serve all the nearly 11,000 students who qualify, our ministry can reach 300 at-risk children with a bag of food every weekend. The challenge is significant and growing due to inflation, increased cost of food, and the recent termination of the Tax Credit Scholarship Program by the State of Illinois. Our dream is to add a second school, so funds are critical to this ministry.

Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry

For over 15 years, the Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry has provided meals for some of the neediest Chicagoans, now including our newest neighbors, migrants coming to Chicago. While meeting their nutritional needs, volunteers serve their guests by assuring them of their value as fellow community members through conversation and by fostering friendships with dignity, kindness, and compassion. We serve at least 220 hot meals each Thursday and Friday, often stretching the food to reach 250. Amid the ongoing demand to feed migrants coming to our meals, we seek to raise new funding to find other ways to feed our local unhoused neighbors who had been our regular guests at these meals. We hope to provide for the growing number of those facing food insecurity in our neighborhood to be sure all receive what they need.

The Stump of Jesse

Do We Still Have Ashes on our Foreheads?

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

As we immerse ourselves in Lent, let's rewind to that distinctive Ash Wednesday experience. Can you recall proudly wearing those ashes, adorned with the Cross, whether at work or shopping? Maybe someone thought, "Ah, they're Catholic," or puzzled over why your face seemed slightly different that day.

On that Wednesday, I delved into how Lent provides us with opportunities to refine our vision, clearing away the smudges that cloud our view of the world. Let St. Augustine's words resonate: "Our only task in this life, friends, is to purify the eyes of our heart so that we might see God." Do we still carry the ash mark of the Cross on our forehead? It might have vanished in the shower (or maybe not, leaving a peculiar scent – oh dear!), but my wish is that it's indelibly etched in our minds and hearts.

Let's connect this to the Cross, a potent reminder of our salvation. How has our Lenten journey unfolded, focusing on seeing the beauty, holiness, and God's image in our fellow humans, steering clear of treating them like yesterday's news?

Consider the parallels in life, like the significance of a first child to new parents. It thrusts them into an entirely new realm of relationship – from a couple to mom and dad. It's an awe-inspiring transformation. Are we still captivated by that pivotal moment when we shifted relationally to God, evolving into His beloved daughters and sons through the grace of baptism? I sincerely hope this memory remains vivid in our minds and hearts.

While Holy Week is coming soon, we're not quite there yet. Hang tight and stay resilient with prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Indeed, it's tough and challenging – there's no denying that. Every path adorned with a Cross requires sacrifices, and none of them come easy. But it's all part of our incredible journey, my friends. I love being a priest. JMJ.

Faith and Resilience To Carry Our Crosses

Sunday, March 17 after 12:30pm Mass

Linda Nardone, Holy Name Cathedral parishioner, shares her journal entries on how we learn to carry our crosses. Incidents such as 9/11 and the COVID-19 pandemic helped her become more dependent on Jesus. This testimony is appropriate for Lent.

Linda Nardone

We will also commemorate those affected by the pandemic shutdown, which began on March 21, 2020. We gather after the 12:30pm Mass, on Sunday, March 17, in the Parish Center Club Room. No advance registration is needed.

Farewell Fr. Don Cambe

We have just received the joyous (yet sad) news that Fr. Don Cambe, currently Associate Pastor at Holy Name Cathedral, will become the Pastor of St. John of the Cross (5005 Wolf Rd, Western Springs, IL 60558), effective July 1, 2024.

Fr. Don Cambe

We are very happy for Fr. Don but will miss him at Holy Name Cathedral! There will be time to say goodbye and wish him well.

He asks that we all keep him in our prayers as he begins a new chapter in his priesthood.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ’s sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.
