Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

I share with you “Easter” stories that genuinely bring life. Let these powerful stories touch your heart, and please pass them on...

First Lesson: The Cleaning Lady

In professor gave us a quiz. I was a conscientious student and had breezed through the questions until the last one: “What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?” Indeed, this must be a joke. I had seen the cleaning woman several times. She was tall, dark-haired and in her 50s, but how would I know her name?

I handed in my paper, leaving the last question blank. Just before class ended, one student asked: Would the final question count towards our quiz grade? “Absolutely,” he said. “In your careers, you will meet many people. All are significant. They deserve your attention and care, even if you only smile and say “hello.” I’ve never forgotten that lesson. I also learned her name was Dorothy.

Second Lesson: Always Remember Those Who Serve

In the days when things cost much less, a 10-year-old boy entered a coffee shop and sat at the table. A waitress put a glass of water in front of him. “How much is an ice cream sundae?” he asked. “Fifty cents,” replied the waitress.

The boy pulled his hand out of his pocket and studied the coins. “Well, how much is a plain dish of ice cream?” he inquired. More people were waiting for a table, and the waitress was growing impatient. “Thirty-five cents,” she brusquely replied. The little boy again counted his coins. “I’ll have the plain ice cream,” he said. The boy finished the ice cream, paid the cashier, and left.

When the waitress returned, she began to cry as she wiped down the table. Two nickels and five pennies were neatly placed beside the empty dish. He couldn’t have the sundae because he had to have enough left to leave her a tip.

Third Important Lesson: The Obstacle in Our Path

In ancient times, a king arranged for a boulder to be placed in the road. Then he hid and watched to see if anyone would remove the huge rock. Some of the king’s wealthiest merchants and courtiers came by and walked around it. Many loudly blamed the king for not keeping the roads clear, but none did anything about moving the stone.

Then, a peasant came along carrying a load of vegetables. Upon approaching the boulder, the peasant laid down his burden and tried to move the stone to the side of the road. After much pushing and straining, he finally succeeded. After the peasant picked up his load of vegetables, he noticed a purse lying in the road where the boulder had been. The bag contained many gold coins and a note from the king indicating that the gold was for the person who removed the boulder from the roadway. The peasant learned what many of us never understand. Every obstacle presents an opportunity to improve our condition.

Fourth Important Lesson: Giving When It Counts

Years ago, when I worked as a volunteer at a hospital, I got to know a girl named Liz who was suffering from a rare and severe disease. Her only chance of recovery appeared to be a blood transfusion from her five-year-old brother, who had miraculously survived the same disease and had developed the antibodies needed to combat the illness.

The doctor explained the situation to her little brother and asked the little boy if he would be willing to give his blood to his sister. I saw him hesitate momentarily before taking a deep breath and saying, “Yes, I’ll do it if it will save her.” As the transfusion progressed, he lay in bed next to his sister and smiled, as we all did, seeing the color returning to her cheek. Then his face grew pale, and his smile faded. He looked up at the doctor and asked with a trembling voice, “Will I start to die right away?”

Being young, the little boy had misunderstood the doctor; he thought he was going to have to give his sister all of his blood to save her.

Walking with you,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Congratulations to the young people of our Children’s Faith Formation Program who will receive their First Holy Communion next Saturday. May God bless you always, and may you always walk with the Lord Jesus at your side.

P.P.S. Thank you for the incredible kindness in your many prayers and notes for my recovery. I am slowly regaining my strength and plan to do a couple of masses this weekend as I get myself back into the starting lineup! God bless all of you!

On the Cover

“Christ, the Good Shepherd with Flock” Vintage Illustration

The Gospel for today is a portion of the longer and familiar discourse on the Good Shepherd.

Most people reading this passage have had no experience with tending sheep, but it is important to keep in mind that this discourse is about relationships. The Jewish community would have been familiar with the images of the shepherd and the hired hand. The hired hand to whom Jesus refers is an individual (or individuals) who had no relationship with the sheep he is paid to tend. The shepherd, on the other hand, is the one who knows and tends to the sheep with tender care. When Jesus says, “I am the good shepherd,” he is not only identifying himself as the one with whom he and his sheep have a mutual relationship, but also saying that He and the Father have a mutual relationship. While using the familiar shepherd imagery of the Old Testament, Jesus explains the image of shepherd to include “other sheep that do not belong to this fold.” Jesus will lay down his life for many, not for an elite few.

On Good Shepherd Sunday, Pray for an Increase in Vocations

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is referred to as “World Day of Prayer for Vocations” because it stems from the Gospel passage and is also known as “Good Shepherd Sunday.” It is in this Gospel that we hear Jesus call himself the Good Shepherd, and the Good Shepherd lays down his life for his sheep (John 10:11). Vocation comes from the Latin word vocare which means “to call.” It is no surprise that a vocation and a calling have always been linked, and religiously speaking, a call to the religious life, priesthood, and diaconate.

Each person who has a vocation to a life of service in the Church is different and unique. My vocation, my call, came when I was in second grade, preparing for the First Holy Communion. As I grew up, my catholic school community of St. Thomas of Villanova in Palatine, my family, and the wider community of relationships supported that call. And I have found much happiness and an irreplaceable sense of joy in this life of serving others through the Priesthood.

But a vocation is not only for those in religious life. Similar to my story at a young age, my fraternal twin brother felt the call to serve others through law enforcement. He is now a deputy sheriff in a neighboring county. My mom felt the call to serve others through nursing, and has been a pediatric nurse for over 30 years. My dad felt the call to serve others through the corporal work of mercy by burying the dead, and has been working for the Archdiocesan Catholic Cemeteries for 38 years. A vocation is a call, and that call is to serve others, to shepherd others in a way they cannot shepherd themselves, a call to sacrifice for others.

In this year’s message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis wrote in the opening paragraph, “Each year, the World Day of Prayer for Vocations invites us to reflect on the precious gift of the Lord’s call to each of us, as members of his faithful pilgrim people, to participate in his loving plan and to embody the beauty of the Gospel in different states of life.” We are all on the journey of life together, and have unique vocations to help each other on that shared journey.

The Second Vatican Council renewed the universal call to holiness, stating that a vocation is not only for a few, but each person has a call in life to be holy. A vocation ultimately is a call from God to be happy, to be joyful witnesses in the world through the various gifts God has given us. And this call begins in baptism. That God desires our happiness and calls us to serve others and to love others, as Jesus says in the Gospel, so that our joy may be complete.

As we move further into the Easter season, still standing in the glow of that sacred night when Christ rose victorious from the underworld, we dive deeper into the mysteries we celebrate. Due to our baptism, we have the common vocation to be holy, to be saints. But we each have a particular vocation to use the gifts God has given us to give glory to His name, and find our own happiness along the way. It is never too late to say “Yes!” to what God is asking of you and to find joy.

Thought About Becoming a Catholic?

Is there a stirring within you to create a relationship with God? Are you an adult seeking a faith tradition? Are you baptized in another Christian denomination, considering a continuation of your faith journey in the Catholic tradition? Are you a baptized Catholic, but not raised in the faith, seeking Confirmation and Communion? No matter the reason, set up a conversation with Dr. Ken Ortega, kortega@holynamecathedral.org or (312) 573-4434. Together, we will determine how to move forward. No commitment, and hopefully some easing of anxiety.

Eucharistic Revival

Attend our “Remain In Me” Reflection Sessions

Five Online Sessions begin May 16

Join us for a series of five reflections based on Cardinal Cupich’s book “Take, Bless, Break, Share: A Strategy for Eucharistic Revival.” Each reflection session unpacks one of five central themes of our sacramental and liturgical lives through engaging video content, Scripture, prayer, individual reflection, small group discussion and personal testimony. As part of our preparation for the Eucharistic Pilgrimage Mass, June 30, Holy Name Cathedral offers this online journey to friends, near and far, to walk together. Online sessions dates: May 16, 23, 30, June 6, 13. There will be a shared potluck gathering for participants, June 22. Register online or by scanning the QR code.

Faith and Fitness: Our Next Session covers Nutrition: Stewardship and Guidance

Sunday, May 5 at 4pm in the Club Room

Fitness Professional Michele Sotak and Spiritual Theologian Father Louis Cameli come together to facilitate conversations on the importance and connection between fitness and faith, educating upon how these elements intersect to make us become a better and more holy version of self, to serve more effectively, and overcome challenges.

The May topic will incorporate proper nutrition for the stewardship of the body and practical nutrition awareness and guidance. There will be an offering of basic tips if you're just getting started with a regimen, and how to persevere and move forward at every level. Participants will continue to be guided on spiritual and fitness plans, their goals, and to be encouraged to share their progress and challenges.

Some feedback from recent participants: "I enjoyed the discussion of the integration of one's purpose with fitness and the spiritual link to physical wellness that is so much overlooked and ignored." And "all parts were beneficial. I learned the link between my faith and my fitness goals, thank you for making the connection"

Help the Needy! Buy Chicago Shares

Chicago Shares will be available for purchase in the Cathedral lobby before and after Masses on Sunday, April 21 before and after the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Chicago Shares vouchers, sold in $5 booklets of five $1.00 vouchers, are a safe and convenient way to give one-to-one help to needy people you may encounter on the street. These vouchers are a respectful alternative to "throwing coins in a cup." The vouchers can be used for food and necessities at area Jewel-Osco stores as well as at a nearby Subway shop — never for alcohol or tobacco.

Questions? Ask us in the Cathedral lobby or go to chicagoshares.org.

Heart of Holy Name

With joy and gratitude we express our most sincere appreciation to all who helped to make the second Heart of Holy Name fundraiser such a huge success.

Thank you to the attendees, to our sponsors, donors and those who donated the live auction items. Your generosity keeps the heart of Holy Name beating in the name of Jesus Christ. His love reaches our faith community in so many ways because YOU care. YOU are Christ's hands, and feet, and voice. YOU keep Holy Name Cathedral's mission alive.

Heart of Holy Name Award

Thank you, Fr. John Boivin

With special pride, we also congratulate Father John Boivin, retired associate pastor of Holy Name Cathedral, on receiving the Heart of Holy Name Award. Throughout his 48 years as a priest, Father Boivin has personified the Latin phrase “In Persona Christi” (in the person of Christ), through his countless celebrations of the Mass and sacraments, as well as his devotion to the people who constitute the Body of Christ. The young, the newly married couples, the elderly, the pilgrims, and the poor have all encountered Jesus through his priestly vocation and his personal commitment to them. He is loved by all who know him. Holy Name Cathedral is most grateful for the 29 years Father Boivin has been part of our Faith Community.

Be Intentional: Sunday Offertory Giving

Although Holy Name Cathedral receives funding from appeals and fundraisers, our major source of income is the Sunday offertory collection. Currently, the total funding we receive does not cover our daily operating costs which have been significantly affected by inflation.

Please prayerfully reflect on your current giving to the Sunday offertory collection and consider increasing it to the best of your ability, by 5% if possible. If you are a parishioner who does not donate to the Sunday offertory collection, we ask that you consider becoming an active contributor. To sign up for recurring Sunday giving or to increase your current giving, please go to tinyurl.com/HNCGiving or scan the QR code. Thank you for your support.

Theology On Tap is Coming!

Only Two Weeks Away! Sunday, May 5, after 5:15pm Mass

We are happy to announce our first speaker for this year for Theology on Tap: Dr. Scott Moringiello.

Come and join us Sunday, May 5, at 6:15pm (after 5:15pm Mass), in the Cathedral Courtyard, or in the Club Room if it rains.

Scott Moringiello

Dr. Moringiello will kick off the Theology on Tap series with the topic:

“No one is good at praying, and all of us can work on it. Insights from Scripture, the early Church, and today.”

Dr Moringiello is an associate professor at DePaul University in their Catholic Studies Department. He received his PhD in Theology from University of Notre Dame and the focus of his research and teachings are on the early Christians and how they understood love (agape) as constitutive of their identity and their interpretation of Scripture. He wrote his doctoral dissertation on St. Irenaeus of Lyon a second century Bishop and of the first great theologians of the Christian Tradition.

Three Cathedral Tours After Masses This Sunday

You're invited to take a tour of historic Holy Name Cathedral. Each week, our Cathedral Docents lead short, 15-minute express tours following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses.

Also, this Sunday, April 21, Docents will give a full Cathedral tour this Sunday after the 12:30pm Mass. It will last approximately 45 minutes. No reservations needed!

Those who are interested in participating in these free tours are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth. I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be.

I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request) Amen.

Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.
