Have you ever thought of the ordained or consecrated life? Have you ever wondered if God was calling you to one of these vocations, even if you are over 40? Read this story of someone who may have worshipped next to you at one of our Cathedral Masses.

If you are thinking about a religious vocation, contact one of our priest staff or the Chicago Vocation Office at 312-534-8298.

My name is Anne Stirparo. On August 14, I entered the Monastery of St. Therese in Clinton Township, Michigan, to pursue life as a cloistered, contemplative nun. It is a life lived in silence and solitude within the monastery walls dedicated to prayer, seeking intimate union with Christ.

Born into a Catholic family in Detroit, I attended public schools and catechism classes. In college I studied architecture, but eventually graduated with a degree in corporate finance. For over 20 years, I worked for large corporations mostly in Chicago. For a long time I prayed to be married and have a family, but by my 40s I was still single. My jobs were demanding and I worked long hours and weekends. Being so busy, my spiritual life was not what it should be. Though I went to Mass faithfully and prayed my daily prayers, I did not make time for God. I was focused on me, not Him.

In 2013 this stress was wearing on me and I did not like the person I was becoming, too impatient and critical of others. In prayer I asked God to help me accept all things in life with kindness, and that I would become the best person I could be. I wanted to change my life. I had no idea God would do that for me.

Jesus was slowly transforming my heart. During Lent 2015 I began praying the rosary daily, something I had not done in years. I began to read books about the Virgin Mary written by the saints. I consecrated myself to her and surrendered my will to Jesus. He moved me from asking him to help me be the best person I could be to asking to be the best servant to Him that I could be. Beforehand I had chosen to live my life for myself; I never recall asking Him what He wanted of me. I never asked Him what His will was for me outside of times of need. After 30 years, through His grace, I surrendered to Him, choosing His will.

I was drawn to prayer more and more. I made time in the morning before going to work to pray; I structured my day around work and daily Mass with prayer, rosary and spiritual reading in the evening. I missed Jesus if I could not attend Mass or find time during the day to think of Him. The thought of being with Him continued to grow. One day while praying the words 'I just want to be with you always', the thought of religious life came about.

I asked the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary how I was to proceed. In February of 2016, I registered with a vocation website vocationsplacement.org and started contacting monasteries. At 47, most would not consider me.

Two years after God called me, I was accepted into the Carmelite Monastery of St. Therese. What amazes me most of all is that He never gave up on me. He planted a seed, nourished it and waited 30 years for me to choose Him.

“What is true and what does God’s Word say?”

Our Second Reading from St. Paul’s letter to the Romans is quite short, but as is ever the case with Holy Scripture it contains a central message which is quite important to us. One of the ongoing challenges of being Catholic and Christian in today’s society is that society, cultural norms, sometimes seem to work against our efforts to live as followers and disciples of Christ.

Paul sums up that struggle succinctly as he says, “Do not conform yourselves to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.” Paul offers two suggestions in terms of combating the temptation to conform and agree.

First, he calls for a “renewal” of our minds. Often in today’s society the standard opinion is that it is feelings, how we feel, that are most important. Living in that way ignores the mind approach. Second, if we do try to sort things out intellectually we can only be successful in God’s eyes if we seek truth. The question we must pose to ourselves and to which we need to seek a conclusion is not “How do I feel?” or even “What do I think?” The important question for us is “What is true and what does God’s Word say?”

The philosopher and author C. S. Lewis defined truth simply when he wrote: “No philosophical theory which I have yet come across is a radical improvement on the words of Genesis, that ‘...in the beginning God made heaven and earth.’”

The Poverty of Love - Let Us Begin Tuesday, September 19

Saints are not made. They are sent by God as reminders of Christ's life and how it looks in a contemporary world. St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta did just that for our world through her unending love for the poor, the hungry, and the dying.

Join us as we reflect on how this saint's work is needed now more than ever. Following a special homily by Fr. John Boivin at the 5:15PM Mass, the program will start at 6:00PM in the Parish Center Cafeteria.

The Chicago-based Missionaries of Charity will be with us, and together we will explore ways to give more love to others in need—for our families, parish and community.

The program is free. Food and refreshments will be available through the evening.

This event is co-sponsored by ACT II and the Faith Formation Commission.

Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton

Fr. Augustus Tolton should be known by every Chicago Catholic. The first African American priest in the United States, with heroic virtue he ministered to a congregation in both Quincy Illinois and here in Chicago. He died suddenly at Mercy Hospital in 1897 at the age of 43.

His cause for sainthood is currently being studied in Rome. Our parish invites you to join our Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton as we pray for the miracles necessary for him to be titled Saint Augustus.

The postulator for this cause is Chicago's Bishop Joseph Perry. In recent months he commissioned local iconographer Joseph Malham to write an icon of Fr. Gus. Copies of his icon are available for purchase, the proceeds support the effort for his canonization. On Sunday, August 20, Bishop Perry blessed the icon and presented an update on his progress.

Our next meeting is in the rectory on Sunday, September 17, as we make plans for our parish TEA on October 15.

To purchase an icon of Fr. Gus, check out the website for the Archdiocese of Chicago at www.archchicago.org

GROSSER GOTT

Welcome our Seminarians

My name is Tyler Raymond, I am a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Dubuque (Iowa) in my third year of seminary at Mundelein. I was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to my parents, Gary and Julie and I have one younger sister Haley.

I went to the University of Iowa where I studied European History and Classical Languages/Ancient Civilizations.

I transferred my senior year to Loras College and St Pius X minor seminary in Dubuque where I graduated in 2015.

I will be at Holy Name Cathedral for the next two years as part of my seminary formation, and I look forward to getting to know all of you and the parish and continue to learn and grow in preparation for priestly ministry.

Please keep myself and all the seminarians in your prayers!

My name is William Stuever. My four sisters and I were raised in a small town of about 1,000 people near Wichita, Kansas, and my two youngest sisters still live with my parents in my hometown.

After high school, I attended Wichita State University, where I graduated in 2015 with a degree in Criminal Justice. During my final semester in college, I discerned that the Lord was calling me to enter the seminary, so rather than applying for the Wichita Police Department, I applied to study to become a priest for the Diocese of Wichita. I entered Mundelein Seminary as a pre-theologian in the fall of 2015. I completed the pre-theology program last spring, so I am currently in my first year of theological studies.

I am very excited to serve the community at Holy Name Cathedral, and I pray that the Lord can guide us in everything that we do!
