Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Our Lenten journey now moves into the Third Sunday of Lent. How quickly these Lenten days are moving—much like our lives! Has Lent become just another forty day period in our lives, or have we made the time to take an inventory of our life? Lent offers a “speedbump” along the road of life to help us slow down and put Gospel values always on the main road.

Leo Tolstoy tells this delightful story in Fables and Fairytales:

There once was a king who desired to be a great and just ruler. He summoned the best minds of his kingdom to advise him. Then the king heard about an old hermit renowned for his holiness and insight. Accompanied by a small band of knights, the king made his way to the old man’s cottage. As he approached the hermit’s small hut, he ordered his men to remain behind. The king then put on the cloak of a commoner and walked to the hermitage alone.

The king found the hermit digging in his small garden. The king said, “I have come to you, wise hermit, to ask you three questions: How can I learn to do the right thing at the right time? Who are the people I most need and whom should I pay more attention to than others? And how can I know what is the right thing to do?”

The hermit listened but said nothing; he continued his digging. The king saw that the work was taxing on the frail, old man, so the king offered to help. The hermit handed him the shovel and the king took over the work of digging new garden beds.

As he worked, the king repeated his three questions. Before the hermit could answer, they saw a man stumbling up the path to the hermitage. Blood flowed from a gash in the man’s stomach. The king and the hermit caught the man just as he collapsed. They took him inside the hut and washed and treated his wound and gave him fresh water to drink.

The next morning, the man woke up and immediately recognized the king changing his bandage. “Forgive me, my lord,” the man said, trembling.

“Forgive you? For what?” the king asked.

“I am your enemy,” the man explained. “In an uprising against you, you killed my brother and seized our lands. I followed you here intending to kill you. But as I came to the hermitage, your men recognized me and wounded me. I managed to escape but would have bled to death had you not cared for me. I owe you my life and I am now at your service for the rest of my days.”

Deeply moved to be reconciled with an old enemy, the king forgave the man and promised to return his lands. The king then called for his knights to take the man back to his own castle where the man could be properly cared for.

The king then asked the hermit again his three questions. The hermit said simply, “But you have answered them.” “How? When?” the perplexed king asked.

“Do you not see that if you had not pitied my weakness yesterday and had not dug those beds for me but had gone on your way, that man would have ambushed you and killed you? So the most important time was when you were digging in the garden. I was the most important person and the good you did for me was the most important business. Later, when the man came to us bleeding and near death, had you not cared for him he would have died without making peace with you. The most important person was the man, your care was the most important thing you could do and the right time was when you were doing it.”

“Remember, then, that the most important time is now, because the present is the only time we have control over. The most necessary person is the one in need. And the most important pursuit is to do good for them, for it is for that purpose alone that God has sent us into this life.”

As we continue our Lenten journey to the Cross with the Lord, may we care for and forgive others—NOW! May Lent also surprise us—NOW! Inspire us—NOW! Allow us to discover life’s real purpose and meaning—NOW! And, please, trust God and take the time to pray this Lent—NOW!

On the journey with you,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Please welcome next weekend at all the Masses Bishop Herbert Bevard from the Diocese of Saint Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands. You may remember the devastating hurricane that slammed through the Virgin Islands (and other countries) last year and practically leveled the country. Parts of the country are still without electricity.

Bishop Bevard will speak at all the Masses on behalf of the Catholic Extension Society for a separate second collection to benefit the hurricane victims of the U.S. Virgin Islands. This will be Holy Name Cathedral’s 2018 Lenten Project. The Cathedral is partnering with Chicago based Catholic Extension Society to help the needs of our sisters and brothers in the U.S. Virgin Islands. I ask for your generous response and a warm welcome to Bishop Bevard!

Sign of Peace & Communion from the Cup During Cold & Flu Season:

As we enter this cold and flu season, it is important to recognize that some people are especially susceptible to the viruses that can be spread by contact and that some immune systems are very sensitive. Please understand that some people may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace, but might simply greet you with a smile.

If you do decide to come to church for Mass, please remember that frequent and thorough hand - washing, refraining from physical contact during the Sign of Peace, and refraining from receiving communion from the Chalice can help prevent the spread of germs.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Ambrosian chant

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore

I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

There is a fountain filled with blood, drawn from Emmanuel's veins; and sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains.

The dying thief rejoiced to see that fountain in his day; and there may I, though vile as he, wash all my sins away.

Dear dying Lamb, thy precious blood shall never, never lose its pow'r till all the ransomed church of God be saved, to sin no more.

E'er since by faith, I saw the stream thy flowing wounds supply, redeeming love has been my theme, and shall be till I die.

There is a fountain filled with blood, drawn from his veins; and sinners plunged beneath that flood lose all their guilty stains. Amen

Stewardship

As we continue our Lenten journey, begin each day by talking with God. Focus on God as the source and creator of all life, reminding us of His loving companionship. God is always there for us.

Words from the poet Mary Oliver:

Loving Father,

I invite you into my life today
and make myself available to you.
Help me to become the-best-version-of-myself
by seeking your will and becoming a living example of your love in the world.
Open my heart to the areas of my life that need to change in order for me to carry out the mission and experience the joy you have imagined for my life.
Inspire me to live the Catholic faith in ways that are dynamic and engaging.
Show me how to best get involved in the life of my parish.
Make our community hungry for best practices and continuing learning.
Give me courage when I am afraid,
hope when I am discouraged,
and clarity in times of decision.
Teach me to enjoy uncertainty and lead your Church to become all you imagine it would be for the people of our times.

Amen

Mary Oliver is an American poet, born in 1935, who has won the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize.

Humor from the Rector

“A jumper cable walks into a bar.
The bartender says, “I’ll serve you, but don’t start anything!”

Lenten Almsgiving

Our Ash Wednesday gospel from St. Matthew urged us to be generous to people in need. If you are looking for suggestions, consider:

1. Donating to our Thursday and Friday Suppers
2. Supporting the March 11 collection for the diocese of St. Thomas Virgin Islands so devastated by the hurricanes
3. Purchasing Chicago Shares to be given to people asking for food assistance
4. Dropping a donation in the slots on the walls near the State Street doors marked ‘poor box’.

All four are effective ways to be generous almsgivers.
