Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

How do I “see” in life? What is my perspective or lens I use to filter a situation? A relationship? We need to always keep life in Gospel perspective. It is also important to view life from the perspective of the other person. The following wonderful two stories certainly challenge our suppositions—and remember, things aren’t always as they appear.

Seeing Eye Dog

A buddy of mine was flying from Seattle to San Francisco. Unexpectedly, the plane stopped in Sacramento along the way. The flight attendant explained that there would be a delay, and if the passengers wanted to get off the aircraft, the plane would reboard in 30 minutes.

Everybody got off the plane except one gentleman who was blind. My buddy had noticed him as he walked by and could tell the man was blind because his seeing eye dog lay quietly underneath the seats in front of him throughout the entire flight. He could also tell he had flown this very flight before because the pilot approached him, and calling him by name, said, “Keith, we’re in Sacramento for almost an hour. Would you like to get off and stretch your legs?”

The man replied, “No thanks, but maybe the dog would like to stretch his legs.”

Picture this: All the people in the gate area came to a complete and quiet standstill when they looked up and saw the pilot walk off the plane with the seeing eye dog! The pilot was even wearing sunglasses.

People scattered. They not only tried to change planes, but they were trying to change airlines!
Remember, things aren’t always as they appear.

Seeing Life From His Shoes

This guy was lonely and decided life would be more fun if he had a pet. So he went to the pet store and told the owner that he wanted to buy an unusual pet. After some discussion, he finally bought a centipede which came in a little box to use as his house.

He took the box back home, found a good location for the box and decided he would start off by taking his new pet to the bar to have a drink or two. So he asked the pet, “Would you like to go to Sam’s with me and have a drink?”

But there was no answer from his new pet.

This bothered him a bit, but he waited a few minutes and then asked him again, “How about going to the bar and having a drink with me?”

But again, there was no answer from his new friend and pet. So he waited a few minutes more, thinking about the situation. He decided to ask him one more time; this time putting his face up against the centipede’s house and shouting, “Hey in there! Would you like to go to Sam’s place and have a drink with me?”

A little voice came out of the box: “I heard you the first time! I’m putting on my shoes!”

Things aren’t always as they appear.

And always put on Christ!

With perspective and humor,

Fr. Greg

P.S. The final amount collected for Catholic Extension and Bishop Bevard for the Virgin Islands Lenten Project was $24,543. Thank you for your fantastic assistance and generosity—again!

Special thank you to Ken Ortega for organizing the entire effort!

Order of Worship

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe--really believe--that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time EVIL AND SIN

If you want to be chic these days, don't talk about evil or sin. Sin is not an acceptable topic of conversation in most circles. It's okay to converse about pathologies, inimical environmental effects, or negative physiological and/or psychological influences when dealing with what used to be called evil and sin. But most people seem to agree that evil and sin themselves are pass, antediluvian idioms, nasty, obscene terms. I wonder. Are sin and evil only apocryphal allegories, mythic part of the dim past? Jesus, whom we believe to be true, real, and part of the present, not the past, doesn't seem to think so. Jesus seems to think that both exist. Jesus sees sin and evil as an oil slick, quick to defile pure and innocent shores; as asphyxiating weeds, bound to choke the freshly sown seed. Jesus took sin and evil very seriously. He took great care to point them out and to cast them out wherever he went. He took great pains to exorcise evil and to combat sin far and wide, as far as the cross. VANQUISHING EVIL AND SIN We who claim to be doers of God's will and thus "brother, sister, and mother" to Jesus, can take up his crusade against evil and sin. And we can do it without fear; first of all, because Jesus triumphed on the cross; and second, because we have the powerful word of God on it, a word that announced our triumph from the very beginning. After all, God's word is creative. It does what it says: it vanquishes sin, it leads to redemption. All we must do is be receptive to it. Then, no matter our vocation, no matter our failings, no matter how puny our faith, God's mighty word in us will triumph over evil, will cast out all sin. *Copyright (c) 2005, World Library Publications. Faith Formation

FOUR LOCAL PARISHES RECENTLY MARRIED INITIATIVE

We are still meeting with persons to discuss input. Contact Dr. Ken Ortega to share your insights.

SPELLING BEE WORD: KOINONIA

At the 2018 Spelling Bee, 14 year old Karthik Nemmani correctly spelled the winning word: Koinonia.

It is likely that students of Christian theology and classical languages knew its meaning as well as its spelling.

Koinonia is a Greek word referring to Community, especially the community of believers. Luke says they formed a fellowship (koinonia) of believers who worshipped together and held all their possessions in common (Acts 2:42-47). Paul used it to identify the union of the faithful with Christ and among themselves.

YEAR ROUND CATECHUMENATE

Holy Name Cathedral plans to allow those discerning to become Catholic to begin the journey at the point of inquiry. This year round option will be effective January 2019. The new model requires three teams: Precatechumenate, Catechumenate, and Mystagogy. Teams are currently being formed.

If you have experience with the RCIA process, and are interested in joining this new adventure, contact Dr. Ken Ortega or Fr. Don Cambe.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY TEAM

We are requesting input from women on events that enhance women's spirituality. There is initial consideration for a women's retreat, speakers' series, and an Advent Tea.

Please contact Dr. Ken Ortega to share your recommendations.

BAPTISM PREPARATION TEAM

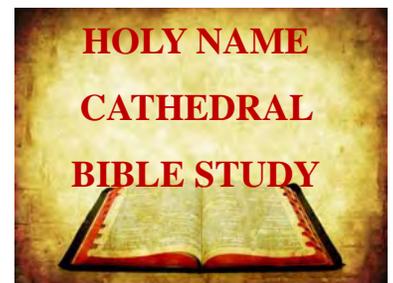

Holy Name Cathedral celebrates approximately 200 baptisms per year. Preparing parents and godparents is a vital component of the sacrament.

We offer two classes per month. If you feel called to facilitate this preparation, please contact Dr. Ken Ortega to set up a time to discuss the possibility.

Day of Service Saturday, June 23

“But it is lovely to help others, to serve others.... Perhaps we will get tired! But that is the way life is, and the heart is filled with joy and hope. This is love and hope together: to serve and to give.” (Pope Francis, 4/12/17)

Please join us for a Day of Service on June 23rd and get tired! We are putting together teams of adult and teenage parishioners (13-17 years of age, only if accompanied by parent) to participate in a variety of Catholic service projects at local organizations. There will be projects for all levels of volunteers, such as painting, cleaning, organizing, food bagging/preparing, planting or even visiting with seniors.

The day will begin at 9:00 am with registration and reflection, followed by a four-hour service project, returning to HNC for a volunteer mass led by Fr. Moriarity, and then food and fellowship to wrap up the day, ending by 5:00 pm. We will have fun, but we will also make a real difference!

This is a great chance to give back to our community while also strengthening your relationships with fellow parishioners. Please follow this link to register to join us for this very special and active day:

HNC Resurrection Crucifix

Perhaps the most striking feature of the Cathedral, the Resurrection Crucifix, created by artist Ivo Demetz, in 1969, is a powerful interpretation of this universal sign of Christianity. The wooden Cross depicts Christ as he is today and always - not a figure in agony, but the risen and triumphant Lord who died for our salvation.

You can own an 8 inch replica to display in your home or give as gifts. Purchase price is $20.00 each. Cash or checks (made payable to Holy Name Cathedral).

Crosses are available in the rectory office or fill out and mail the form found on our website.

Humor from the Rector

“I was going to wear my camouflage shirt today, but I couldn't find it!!”
