Archdiocese of Chicago

Message from our Rector

Dear People of God,

How quickly August is coming to a close! Children returning to school and September baseball pennant chases are about to begin! The Chicago Cubs are aiming at a division title and World Series hopes. The Chicago White Sox are waiting for next year! Chicago Bears football begins in two weeks! I share with you wonderful words of wisdom recently shared with me. Enjoy and pass it on

Never Forget Your Friends

A newlywed young man was sitting on the porch on a humid day, sipping iced tea with his father. As he talked about adult life, marriage, responsibilities, and obligations, the father thoughtfully stirred the ice cubes in his glass and cast a clear, sober look on his son. "Never forget your friends," he advised, "they will become more important as you get older." "Regardless of how much you love your family you will always need friends. Remember to go out with them occasionally (if possible), but keep in contact with them some how. "What strange advice!" thought the young man. "I just entered the married world, I am an adult and surely my wife and the family that we will start will be everything I need to make sense of my life."

Yet, he obeyed his father; kept in touch with his friends and annually increased their number. Over the years, he became aware that his father knew what he was talking about. In as much as time and nature carry out their designs and mysteries on a person, friends are the bulwarks of our life.

After 60 years of life, here is what he (and you) will have learned:

Time passes.

Life goes on.

The distance separates.

Children grow up.

Children cease to be children and become independent.

Jobs come and go.

Illusions, desires, attraction, sex . . . weaken.

People do not do what they should do.

The heart breaks.

Parents die.

Colleagues forget the favors.

But, true friends are always there, no matter how long or how many miles away they are.

A friend is never more distant than the reach of a need, intervening in your favor, waiting for you with open arms or in some way blessing your life.

When we started this adventure called LIFE, we did not know of the incredible joy or sorrow that were ahead. We did not know how much we would need from each other. Love your spouse and your parents, take care of your children, but keep a group of good friends. Dialogue with them but do not impose your criteria.

Wonderful advice and wisdom on a late August day! May I add always stay close to God rooted in prayer and committed to the Faith Community. Live life for others and always forgive and learn to let things go!

In a reflective mood,

Fr. Greg

Let Us Continue to Pray for Peace

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.
