Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

I share with you a story recently given to me by Fr. Bill Moriarity. Powerful! Veteran's Day is today (November 11). This story captures best who we remember today and keeping life in perspective. May we pray for an end to all wars and for those who serve in our military. . . Read and pass it on.

This past week, I was on a four and a half hour nonstop flight from Seattle, Washington to Atlanta, Georgia.

In all my years of traveling, I have learned that each time a plane has the opportunity to stop there is potential for unexpected challenges. Flight delays, weather and airline crews can create unanticipated challenges on any trip. Therefore, I always try to fly nonstop between my destinations.

About an hour into this particular flight, the Captain's voice rang over the intercom. He asked if there was physician or nurse on the plane. If so, he asked them to identify themselves by ringing the flight attendant call button beside their seat. I listened carefully but heard no one ring their bell. I immediately began to wonder what was happening.

In a few minutes, the Captain informed us that there was a medical emergency on board and asked again if there was a physician or a nurse who could help. When there was no response we were told we were going to make an emergency stop in Denver, Colorado. He apologized but told us that there would be a medical emergency team waiting to meet us at the gate and that we would probably only be delayed by about thirty minutes. Though it was necessary, we knew we would all be inconvenienced by the extra stop.

About a half hour later, we landed at Denver International Airport and the medical crew immediately came on board. However, everything took longer than had been expected. An elderly gentleman, about 95 years old, had suddenly taken ill. It was not clear whether he had experienced a stroke or heart attack. Even after the gentleman was carried off of the plane, we still sat there for quite a while. The original "short" stop turned into about an hour and a half.

When we finally pushed back from the gate and were in the air, the pilot apologized profusely for the unavoidable delay. He said that since the stop had taken longer than expected, those passengers who needed to make connections in Atlanta would miss their flights but would automatically be booked on the next flight out. You could almost hear the moans and groans throughout the airplane of everyone who was being inconvenienced by the unexpected stop. Then the pilot did one of the classiest things I have personally ever seen or heard anyone do. He spoke into the intercom and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, I thought you might be interested in one bit of information. The elderly gentleman who was taken off the plane was a U.S. Marine in World War II. I am holding in my hand a copy of the Congressional Medal of Honor that was awarded to him and signed by President Harry Truman in 1945."

The pilot went on to say, "I realize we have all been inconvenienced today. However, in light of the fact this gentleman was a war hero, and was inconvenienced for four years of his life in order that we might experience the freedoms we enjoy today, I thought you all should know that."

Immediately the airplane was filled with applause. Everyone was cheering and so pleased to know that the gentleman had been cared for in a way that was fitting and appropriate.

As we continued to fly, I thought to myself, "Isn't that interesting? We were concerned that we were inconvenienced for a couple of hours and yet, that gentleman's entire life was interrupted and inconvenienced for over four years while he went and fought in a war to protect the freedoms and values that we love and hold dear in this country today."

I breathed a prayer for the gentleman and asked God to bless him for all he had done to help us understand what freedom is all about.

Praying for Peace,

Fr. Greg

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day during the Marian month of October and to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Do you want others to pray for you and your intentions?

There are over 70 Ministers of Praise in our parish who pray for the intentions of those who request prayers. Our Prayer Request line is 312-573-4493 and is available 24 hours a day. We will add our prayers to yours.

We are looking for new committee members to help collect prayers and design the materials for our monthly mailings to our Ministers of Praise. Want to help? Email Lori Doyle at ldoyle@holynamcathedral.org

The Lord is My Shepherd

John Rutter, Daniel Glynn - Oboe

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing. He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort. He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full. But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

VOTIVE CANDLE LIGHTS

For ages, the Catholic faithful follow the custom of lighting candles at churches and shrines as a glorious form of prayer and remembrance. The light from the candle's flame is a powerful symbol of Christ, the Light of the World. We just installed new votive candle lights in the sanctuary by the Blessed Mother Altar. Consider lighting a candle during the month of November for your loved one or for a special intention.

BOOST YOUR BELIEFS

Script and Scripture: Hollywood's Catechism and the Catholic Faith

Are screenwriters theologians? Are film directors catechists? Whether they see themselves this way or not, they are sending a message, and when we watch their movies and shows, we are sitting at their feet, submitting ourselves to their "teachings." How can we enjoy fictional stories without absorbing subtle messages that may contradict our faith? How can we use movies and TV as tools of evangelization? The answer to both of these questions is the same: Talk about it!

Message from Cardinal Cupich

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In Pope Francis's message regarding the Second World Day of the Poor, which will take place on Sunday, November 18, 2018, the Holy Father proclaimed that we must come together to hear the cry of the poor, to answer their cry, and to lift the hearts of those on the margins. He emphasized that "we are in debt to the poor, because, in hands outstretched to one another, a salvific encounter can take place to strengthen our faith, inspire our charity and enable our hope to advance securely on our path towards the Lord who is to come."

Organizations funded by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development lead the call to the marginalized in their communities to take heart, rise, and act against injustice on behalf of themselves, their families, and their communities. The Chicago Housing Initiative is, for example, one such organization. With support from a CCHD grant, the Chicago Housing Initiative can work directly with families who are experiencing housing instability or homelessness to create more fair, inclusive, and effective housing and land development policies in Chicago. This, in turn, helps address the lack of affordable housing available to low-income individuals and families.

By emphasizing self-help, participation, and cooperation, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development's holistic approach leads to increased human dignity and stronger, more economically viable communities. To learn more about CCHD's impact in our communities or to donate online, please visit www.CCHDChicago.org.

Your generous support of the CCHD Annual Collection, which will take place on Saturday, November 17 and Sunday, November 18, is the primary source of funding for over twenty organizations working to address root causes of poverty and injustice in Cook and Lake Counties. It is my prayer that you consider contributing to CCHD through this secondary collection and outstretch your hands to those on the margins.

With every good wish, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Cardinal Blase J. Cupich
Archbishop of Chicago

Human Concerns

Christmas is 6 weeks away!

As we joyfully give birthday gifts to people we love, it is natural for us to give the Lord a birthday gift. And one of the gifts of the Lord appreciates the most is to care for people in need. So here are some suggestions.

Christmas in October

Each year our parish provides a Christmas gift card for our guests who attend Thursday and Friday Suppers. Since there are so many requests as the holidays approach, we ask for your help early.

Please consider buying a $10 gift card from Walgreens (accessible to all our guests) and drop it off at the rectory or in the Sunday collection. If easier for you, put a check or cash in an envelope marked Christmas Gift Card and we will purchase it for you.

We still need 65 cards.

Warm Gloves Needed

This is the time of year when we look to our lives and realize how grateful we are to God for his many blessings. We have a way for you to express your gratitude by an act of generosity on your part.

Many people who spend a great deal of time outside do not have warm gloves or a way to buy them.

Holy Name is seeking to collect 250 pairs of warm winter glove (mostly men) to be given out at the Thursday and Friday Suppers near the Feast of St. Nicholas in early December.

Please bring your gloves to the Rectory by Sunday, November 26.

We need 250 pairs of gloves.

Gifts for the person who has everything

Looking for something different as a Christmas gift? Consider a donation to our Thursday-Friday Suppers in the name of a family member who has everything or a friend who is hard to shop for or a co-worker. A letter of announcement is mailed to the honoree and a letter of acknowledgment to the donor.
