Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

The Gospel of Matthew contains one of the most powerful teachings known as the Beatitudes. Jesus sketches the new spirit of the Kingdom of God for all who would listen—be open—and willing to be challenged. The Beatitudes are literally BE-ATTITUDES or ATTITUDES OF BEING. What are my BE-ATTITUDES or posture toward life? Faith? Living out the Gospel? Have all of my life's experiences made me bitter or better? Am I again gracefully or a pain to others? The Spirit of God is always at work in our lives. We all have good days and tough days—wonderful memories and moments which have broken our hearts. With the help and grace of God I choose how my attitudes and actions will affect my life and the lives of others—every day. The following story wonderfully captures an elderly woman's response to the gift of life.

The 92-year old, petite, well-poised and proud lady, who is fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock, with her hair fashionably coiffed and makeup perfectly applied, even though she is legally blind, moved to a nursing home today. Her husband of 70 years recently passed away, making the move necessary.

After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, she smiled sweetly when told her room was ready. As she maneuvered her walker to the elevator, I provided a visual description of her tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that I had hung on her window. "I love it," she stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented with a new puppy.

"Mrs. Jones, you haven't seen the room . . . Just wait." "That doesn't have anything to do with it," she replied. "Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged . . . it's how I arrange my mind. I already decided to love it . . . "It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice: I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do. Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes are open I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away . . . Just for this time in my life."

Old age is like a bank account . . . you withdraw from what you've put in.

At the same time, God has blessed us with many gifts. It's so easy to take life, faith, love and one another for granted. The gift of humor is sometimes overlooked or "frowned upon." The dark clouds and shorter hours of daylight can melt when mixed with a dose of humor! Enjoy . . . and share the following with family and friends.

The prospective father-in-law asked, "Young man, can you support a family?" The surprised groom-to-be replied, "Well, no. I was just planning to support your daughter. The rest of you will have to fend for yourselves."

A little boy in church for the first time watched as the ushers passed around the offering plates. When they came near his pew, the boy said loudly, "Don't pay for me, Daddy. I'm under five."

During my brother's wedding, my mother managed to keep from crying until she glanced at my grandparents. My grandmother had reached over to my grandfather's wheelchair and gently touched his hand. That was all it took to start my mother's tears flowing. After the wedding, Mom went over to my grandmother and told her how that tender gesture triggered her outburst. "Well, I'm sorry to ruin your moment," Grandmother replied, "but I was just checking to see if he was still alive."

"Oh, I sure am happy to see you," the little boy said to his grandmother on his mother's side. "Now maybe daddy will do the trick he has been promising us." The grandmother was curious. "What trick is that?" she asked. "I heard Daddy tell Mommy," the little boy answered, "that Daddy would climb the walls if you came to visit."

Keep smiling!
Fr. Greg

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord

Jane Louise Renze

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day during the Marian month of October and to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

BOOST YOUR BELIEFS

Script and Scripture: Hollywood's Catechism and the Catholic Faith

Are screenwriters theologians? Are film directors catechists? Whether they see themselves this way or not, they are sending a message, and when we watch their movies and shows, we are sitting at their feet, submitting ourselves to their "teachings". How can we enjoy fictional stories without absorbing subtle messages that may contradict our faith? How can we use movies and TV as tools of evangelization? The answer to both of these questions is the same: Talk about it!

Warm Gloves Needed

This is the time of year when we look to our lives and realize how grateful we are to God for his many blessings. We have a way for you to express your gratitude by an act of generosity on your part.

Many people who spend a great deal of time outside do not have warm gloves or a way to buy them.

Holy Name is seeking to collect 250 pairs of warm winter glove (mostly men) to be given out at the Thursday and Friday Suppers near the feast of St. Nicholas in early December.

Please bring your gloves to the rectory by Sunday, November 26.

We need 250 gloves.

Do you drive?

It has been over 12 years that our parish has been providing an evening meal for 210 guests on Thursday evenings at Catholic Charities (and over 11 years for our Friday Suppers). This outreach is funded by generous parishioners and visitors, and is staffed by Cathedral and local volunteers.

Most Thursday meals for our 130 dine-in guests are donated by local restaurants and scheduled to be picked up about 3:30 p.m. in the afternoon. We are in need of people with vehicles who may be available once or twice a month to pick up the donated meals and deliver them to Catholic Charities (LaSalle and Huron).

If you are able to assist or need more information, please contact Fr. John Boivin at 312-787-8040.
