Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord Jesus. What does this mean? We speak of Jesus getting baptized by John—a powerful story we have heard many times in our lives. It's not so important to say how many times we have been through the Gospel passage. More importantly, how many times has this marvelous Gospel story of Jesus' Baptism been through us?

The Baptism of Our Lord must also make all of us reflect upon our Baptism. What does it mean to be a baptized disciple of the Lord? What difference should it make as I live my life at home, school or in the workplace? How does my Baptism shape my attitudes regarding relationships in terms of loving, giving and forgiving? Regarding Social Justice?

I share with you this marvelous story which connects Jesus' Baptism by John and our Baptism. We need to continually love this world back into life! Read . . . and pass it on

Two friends were walking through the desert. During some point of the journey, they had an argument; and one friend slapped the other one in the face. The one who got slapped was hurt, but without saying anything, wrote in the sand:

“Today my best friend slapped me in the face.”

They kept on walking, until they found an oasis, where they decided to take a bath. The one who had been slapped got stuck in the mire and started drowning, but the friend saved him. After he recovered from the near drowning, he wrote on a stone:

“Today my best friend saved my life.”

The friend who had slapped and saved his best friend asked him, “After I hurt you, you wrote in the sand and now you write on a stone. Why?”

The friend replied, “When someone hurts us we should write it down in the sand, where the winds of forgiveness can erase it away. But, when someone does something good for us, we must engrave it in stone where no wind can ever erase it.”

Learn to write your hurts in the sand and to carve your benefits in stone. Take the time to live! Stop living in the past! Do not value the things you have in your life, but value who you have in your life!

Baptism involves not only what I do, but what I allow God to do through me—keep reading!

Several years ago, a friend of mine and her husband were invited to spend a weekend at the husband's employer's home. My friend, Arlene, was nervous about the weekend. The boss was wealthy, with a fine home on the waterway and cars costing more than her house. The first day and evening went well, and Arlene was delighted to have this rare glimpse into how the very wealthy live. The husband's employer was quite generous as a host and took them to the finest restaurants. Arlene knew she would never have the opportunity to indulge in this kind of extravagance again, so she was enjoying herself immensely.

As the three of them were about to enter an exclusive restaurant that evening, the boss was walking slightly ahead of Arlene and her husband. He stopped suddenly, looking down on the pavement for a long, silent moment. Arlene wondered if she was supposed to pass him. There was nothing on the ground except a single, darkened penny that someone had dropped and a few cigarette butts. Still silent, the man reached down and picked up the penny. He held it up and smiled, then put it in his pocket as if he had found a great treasure. How absurd! What need did this man have for a single penny? Why would he even take the time to stop and pick it up?

Throughout dinner, the entire scene nagged at her. Finally, she could stand it no longer. She casually mentioned that her daughter once had a coin collection and asked if the penny he had found had been of some value. A smile crept across the man's face as he reached into his pocket for the penny and held it out for her to see. She had seen many pennies before! What was the point of this? “Look at it,” he said. “Read what it says.” She read the words, “United States of America.” “No, not that; read further.” “One cent?” “No, keep reading.” “In God we Trust?” “Yes!” “And?” “And if I trust in God, the name of the God is holy, even on a coin.

“Whenever I find a coin, I see that inscription. It is written on every single United States coin, but we never seem to notice it! God drops a message right in front of me telling me to trust Him! Who am I to pass it by? When I see a coin, I pray, I stop to see if my trust IS in God at the moment. I pick up the coin as a response to God; that I do trust in Him. For a short time, at least, I cherish it as if it were gold. I think it is God's way of starting a conversation with me. Lucky for me, God is patient and pennies are plentiful!”

When I was out shopping today, I found a penny on the sidewalk. I stopped and picked it up and realized that I had been worrying and fretting in my mind about things I cannot change. I read the words, In God We Trust, and had to laugh. Yes, God, I get the message. It seems that I have been finding an inordinate number of pennies in the last few months, but then pennies are plentiful! And, God is patient.

Searching with you,

Fr. Greg

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

POINSETTIAS

We celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord this weekend. It marks the end of the Christmas season with Ordinary Time beginning Monday, January 14.

Christmas decorations at Holy Name will come down following the Sunday 5:15pm Mass this weekend. The Christmas poinsettias that adorn the sanctuary will be given away following the mass. All are invited to come by and adopt one! One per family until every family wishing a poinsettia has taken one. Poinsettias are sensitive to cold temperatures - remember to bring a large plastic bag to protect the plant against the elements of weather.

Donations to defray the cost of the Christmas plants will be appreciated.

Art & Environment Committee

Thank you to all of our Holy Name Cathedral Ministers. We can't do what we do without you.
Many thanks to Chicago Catholic and Inspired3D for the beautiful pictures.

Faith Formation

BOOST YOUR BELIEFS:

Ministry of Accompaniment: No One Should Wear These Shoes

People in our community are wearing shoes that hurt, that are too big, that others stare upon and sometimes laugh at the shoes as well as the persons wearing the shoes. Mothers and families are crying out for our faith communities to walk with them, to feel their pain and to look upon them not as “other” but as brother or sister. We are invited, in this year of 2019, to break down the walls that divide us and open our hearts to those who are walking alone, hurting and without hope.

Sister Donna Liette is a Sister of the Precious Blood. Her present ministry is at Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR) where she accompanies Mothers and families through the trauma of violence and incarceration.

A Legacy Gift to Holy Name Cathedral

For over 170 years Holy Name Cathedral has been a spiritual home to parishioners, Chicago pilgrims and visitors from around the world.

Our doors have remained open over all these years because of the generous hearts of the faithful who weekly support our mission and ministries and the legacy of many who have remembered Holy Name Cathedral in their estate plan.

What we have been given is truly a gift from God. In “giving back” to God we profess our legacy of faith for generations to come. That legacy, the distribution of our gifts, is truly the ultimate testament to our faith, trusting that we are returning to God what has been so generously given.

In your daily prayers please consider asking God for guidance in building your ‘legacy of faith.’”

If you are considering Holy Name Cathedral in your legacy plan please contact Mark Teresi, Assistant to the Rector for Planning and Development at mteresi@holynamecathedral.org or call him at 312-573-4427 for more information.

God Bless You!

Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton

Fr. Gus was the first African American priest in the United States and in Chicago. He died in 1897 at Mercy Hospital at the age of 43. As a Servant of God, he is now a candidate for both beatification and canonization. We are praying for the miracles required for his sainthood to be a reality.

Join us for our January meeting on Sunday January 20 at noon in the Rectory. Joyce Duriga, editor of the Catholic New World, has recently written a book on the life of Fr. Gus entitled 'Augustus Tolton: The Church is the True Liberator (People of God.)' She will speak about his life and his holiness, especially his response to the prejudice he encountered. Books will be available for purchase.

Also, there is a special treat for our February meeting.
