Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

February is half over and the cold days of winter continue. The wonderful news is each day brings us one step closer to spring! . . . Enjoy the following

The Refiner

Malachi 3:3 says: "He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver."

This verse puzzled some women in a Bible study group and they wondered what this statement meant about the character and nature of God. One of the women offered to find out more about the process of refining silver and report back to the group. That week, the woman called a silversmith and made an appointment to watch him at work. She did not mention the reason for her interest, beyond her curiosity about the process of refining silver.

As she watched the silversmith, he held a piece of silver over the fire and let it heat up. He explained that in refining silver, one needed to hold the silver in the middle of the fire where the flames were hottest as to burn away all the impurities. The woman thought about God holding us in such a hot spot then she thought again about the verse that says: "He sits as a refiner and purifier of silver."

She asked the silversmith if it was true that he had to sit there in front of the fire the whole time the silver was being refined. The man answered yes, that he not only had to sit there holding silver, but he had to keep his eyes on the silver the entire time it was in the fire. If the silver was left a moment too long in the flames, it would be destroyed.

The woman was silent for a moment. Then she asked the silversmith, "How do you know when the silver is fully refined?" He smiled at her and answered, "Oh that's easy—when I see my image in it."

If on any given day you are feeling the heat of the fire, remember that God has His eye on you and will keep watching you until He sees His image in you. And, whatever you're going through, you'll be a better person in the end, reflecting the image of God.

Inner Strength

If you can start the day without caffeine or pep pills,
If you can be cheerful, ignoring aches and pains,
If you can resist complaining and boring people with your troubles,
If you can eat the same food every day and be grateful for it,
If you can understand when loved ones are too busy to give you the time,
If you can overlook when people take things out on you when, through no fault of yours, something goes wrong,
If you can take criticism and blame without resentment,
If you can face the world without lies and deceit,
If you can conquer tension without medical help,
If you can relax without liquor,
If you can sleep without the aid of drugs,
If you can do all these things,
Then you are probably the family dog.

Food for thought,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Please pray for the Bishop's gathering this week with Pope Francis in Rome. Very important meeting!

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

There will be a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament EVERY WEDNESDAY in the Chapel beginning at 6:15 p.m. to support the victims/survivors of sexual abuse and to invoke the Holy Spirit to inspire and guide the Bishops of the world in addressing this scandal in our Church. Please join us in this prayer for wisdom and courage.

Ego sum panis vivus

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina

Ego sum panis vitae. Patres vestri manducaverunt manna in deserto, et mortui sunt. Hic est panis de coelo descendens: si quis ex ipso manducaverit, non morietur. Ego sum panis vivus, qui de caelo descendi. Si quis manducaverit ex hoc pane, vivet in aeternum: et panis quem ego dabo, caro mea est pro mundi vita. Alleluia.

Translation:

I am that bread of life. Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which came down from heaven, that a man may eat of this bread, and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. Alleluia.

BOOST YOUR BELIEFS:

Forgiving is a Way to Stop Hurting

By the Very Rev. Greg Sakowicz

Life is difficult. Life is a mystery to be lived and not a problem to be solved.

We all seek forgiveness. We all need to forgive others at times in our lives. Forgiving is never easy. Cardinal Cupich says it best: “Forgiving doesn’t change the past, it changes the future.” God loves us and forgives us always. We have to learn to forgive others and to forgive ourselves. We need to continually love this world back into life.

Thursday, February 21

Parish Center Club Room, 6:30 p.m.

Renewing Our Faith: Hope, Healing & Trust Panel on Clergy Abuse - 6 p.m., March 7

What is the Archdiocese of Chicago Doing to Address Clergy Abuse?

We all come to the table with different perspectives, different feelings, different hopes for our Catholic Church on the topic of sexual abuse by the clergy.

We may not know who within the Archdiocese of Chicago has been at the front lines. Many people on this panel have been working to protect today's children as well as working with victims of clergy abuse for almost 20 years. But are they successful? Is it working? The panel will discuss how their work impacts them as Catholics, with the hope that their experiences will assist us all with our healing. They will also discuss how their work has changed over the years, what these latest public revelations about the Catholic Church mean for their work, and what's next.

The Panel:

- Leah McCluskey, Director of the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review
- Mary Jane Doerr, Director of the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth
- Tom Tharayil, Director of the Office of Assistance Ministry
- Deacon Dan Welter, Chancellor of the Archdiocese
- Fr. Larry Dowling, Pastor of St. Agatha Catholic Church

The free event will be at 6 p.m. Thursday, March 7 in the Holy Name Cathedral auditorium (across the courtyard in Frances Xavier Warde School) Please register, <http://tinyurl.com/hopehealingpanel>

Child Safeguarding Mass and Pinwheel Project - 5:15 p.m., April 27

Recognizing April as Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Holy Name Cathedral Young Adults are coordinating a Mass focusing on child safety. Michael Hoffman, chairman of the Holy and Healing Committee of the Archdiocese, will offer insights to families, and to all who care for children. After Mass, parishioners are invited to participate in "planting" blue and white pinwheels throughout the grounds of the cathedral. The Pinwheel is the new national symbol for child abuse prevention. Pinwheels will also be available after Sunday Masses for those who wish to participate.

From the Perspective of the Victim - 6 p.m., May 8

Michael Hoffman, chairman of the Archdiocese's Hope and Healing Committee, a clergy abuse survivor and the author of "Acts of Recovery," will be in conversation with Fr. Greg Sakowicz, Holy Name's rector. Michael approached Fr. Greg in his previous assignment and shared with him that he had been sexually abused as a boy back in 2006. They will discuss and answer questions.

BRIDGE IS IN TROUBLED WATERS

It looks as though both our WEEKLY AFTERNOON and ONCE-A-MONTH EVENING COUPLES BRIDGE are in danger of disbanding due to attrition & lack of new payers to fill the vacancies. Both groups play "Social" or "Party" bridge which is deemed less serious than "Duplicate" bridge, meaning that, although the games are competitive, the emphasis is on having an enjoyable time rather than just racking up the highest score. Unfortunately, we cannot offer to teach anyone the game from scratch, but if your skills are a bit rusty or you haven't played in a while, give some thought to joining one of our groups . . . a great way to enhance memory & cognitive ability while having fun!

The DAYTIME GROUP plays on MONDAY AFTERNOONS from 1 - 3 in the rectory. The EVENING COUPLES GROUP plays ONCE A MONTH on a SATURDAY EVENING, rotating between players' homes. For more information contact KATHY HAYDEN: kathleen.hayden@att.net; 312-944-7430
