Message from the Rector

Dear Lenten People,

Our Lenten Season begins this Wednesday. We are a marked people on Ash Wednesday! Lent is an opportunity and time for repentance, conversion, listening and new beginnings. We move from death to life so abundant we call it Eternal—Resurrection—Easter Faith.

I share part of a Commencement Address by Anna Quindlen to the graduating class at Trinity Western University. May her poignant words speak hope and provide a clearer road this Lenten journey.

“People don’t talk about the soul very much anymore. It’s so much easier to write a resume than to craft a spirit. But a resume is a cold comfort on a winter night, or when you’re sad, or broke, or just lonely. Just keep your eyes and ears open. Here you could learn in the classroom. There the classroom is everywhere. The exam comes at the very end.

I found one of my best teachers on the boardwalk at Coney Island maybe 15 years ago. It was December, and I was doing a story about how the homeless survive in the winter months. He and I sat on the edge of the wooden supports, dangling our feet over the side, and he told me about his schedule, panhandling the boulevard when the summer crowds were gone, sleeping in a church when the temperatures went below freezing, hiding from the police amidst the Tilt-o-Whirl and the Cyclone and some of the other seasonal rides.

But he told me that most of the time he stayed on the boardwalk, facing the water, just the way we were sitting now, even when he got cold and he had to wear his newspapers after he read them.

And I asked him why. Why didn’t he go to one of the shelters? Why didn’t he check himself into the hospital for detox?

And he just stared out at the ocean and said, “Look at the view, young lady. Look at the view.”

And every day, in some little way, I try to do what he said.

I try to look at the view. And that’s the last thing I have to tell you today, words of wisdom from a man with not a dime in his pocket, no place to go, nowhere to be.

Look at the view. You’ll never be disappointed.”

Our Lenten journey begins this Wednesday. Plan to start your Season of Lent by joining us for our Ash Wednesday liturgies and services.

May we open our hearts and invite the Lord Jesus to touch our lives this Holy Season—and look at the view through a Jesus lens! Remember—You can never go back and start a new beginning, but starting today you can make a new ending.

On the Lenten journey with you,

Fr. Greg

Nicholas Michael Kunda, Jr.

Callan Michael Villani

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate, of the virgin Mary born,
On the cross thy sacred body for us men with nails was

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT AT OUR CATHEDRAL

Starting March 1, 2019, we are making some changes to our Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our Cathedral. Many people raised concerns about some activities that were happening during the time of Adoration. After consulting with the Liturgy Council, the Rector, priests and staff, we decided that Adoration will be offered every Thursday after 12:10 pm mass and will end at 5:00 pm with the Benediction. Also, there will be Adoration every First Friday of the month after 12:10 pm mass and will end at 5:00 pm with the Benediction. We will no longer have adoration every Third Friday of the month. Thank you for understanding and let's work together to make this transition smooth.

PALMS

FORGIVENESS AS HEALING

Fr. Greg Sakowicz presented ways on how forgiveness can lead to healing with 85 people, at Boost Your Beliefs, Thursday, February 18. Through a series of true life stories, reflections, and, of course, some jokes. Fr. Greg shared how not forgiving impedes the faith journey and how the opposite leads to peaceful, Christian living.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES: OPERATION RICEBOWL

CRS Rice Bowl is the designated recipient of 2019 Lenten almsgiving for Holy Name Cathedral.

The iconic CRS Rice Bowl is a staple on the table of Catholic families across the country during Lent. This simple cardboard box is a tool for collecting alms and comes with a Lenten calendar that guides families through the season. The rice bowls will be available beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 6.

PROFIT FROM YOUR VICICES:
RETHINKING THE 7 DEADLY
SINS

In case you thought the "seven deadly sins" were some old-fashioned medieval relic from days gone by, then join us in this discussion. Craig Iffland will provide a framework to place the "sins" within the context of our daily lives as a first step in reordering our desires in such a way as to contribute to our own human flourishing. In so doing, Craig identifies the original definition of the "seven deadly sins" with a path forward.

Craig Iffland is a doctoral candidate, Moral Theology, University of Notre Dame. He holds a M.A., Notre Dame, and from the University of St. Andrew.

Renewing Our Faith: Hope, Healing & Trust Panel on Clergy Abuse - 6 p.m., March 7

What is the Archdiocese of Chicago Doing to Address Clergy Abuse?

We all come to the table with different perspectives, different feelings, different hopes for our Catholic Church on the topic of sexual abuse by the clergy.

We may not know who within the Archdiocese of Chicago has been at the front lines. Many people on this panel have been working to protect today's children as well as working with victims of clergy abuse for almost 20 years. But are they successful? Is it working? The panel will discuss how their work impacts them as Catholics, with the hope that their experiences will assist us all with our healing. They will also discuss how their work has changed over the years, what these latest public revelations about the Catholic Church mean for their work, and what's next.

The Panel:

- Leah McCluskey, Director of the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review
- Mary Jane Doerr, Director of the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth
- Tom Tharayil, Director of the Office of Assistance Ministry
- Deacon Dan Welter, Chancellor of the Archdiocese
- Fr. Larry Dowling, Pastor of St. Agatha Catholic Church

The free event will be at 6 p.m. Thursday, March 7 in the Holy Name Cathedral auditorium (across the courtyard in Frances Xavier Warde School) Please register, <http://tinyurl.com/hopehealingpanel>

Child Safeguarding Mass and Pinwheel Project - 5:15 p.m., April 27

Recognizing April as Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Holy Name Cathedral Young Adults are coordinating a Mass focusing on child safety. Michael Hoffman, chairman of the Holy and Healing Committee of the Archdiocese, will offer insights to families, and to all who care for children. After Mass, parishioners are invited to participate in "planting" blue and white pinwheels throughout the grounds of the cathedral. The Pinwheel is the new national symbol for child abuse prevention. Pinwheels will also be available after Sunday Masses for those who wish to participate.

From the Perspective of the Victim - 6 p.m., May 8

Michael Hoffman, chairman of the Archdiocese's Hope and Healing Committee, a clergy abuse survivor and the author of "Acts of Recovery," will be in conversation with Fr. Greg Sakowicz, Holy Name's Rector. Michael approached Fr. Greg in his previous assignment and shared with him that he had been sexually abused as a boy back in 2006. They will discuss and answer questions.

IMPORTANT UPDATE ON THE PARKING LOT
