Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

A Blessed and Happy Father's Day—and special Blessings upon all men who love in a fatherly way.

The following story, spoken from the heart by a loving Dad, beautifully captures what Father's Day is truly all about.

Where is God's Perfection?

In Brooklyn, New York, Shush is a school that caters to learning disabled children. Some children remain in Shush for their entire school career, while others can be mainstreamed into conventional schools. At a Shush fundraising dinner, the father of the Shush child delivered a speech that would never be forgotten by all who attended.

After extolling the school and its dedicated staff, he cried out, "Where is the perfection in my son Shaya?" Everything God does is done with perfection. But my child cannot understand things as other children do. My child cannot remember facts and figures as other children do. Where is God's perfection?

The audience was shocked by the question, pained by the father's anguish and stilled by the piercing query. "I believe," the father answered, "that when God brings a child like this into the world, the perfection that he seeks is the way people react to this child."

He then told the following story about his son Shaya: One afternoon Shaya and his father walked past a park where some boys Shaya knew were playing baseball. Shaya asked, "Do you think they will let me play?" Shaya's father knew that his son was not at all athletic and that most boys would not want him on their team. But Shaya's father understood that if his son was chosen to play it would give him a comfortable sense of belonging.

Shaya's father approached one of the boys in the field and asked if Shaya could play. The boy looked around for guidance from his teammates.

Getting none, he took matters into his own hands and said, "We are losing by six runs and the game is in the eighth inning. I guess he can be on our team and we'll try to put him up to bat in the ninth inning." Shaya's father was ecstatic as Shaya smiled broadly. Shaya was told to put on a glove and go out to play short center field. In the bottom of the eighth inning, Shaya's team scored a few runs but was still behind by three. In the bottom of the ninth inning, Shaya's team scored again and now with two outs and the bases loaded with the potential winning run on base, Shaya was scheduled to bat.

Would the team actually let Shaya bat at this juncture and give away their chance to win the game? Surprisingly, Shaya was given the bat. Everyone knew that it was all but impossible because Shaya didn't even know how to hold the bat properly, let alone hit with it. However, as Shaya stepped up to the plate, the pitcher moved a few steps to lob the ball in softly so Shaya should at least be able to make contact. The first pitch came in and Shaya swung and missed. One of Shaya's teammates came up to Shaya and together held the bat and faced the pitcher waiting for the next pitch. The pitcher again took a few steps forward to toss the ball softly toward Shaya.

As the pitch came in, Shaya and his teammates swung at the bat and together they hit a slow ground ball to the pitcher. The pitcher picked up the soft grounder and could easily have thrown the ball to the first baseman. Shaya would have been out and that would have ended the game. Instead, the pitcher took the ball and threw it on a high arc to right field, far beyond reach of the first baseman. Everyone started yelling, "Shaya, run to first. Run to first." Never in his life had Shaya run to first. He scampered down the baseline wide-eyed and startled. By the time he reached first base, the right fielder had the ball. He could have thrown the ball to the second baseman who would tag out Shaya, who was still running. But the right fielder understood what the pitcher's intentions were, so he threw the ball high and far over the third baseman's head. Everyone yelled, "Run to second, run to second." Shaya ran towards second base as the runners ahead of him deliriously circled the bases towards home.

As Shaya reached second base, the opposing short stop ran to him, turned him in the direction of the third base and shouted, "Run to third." As Shaya rounded third, the boys from both teams ran behind him screaming, Shaya, run home." Shaya ran home, stepped on home plate and all 18 boys lifted him on their shoulders and made him the hero, as he has just hit a "grand slam" and won the game for his team.

"That day," said the father softly with tears now rolling down his face, "those 18 boys reached their level of God's perfection."

Happy Father's Day!

Summer Blessings,

Fr. Greg

Father's Day Prayer

God,

Bless all the fathers in the world. Father, we ask that You guide them to be good role models and loving to their children. We also ask that You help them to be a father like You are. Give them grace and patience to handle situations in a loving way.

Amen.

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Open Thou Mine Eyes

John Rutter

Open thou mine eyes and I shall see: Incline my heart and I shall desire: Order my steps and I shall walk In the ways of thy commandments. O Lord God, be thou to me a God And beside thee let there be none else, No other, nought else with thee. Vouchsafe to me to worship thee and serve thee According to thy commandments, In truth of spirit, In reverence of body, In blessing of lips, In private and public. Open thou mine eyes and I shall see: Incline my heart and I shall desire: Order my steps and I shall walk In the ways of thy commandments.

Draw Us in the Spirit's Tether

Harold Friedell

Draw us in the Spirit's tether,
 For when humbly in Thy name,
 Two or three are met together
 Thou are in the midst of them;
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Touch we now Thy garment's hem.
 As the brethren used to gather
 In the name of Christ to sup,
 Then with thanks to God the Father
 Break the bread and bless the cup,
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 So knit Thou our friendship up.
 All our meals and all our living
 Make as sacraments of Thee,
 That by caring, helping, giving
 We may true disciples be.
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 We will serve Thee faithfully.

HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail. We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.
In Your Holy name, O God, we pray. Amen.

SPEAKERS FORUM UPDATE

Last Sunday, over 100 people were in attendance to hear Fr. Louis Cameli discuss his book, THE DEVIL YOU DON'T KNOW: Resisting and Recognizing Evil in Everyday Life. This was the largest turnout of our many presentations over the last several years, even surpassing the audiences for programs on Mother Teresa of Calcutta and Mary Jane Doerr & Deacon Dan Welter's joint presentation on the abuse safeguards currently in place in our Chicago Archdiocese schools.

Our thanks goes out to Carmelita Mendoza who suggested Fr. Cameli for this presentation and who orchestrated additional PR and even schlepped copies of the book from the PAULINE BOOK & MEDIA STORE, 172 N. Michigan Ave. for purchase and signing. Also, we wish to thank members of our audience for supporting these programs, which we hope provide educational as well as spiritual enrichment for people of all ages in our parish community.

We welcome YOUR suggestions for topics and presenters. Send comments & ideas to haneyhomes@yahoo.com

People of all ages are welcome, No rosary experience is necessary... just bring yourself! Rosaries and prayer books are provided.

June Book Club Meeting
Thursday, June 27th at 6:45pm in the HNC Rectory

Audience: All Ages

Book: Prayers for Beginners by Peter Kreeft

The Young Adult Book Club will meet (more or less) every 4th Thursday of each month. BYOB and pot-luck snacks to share. Enter the Rectory through the entrance on Wabash Avenue. All ages welcome.

Second Friday Supper at Catholic Charities
Friday, July 12th at 3:30pm

Audience: All Ages

Celebrate the 4th of July with fellow young adults from Holy Name Cathedral as we serve supper and share smiles with those in need! Meet at Catholic Charities at 721 N. LaSalle Street at 3:30 PM, but if you are not available until later, there will still be many great opportunities to share happiness with the friends whom we are serving. No experience is necessary, only an interest in brightening the day of our 130 guests, and others too.

2019 Theology on Tap in the Club Room & Courtyard
Beginning Sunday, July 14th at 6:30pm

Weekend Parking at the Cathedral

Thank you to everyone for your cooperation as we transitioned from our old parking lot to the new approach. As it turns out, we have plenty of room in the Loyola University Self-Park Lot so we will be making this our primary lot every weekend. If it is full, the Security guards will give you information on alternative parking lots. The Loyola Lot is located at 20 W. Chicago Avenue, on the north side between State and Dearborn. We appreciate your cooperation.
