Archdiocese of Chicago

Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

We are very happy to announce that the Faith Community of Holy Name Cathedral is about to embark on a Strategic Planning Process which will culminate in a Vision 2025 plan. We have engaged professional consultants who will begin working with us this month to help develop our unique and long-term vision for the future.

Holy Name Cathedral holds a very special place in the hearts of Catholics here at the parish and throughout the Archdiocese, and serves as a revered place of prayer, worship, history and architecture for the overall Chicago community and its thousands of visitors.

This Strategic Planning Process will take many months to formulate and some years to implement. I have asked Cheri McEssy, one of our very active parishioners, to Chair the Strategic Planning Board. We are also seeking the support of professional consultants, our core committee, Holy Name Cathedral Staff, lay leaders and all of you. It is a necessary and exciting process to ensure the growth of Holy Name Cathedral as a parish and as the seat of the Cardinal and the Archdiocese. Cardinal Cupich support us in our planning for a successful and expanding future for our Faith Community, and ultimately growing as a beacon for the many Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago.

We are going to need your help to be successful. Some of you will be asked to be part of a focus group and some may be asked to join sub-committees. All of you will be asked to complete at least one survey. It will be an inclusive and transparent process that will engage all of you about your insights on what you want, need and should be able to expect from Holy Name Cathedral.

What we most need from all of you are your prayers and open mindedness to ensure a fruitful journey. Strategic Planning is a time-consuming process that is intended to challenge the status quo; it will make us re-think the way we do things and push us to think outside of the box. It is about mission rooted in Jesus Christ. This can be a rewarding yet challenging road, and we will need your prayers to support all the efforts being made to create the future vision of Holy Name Cathedral together.

Please watch for the first survey, which will arrive in the next four weeks, and take a few minutes to answer the questions. It is important that we get as much information as possible to make this truly work.

Full steam ahead! May God bless all of you and summer is almost upon us!

With profound gratitude,

Fr. Greg

P.S. Our final Easter collection totaled $129,410 this year. I truly thank you for your tremendous generosity. God has blessed me through all of you. May all of us together help love this world back into life.

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord

Bill Babcock

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Malcom Archer

Gracious Spirit, Holy Ghost, taught by thee, we covet most of thy gifts at Pentecost, holy heavenly love. Love is kind and suffers long, love is meek and seeks no wrong, love than death itself more strong; therefore give us love. Faith and hope and love we see joining hand in hand agree; but the greatest of the three, and the best, is love. From the overshadowing of thy gold and silver wing shed on us, who to thee sing, holy heavenly love.

TRANSLATION When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place, saying: alleluia. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, alleluia, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting, alleluia. When therefore the disciples were gathered together in one for fear of the Jews, a sound from heaven came upon them, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting, alleluia.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment.

JUNE - MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART

Since the 16th century Catholic piety has assigned entire months to special devotions. The month of June is set apart for devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. "From among all the proofs of the infinite goodness of our Savior none stands out more prominently than the fact that, as the love of the faithful grew cold, He, Divine Love Itself, gave Himself to us to be honored by a very special devotion and that the rich treasury of the Church was thrown wide open in the interests of that devotion." These words of Pope Pius XI refer to the Sacred Heart Devotion, which in its present form dates from the revelations given to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673-75.

The devotion consists in the divine worship of the human heart of Christ, which is united to His divinity and which is a symbol of His love for us. The aim of the devotion is to make our Lord king over our hearts by prompting them to return love to Him (especially through an act of consecration by which we offer to the Heart of Jesus both ourselves and all that belongs to us) and to make reparation for our ingratitude to God.

VOTIVE CANDLE LIGHTS

For ages, the Catholic faithful follow the custom of lighting candles at churches and shrines as a glorious form of prayer and remembrance. The light from the candle's flame is a powerful symbol of Christ, the Light of the World. Consider lighting a candle for your loved ones during this time or for a special intention.

BOOST YOUR BELIEFS: Reflection

Lisa Wagner-Carollo's portrayal of Dorothy Day captured the human struggle to follow God in our daily lives. In Day's early life as a communist and single mother, she eventually sought a spiritual compass in Peter Maurin who led her to the Catholic faith. Together, they began the Catholic worker movement. The play was a wonderful summit for the series: Tearing Down the Silos: A Year of Solidarity.

Weekend Parking at the Cathedral

Thank you to everyone for your cooperation as we transitioned from our old parking lot to the new approach. As it turns out, we have plenty of room in the Loyola University Self-Park Lot so we will be making this our primary lot every weekend. If it is full, the Security guards will give you information on alternative parking lots. The Loyola Lot is located at 20 W. Chicago Avenue, on the north side between State and Dearborn. We appreciate your cooperation.
