Message from the Rector

Balance the Budget Thank You!

Dear People of God,

To those who have already responded so generously to our Balance the Budget Appeal, may I extend my heartfelt thank you. Because of your great generosity we are closing the gap on our $120,000 deficit for this year. To date we have received $92,995 toward our goal. Thank you very much!

To those who have yet to contribute and still want to be a partner in this effort there are envelopes in the back of the Cathedral or you can make your contribution on our website at <https://holynamecathedral.org/give> and scroll down to destination donations drop down form and click on 'Balance the Budget'.

The Balance the Budget Appeal will end on July 30th. I will then report back to you in my bulletin article our final total of donations to this effort and the impact on our final budget shortfall.

God bless you for your generosity. It is a joy and privilege serving as your Rector. My prayers are with you and continued summer blessings.

With profound gratitude,
Fr. Greg

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord

Gerda Joseph

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

Make Me A Channel of Your Peace

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Chorus:
Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

LECTORS

Proclaimers of the Word of God

The Lector is a proclaimer of the Word of God, and also a minister of hospitality by extending a welcome as a commentator to those gathered for worship. Our goal at Holy Name Cathedral is that hearing the Word of God proclaimed by our Lectors will open wide the doors to Christ for the faithful because of the love of scripture that stems from their ministry.

To become a Lector, you need to be a Catholic in good standing having received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation), be at least age 16 or older, be a parishioner and have a desire to share your faith and an encounter with Christ through the words of scripture.

Contact Barbara Ramberg, Lector Coordinator, at barbararamberg@gmail.com or Father Marek Smolka, Director of Liturgy, mamolka@holynanamecathedral.org

The next Lector training will take place on Sunday, August 11, 18, 25 at 3:30 PM
Thursday, August 15, 22 at 6:00 PM

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What does it take for me to help someone in need? How can I imitate the good Samaritan?

VOTIVE CANDLE LIGHTS

For ages, the Catholic faithful follow the custom of lighting candles at churches and shrines as a glorious form of prayer and remembrance. The light from the candle's flame is a powerful symbol of Christ, the Light of the World. Consider lighting a candle for your loved ones during this time or for a special intention.

LITURGY WELCOMES YOU

Consider becoming a:

- ⇒ Lector
- ⇒ Eucharistic Minister
- ⇒ Usher
- ⇒ Altar Server
- ⇒ Docent

Please contact Fr. Marek Smolka, Director of Liturgy at mamolka@holynanamecathedral.org or Michelle M. Peltier, Director of Liturgical Services & Special Events at mpeliter@holynanamecathedral.org

RCIA UPDATE

If you attend the 9:30 Sunday Mass, you are accustomed to the dismissal of RCIA participants after the Easter Season. This is the result of the year-round catechumenate, allowing us to welcome adults discerning the Catholic Faith at the moment of inquiry. Thus, we are preparing to receive six adults, baptized in other Christian traditions, and six baptized Catholics seeking Confirmation and First Eucharist, on Sunday, July 28, at the 12:30 Mass.

In addition, we are meeting with adults from other religions or no religious affiliation on a one-on-one basis as they explore the possibility of beginning the journey. Meanwhile, other baptized Christians are inquiring more about the Catholic Church.

If you know someone who shows interest in our Catholic tradition, encourage him/her to contact Dr. Ken Ortega at kortega@holynamcathedral.org Please pray for our ministry!

EXPLORING A NEW MINISTRY FOR FAMILY CAREGIVERS

Being the patient is hard, but there are often many family members, friends, medical staff, church and community members to support the patient's journey. Often forgotten is the incredible role the caregiver plays in support of the patient. The caregiver is often thrust in without warning, assuming new responsibilities with endless decisions, family dynamics, stress, personal time lost, finances to manage, and a frequently lonely lifestyle.

We are exploring a new ministry for Holy Name Cathedral, focusing on the needs of family caregivers. Have you been, or are you currently a caregiver? Do you have friends who are caregivers, and you want to help but don't know how? We are seeking parishioner input on how we can best serve our parish as we explore the needs for this new ministry.

If you would like to give us input or would be interested in actively helping us to form this ministry, we welcome your participation – no commitment required! Just email Lori Doyle at ldoyle@holynamcathedral.org to be included in our work this summer. Thank you!

NOW VENERABLE
FR. AUGUSTUS TOLTON

This new title given to Fr. Gus is an important next step in his canonization process. The Archdiocese of Chicago completed a lengthy investigation, documenting his holiness. This evidence was sent to the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints and the Roman phase began. After an examination of the diocesan documents, the Congregation's theologians were convinced, and then the Cardinal and bishop members of the Congregation also found the documentation favorable. It was then sent to Pope Francis. On Tuesday, June 11th, Pope Francis issued a decree recognizing the 'heroic virtue' of Fr. Gus and now assigned the title 'Venerable' to him.

What was there about this First African American priest in the United States and in Chicago that he lived 'the cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude and temperance at a heroic level'? Join our Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton for our July 21st meeting at 12:00 p.m. in the Rectory as we once again tell the story of Fr. Gus, from slave to sainthood.

COFFEE IN THE COURTYARD THIS SUNDAY!

To learn more about the program visit: www.chicagoshares.org

HOLY NAME CATHEDRAL CRUCIFIXES

Perhaps the most striking feature of the Cathedral, the Resurrection Crucifix, created by artist Ivo Demetz, in 1969, is a powerful interpretation of this universal sign of Christianity. The wooden Cross depicts Christ as he is today and always - not a figure in agony, but the risen and triumphant Lord who died for our salvation.

You can own an 8 inch replica to display in your home or give as gifts. Donation is $20.00 each.

PRESENTATION ON MICHELANGELO

Join the Parish Life Commission as we learn about Michelangelo and the Sistine Chapel from University of Chicago historian, Daniele Macuglia on July 25, in the Club Room from 6:00 to 8:00p.m. During the lecture, you will learn about foods consumed during Michelangelo’s time and experience a menu inspired by recipes from the Renaissance period.

Attendees will enjoy fresh fruit and cheeses during the lecture which will start at 6:00p.m. Dinner will follow the lecture and include:

Riso alla Lombarda- Lombardian-Style Rice prepared with sausage, eggs, butter and flavored with cinnamon and parmesan cheese.

Torta di Zucche -a puff pastry with pumpkin.

Humor from the Rector

“Wouldn’t it be great if we could put ourselves in the dryer for ten minutes and come out wrinkle free and two sizes smaller!”

Weekend Parking at the Cathedral

Thank you to everyone for your cooperation as we transitioned from our old parking lot to the new approach. As it turns out, we have plenty of room in the Loyola University Self-Park Lot so we will be making this our primary lot every weekend. If it is full, the Security guards will give you information on alternative parking lots. The Loyola Lot is located at 20 W. Chicago Avenue, on the north side between State and Dearborn. We appreciate your cooperation.
