Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

We are known by our stories—and stories have a way of connecting the mystery of God with our lives. Read the following two stories and remember Jesus is present through us in our individual stories. Our actions do speak volumes!

STORY NUMBER ONE

Many years ago, Al Capone virtually owned Chicago. Capone wasn't famous for anything heroic. He was notorious for enmeshing the Windy City in everything from bootlegged booze and prostitution to murder. Capone had a lawyer nicknamed "Easy Eddie." He was his lawyer for a good reason. Eddie was very good! In fact, Eddie's skills at legal maneuvering kept Big Al out of jail for a long time. To show his appreciation, Capone paid him very well. Not only was the money big, but also Eddie got special dividends. For instance, he and his family occupied a fenced-in mansion with live-in help and all of the conveniences of the day. The estate was so large that it filled an entire Chicago city block. So, Eddie lived the high life of the Chicago mob and tried to ignore the atrocity that went on around him. Eddie did have one soft spot, however. He had a son that he loved dearly. Eddie saw to it that his young son had the best of everything: clothes, cars and a good education. Nothing was withheld. Price was no object. And, despite his involvement with organized crime, Eddie even tried to teach him right from wrong. Eddie wanted his son to be a better man than he was. Yet, with all his wealth and influence, there were two things he couldn't give his son; he couldn't pass on a good name and a good example. One day, Easy Eddie reached a difficult decision. He wanted to rectify wrongs he had done. He decided he would go to the authorities and tell the truth about Al "Scarface" Capone, clean up his tarnished name and offer his son semblance of integrity. To do this, he would have to testify against the mob, and he knew that the cost would be great. He testified and within a year, his life ended in a blaze of gunfire on a lonely Chicago street. But in his eyes, he had given his son the greatest gift he had to offer; at the greatest price he would ever pay.

STORY NUMBER TWO

World War II produced many heroes. One such man was Lieutenant Commander Butch O'Hare. He was a fighter pilot assigned to the aircraft carrier Lexington in the South Pacific. One day his entire squadron was sent on a mission. After he was airborne, Butch looked at his fuel gauge and realized that someone had forgotten to top off his fuel tank. He would not have enough fuel to complete his mission and get back to his ship. His flight leader told him to return to the carrier. Reluctantly, he dropped out of formation and headed back to the fleet. As he was returning to the mother ship he saw something that turned his blood cold. A squadron of Japanese aircraft were speeding their way toward the American fleet. The American fighters were gone on a sortie, and the fleet was all but defenseless. He couldn't reach his squadron and bring them back in time to save the fleet. Nor could he warn the fleet about the approaching danger. There was only one thing to do. He must somehow divert them from the fleet. Laying aside all thoughts of personal safety, he dove into the formation of Japanese planes. Wing mounted 50 calibers blazed as he charged in, attacking one surprised enemy plane and then another. Butch wove in and out of the now broken formation and fired at as many planes as possible until all his ammunition was finally spent. Undaunted, he continued to assault. He dove at the planes, trying to clip a wing or tail in hopes of damaging as many enemy planes as possible and rendering them unfit to fly.

Finally, the exasperated Japanese squadron took off in another direction. Deeply relieved, Butch O'Hare and his tattered fighter limped back to the carrier. Upon arrival he reported in and related the event surrounding his return. The film from the gun camera mounted on his plane told the tale. It showed the extent of Butch's daring attempt to protect his fleet. He had in fact destroyed five enemy aircraft. This took place on February 20, 1942, and for the action Butch became the Navy's first Ace of WWII and the first Naval aviator to win the Congressional Medal of Honor. A year later Butch was killed in aerial combat at the age of 29. His hometown would not allow the memory of this WWII hero to fade, and today, O'Hare International Airport in Chicago is named in tribute to the courage of this man. So the next time you find yourself at O'Hare International, give some thought to visiting Butch's memorial displaying his statue and his Medal of Honor. It's located between terminals 1 and 2.

So what do these two stories have to do with each other?

Butch O'Hare was Easy Eddie's son.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Greg

Pope Francis is inviting Catholics throughout the world to pray the rosary every day to ask St. Michael the Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who is always trying to separate us from God and from each other. The prayer to St. Michael was composed by Pope Leo XIII.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Grandparents are a delightful blend of laughter,
caring deeds,
wonderful stories
and love.

Do you want others to pray for you and your intentions?

There are over 70 Ministers of Praise in our parish who pray for the intentions of those who request prayers. Our Prayer Request line is 312-573-4493 and is available 24 hours a day. We will add our prayers to yours.

We are looking for new committee members to help collect prayers and design the materials for our monthly mailings to our Ministers of Praise. Want to help? Email Lori Doyle at ldoyle@holynamecathedral.org

POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING FOR GRANDPARENTS

God of Abraham and Sarah, grandfather and grandmother in the faith
God of all generations:
We thank you today for those who are grandparents.
We especially thank you for those who are grandparents to us - those who are grandparents by blood relationships, and those unrelated but older than we who generously share their love and wisdom,
their time and traditions
so that we have roots, stories, and hope.
We bless you for the gift of grandparents,
and we ask your blessing on them,
that their days may be filled with delight in their grandchildren.
May their giving and grace toward younger generations bring fulfillment to them and may they be a blessing to all they love and call grandchildren, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

VOTIVE CANDLE LIGHTS

For ages, the Catholic faithful follow the custom of lighting candles at churches and shrines as a glorious form of prayer and remembrance. The light from the candle's flame is a powerful symbol of Christ, the Light of the World. Consider lighting a candle for your loved ones during this time or for a special intention.

MEET MR. PETER HARLEY

Hello! My name is Peter Harley and am excited to serve as the Director of Children's Faith Formation. I was born and raised in New York City's Lower Manhattan, near Chinatown and Wall Street. I was active in my home parish of Saint Andrew. After graduating from Manhattan College with a B.A. in Business, I obtained a teaching position at my alma mater, La Salle Academy High School. I also began taking classes at Pace University for a M.S. in Teaching. I eventually went on to teach in New York City Public Schools.

I entered the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament in September 2007 as a novice and moved to Chicago in 2009 to study at the Catholic Theological Union as a professed Religious Brother. I was assigned to the parish in the McKinley Park neighborhood. After prayer and discernment, I decided to leave the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament in May 2013 and returned to New York City to care for my elderly father.

I obtained a Director of Faith Formation position in Hoboken, New Jersey. It was a perfect fit for me since I was able to resume parish ministry as a lay person.

Eventually, I moved back to Chicago. I met my wife, Alison, here in Chicago, and we were married in January 2019.

I am thrilled to be back in parish ministry to share my gifts of education and faith formation with this community. I am looking forward to meeting the students, parents, and catechists of the program!

RCIA RECONVENES

The process of becoming a Catholic reconvenes on Sunday, September 8. We will begin in the clubroom at 9:30 a.m. to reconnect, meet new sojourners, and explain events for the upcoming months.

If you, or someone you know, wishes to complete Sacraments of Initiation, or consider becoming Catholic, contact Dr. Ken Ortega, kortega@holynamecathedral.org.

SAVE THE DATE:

CATECHIST NEEDED

What a great response to the call for catechists. There is still a need for:

- Grade 1 one catechist; one assistant
- Grade 2 two assistants
- Grade 3-6 one assistant

Most classes average 6–10 students, Sunday mornings. Consider ministering to the future Catholic generation. Please note that all adults must participate in a workshop, Protecting God's Children.
