Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

It is hard to believe we have one week left in January! As a child, I truly enjoyed heavy snowfalls and cold temperatures. I loved playing tackle football in the snow and coming home to Mom's hot chocolate and plenty of cookies! Life and attitudes change! The beauty of snow gently falling still captures my heart—until I turn the car key in the ignition! Chicago winter driving is tough, exhausting and somewhat challenging.

With January almost over, we all need to laugh some and put life in perspective. God is good, loving and present—despite frigid temperatures! Let us give thanks to God as we begin a small window of Ordinary Time before the start of our Lenten journey on February 26.

Enjoy the following . . . pass it on. . . and remember baseball starts in approximately 65 days!

Christian One Liners

- Don't let your worries get the best of you; remember, Moses started out as a basket case.
- Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited until you try to sit in their pew.
- Many folks want to serve God, but only as advisers.
- It is easier to preach ten homilies than it is to live one.
- When you get to your wit's end, you'll find God lives there.
- People are funny; they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church.
- Opportunity may knock once, but temptation bangs on your front door forever.
- Quit griping about your church; if it was perfect, you couldn't belong.
- If the church wants a better pastor, it only needs to pray for the one it has.
- God Himself does not propose to judge a person until he is dead. So why should you?
- Some minds are life concrete—thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.
- I don't know why some people change churches; what difference does it make which one you stay home from?
- We are called to be witnesses, not lawyers or judges.
- Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.
- Don't put a question mark where God puts a period.
- Forbidden fruits create many jams.
- God doesn't call the qualified, he qualifies the called.
- God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage.
- He who angers you, controls you!
- If God is your co-pilot, swap seats!
- Don't give God instructions—just report for duty!
- The task ahead of us is never as great as the power behind us.
- The Will of God never takes you to where the Grace of God will not keep you.
- We don't change the message, the message changes us.
- You can tell how big a person is by what it takes to discourage him.
- The best mathematical equation I have ever seen: 1 cross + 3 nails = 4 given.

Walking with you,
Fr. Greg

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR PEACE

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Sign of Peace & Communion from the Cup During Cold & Flu Season:

As we enter this cold and flu season, it is important to recognize that some people are especially susceptible to the viruses that can be spread by contact and that some immune systems are very sensitive. Please understand that some people may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace, but might simply greet you with a smile. If you do decide to come to church for Mass, please remember that frequent and thorough hand washing, refraining from physical contact during the Sign of Peace, and refraining from receiving communion from the Chalice can help prevent the spread of germs.

SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

HOLY NAME CATHEDRAL CRUCIFIXES

Perhaps the most striking feature of the Cathedral, the Resurrection Crucifix, created by artist Ivo Demetz, in 1969, is a powerful interpretation of this universal sign of Christianity. The wooden Cross depicts Christ as he is today and always - not a figure in agony, but the risen and triumphant Lord who died for our salvation.

You can own an 8 inch replica to display in your home or give as gifts. Donation is $20.00 each and can be purchased in the Rectory office.

If you would like to purchase more than three at one time, please contact Dawn Swanson at 312-573-4401 or dswanson@holynamecathedral.org
