Message from the Rector

Dear People of God,

Our Lenten Season begins Wednesday with the marking of ashes. Many may say, “Here we go again! Another Lent!” Yet, our Lenten journey may best be captured by the TV commercial message some years ago — “Don’t judge too quickly.” Lent is a time of repentance, conversion and stepping back from one’s life to look at the view. Lent can also be understood in terms of living life fully one day at a time. The following powerful story sees our Lenten Season through a different lens.

Several years ago, at the Seattle Special Olympics, nine contestants, all physically or mentally challenged, assembled at the starting line for the 100-yard dash. At the gun, they all started out, not exactly in a dash, but with a relish to run the race to the finish and win.

All, that is, except one little boy who stumbled on the asphalt, tumbled over a couple of times and began to cry. The other eight heard the boy cry. They slowed down and looked back. Then they all turned around and went back . . . every one of them.

One girl with Downs Syndrome bent down, kissed him and said, “This will make it better.” Then all nine linked arms and walked together to the finish line. Everyone in the stadium stood, and the cheering went on for several minutes. People who were there are still telling the story.

Why?

Because deep down we know this one thing: What matters in this life is more than winning for ourselves. What matters in this life is helping others win, even if it means slowing down and changing our course.

Our Lenten journey certainly has an individual component, but Lent also involves a communal aspect. We are not islands. The Lord Jesus continually gathered people together and formed community. We are certainly challenged this Holy Season to reform our lives and turn away from sin. However, we can’t forget about caring and serving one another in the name of the Lord. Remember— “a candle loses nothing by lighting another candle.”

At the same time, our Lenten journey is an opportunity to profoundly grasp through faith we don’t walk alone . . . Keep reading

Do you know the legend of the Cherokee Indian youth’s Rite of Passage? His father takes him into the forest, blindfolds him and leaves him alone. He is required to sit on a stump the whole night and not remove the blindfold until the rays of the morning sun shine through it. He cannot cry out for help to anyone. Once he survives the night, he is a MAN. He cannot tell the other boys of this experience, because each lad must come into manhood on his own. The boy is naturally terrified. He can hear all kinds of noises. Wild beasts must surely be all around him. Maybe even some human might do him harm. The wind blew the grass and earth, and shook his stump, but he sat stoically, never removing the blindfold. It would be the only way he could become a man! Finally, after a horrific night, the sun appeared and he removed his blindfold. It was then that he discovered his father sitting on the stump next to him. He had been at watch the entire night, protecting his son from harm. We, too, are never alone. Even when we don’t know it, God is watching over us, sitting on the stump beside us. When trouble comes, all we have to do is reach out to Him. Moral of the story: Just because you can’t see God, doesn’t mean He is not there. “For we walk by faith, not by sight.”

And the last line of Les Miserables also beautifully proclaims: “To love another person is to see the face of God.”

Lent is an opportunity to start over—repent—and be all we can possibly be—with the help of God. And always remember—God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage. If God brings you to it, God will bring you through it.

“Don’t judge too quickly” this Lent. Give the Lenten Season a chance to touch you through God, who bends to touch each one of us with profound love, mercy and forgiveness and challenges us to care for one another.

On the Lenten road with you,
Fr. Greg

Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them, O Lord

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR PEACE

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Sign of Peace & Communion from the Cup During Cold & Flu Season:

As we enter this cold and flu season, it is important to recognize that some people are especially susceptible to the viruses that can be spread by contact and that some immune systems are very sensitive. Please understand that some people may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace, but might simply greet you with a smile. If you do decide to come to church for Mass, please remember that frequent and thorough hand washing, refraining from physical contact during the Sign of Peace, and refraining from receiving communion from the Chalice can help prevent the spread of germs.

FOOLISHNESS

Sometimes the idea of repentance seems old-fashioned, naïve, even foolish. But if you're looking for real foolishness, you'll find it in today's readings.

We begin with Leviticus and the admonition, "Take no revenge and cherish no grudge" (Leviticus 19:18). We've heard that message before, of course, so we might forget how far it is from the so-called "practical realities of life." Saint Paul warns us about being practical, though. Whoever considers oneself wise had better "become a fool," because "the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God" (1 Corinthians 3:18, 19).

This "foolishness" continues in the Gospel: "Offer no resistance to one who is evil" (Matthew 5:39). In fact, offer the other cheek when you've been slapped. Hand over your coat as well as your shirt. Be like God, who sends sunshine and rain on the bad as well as the good. "So be perfect," says Jesus, "just as your heavenly Father is perfect" (5:48).

ASH WEDNESDAY

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving: these disciplines, prescribed by Jesus himself in the Sermon on the Mount, along with strict instructions not to flaunt them in public to win recognition and praise (Matthew 6:1-18), have been embraced by all the saints at the beginning of every Lent for almost two thousand years. But mention Lent, and many react with a grimace or slight shudder—even now, years after official obligations have been reduced to a minimum! No wonder the Eastern Rite's "Lenten Announcement" sounds surprising: "Let us receive with joy, O faithful people, the divinely inspired announcement of Lent! The Lenten Spring shines forth! Begin the fast with joy! Let us fast from passions as well as food, taking pleasure in the good works of the Spirit, and accomplishing them in love!" Saint John Chrysostom, whose feast is September 13, elaborates: "Do you fast? Give proof by your works. If you see a poor person, take pity. An enemy, be reconciled. A friend gaining honor, don't be jealous." A positive approach! May the saints help us keep such a Lent! —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

HOLY NAME CATHEDRAL CRUCIFIXES

Perhaps the most striking feature of the Cathedral, the Resurrection Crucifix, created by artist Ivo Demetz, in 1969, is a powerful interpretation of this universal sign of Christianity. The wooden Cross depicts Christ as he is today and always - not a figure in agony, but the risen and triumphant Lord who died for our salvation.

You can own an 8 inch replica to display in your home or give as gifts. Donation is $20.00 each and can be purchased in the Rector's office.

If you would like to purchase more than three at one time, please contact Dawn Swanson at 312-573-4401 or dswanson@holynamcathedral.org

Who am I? Where am I going? How am I living my life?

As you begin your Lenten journey this season, please join us for our four-week series for young adults sharing their faith. During these conversations, small groups will share each other's experiences about where God is in our lives and reflect on where God is calling us. Each week will have a theme that helps guide our conversations. We look forward to you joining us in this NEW series!

RSVP at youngadults@holynamecathedral.org.
